Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

Mary Robinson

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE OF ILL FAME, committed as follows:

The said Mary Robinson

late of the ~~South~~ Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the ~~twenty sixth~~ day of ~~January~~ in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-~~three~~ and on divers other days and times as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common house of ill fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in the said house divers evil-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said Mary Robinson on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offences as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of, and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT.—And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse

of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

late of the ~~South~~ Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the ~~twenty sixth~~ day of ~~January~~ in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-~~three~~ and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did maintain a certain common, ill-governed house, and in ~~her~~ said house, for ~~her~~ own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and willfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and willfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common annoyance of the said citizens, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT.—And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said Mary Robinson of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

late of the ~~South~~ Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the ~~twenty~~ day of ~~January~~ in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty ~~two~~ and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in ~~her~~ ——— said house and place of public resort, for ~~her~~ — own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women, in ~~her~~ — said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully, did permit, and yet continues to permit, by which the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are, habitually disturbed, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

The People
 v.
 William Rogers } Court of General Sessions. Part I Jointly indicted with W<sup>m</sup> Roberts for larceny in the second degree. } Before Judge Gildersleeve. April 23. 1883

William Lynch, sworn and examined, testified My place of business is 180 West 4th St; on the 19th of Feb. last I lost $115 in bills and $4.44 in a check; they were back in what we call a sugar bin behind the counter. I saw the prisoner and W<sup>m</sup> Roberts that day. I lost the money at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. I was behind the counter and Roberts came in and said he came from the Board of Health to inspect the water closet and I showed him the side door. He went and was not gone more than about a minute and a half or two minutes when he came back and opened the side door that leads into the hallway; in comes Rogers and asked me to let him have a bushel basket or a box to take two pails of coal across the way to 115 Mulberry St; he said he would pay me and threw down 20 cents. I went and got a basket and went outside to give him the coal and he came after me. As I stooped down to give him the coal I lifted one shovel up. I turned round and I missed Rogers. I says in my own mind, "There is something up. I ran for the door and between me and the door were three other fellows; instead of going out of my way was getting into my way. As I got to the door I saw Roberts going out of the door into the hallway. I jumped across the counter as quick as I could. I saw the money was gone. I ran to the door and could not see anything. I called on my daughter to come down stairs. I ran around to the station house and told them what had happened; the water closet was in the yard. When I turned round the corner to Mulberry st. there was a chance for any one to go in the store and take the money. When I got inside the door Rogers and Roberts were going out of the hall door that leads into the store. I saw the money half an hour before I missed it. Cross Examined. Roberts was arrested about two hours after I identified him as the man who came to make enquiries about the water closet and I identified Rogers as the man that came in for the coal. I did not see Rogers and Roberts talk together; they did not come in together. I was not present when Rogers was arrested. I next saw Rogers after going from this alleyway in the station house I made a charge that he had been in the store and taken my money. I don't know what he did say. I do not think he denied it. Rogers said if it had not been for the boys, you never would have caught me. Rogers did not say that he was not the man. I afterwards saw some of this money in the station house. I don't know upon whom it was found. The officer told me that a portion of the money stolen was found upon the person of Roberts.

James Kane, sworn and examined. I know Mr. Lynch and know where his store was. I know Rogers and Roberts by sight. I did not see them in Lynch's store on the 19th of Feb; but I saw them in the hallway. The first time I seen them by the door; that was the last I seen of them until they came out. I saw them go in the hallway from the street. Lynch at that time was about coming out to give Rogers the coal. I did not see Rogers and Roberts go in the store together. I first saw them together at the liquor store in Mulberry St. five of them together; two of them disappeared of a sudden and I saw Rogers and Lynch coming out of the store to get coal. At that time Roberts was standing in the doorway of the hall, the door leading to the apartments upstairs. I walked round the corner then and I seen them, he was not there. I saw two or three running out of the hallway. I am quite sure Rogers was among them.

Patrick English sworn and examined. I am a special duty officer. Lynch came to the station house and reported his loss and Capt. Petty detailed me and other officers to arrest the parties. I searched Roberts and Rogers after they were arrested; they wanted to know what they were arrested for. I found on the person of Roberts $28.18 and a ten dollar bill which Lynch said was torn in the centre; he identified it as his. (Bill produced) I found on the person of Rogers $5.56; that was not identified by the complainant. Kane brought us to the place where we arrested them; we followed them. John Heavey sworn. I know Lynch's place in Hester St. I know Roberts and Rogers by sight. I saw them on the 19th of Feb. I saw Rogers at the coal box and when Lynch's head was stooped in the coal box I saw Rogers disappear. I don't know whether he went in the hallway or not or in the store again and go out of the hallway. To the best of my knowledge I think he did. I next saw him in Wall St. with two men carrying coats. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
