The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Clara Edwards

of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE, AND HOUSE OF ILL-FAME committed as follows :

The said

Clara Edwards

late of the Twentieth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the eighteenth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty- two and on divers other days and times as well before as afterwards, to the day of taking this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common house of ill-fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain ; and in the said house divers evil disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain : and in which said house the said evil disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said Clara Edwards on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication ; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances, and lewd offences in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated ; to

Hon. Fred. Smythe

Recorder City of New York

Sir

I Respectfully report that I have investigated the character of Dorrisa Elwood of No 147 Maversy Place. and find that she is a very disreputable character. She was arrested by me on Sept 7 1882 charged with Stealing a watch & chain from Cash $65- from Andrew McKee of St. Stephens Hotel. while in 08 12

her room at 78-117 St. 11 St.

She was a constant companion of a notorious prostitute named Rebecca Brown, who was ^{arrested for} ~~convicted of~~ Grand Larceny, about nine months ago. Convicted and sentenced to 3 1/2 years to penitentiary.

I have learned since the arrest of Lonnie Edwood that after she robbed McKee, she (Edwood) locked the door of ^{the room} ~~the room~~ and ran out in to the hall, leaving McKee in the hall.

When she was searched at the Station House, the key of the room, was found in her possession.

About One year and a half ago, she occupied a room over Shoe Store on N. E. Corner Chamberly Place and Sixth Ave and was dispossessed on account of being a disorderly character. She now rents one floor at 78-117 St. 11 St. Occupies two rooms and rents the remaining portion of her apartments to prostitutes. She has been notified to vacate the premises by the Agent, on account of being a disreputable person.

Very Respectfully
George Riegel
Detective 15. Prison.

The case of Louise Elwood.

filed Sept.
1882.

The People vs Louise Elwood } Court of General Sessions. Part I Indictment for grand larceny of money in the } Before Recorder Smyth. Sept. 18/1882 night time. Andrew M. Kay sworn and examined testified. On the night of the 7th of Sept. I was on Eleventh St. about 12 o'clock at night. I had a gold watch and chain and about seventy dollars in money - a roll of sixty dollars in bills; the watch and chain were worth about $150; the prisoner accosted and spoke to me. I do not recollect the exact words she used. I had been taking a glass of beer and I was indiscreet enough to go to her room and drink more beer. I got intoxicated. I am a stranger here. I think her room was at 117 West Eleventh St. I went to her room which I believe was on the second floor. I went out for the beer. I cannot recollect how many glasses I drank. I fell asleep I believe on the bed; the prisoner I am sure was there a portion of the time I think I remained in her room about an hour. I had ~~the~~ property on my person when I went there. I believe the prisoner put me out of the house into the street. I missed my money then and reported it to the policeman; the officer to whom I reported this in the sheet is not here; from there I went to the police station with the officer, the 15th precinct. I saw my watch and chain and money at the station house - $65- and I identified it as mine; there was one ten ten dollar bill in the centre of the roll. I came from Tenn. and was staying at the St. Stevens hotel in Eleventh St. I came here this day two weeks. I was returning to the hotel when I was solicited by the prisoner. Cross Examined. I am a clerk in Knoxville, Tenn. At 9 o'clock I left the hotel and had a walk with some friends and ~~with~~ ~~to~~ several drinking places in Broadway. I had two or three glasses of beer. I will swear it was not more than four. There was large garden places, I believe there was ladies and gentlemen there, but I was not in their company. I met the prisoner about 12 o'clock a half past. I will swear it was not 6 o'clock. I did not have a conversation with her about my valuables. I remember everything that occurred until I found myself in the street and my things were all gone. I did not see anybody else in the room but the prisoner. I do not remember sending her out for wine. I did not say to her, "I have got money and a valuable watch about me." I did not give her the watch and the money for safe keeping. I was not sober, but I was not very drunk. I got worse when I got up to her room. I believe I drank four or five glasses of beer in her room; it made me pretty sick and pretty drunk. (The witness was shown the watch and chain and money, and he identified the property as his own.) She sent out some one for the beer or went out for it herself. I do not recollect that; she drank with me George Reigel sworn and examined. I was a member of the police force on the 7th of this month. I arrested her on the 7th of Sept. in Eighth St. about 12 1/2. I found on her person a watch and chain and locket and $65 in money. The complainant's name was on the inside of it. I noticed a torn ten dollar note in the money; she was searched in front of the station house desk. I was on duty in Sixth Ave., and in consequence of what a young man told me I arrested her and took her to the 15th precinct station house in Mercer St. I asked her where she got the watch and chain she had in her bosom? She said it was her husband's, that he was working on the Elevated Road. My watch is in the pawn shop, and I have got my husband's watch and chain for fear he would lose it. I was in the act of letting her go when a man told me he saw her going through a man and because I had no complainant she said, "Here officer, don't keep me any longer, I will give you ten dollars and I will settle the whole case. On that evidence I took her to the station house.

0828

0029

 I arrested her about 150 feet from Shady's saloon. I saw her come out of the saloon. Louise Elwood, sworn and examined in her own behalf testified.
 I met the complainant on Fifth Ave at 8 o'clock and took him to my flat 117 West Eleventh St. We drank brandy that I had in the house. He asked me if this was my own flat and furniture. I told him, yes, he said he would stay there all night and hold me responsible for his watch and money till the morning. In the mean time a woman living down stairs came in my room. I introduced her to him; he asked me to go out and get some wine; I slipped on my waist and I took the money and watch and put it in my breast and went down to Mr. Shady's. I did not offer the policeman ten dollars and did not tell him the watch belonged to my husband.

0030

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny from the person in the night time.

CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, } ss.

To the Officers of Police, and Patrolmen, of the Police Department of said City, and to each of them:

Whereas, complaint on oath has been made before me one of the Police Justices in the City of New York, by William Elliott of No. 12 Trinco Street, that the premises known as No. 149 Bleecker Street in said City, are kept and maintained by David Engles and John Ore; a small thin man with dark hair and mustache named Ripp as a Gambling House and a place of resort for idle and disorderly persons, to gamble and play at cards and games of chance for money in violation of the law, and to the common nuisance of the People of the State of New York, and that in said premises on or about the 17th day of June 1892 said Engles and John Ore did feloniously win and receive from complainant thirteen dollars in money, at, and by means of dealing and playing the game called Roulette, and that upon and within said premises may be found faro and other gambling tables, checks, cards, devices and apparatus used solely for the purpose of gambling, and the discovery of which might tend to establish the truth of said complaint.

These are therefore, in the name of the People of the State of New York, to Command you, the said Officers and Patrolmen, and each of you, to enter the said premises and therein make diligent search for such gambling tools, devices and apparatus, and if such be found to bring the same forthwith before me, or some other Police Justice for said City together with the said Engles and John Ore and all other idle and disorderly persons who may be found and arrested upon and within said premises, to answer the said charge, and to be dealt with according to law.

Given under my hand and seal this 24th day of June 1892 at the City of New York.
