The People
 vs. William Smith } Court of General Sessions. Part 4.
 Before Recorder Smyth. Nov. 28. 1882.
 Indictment for robbery in the first degree.

William Adams, sworn and examined, testified. I am a cooper and work in Water St. I saw the prisoner on Saturday night when I was in the car. I left the warehouse and went on down to 100 Wall St. and got nine dollars for my week's wages. I had it in a pocket book. I had one dollar beside; the largest bill was two dollars and all the rest were one dollar bills; it was in the right pocket of my coat. This was nine o'clock at night. In coming from the office 100 Wall St. I got into a car. It was the office of Henry L. Hobart. I used to work for him in Louisiana. I got in a red car one block from Wall St., and seeing the car was going the contrary way, I jumped out. I did not see anybody. I did not pay any attention, and walking in the prisoner said, "Halloo, hold up. I want to see you, have you got any money? I said, No. He says, "you black son of a b—h, if you don't surrender yourself up I will give you this," pulling out a revolver; he pointed it right at my head and said, "you black son of a b—h. I will take your life from you." He then asked me for my pocket book and money. He said, "Surrender yourself to me." Then I surrendered myself up. I opened my coat and let him take the money out. He put his hand in the pocket and took the money right out. My money was in my inside coat pocket in this same purse. He asked me if I was not satisfied? I told him, "yes" I was satisfied. He gave the purse back to me and walked off from me. I took my time and walked away. I did not tell any policeman about it. I was in a strange neighborhood. I was scared to go to any one and waited until Monday morning and told Mr. Hobart. This was Saturday night. I have got my room in the store in Water st. I don't know exactly the number. I have only been working there three or four months. I worked for Henry L. Hobart, and I also worked for him in Louisiana; his business is molasses and rice. I am a cooper and work on barrels. I get eleven dollars a week. I sleep on the second floor of the store. I carry the keys of the store and I had them the night I was robbed.

I left the store as near as I can get at it to go to the office in Wall street about half past eight; it was nine after I was robbed.
 It was Mr. Seymour, the cashier that paid me at the office 100 Wall st. about 8 1/2 He was very close to me when he put the revolver at me. It was near the corner and it was light. I am sure the prisoner is the man. I saw him at the other Court last week. They put me in the cell where he was. I went in and picked him out from the balance. I knowed him; There were five or six in the cell. Cross Examined. I think I am about 26 years old. I was born in Louisiana. Mr. Hobart kept his place of business at the corner of Customs House and Peter St.
 New Orleans. I came here three or four months ago as near as I can get at it by steamer. Mr. Hobart came from Louisiana to New York last summer. When I was on the car I was looking out of the window I said, this car is going the wrong way, it wont do for me to get lost. I got out and walked. There is a chair factory next to our store in Water St. I had not been drinking - not a drop of anything The car had not got out of sight when the prisoner came up to me. I thought it was best to give up to him and let him get my pocket book. He put the revolver back in his pocket and then took the money. There was light on the corner. I recognized him then and there; I was close enough; he had Burnside whiskers. Did you notice at that time that the person who seized you was a one armed man? Yes sir, because if he had both arms he would have used them. Did he appear to be drunk? I could not tell you. He took the money out of the pocket book and shut it up. He said, "Here you black son of a b h, are you not satisfied?" I told him, yes; I was glad to get away from him. I thought he had somebody with him beside himself. I thought it would be best to surrender and let him take the money and save my life and make no fuss about it. I was afraid. I never rode in the horse car from the office in Wall st. to the store before; I always walked, but on this night I was tired. It is a good distance from the Wall st. ferry to where our store is. As near as I can get at it it is about thirty five to forty blocks. As near as I can get at it I was in the car half an hour before I got out. I drink, but I do not make a practice of drinking. I drink some port wine and a glass of beer. I did not drink anything the day I was robbed. John McAuley, sworn. I was a member of the police force on the 7th of Oct. Officer Pierce and myself arrested the prisoner in Clinton St. at a ball, it was about 12 o'clock at night, Nov. 13th. I took him to the station house. I was not present when the complainant identified him, but Officer Pierce was. I got a description of the prisoner from the complainant. I think it was the 9th of Oct. when the complaint was made at the station house by Mr. Hobart, corner of Attorney and Delancey St. I understand Mr. Hobart keeps his office at 100 Wall St. and his store is 643 Water St. between Jackson St. and Governor's Slip. I went down to the store and saw the complainant the colored man. He told me that the party that had robbed him was a tall, stout young man, had side whiskers and a moustache, and he stated at the time he was robbed the peculiar thing about it was that he kept one hand in his pocket all the time. So I came to the conclusion then from the description given it only answered this man and we arrested him on the description given by the complainant. The prisoner is a one armed man; he wears his coat sleeve of the left arm in his pocket all the time. Cross Examined. The belt line of cars runs past the Wall st. ferry or ~~at the~~ or Front St. Edward Pierce sworn and examined. I was a member of the force on the 7th of Nov. I was present at the time the complainant identified the prisoner. I took him to the Third District Police Court and I found there was four or five persons within the railing. I asked the roundsman on duty there for the privilege of putting those men in the prison box; he put them in the prison box with the defendant; then I sent ~~off~~ Adams, the complainant, in to see if he could pick this man out; he went in and he picked out the defendant. The colored man was sitting in the Court and he could not see me put the complainant in among the prisoners from where he sat. He did not hesitate a moment in picking the prisoner out. Cross Examined. This was in Essex Market; the complainant was sitting pretty well back near the door. I did not do anything to attract the attention of the colored man to the prisoner.

 Cross Examined. I saw the prisoner, about a week before I arrested him, on the corner of Cherry and Scammell sts. There was a hardly a week that I missed seeing him.
 John Berry, sworn and examined for the defence testified. I reside at 646 Water St.; my business is driving a truck. I know the prisoner for some time. I saw the complainant when he was upon the witness stand.
 I saw him on Saturday night the 7th of Oct., the night he said he was robbed. I was standing at the door of my own house and I saw him go past, the complainant, the colored man. I could not exactly say the time. I saw him three or four times that night. The last time I saw him he was beastly drunk, he was so drunk that three or four boys had hold of him trying to get him across the street. Did you have any conversation with him? Not at all. I don't know where he sleeps. I heard that he slept across the street. I have seen him frequently around there since they hired the molasses house. I could not say how long, it is a couple of months anyhow. I could not say where the prisoner lives, but he did live in Water St. I cannot tell the number. I did not know any of the boys that were fooling with him. Cross examined I have known the prisoner for the last couple of years since I have lived in the neighborhood. He did live next door to me one time, last summer I think. I could not say where he was living on the 9th of Oct; the family he boarded with moved two or three doors above. My house is directly opposite this molasses store. I was in the habit of seeing the complainant once-in-a while in the evening. I saw him I believe about a dozen of times altogether. I saw him the night it was reported he was robbed, I do not know what night that was. I guess it was between 8 and 9 o'clock that I heard he was robbed. I think it was some boys in the neighborhood who told me. I could not say now whether it was boys or not, but I heard it was reported around. I was sitting on the railing in front of my door when I heard it. I could not say as they told me anything, only I heard somebody talking that he was robbed. I would not like to swear to it, but I think it was the boys who led the complainant across the street that told me he was robbed. I was perfectly sober at 8 o'clock in the evening. I was told of the robbery a little while after it occurred, that is, they said it occurred. I don't know whether it occurred or not. I am sure it is over a month now. Is this man (the prisoner) related to you? No sir. Did he ever work for you? No sir. I did not talk with anybody about this case. I never saw the prisoner since he was arrested. I do not know as I told any one about seeing the complainant drunk that night, there was no occasion of my telling anybody about it, everybody who saw him that night saw for themselves. I told the folks that live in the house; one party is Mr Cronin; the same night I told him; he lives in the same house. I told him I saw that the colored man was drunk. I do not think I told Cronin that I heard the man had been robbed that night. I don't know whether I did or not.

0097

Joseph Splain sworn and examined. I will be 22 years old next January. I live at 60 Gouverneur St., it is only a little way from Cherry St. It is about two blocks from 646 Water St. I have known the prisoner a pretty long while; we learned the prisoner lives, but he did live in Water-to swim together. A good many years ago I know the complaining witness a month or a month and a half. The first place I got acquainted with him was in the beer saloon of Mr. McKerron's, 657 Water St.; it is right across the way from where the Adams works.

 I don't remember the 9th of Oct. Adams had a conversation with you about the robbery; he told me on a Sunday evening that some man put a pistol to his head and demanded his money. I did not ask him how much. He said that it had been done the night before. I believe he sleeps on the second floor of this storage building where he works; it is a molasses store.
 I did not see him on the Saturday night upon which he was robbed. He did not tell me who did it, nor did he describe to me the person. He was drunk on this Sunday night. I believe he asked me in to have a drink, and then he says, "I will take my keys off you. Mr. McKerron, and he fetched them around some place in Scammel St.; he left them there.
 Whether we came back to the store or not I do not recollect. He says, "Wait for me in the corner. I think we came back a little bit, and then we walked up as far as Berry's ^{house} ~~store~~; Mr. Berry's youngest son told me that Mr. Adams had been robbed. William Smith sworn and examined, testified. I am the defendant in this case. I resided previous to my arrest at 654 Water St. I recollect the night of the 7th of Oct. last. Where ~~were~~ you from six o'clock that evening until 12 o'clock that night? In Cherry street. I could not tell you the number. I was in a man's house of the name of Quinn in the yard.

 I know the complainant about a month and know where he works. I did not see him that night. Cross Examined. Have been arrested two or three times - once for vagrancy, the second time for disorderly conduct, and the third time, which was last summer, for assault and battery.
 It was not for assaulting a woman. I don't know the first name of the man at whose house I was. I know his name is Mr. Quinn. How many persons were there? There was about seven or eight persons in the yard. There was a girl named Aggie Ackerman; there was a boy named Robbie Harris, Mary Ann and Kate Quinn, and a boy named Eugene.
 Mr. Quinn was not there; none of these people are in court.

0101

George F. Seymour sworn and examined - testified. Mr. Seymour, were you on the 7th of October last in the employ of Mr.
Hobart? Henry L. Hobart & Co. Where was the office? No 100 Wall St. Do you know the complainant Mr. Adams in this case?
Yes sir. Did you see the complainant on the 7th of October? Yes sir. He was paid off I should judge about seven o'clock. I paid Adams between nine and ten dollars. Did you pay him in paper or coin? Part of it in paper and part of it in coin. Was he sober or drunk when you paid him? I think he was perfectly sober I did not detect anything different when I paid him. Is that his general habit, sobriety? Yes sir, generally. When did he report to you that he had been robbed by anybody? It was Monday in the forenoon; he reported at the office; the storehouse is 643 & 645 Water St. It is pretty near Jackson St. just the other side of Governor St.
He slept in the store at that time and he had the key to it. I think it was the latter part of September that he came into ~~the~~ employ of Mr. Hobart; he was a cooper and came from New Orleans.
The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
