Sir

In reply to the attached communication relative to the application to the Mayor, through their Attorney, Rollins M Morgan, of the Marlborough Athletic Club, for a license to give Athletic performance or exhibitions at their quarters, 1684 Broadway, I would state that after a personal investigation relative thereto, I find that the incorporators of said Club, Robert L Andrews ^{and} others, are all residents of this State, ^{and} of good moral character. They have leased the premises No 1684 Broadway, for the term of one year next ensuing, for the purposes mentioned in their application, and the building has been inspected by the Building Dept ^{and} found to be in safe condition for that purpose. I have personally inspected the building ^{and} have examined the lease ^{and} building inspection card, ^{and} found all correct. There is no liquor sold on the premises ^{and} no connection with any place where liquor is sold

The club intends to apply only for such license as will permit them to give Sparring ^{and} other athletic entertainments in compliance with Sec. 458 of Penal Code as amended, said sparring to be with five ounce gloves, for scientific points only, a purse of money to be given to winner ^{and} loser.

Believing, from what I have ascertained as a result of investigation, that it is the honest intention of incorporators of the aforesaid Marlborough Athletic Club to conduct their entertainments in strict conformity to the law ^{and} without offense to the community I fail to see any reasonable objection to the granting of the said license applied for.

Respectfully

Sir, I hereby inform you of the fact that the restrictions which you place upon the receiver of a License to give Concerts of Vocal and Instrumental music in places commonly called Concert Saloons, has been violated within this Precinct, as follows.

At 10⁴⁵ P.M. ^{Dec 17th 1896} Patrolman Louis Neusching and Edward Schultz of my command, while seated at a table in the Licensed Concert Saloon No 167 Chrystie St, owned by Charles Krumm, and known as the "Kuenstler Hall", did see two of the female performers attached to the place, after singing a song on the Stage, together mingle with the Audience and partake of one drink of Seltzer water each at the expense of one of the Auditors.

At 11²⁰ P.M. Dec. 17th 1896, in company with Detective Morris Cohen of my command I visited the above premises, and there saw the proprietor, Charles Krumm, who did permit and allow a female in Theatrical

Sir

I hereby inform you of the fact, that one of the restrictions which you place upon the receiver of a License to give Concerts of Vocal and Instrumental music in places commonly called Concert Saloons, has been violated within this Precinct as follows

At 11 P.M. Dec. 18th 1896, Patrolman Martin F. Hamman of my command, while seated at a table on the balcony, in the Licensed Concert Saloon N^o 55 Bowery, owned by Solomon Wechselman, and managed by Ignatz Lombossy, both of N^o 55 Bowery, did see a female sing and dance in Theatrical costume on the stage, and when through with her performance, did approach the Officer, and seated herself at the ^{same} table beside him. She inquired of the Officer did he wish to drink anything, he replied yes and ordered and was served with, by a waiter, two Bottles of Lager Beer for which he was charged .30 cents, she drank the contents of one of the bottles and the Officer drank the contents of the other. She then inquired of the Officer - did he wish to have a good time.

the Officer replied yes, she then stated to the Officer, we will go into the private box (which is a portion of the balcony with a heavy curtain suspended, which separates the so called private box from the rest of the balcony) as she and the Officer were about to go, the waiter passed a signal to the woman which caused her to say to the Officer, excuse me until I return. She then went into the private box, followed by the waiter. The Officer remained seated at the table until 12⁰⁰ P.M. then, she not returning, he left.

At 11¹⁵ P.M. Dec 18th 1896, Patrolman Martin F. Hannan while seated at a table in the balcony of the Licensed Concert Saloon N^o 55 Bowery, did see a female sing two songs, on the stage and when through, did mingle with the audience and seat herself at a table, where there was a man seated and partake of one bottle of beer at the mans expense

At 11³⁰ P.M. same date, another female, sang and danced on the stage and when through did mingle with the audience and seat herself at a table, where there was a man seated and partake of a bottle of beer at the mans expense

New York, January 16, 1897

Having received a list containing 114 names of property owners said to be in favor of a roof garden at 101st St. & Columbus Avenue, with a request to investigate and report to Good Government Club^B as to the nature of the property and vocations of the owners represented on that list, I hereby tender the following report:

Firstly: No property on my list, and mentioned in the petition, is located less than two blocks from the premises in question.

Secondly: No owner of any property on said list resides upon the premises he has signed for.

Thirdly: As to the character of the property represented, it consists of vacant lots, coal yards, old-fashioned avenue tenements, the cheaper grade of flats and some flat-houses in course of construction and still in the hands of speculative builders. Not a single private house, nor any higher grade apartment-house is represented.

Fourthly: Having looked into the alleged ownerships as much as time would permit, I find the vocation of the subscribers to be as follows:

Builders 6, Real Estate Dealers, 3, Liquor dealers 1, Coal dealers 1, Private individuals 3; two of the builders mentioned hold no title whatever to the property they signed for, one owner withdrew his signature at once, as his clerk had signed without authority, and another, a very estimable old gentleman, said he was very sorry he had signed, but did it to oblige a friend, and would like to have his name taken off the list if it could be done. This reduces the number of owners to ten, chiefly builders and speculators, who have no permanent interest in the moral welfare of this section of the city,
but who, on account of being more or less allied in business transactions with the petitioner - he being a builder himself - would naturally lend him a helping hand to carry his point.

All of which is respectfully

In reply to your inquiry relative to premises
No 196 Grand Street. I have the honor to submit the following report:

I made a personal and careful examination of the saloon and found it situated on the north side of Grand St. between Mott and Mulberry Sts.
the front of which building is used as the barroom
and adjoining this is a rear room with a table used as a dining room, in the yard is a shed extending from the back of building to the rear of lot about 60 feet. in this there are seven tables to accommodate four persons each the place is clean, and is frequented by the better class of Male and Female Italians

I have the honor to report that on Tuesday February 2^d 1897, I detailed Patrolmen Thomas Ryan and Charles A. Brickwedel who are attached to my Office to visit the Concert Saloon located at No 55 Borey, owned by Solomon Wechsleman and managed by Max or Ignatz Gombossy, and ascertain if the Law was being violated in any manner in said place.

I herewith transmit their report which is as follows:

At 10.15 P.M. Feb 2^d 1897 Patrolmen Thomas Ryan and Charles A. Brickwedel went into the Columbia Music Palace at No 55 Borey and went up stairs in the Balcony, they sat down at a table, a woman named Vera Glynn, came to them and sat at the same table and asked them to treat her, which they did: she drank a bottle of Beer, Officer Thomas Ryan had beer and Officer Charles A. Brickwedel had Sarsaparilla for which they paid 35 cents, the beer was served by a waiter who had no badge on. and at the same time a woman called Mabel Blake came up and sat down and asked if she was not in it too. Officer Charles A. Brickwedel replied that one was enough, so she got up and went away.

Officer Ryan then treated to the same drinks.

Officer Brickwedel then asked if she ever went on the stage in tights, she said no, but she would like to, and said she has got a leg good enough, and pulled up her clothes above her knees, she put one of her legs across Officer Ryan's lap which he pushed off with his hand, she then left saying she had to do her turn on the stage and would return immediately.

After she sang two songs on the stage she returned and sat with the Officers at the same table with her stage costume underneath her street dress.

Officer Brickwedel then treated and she drank a bottle of beer for which said officer paid 25 Cents.

Police Department of the City of New York,

They also report that they saw two female performers, after performing on the stage, sit with two men at a table, and drink bottled beer, one of the females smoking a cigarette, and at 11 P.M. when the Officers were about leaving, this woman that sat with them asked them to meet her after 12.30 A.M. and she would go to a Hotel with them.

This is an application made by the Cosmopolitan Athletic Club, a duly incorporated athletic association, for a license permitting it to give boxing exhibitions.

The club has been incorporated by Hon. Abraham R. Lawrence, one of the Justices of the Supreme Court, and its incorporators are reputable citizens.

The building where the exhibitions are to be given is situated on the Southerly side of 155th Street near Bradhurst Avenue in this City.

The report of the building department shows that the building is a proper one for the purposes for which it is sought to be used.

The only objection interposed by the Police Department is that there is another club in the precinct. No pretense is made that the exhibitions give rise to disorder.

The neighborhood in questions is uninhabited, situated at the terminus of the Elevated Railroad, and is better adapted for exhibitions of this order, than a thickly populated ^{one} ~~neighborhood~~, which is evident from the fact that no complaints have been made against the other club in the precinct.

"FATTY" GROTE'S LAMENT.

Disgusted with the Mayor's Treatment, He Will Join Tammany and "Bust" Reform.

"Fatty" Grote was in an indignant frame of mind last night. He declared that Mayor or Strong had "thrun him down."

"I spent my time and money," said Mr.
Grote, "to put reformers in office. Now I'm done with 'em. I'm going to join Tammany Hall and get even."

"What d' ye think? I asked the old guy down in the City Hall to gi' me a license
for my place, and he says, says he, 'Mr.
Grote, your place has had a bad name.'
Says I: 'You don't think it's got it now, do ye.' He says: 'Well, I'm not givin' any new licenses; that ends it.'"

"So the old guy gives it to me 'n the neck. I'm goin' to git square. Tammany wont thrun a friend down like that. I told Strong I'd be 'busted' if he didn't help me.
He's goin' to let me 'bust.' I'll 'bust' reform, you bet."

Hon. William L. Strong,
Mayor, City of New York.

Dear Sir:-

In answer to yours of February 15th, in re license to give athletic performances at premises located at 42nd Street, known as #207 and #211, entitled the Arena Athletic Club, would say that as the provisions of the law have not been complied with, as yet, I cannot therefore approve of granting license until the law has been complied with.

A representative of said club called at this office this week and promised that immediate action would be taken and that the architect would be sent here to give attention to same. As yet, this has not been done.

Yours respectfully,

Stevenson Constable
