The People
v.
Abraham Eisenberg
Indictment for burglary in the third degree, grand larceny and receiving stolen goods.

Court of General Sessions - Part I
Before Judge Martine. April 28, 1891.
Merry Hecht, sworn and examined, testified.
I live 210 Delancey street. I am a tailor and my place of business is at No. 118 Ridge St.
New York. I saw the defendant at the Police Court, but never before. My place was broken into Tuesday night, I guess it was on the 14th of April.
I had a number of coats there and I lost four coats. The coat now shown me is one of them which was in my house on the day mentioned.
The value of the four coats which I missed was fifty dollars. A window was broken. I had two boards on it and they were tore off. I came to my shop at six o'clock in the morning and missed my goods, and that was the time I discovered that the window was broke. I did not lock the door the night before, but my son-in-law locked it. I went with the officer in the pawn broker's shop - Mr. Wolff's and Mr. Merbach's. Mr. Wolff's is in Grand Street. I guess between Attorney and Clinton Sts. I saw one coat at Wolff's which was pawned already and Mr. Merbach sent a boy to Mr. Wolff
to tell him that this fellow (the defendant) was coming in there to pawn it. I went there to Mr. Merbach's and saw the other coat, the defendant was there at the time.

Cross Examined. How long after the burglary was it that you saw the boy and the coats, was it the next day, or how many days? The same day I saw it about half past eight or nine o'clock.

Patrick Brennan, sworn and examined. I am an officer of the Thirteenth Precinct. I don't know the defendant, but I saw him on the morning of the 14th of April at half past nine or ten o'clock at 433 Grand Street in Merbach's pawn shop. What was he doing? He was in the act of pawning a coat, similar to the one now shown me. This coat was pawned in Wolff's 419 Grand Street. I searched him and found that pawn ticket in his possession. I am not sure whether it was the 14th or the 15th of the month. I think it was Wednesday morning. After finding the pawn ticket in ~~his~~ <sup>his</sup> possession I went to Wolff's pawn establishment and I saw this coat here. I asked Mr. Wolff who pawned it? and he pointed this young man (the defendant) out as the man who pawned it. Did you bring the defendant to Wolff's place? Yes. I asked Mr. Wolff in the presence of the defendant who pawned the coat and he pointed the prisoner out as the one who pawned it. What other coats if any did you find? I found two more coats in his brother-in-law's house. Where is his brother-in-law's house? No. 146 Clinton street. What kind of coats were they? Similar to those coats. What conversation did you have with the prisoner when you discovered the two other coats in his brother-in-law's house? I did not see the prisoner since. What conversation did you have with him when you took him to the pawn broker's establishment? I could not understand him, he talked German.

Cross Examined. How did you come to go to his brother-in-law's house? I got a pass from Mr. Necht to go and see him and interview him in the prison, and he told me there were two coats there. You understood the boy told Necht that he left two coats home? Yes, that there was two coats there belonging to him. Then you went there and interviewed the brother-in-law? Yes. You did not arrest him? No, his wife was in a very delicate condition and I did not care about it.

Counsel

We will concede that the boy pawned the coat with Mr. Wolff.

Nathan Wolff, sworn and examined, testified I am a pawn broker and my place is at No. 419 Grand street. Did you ever see the defendant before? Not until he pledged the coat with me. When was that? On the 15th of April he came in and offered the coat. I told him what I would give him on it and he left it there. I let him $1.50 on it I believe. It was about ten minutes before the detective came. The ticket now shown me is the one I issued; it has on it $2.12, the twelve cents for taking care of it. I saw the complainant, Mr. Hecht afterward, he came into the place with the detective; the defendant was not there then. Hecht and the officer came in and showed me a coat and asked me if I took in a coat like that. I said, "yes." I showed it to him, and while he was standing talking to me, Mr. Merbach sent down a boy saying that the defendant was just pledging a coat there. Mr. Hecht recognized the coat and said it was his. I next saw the defendant at the Essex Market Police Court. Mr. Hecht identified the boy first in my place. Mr. Merbach sent down to my place that the detective should come up there; he brought the boy down, and there I identified him. That is all I had to do with it.

Henry Hecht recalled by the District Attorney. I had a conversation with the defendant in the prison; I asked him for my other two coats and he told me that two coats were in No. 146 Clinton St. The officer went up and the people gave him the coats. I think the name is Erlich, the defendant mentioned the name of Erlich to me, he did not say what relationship he was to him.

Cross Examined. I had a pass to go to the Tombs, and this conversation was had with the boy through the grating of his cell. I said to him, If you tell me where those two coats are I will make you free. The boy said that two coats were in Clinton St. with Mr. Erlich. I spoke in German. He said he brought them there, that it was his room. Mr. Erlich kept a boarding house. I did not ask him if he pawned the goods, and he did not tell me. I did not ask him if he broke into my place and stole my coats. I wanted my coats and that is all I cared for. I told him I would set him free if I got them. He immediately told me where the coats were. I had the coats already.

Abraham Eisenberg, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I was born in Felicia, Austria, Poland. It will be one year the next Pentecost holidays since I came to America. I have never been arrested before. I worked for Mr. Kingsburg in Elizabeth Street, operating as a tailor. I worked regularly except in slack times I stopped. I was not working at the time of my arrest because it was before the holidays and we stopped work. I was out of work two or three weeks when I was arrested by the police. Mr. Kingsburg had a shop and manufactured coats. My wages were six dollars a week. I boarded at the time of my arrest with Mr.

Erlisch for five months. Before that I boarded for about ten weeks in Ridge street with a baker. I came to America alone; my parents are in Galicia yet. I got up at eight o'clock in the morning and went into the street. I was on my way to go to the shop to see if they commenced working. I did not have my breakfast that morning, only a cup of coffee. In Clinton, between Broome and Delancey sts. I saw a man; he had four coats on his arm and he asked me if I would buy those coats. I said, "yes;" how much do you ask for them? and he said, it is six dollars the four coats. Then I bought them and gave him six dollars. I took the coats home and left them. Then Mr. Erlisch said, "Have you got a receipt for these goods?" I did not know what a receipt meant and he explained it to me. He said, "If you haven't got a receipt, you will have trouble." The man who sold me the coats was a middle-aged man, had a black mustache and was rather tall; he talked German. I never bought any coats before. I had six dollars and a quarter when I left home and I gave the man six dollars for the coats. I took one coat to the pawn shop and got two dollars. I left three coats home and then I went back and took another one. I spent no money anywhere that morning. I pawned one coat and then I went home for the other coat and I left the 25 cents home. I gave it to Mrs. Erlich; she had no money, she asked me if I could lend her a quarter and I gave it to her. I do not see Mrs. Erlich here. I went to try to pawn the other coat but he did not accept it and I was arrested there. When I found that the pawn broker gave two dollars on one coat I went back to get another coat to pawn. I have never been arrested before. I don't know anything about the burglary. I have been in Ridge street many a time; my own country men live there. I do not know Mr. Hecht's tailor shop at No. 118 Ridge street, and do not know him. Did you see Mr. Hecht, the witness on the stand, down at the Tombs? Yes sir, he came to the Tombs to see me. How old are you? I am twenty years of age. I told the Magistrate that I was twenty three years of age and he told me I am only twenty. Was the man there with him? Yes, he came to see me in the Tombs. Was he in Court with him? No, he was not there.

To the Interpreter) Ask him if he was asked this question in Court: "What is your name?" Abraham Eisenberg. Q. How old are you? A. Twenty three. Ask him if he told the clerk there that?

Yes sir, I said twenty three. As I understand him, his explanation is that the man said he was not twenty three. He says he does not know exactly his age and the other man told him, "you are not twenty three." Where does he say he boards, No. 146 Ridge street? No. 146 Clinton street with Mr. Erlich. Ask him if he told the Magistrate's clerk that he lived at No. 146 Ridge street? I lived there before. How long before? Five months before. Ask him why he said No. 146 Ridge street, let him explain that? He asked me, where did you live before? Then I said, I live in Ridge street because I was afraid that they will come to the place if I tell them and take the two coats away. Let us go back to that question. As I understand he told the Clerk there - that he lied to him and told him that he lived at No. 146 Ridge st. because he was afraid if he would tell him where he did live they would go and get the two coats, is that so? That is what he says. Ask him when Wecht came to the Tumb to see him and had a conversation what did he tell Mr. Wecht. (Question withdrawn) The defendant pleaded guilty to petty larceny and he was sentenced to the penitentiary for one year.
