52 The People
 William Kennedy vs. Court of General Sessions. Part I Indictment for burglary in the third degree and petty larceny. Before Judge Martine. December 12, 1890.
 Mary Kanner, sworn and examined.
 I live at 167 East 96th street and lived
 there on the 22nd of November on the top floor.
 It is a five story brick tenement house.
 I have four rooms in the front - two bed rooms, a kitchen and a sitting room.
 There are three doors from the hall into my apartments. I left my apartments that morning about a quarter past eleven o'clock. I locked all my doors and windows too, but the door leading into the public hall was not locked. All my doors were locked, and I had the keys with me. I left a pocket book in the sitting room with fourteen cents in it, a pair of field glasses belonging to my husband in a small bureau drawer
 in the front room. I don't know how much the glasses are worth, but I would not sell them for five dollars. I had a lady's gold ring which I would not take ten dollars for - also a silver ring given to my boy by his Sunday School teacher, worth one dollar. I was not gone over fifteen or twenty minutes. When I was going out I met Kennedy two pairs of down. He knows me well. I used to buy coal of him at one time. I met him on the floor below where Mrs. Donnelly lives; he knocked at Mrs. Levens' door, but she was not in. I was told that he passed down in front of me. I saw him go out of the door. I was at his heels all the time he went up Ninety Sixth St. I went that way; my butcher's is at the corner of Ninety Sixth St.; he was standing at the candy store on the corner when I saw him; he never spoke to me. I went on to the butcher's. There was two men came from the opposite corner and joined in conversation with him. I do not know who they were. I went to Jefferson Market afterwards and identified one of them whom I had seen on the corner. I went to market and came back in 20 minutes but did not see the defendant again. I went into my rooms and found everything upset - my husband's letters and everything I had in the house was lying around the room. I sent for an officer to make an examination. I missed all the property I have named; and the kitchen door was wide open I had locked it and I had the keys in my hand. The officer came and he looked at the rooms, and he told me to come down and make a charge against William Kennedy. He was not arrested until Sunday morning; this was Saturday. I was taken to the Harbor Court on Monday and I saw him there. He said he was not guilty - that is all I heard him say there except that he said he passed me on the stairs. He was taken away and I don't know what was done with him after that. I did not hear him say anything.

Cross Examined. I have been living in the house I now live in four years. I think I have known the defendant by sight five or six years. He used to peddle coal then. I don't know what he does now. He has sold coal to me, but I do not know of my own knowledge whether he ever sold coal to any of the other tenants. When he stopped at the lady's door on this morning and enquired for a lady and he was told she was not in, he went down stairs in front of me. The hall was not dark; it was as light as this room. I saw the defendant and the two men talking together after they crossed the street.

The defendant at that time had his face toward me, he stood with his back to the window and the two men stood with their hands in their pockets. I was coming up and had a full view of them. They were standing side by side. I am sure I locked my rooms the morning I left them. I don't know whether or not the defendant visits that house where I have rooms with a book to take orders for coal and wood. When I lived in Ninety Eighth street he sold me coal. Mrs. O'Donnell who is sitting here in Court came with me this morning. The small man who was talking to Kennedy the morning of the burglary was in Court this morning. Mrs. O'Donnell saw him this morning the same time I did. My eye sight is pretty good. I never had to wear spectacles. When I returned to my rooms I did not find any marks on the doors - they were not battered.

Catherine O'Donnell, sworn and examined.
I live at 117 Ninety Sixth St. on the east side.
I live in the same house with the complainant. I live on the fourth and she lives on the fifth floor. I lived there on the 22nd of November and saw her that morning.

Catherine O'Donnell, sworn and examined.
I live in No. 107 Ninety Sixth street on the east side. I live in the same house with the complainant, who lives on the top floor, she lives on the fifth and I live on the top floor right under her. I lived there on the 22nd of November. I saw Mrs.
Kannier that morning; we were in Jefferson Market together. I was called upon to identify the prisoner. I saw him there.
I saw him at my door on the 22nd of November; he came to my door first about ten minutes before the other two men came. When I speak of the other two men
I refer to the one I saw this morning as one of the men. Kennedy rapped at my door. I was in the bed room and did not come out right away when he rapped. I opened the door quick and caught him peeping through my keyhole, his head stooped down. He said, "Do you want wood?" and he walked away. I said, "No, I have got wood in the cellar."
He did not stand like a man before me and ask me if I wanted wood.
I could not tell you whether he went up stairs or down. I closed my door. This was to the best of my knowledge about 25 minutes past eleven o'clock. After that two other men came to my door, one of whom I saw this morning. They knocked at the other lady's door first asking for a certain party; she told them. I heard them speak to her. Then they rapped at my door. I identified the man I saw here today at the Police Headquarters yesterday as one of the men who knocked at my door. I could not identify the other man. Kennedy was not there then. I should think they were talking to me three or four minutes. They asked me if such a party lived there. I told them I did not know, and they went up stairs. I shut my door and I opened it again and went out to the head of the stairs and looked up. I saw Mrs. Kanne's private door leading to her hall shut. I went along and this man (Kennedy) came down from the head of the stairs. He was standing on Mrs. Kanne's floor. He walked past me and I walked up to the door and opened Mrs. Kanne's private door and one of the thieves put out his head. I could not identify him. Kennedy passed me going down as I was going up to see where those men were. After I saw Kennedy peeping through my keyhole I saw in ten minutes after that two men come to my door. They spoke to me two or three minutes; then I closed my door, then they went up stairs and I opened my door again and I listened at the stairs leading up to Mrs. Kanneer's apartments. I started to go up stairs and then Kennedy passed me down; he did not say a word. I went right up through the door leading from the hall into the private hall of Mrs. Kanneer's kitchen door where I saw the head of a man. I asked them what they were doing? They told me they were looking for a party. I said, "you are thieves." One of them said, "Don't you halloo or I will fire," pulling a revolver out. I saw the revolver. The man with the pistol chased me three flights down stairs. I screamed "murder, thief." The lady living on the floor fell upon the stairs. The man waited for her to get up where she saw the pistol in his hands; he got away, he did not fire. I don't know anything more about the case.

0196

Cross Examined. When I heard the knocking I opened the door and found the defendant in front of me. He asked me if I wanted wood? I had not dealt with that man for many a long day. I knew him to be in the coal and wood business. I don't know whether he went up stairs or down. No other person came to my door before that, but two men came afterward. Mrs. Kammars' door is in the front and I am in the rear. The defendant had got to the first floor where the two men chased me down stairs, one with a revolver in hand.

George Doran, sworn and examined, testified. I am an officer of the 27th precinct and arrested the defendant on the evening of the 22nd of November on the complaint of Mrs. Kammars. Kennedy was on the corner of Sixteenth St. and First Avenue. I did not tell him at first what he was charged with. Officer Keefe and I were together. We went up to him and asked him when he was up town and when he had seen his brother last? He said he had not seen him for two days. I says, "Aint you lying?" He said, "No sir; yes. I have been up town but I have not seen my brother." He asked him who were those two men were with you that some lady saw you speaking to on the corner of Ninety Sixth street and Lexington Avenue. He said, "I was not speaking with two men today." He asked him if he knew Mrs. Kammars.

Catherine O'Donnell, sworn and examined.
I live in No. 167 Ninety Sixth street on the east side. I live in the same house with

of Ninety Sixth St.? He said, 'yes, I do.' He said, 'she claims you and two other men got in the flat. He said, "I was up there selling coal and wood." He rode up further, we asked him to tell who the other two men were? He said he did not know. You were speaking to two men," we said,
 and he said, if he was he was drunk.
 After we got up on the Forty Second St. Elevated Railroad he said, "If I was speaking to two men today, you can't convict me anyway." He asked, "Did she lose any stuff?" He said, "yes, she lost a lot of stuff", and after riding to Ninety Second street and taking the train back again
 he said, "I will get you the stuff for you."
 "Where are you going?" "That is all right, you go with me and I will get it," he said. "Where will you get off?" He said,
 "Forty Second street." "How far will you walk?" we asked. "Never mind, I won't be only about ten feet off." I said. "I am going too, and I will hold on to your arm." He said, "There is no use going with me." He brought him to the station house. I tried it again, I wanted to know who the two men were. He said,
 "It is all Dutch to me, I will get the stuff back, but I will never give up the two men. I brought him to Court the next morning and had him remanded and brought him to Court again on Tuesday morning and had him committed. I had no further conversation with him. I tried all the time to get the names of those two men out of him, but he would not give them up. He did not recover any of the property; there was nothing found.

Cross Examined. What was the condition of the defendant when you arrested him? He looked like as if he was after sleeping off a little drunk. Would you say that he was intoxicated at the time you made the arrest? No sir, he was not intoxicated. Was he under the influence of liquor? No, he looked as if he was getting over it. When we first arrested him officer Keefe and I asked him where he was up town last, when did he see his brother last? He said he had not seen him in two days. Did he not say to you when you spoke to him about the rooms of the complainant or any fact about that house where this alleged burglary took place that he was trying to sell coal and wood there? That is what I said, he said he was up there selling coal and wood. You are positive about his conversation.

with you in regard to finding any stuff that he said he would find the stuff for you? He said that he would get it for me if I would come to Fifty Second street, but I would have to keep ten feet away from him - he did not want to let me see the parties he was going to talk with.

By the Court Did he say that? Yes. I wanted an explanation. "Why do you want to keep so far away?" He said, "I don't want you to go near the parties."

By Counsel & You are positive that he was not under the influence of liquor when you arrested him? In my opinion he was not. Are you sure, did he understand you intelligently I mean when you spoke to him? Yes he did - Then you arrested him what did you say to him? I asked him where he was up town last, when did he see his brother last? He said, not in two days. Then did you ask him when he had been last to this 167 Ninety sixth St.? Yes, he said the same day, he was there that morning. The defendant lives on First avenue between Tenth and Fifteenth streets, and we arrested him between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets, half a block away.

Thomas Keefe, sworn and examined, testified I am an officer of the Twenty Seventh Precinct and was with officer Moran when the arrest of the defendant was made. We met Kennedy between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets on First Avenue, and when we approached him we asked him how long since he had been up town in Ninety Sixth St. to see his brother? and he claimed he was not up in two days. Then we asked him a little further, we asked him to tell us. He told him that the people had seen him up there that day, and he claimed then that he had been up selling coal and wood in this house. So we told him the flat had been robbed and that he was seen in conversation with certain two men on the corner of Ninety Sixth Street and Lexington Avenue by the people up there, and he said that he did not know who those ^{two} people were when we questioned him in relation to it. Afterwards when we had him on the train about Forty Second Street he told us he would get back the stuff if we would let him go back down to Forty Second St. and keep within four or five feet and not hear the conversation.

that took place between him and certain people. That is about all I remember of the case, about all I heard at the time. Did you notice his condition as to sobriety? He was sober at that time. Did he look as if he had been drinking immediately previous to his arrest? He looked like he had been after a drunk.

The brother of the defendant lived between Ninety Sixth and Ninety Seventh streets and Third avenue.

Monday, December 15, 1890.

William Kennedy, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified:

Where do you live? No. 250 First avenue. How long have you lived there? Three months. Where did you live before that?

No. 1881 Third avenue. What is your business? Coal and wood dealer.

How long have you been in that business? Going on six years now. What was your business at this time? Peddling coal and wood.

Have you any customers in the neighborhood of Ninety Sixth and Ninety Seventh streets? Yes sir I have.

Did you ever sell them coal and wood before? Yes. To people residing around there? Yes sir. Do you remember the 23rd of November when you were arrested? I was arrested on Saturday night.

Do you remember the day in which you were in the house in Ninety Sixth street where Mrs. Kaminer lives? Yes sir.

You have heard the testimony of the prosecution, and in particular that of Officers Doran and Keefe in effect that you stated to those officers that if they allowed you to walk ten feet in front of them you would produce the stuff? Yes sir.

Did you make any such offer to them? No sir.

You have heard the testimony of Mrs. Kaminer in which she said a burglary was committed? Yes sir. Were you guilty of the burglary? No sir. Do you know anything about it? No sir. You deny you took any part in it at all? I deny that I took any part in it.

Cross Examined. How many times have you been convicted? Three times. When was the last time? In 1878. How much time did you serve? Five years in the State prison. What was that for? Burglary. That was in 1878. You got out about what time? In 1880. When was the next time? In 1883. What was the charge then? Burglary. You served how long? Three years in the State prison. Where did you get out? In 1885.

When next? The early part of 1886 - excuse me, I came out in 1884, and then I was convicted the third time and sentenced for three months to the penitentiary for carrying burflars tools. It was not Officer Dorsey, Doan or Keefe who arrested me then. I don't know the name of the officer.
 When did you get out on that charge?
 I believe it was the 26th of June 1885. You are quite sure you have not been in prison
 since that? I have not been convicted,
 but I was arrested once and discharged.
 Were you in the house in question on the 22nd of November? I do not know about the date. I was in it on Saturday. Saturday was the 22nd of November, and you were in that house on the 22nd of November? Yes.
 What did you go in there for? To sell my coal and wood to the tenants living there.
 You had coal and wood of your own on hand to sell? Yes. How did you carry it around with you? In baskets. You carry them yourself on your shoulders? Yes sir.
 Did you have any coal or wood there that time? No sir. I generally go up looking for orders. I go up through the houses and knock on the doors, and if they want any coal I deliver it afterwards.
 When did you go in that house on that day? It was before noon. Was it after eleven o'clock? I could not say the time.

By the Court. Fix it as nearly as you can? The lady says it was about eleven o'clock. Does that accord with your memory? Yes sir, about that time.

By Mr. Davis. Did you go into that house alone? Yes sir. Anybody else with you? No sir. Do you remember seeing Mrs. Kannein in that house that day? No sir. Do you not remember passing her on the stairs? Yes, I might have passed her, but I did not take notice. Do you remember any woman on the stairs? Of course it could be, but I could not state. I just simply say that she may have passed me and I not have noticed her. Do you remember going down from the house to the corner and standing on the corner? I remember leaving her house, it is the nearest to Lexington Avenue. By the Court. The District Attorney asks you if you remember standing on the corner after you left the house? Yes.

By Mr. Davis. Do you remember talking with any one? Yes, two men. Is that one of the men? (Pointing to a man) Yes sir, that is one of the men. I do not know his name.

Mr. Davis. His name is Capt. James Dunne. That was one of the men? Yes sir.

By the Court. You say you do not know his name?
 No sir. I never heard his name before that day. You only knew him by sight? Yes I knew him by the nickname of "Whitey".
 How long have you known him by sight?
 Since I have been in Harlem.

By Mr. Davis Where do you live in Harlem?

By the Court How long is that? I came to Harlem on the 10th of July 1883. Then you know him since 1883-? Yes sir.

By Mr. Davis Where does he live in Harlem? I don't know whether he lives in Harlem or not.
 Between what streets did you live? Between Ninety Seventh and Ninety Eighth streets on Third Avenue. Did you live there when you were arrested? No sir. When did you leave Harlem? About the 15th of May of this year. You lived there continuously since 1883 till the 15th of May? Yes sir.
 You knew "Whitey" as long as you lived there? Yes sir. How often used you to see him? About three times a week.
 What was the other fellow's name? I did not know him at all. Had you ever seen him before that day? Yes sir.
 Did you ever see him with "Whitey"?
 Yes sir in his company. How often had you seen the other man? I do not know, once or twice a week and sometimes I might not see him for a month, but I did not know him. Do you remember when you were standing on the corner seeing Mr. Kammer pass? No sir. Did you go back to the house after that? Yes sir. Where did you go when you went back to the house, what part of the house? On the top floor where Mrs. Kammer lives. Did you speak to anybody on your way up? No sir.

Q Did you knock at any door? Not the second time, the first time I did. Was the door open the last time you went there? I could not say, I don't know whether it was locked or not, it was shut. Did you hear the testimony of Mrs. O'Donnell? Yes. Do you recollect that she stated that she opened the door and saw you stooping down as if looking through the keyhole? Yes. Is that so? No sir. I simply raised my hand against the jam of the door because I was pretty sick and had been drinking. I did not feel in the best condition. I simply ~~raised~~ raised my hand against the jam of the door and rested my head against it. I remember her saying that I saw her but I did not. She did not come out and open the door. I simply asked her if she wanted any coal or wood and she said "no," and shut the door.

By the Court O Was that the first or second time you were in the house? The first time.

By Mr. Davis Why did you leave the house and go out into the street? In those kind of houses the one flight of stairs is divided into two or three flats. It is very easy to make a mistake, to think you are on the top when you are not. I went down and came out. I met these two men and they asked me how business was now? I said it was very slow. I crossed over to Lexington ave and went to another house, and on the way back from there I happened to think I had not seen Mrs. Kanneer and I knew from long experience that she is a little bit cranky when ordering her coal and wood, but as I was there I thought I would call. I knocked at the door and got no answer; and on the way down I passed two men on the landing of the third floor; they were talking to Mr. O'Donnell. I could not hear what they were saying; they were the two men I had seen on the corner. I did not see any pistol shown by any one at that time. They were not running while they were conversing and Mr. O'Donnell was not screaming. I did not hear any screaming. I have known Mrs. Kanneer five years. I did not see her on the stairs that day. She may have seen me on the stairs. The passage way on the stairs is just wide enough for two to pass; she may have passed me, but I paid no attention to it. I cannot tell whether she passed me going up or coming down. I think it was the kitchen door that I knocked at. Mrs. O'Donnell was talking in the passage way when I knocked at Mrs. Kanneer's door to two men. "Whitey" was one of them, the man I spoke to on Lexington Avenue. There was no reason why I should hurry down stairs. I left Mrs. Kanneer's house and went directly to my place on Second Avenue and Ninety Fifth Street. I heard Officer Doran's testimony and heard him say that I said I would get the stuff. That is absolutely false. I never said any such thing. I did not say that I must go in advance of him to get the stuff. I was sober when I was arrested, but I had just got out of a sleep. I don't know that either Doran or Keefe have any grudge against me. I don't know anything against their characters as officers.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

By the Court. You say you do not know his name?
No sir. I never heard his name before
that day. You only knew him by sight? Yes. I knew him by the nickname of "Whitey".
How long have you known him by sight?
Since I have been in Harlem.

By Mr. Davis Where do you live in Harlem?

By the Court How long is that? I came to Harlem on the 10th of July 1883. Then you know him since
1883-? Yes sir.

By Mr. Davis Where does he live in Harlem? I don't know whether he lives in Harlem or not.

STATEMENT.

I was boarding with the complainant for about five weeks and Saturday afternoon I came home at dinner time, and was reading in the saloon. The complainant's husband invited me to have something to eat and gave me some clam chowder. I asked the complainant if that was all she had to eat; instead of replying, she got very angry, called me a "damn sow." I then said, "I have boarded in a great many places, but I have never been treated as I have been here." She got hold of a chair and tried to hit me with it, and said, "get out of here," I said, "you needn't throw me out, I never was thrown out; you need not drive me out." Then she dropped the chair and hit me in the face with her hands and I pushed her back and the complainant's husband jumped up from the table and the two of them went at me. I held the two of them as well as I could, and said I didn't want any trouble with them and they should leave me alone. Then they quieted down. Mr. Saul then went behind the bar. Fearing that Mr. Saul was going behind the bar for a knife, or pistol or club, I ran out of the saloon. I never hit the woman at any time; all I did was to try to hold them off to prevent them from hitting me. The complainant came out to where I was taking care of my horses, cursed me a "rascal" and "damnsow", and made a great deal of noise;; and I called her back a "dirty sow." Saul stood behind his wife with his hands behind him; then she came towards me and tried to hit me again and so did the husband. Then I ran away, fearing that they were going to me some injury and as I turned away-- around, I saw Saul had a policeman's club in his hands.

Mr. Saul and Mrs. Saul went into the saloon; I never ran away from my horses; I kept moving away from them and around my horse and wagon. I went into the saloon about five minutes after they went in and made a demand for trunks which they said I could have if I paid my board, and I told them I would pay my board in the evening; then I put my horses in the stable and went to the police court to get a warrant for Mr. and Mrs. Saul for assault; the officer told me I would have to return on Monday to get a warrant as it was too late.

As I went down stairs I met the complainant coming up.

I returned in the evening with a friend to get my trunk; I paid what I owed and was getting the clothes of the wall to put in my trunk and while I was doing so, he was hustling and pushing me, saying; "you God Damncoward, you better get out of here." I asked one of the boarders to help me with my trunk but he would not do it; then I dragged my trunk out into the saloon where my friend was; I was standing at the bar, about to drink some beer with my friend when Mrs Saul came over and said "Get out of here;" and then the landlord said, "I will get them out damn quick;" and then went for a policeman. As soon as the landlord went out she struck me and threw my trunks out and then struck me again; at the same time the husband was striking me; the husband and wife drove me out of the door backwards; all this time I was trying to protect myself the best way I could; did not hit at any time or do any thing more than to protect myself from the blows of the husband and wife and as I went out backwards the trunk laid two or three feet from the door and I backed out toward it, both of them still striking me; I caught hold of them by the clothes but, nevertheless, they drove me out into the street; my friend was there all the time but did not help me. When they were in the middle of the street, a young man came forward and he began to beat me; he hit me six or seven times: I ran away from them towards my trunk and got it up on my shoulder; as soon as I got it on my shoulder, Mrs. Saul came forward, pushed on the trunk and tried to knock me down; then I took my trunk into the stable and I went to sleep. It was about eight o'clock and I was completely knocked out. My nose was bleeding and I was bruised and sore all over my head where they had hit me; the effects of the blows on my head, I felt for two weeks afterword.

Assault

John Soul, 316 126th street.

I boarded with the complainant for about three months. On the day of this assault I was in the saloon kept by Mr. Soul who is the husband of the complainant; I saw Kirchner enter the liquor saloon and Mr. Soul told him he must move; he asked how much was bill, and it was paid. Then the defendant went into the back room to get his trunk but Soul went before him to the room and Soul asked me to go with him to the room; the defendant went into the room and packed his things in his trunk as speedily as possible; at this time Soul was present and they were carrying on some conversation in german which I did not understand; I am a Finn. The defendant dragged his trunk as far as the bar and the man that was with him treated to two glasses of beer. While there Mrs. Soul came up and spat the defendant in the face and spoke to him in an angry tone and wanted him to get out of the saloon; couldn't tell what she said, but she swore; then Mr. Soul struck him two blows with his clenched fist in the face; in the meantime Mrs. Soul had rolled his trunk out into the street. Mr. and Mrs Soul were striking defendant; he was backing towards the door and he was driven by them out of the saloon to the middle of the street. Kirchner during all this time did not make a single effort at defense;

all he did was to hold up his hands to try and keep them off.

In about two minutes, I went to the door of the saloon and looked out into the street; I saw three of them clenched together out into the street, and there was also a young man hammering away and ^{punching} ~~perishing~~ Kirchmer and kicking him; I could not see exactly where the blows reached Kirchmer; Kirchmer got away from them and went to the sidewalk and got his trunk put it on his shoulder and tried to go away and Mrs. Soul rushed at him and tried to throw him down or throw the trunk off of his shoulder. I saw that Kirchmer's face was bleeding and scratched; at this time it had grown dark and I couldn't clearly see the bruises on Kirchmer's face, but I clearly saw the blood and the cut on the nose; then he walked away and I saw no more. At the time, and all during the quarrel and for half an hour afterward, Mrs. Soul was very much excited and angry and for half an hour after the fight, she remained in the saloon drinking beer and conversing in her usual manner but still very much excited. She did not complain of being struck or hurt or kicked or anything of that kind during the fight but about half an hour afterward she had a kind of a fit and was put to bed. I asked Mr. Soul if Mrs. Soul had those spells before, and he said yes; but never so hard.

When Mr. Kirchmer subpoenaed me as a witness in his case to the police court, Mr. and Mrs. Soul told me not to go to the police court and tried in every way they could to persuade me not to go.

Mrs. Engel, No. 730 Westchester avenue, will testify that the miscarriage of which there was some talk in this case occurred a week or more before the quarrel. William Saunders who was across the street from the saloon, saw all that -- occurred on the street.

Mr. Saunders' address is 665 145th street.
