For the People, Assistant District Attorney Purdy; Maurice Meyer, for the Defense.

OFFICER MICHAEL F. SHELLY, being duly sworn testified that he arrested the two defendants on the 4th of March, 1886. He had been to the Cathedral on business and was crossing Fourth Avenue between Fifty-first and Fifty-second Streets, when he saw three men together. Two of them were the defendants. The three men moved around, and went on the bridge and off it several times. They walked toward a flat at 843 Park Avenue on the corner of Fifty-second Street. First Dalton went there, and came back as some one came out of the flat. Then Hines went there, several times and came back. They got only as far as the stoop of the flat house. Some officers came over from the Cathedral, and Hines and Dalton went around the corner into Fifty-second Street until the officers had passed. After the officers passed they went back to the bridge, and stood there. Then they went away from the bridge, and stood in front of 106 East Fifty-second Street, right in front of the door. Then he, the witness, drew his revolver and told Hines and Dalton to throw up their hands and not to throw any thing away. On the prisoner Dalton he found a number of burglar's tools. Johnson the third man had remained on the bridge and when he saw a uniform police officer coming, he ran away. In Dalton's possessions he found three pick-locks, skeleton keys and other keys. He had been on the force fully twenty years and knew burglars tools when he saw them.

There was know evidence for the defense.

The People
vs.
Isaiah Decker.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Judge Gildersleeve.

March 9, 1936.

Indictment for assault in the first degree.

John Polhemus sworn and examined. I live at 70 Spring Street and lived there on the 24th of February, I know the defendant, he struck me on the head on the night of the 24th of February at 521 Broome Street, my head is bandaged up, the wound was made by a jug, I had just come out of the house and went down to this place John Ward's in Broome Street, I was sitting down at the table playing a sociable game of cards with a friend of mine for a cigar and Decker came in and came over to the table and demanded the cards off me, I told him I was using them and if he wanted a deck of cards he could get one from behind the bar, there were more there; he insisted on taking them from me and he said, I will smash you, I started to walk away and he struck me twice with his hand, I clinched him and we had a scrimmage, I wanted to get back behind the bar because his friend was after striking me, I slipped and fell behind the bar and fell down on my knees, he commenced to strike me on the head with these bottles and the big stone jug and his friend also and I remember no more, one of the bottles broke that he struck me with after he struck me with the jug then he started to go out, I held fast onto him till I got out on the floor, his friend jerked me from him, I fell down because I was weak from the loss of blood and they ran out, I staid there until the officer came and I was taken to the Station House, I do not know what took place down there, I was unconscious for a few moments and when I got through I found myself at Bellevue Hospital, I had my wound dressed there, I staid there two nights and one day under treatment all the time.

Cross Examined.

I have known the defendant a good while, I could not say how many years, I have always been on friendly terms with him, we never quarrelled before, I have been arrested and convicted of crime and served six years and a half, I was sentenced for ten years for robbery, I was never arrested before, I came out of prison on the 13th of December, 1880 and have never been in trouble since. This place in Broom Street is kept by John Ward, he is not a coloredman. I do not know the party who was playing with me at the table, we had just about finished when Decker asked for the cards and I refused to give them to him, I had not been playing for some little time, Decker wanted me to gamble with the cards and we had a controversy about it. I was not using them at the time and I refused to give them to him; it is not a fact that he then leaped over the table and took the cards from me and that thereupon I struck him, I started to get up when he struck me, he did not strike me while I was sitting in a chair, I got up to get away from him, I told him I did not want to fight, he struck me twice and I hit him back with my fist, we clinched and scuffled around the room, I did not reach for something behind the bar, I wanted to get my back against the bar to keep his friend Stewart Franklin from raising the chair to knock out my brains; there were several men there, Archie Godfrey prevented the defendant knocking my brains out; it was then he reached for the bottle when I was on my knees on the floor, I had the best of it when he and I were fighting together, I do not remember having his hand in my mouth, I remember everything until I was knocked senseless with those bottles, I am quite sure I did not bite his thumb or any portion of his hands, I know I was struck twice with two bottles and the third time the bottle broke, the bottles were thrown at me, he was standing over me on the floor when I fell down, he had hold of me by the collar in the neck with one of his hands, I know at no time during the evening did I bite his hand, he hit me with the stone jug, after he had done using the bottles, I can show a good wound in my head where that man split it, I am under the doctor's care now, I have to go there tomorrow and get it dressed again, the wound is still open, it had to be sewed up. I drove a truck in Washington Market but since I had my head cut I have not been working. I have been working all the time since I came out of prison and the day I was struck I was still at work.

Edward Moseley sworn. I live at 6 York St. and was in the saloon on the night when the trouble occurred between the complainant and the defendant, Polhemus and I were in the saloon and Decker and his friend Franklin and another man by the name of Jackson and a woman came in together. Polhemus and a friend were playing a game of cards, Decker got a couple of drinks at the bar and went over and demanded the cards from Polhemus, he told him that he would not give them that he was playing a sociable game with his friend and to ask Ward and he would give him a deck of cards. Decker made the remark, lay them out. Polhemus said, no, I don't want to gamble. John refused to give him the cards and he said, I will take them from you.

Polhemus said, do you want to fight? I said no, rising up to get away from him. Decker struck him twice in the mouth with his fist and when he got up Polhemus went to grab him with both hands and they got loose and Polhemus hit him and they clinched in the corner, then they separated and Stewart Franklin raised his wooden bottomed stool to hit him over the head. Arthur Godfrey took the stool from him and Stewart said, don't you are doing wrong both of you. He and Decker were wrestling and as they got around the bar Decker jammed him behind the bar and he gave Polhemus a shove and he went against the door and went down and as he went down Decker snatched the bottles off the bar and used them on him. I saw him strike him. John and Mrs. Ward were behind the bar at the time: in the meantime Stewart Franklin raised a bottle and as I thought was hitting Decker on the head with a bottle. Decker rose up and said, what are you doing, calling him out of his name: he said, kill him. That is the expression Franklin made to Decker, I saw Decker raise a jug and hit Polhemus.

Cross Examined. Decker and I went to school together, I never had any words with him, I am a friend of both of them, I have been convicted of larceny. I was sent up for two years and four months, I came out of prison in August 1880 and have been working ever since, driving a truck.

James Ryan sworn. I am an officer and made the arrest in this case on the 24th of February about eleven o'clock at night at 521 Broom Street, I heard a noise and saw people running, I went down to the basement and found Polhemus covered with blood, he told me Decker assaulted him, I went back in the yard and found Becker and he identified him as the man that assaulted him, Becker was in the rear of the saloon out in the yard, he was standing up against the fence, it was dark; at the time he denied it and said he did not do it; in the Station House he said that he struck Polhemus and then again that Polhemus struck him first. I do not know that the defendant was out in the yard washing his head, I saw blood on his head.

Isaiah Decker sworn and examined in his own behalf: I reside 101 McDougal Street, I am a married man and have a family, my wife is in court. Polhemus and me had always been friends, Mosely told a story, we made an agreement about six weeks ago never to speak again, I had not spoken to him until that night, he spoke to Polhemus and told him to go in and give it to me. I came in to Ward's place, we were going to play a game of billiards and some one was playing a game of pool. Polhemus sat there and he had cards in his hand, I said, go on and deal if you are going to. I said, give them to me and I will make the deal myself. He said, I will not give them to you. I says why not, you are not going to use them. He said, I am not going to let you have them, and one word brought on another I said, don't be such a big baby, what is the use of acting that way, give them to me, we are all going to play. I went to reach for the cards and he hit me, I thought he was only fooling, I did not touch him up to that time, he struck me and we clinched, I thought he was only fooling, we often do that way, and he swore and hit me again and I commenced to hit him, we got scirmishing up to the bar hitting one another and he beating me, he got my fingers in his mouth, I tried to pull my thumb out and it hurt me harder than to leave it there, he pulled me up to the bar and tried to get this bottle, I swung around and got the bottle first, I was not going to get hurt if I could help it, I hit him with it and we commenced to wrestle behind the bar, I did not hit him with another bottle, I never saw any jug and did not hit him with a jug, I threw him down and his head might have hit against something else, I was cut on my head, he struck me first.

Cross Examined. I did not strike him twice in the mouth; when he got me against the bar he tried to get the bottle himself, I saw he was going to get it and I struck him only once with the bottle, he had not anything in his hand when I struck him. I have been convicted of an assault on a woman and got five years sentence to the State Prison, my case was investigated, I was proved not guilty and Gov. Robinson pardoned me out in 1878, after I had been in prison a little over a year.

By a Juror. How did you hit him with the bottle? He was trying to get it and I picked it up and hit him. Did you throw it at him? No sir, I never threw it, I just kept it in my hand.

-----ooo-----

PASQUALE PARMO, being duly sworn testified that he lived at 32 Spring street and that he had known the two defendants for a long time. On the 7th, of March they came into the yard of the house where he lived about 9 o'clock in the evening. They had previously had some difficulty with the owner of the place, and he had ordered them out sometime before. When he, the witness, saw the two defendants coming in the yard, he went to them, and said "Don't come into the yard. You will have trouble with the owner of the place. You had better go out." Then one of the two defendants pulled out a pistol and shot him, the witness in the arm, and the other one stabbed him in the back. The owner of the place went for a policeman, and he, the witness was taken to the hospital. Silvestro Digite, one of the defendants, shot him, and Antonia Salamone, the other defendant, stabbed him.

OFFICER FRANK KELLY, being duly sworn, testified that he made the arrest. On the night of March 7th, about 7 P.M., he was going up Broadway, and, at Spring Street, he heard a shot fired. He looked around, and saw Digite. His coat was on fire. Digite took him, the witness, into the yard at 82 Spring St. and told him, that he had been shot. He, the witness, rapped for assistance, and the sergeant came to his assistance. Digite accused some man of shooting him. It was not the complainant in the case, that he accused. Digite took him, the witness, to a room and said that the man was there. The door was locked, and he, the witness, had to break it in. He arrested the man in the room, and he and was under indictment waiting trial.. While Digite was making the complaint against this man, in the Station-house, Parmo entered the Station-house with Officer Sullivan, and charged Digite with stabbing him. Salamone, the other defendant came in, apparently as a witness against Parmo. There upon Parmo made a charge of cutting him in the back against Salamone. He also said Digite shot him in the arm. One of the young men in the crowd, in the Station-house, said that they had threatened to kill Digite, that night. All the Italians in the house there had made that threat. He, the witness, searched the prisoners, but found no weapons upon them.

For the Defence, SILVESTRO DIGITE testified that he went to the bar-room at 82 Spring Street, that evening, to get a pint of beer. He had a companion with him. When the complainant saw him and his companion, the complainant approached him, and said, "What are you doing here, you son of a bitch, in this yard?" He, the defendant, went into the bar-room, and bought some peanuts there, and commenced to eat them. Then the complainant and five or six others came into the store. The complainant shook hands with him, the defendant. While he was shaking hands with one hand, he pulled out a long knife and tried to stab him. Then the proprietor of the store told them to go out. Some quitted the store, Luigi Marino, the companion of the complainant, shot him, the defendant, in the arm, and he went out and called the policeman. As he was going out, the complainant again ran at him with a knife, saying "What are you doing here? I will kill you." He didn't shoot or cut anybody on that evening.

Antonio Salemone, being duly sworn, testified that he saw Digite and another man go into the saloon for a pint of beer. Luigi Marino and Parmo, the complainant, came up. Luigi Marino said to Digite, "You served for a soldier, and I was in prison for ten years."

Parmo the complainant, then commenced to insult Digite and his family, and they pushed Digite. Digite said, "I am a married man and don't want any trouble here," and he bought some peanuts and commenced to eat them in the store, and the complainant and Marino followed him to in the store. There were three or four other men with Marino and Parmo. Then Parmo tried to stab Digite, saying, "I killed one man in Brazil, one in Italy, and now I will kill you."

But the proprietor of the store ordered them all out. Outside side, Marino drew a revolver, and shot Digite in the arm, and he fell to the ground, and the complainant tried to stab him while he was on the ground. Digite got up, and ran out. He, Salamone, neither shot nor stabbed anyone, on that evening.

VINCENZO CAMPILO, being duly sworn, corroborated the defendants.

ANGELO COMMUNUALE, also corroborated them.
