Now cometh the defendant, George W. Linch, above named, and for plea in his behalf. he saith that the indictment presented by the grand jury, on the 9th day of June, 1887, charging him with the crime of Embracery, is not sufficient in law, and neither count thereof is sufficient in law, and he demurs to the said indictment, and to each count thereof, and the defendant specifies the following grounds of objection to the said indictment, and assigns the same as grounds of demurrer, to wit:

First: The said indictment charges more than one crime, within the meaning of sections 278 and 279 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Second: The said indictment does not contain a plain and concise statement of the acts constituting the crime charged.

Third: The facts stated in the said indictment do not constitute a crime.

L E W I S H . R A Y M O N D , called and being duly sworn testified as follows:

By Mr. Martine.

Q What business are you in? A Life boat business.

Q Where do you carry on that business? A Greenpoint.

Q Where do you live? A East 18th Street in this City.

Q Give the number? A 311.

Q 311 East 18th Street in this City? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know George W. Lynch-- I am not certain of the middle letter? A Yes.

Q How long have you known Mr. Lynch? A I have known him a number of years; I do not know the exact number.

Q Do you know what business Mr. Lynch is in? A Yes, sir.

Q What is it? A Connected with the cross town railroad.

Q What railroad? A I do not know exactly-- the Christopher & Tenth Street road.

Q When did you last see Mr. Lynch? A I saw him on Saturday

Q Last Saturday? A Yes, sir.

Q When prior to that did you see him? A About in the neighborhood of two or three weeks.

Q Where? A Over on the west side, 14th Street and 6th Avenue.

Q Where at 14th Street and 6th Avenue? A The southwest corner of 6th Avenue and 14th Street.

Q You were there in the store? A I was not in any store when I met him. I met him on the street.

Q Did Mr. Lynch accost you on that occasion? A Yes, sir, we met there.

Q What did he say to you? A We met unexpectedly and we got conversing over matters connected with an organization we belonged to and from that the conversation drifted into the Sharp trial. Mr. Lynch remarked to me that there had been a gentleman drawn on the jury that lived over in my neighborhood.

Q Did he mention the name? A No, sir.

Q Did he describe him? A He did not.

Q Did he call your attention to him so that you could know him? A No, sir.

Q Did you know to whom he referred? A No, sir, I did not.

Q Go on? A He simply said that the gentleman was over in my neighborhood and he would like to have me see him. I knew him and to see him if I could not do something to get him to be rather lenient on Mr. Sharp in this case?

Q Did he say Mr. Sharp or the old man do you recollect?

A I think the remark was the old man.

Q Do you know Mr. Smith? A I do not.

Q Did you ever see him before (referring to Mr. Smith in Court)? A No, sir, not that I know of.

Q Do you know where he is employed? A I do not.

Q Did I understand you to say that you had no idea to whom he referred when he spoke of the man on the jury to be in your neighborhood? A No idea whatever of whom he referred.

Mr. Lynch mentioned no names whatever and left me completely in the dark so far as that was concerned.

(By the Court)

Q What did he say about the person that he referred to?

A He simply mentioned the fact that a gentleman over in my neighborhood on the east side had been drawn on this jury and I asked him the name and he told me I would see it in the paper and asked me as I say to see this gentleman and see if I could not prevail on him to be lenient in regard to the old man as he felt interested in his case and did not think there was any case against him. A conversation of that kind transpired. We were not together more than three or four minutes, just a difference between one car and another.

Q What if anything did he say about compensating him for his time? A He mentioned the fact it would be of interest to him.

Q Do you recollect whether or not he said he would compensate him for his time? A No, sir, I do not think words to that effect were used.

I Q Do you recollect whether or not that was what you told ^{me} him in your interview with me in my office? A If I recollect right I think I mentioned to you the fact that Mr. Lynch told me it would be worth his while.

Q What did you say in response to this? A I did not say anything in particular; I took it as a kind of laughing matter and waited for a few minutes and left Mr. Lynch.

Q Did not you make any suggestion at all to the person who made this suggestion to you? A No, sir, I do not know that I did.

Q Did you say whether you would or would not see this person? A I do not think I did. I had no idea of seeing him I can assure you of that.

Q Did you look in the newspaper as suggested by Mr. Lynch to find out who this person was? A I did.

Q Did you find out in that way? A I judged from the fact he described to me a gentleman by the name of Smith was the party.

By the Court.

Q Did he say this gentleman was actually on the jury at that time? A He said he had been drawn; he did not say he was on the jury, simply that he was drawn on it.

Q Was it the next morning you saw the name in the newspaper?

A I think the following day was a Sunday after my interview with Mr. Lynch and I am not positive whether Monday or Tuesday; I was quite busy and did not stop to read the papers not being interested in the case and if I am not mistaken a friend of mine drew my attention to the names some days afterwards. I am not positive whether Monday or Tuesday. I am sure it was not Sunday.

By Mr. Martine.

Q Your understanding from the conversation with him was that this person had been drawn on the jury, is that so?

A Yes; whether he had been accepted or not I do not know.

Q You looked in the list of jurors who were in the box to find out who that person was? A I did, yes, sir.

Q By Mr. Parsons.

Q As I understand there was no name of the jurors in the box of whom you were informed? A I beg your pardon.

Q I understood you to have said in answer to Mr. Martine that of the names of jurors in the box there was no name that was familiar to you? A None whatever.

Q That you were entirely unacquainted with all the jurors?

A None whatever.

POOR QUALITY ORIGINAL

45

Q Your attention has been called to juror Smith Have you ever heard there was such a person prior to this interview?

A I heard there were hundred of Smiths.

Q I mean of this particular Smith? A No, sir; the way I judged it was that person it was from the locality Mr. Lynch gave me.

By the Court.

Q What locality did he give you? A He told me he was on East 12th Street.

Q He mentioned that? A Yes.

Q Did he give the number? A I think he did, yes, sir.

Q By Mr. Nicoll.

Q He gave you his number? A Yes.

By the Court.

Q What number was it? A I could not say positively now, in fact I did not look into it very closely.

Q Did you find the address in the newspaper? A Yes.

Q The same number in East 12th Street? A Yes.

Q That is the way you came to find out? A Yes; the gentleman's occupation was a bookbinder.

Q Did he tell you that? A No, sir, that I learned from the paper.

By Mr. Parsons.

Q What was the date of this occurrence? A My interview with Mr. Lynch?

Q Yes? A I think it was the 21st of May, Saturday evening.

Q As I understand the interview was a casual interview in the street? A Yes, unexpected meeting altogether.

Q When first did you have an interview with Mr. Martine or either of his assistants to speak about this matter?

A My first interview with Mr. Martine I am quite positive was Tuesday of last week.

Q Where did that take place? A In Mr. Martine's office.

Q How often have you seen Mr. Martine or either of his assistants about the matter? A I never saw Mr. Martine previous to that time or since until this morning.

Q In reporting the interview with Mr. Lynch to Mr. Martine, did you state it exactly as you have stated it now?

A There may be some variation in it, I am not positive to say.

Q Substantially was it the same? A Yes, sir.

Q And as nearly as you can state the occurrence as you have now told it, is just as it took place and did you tell it to Mr. Martine just as it had taken place? A I told him just as it had taken place and he was acquainted with the facts before I called on him.

POOR QUALITY

Q Did you report this interview to Mr. Martine exactly as it did take place and as you have now testified that it did take place? A I reported this transaction to Mr. Martine as it took place yesterday.

Q And as you have testified to it now? A There may be some little details that I have not spoken of now that do not come to my mind.

Q Substantially have you now told this occurrence as you have repeated it to Mr. Martine? A Yes, sir.

By Mr. Martine.

Q You told it to me in my office with reluctance? A Yes.

Q Expressed the desire not to? A I informed Mr. Martine I did not wish to be coupled up in this affair whatever and I was surprised to think it had come to him. It was unexpected on my part altogether and I was not looking for any notoriety and I did not wish any. That is what I think I informed the District Attorney.

Q You saw Mr. Lynch on Saturday? A Yes.

Q Where? A I met him as I was going into the bank corner of 10th Street.

Q What day? A Saturday.

Q What bank? A The 11th Ward Bank.

Q Is that the bank where you keep your account? A Yes, sir

POOR QUALITY

48

Q Do you know whether Mr. Lynch has any connection with that bank? A I do not.

Q It was a casual meeting? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you ever met there before? A I have met him there several times before, not on the same spot exactly, but in that locality, within half a block.

Q Did you have any conversation with him there? A Passed the time day and spoke of this affair.

Q Tell us what conversation you had with him touching this affair? A That was the first I had seen ~~him~~ him since the evening of the occurrence of it and he came to me and said "Well, you are a nice fellow" I said "Yes, I guess I am" He said "What is this all about"? I said "I do not know exactly what it is all about, George. It is all out anyhow. The only thing I know is I was called upon to make a statement to the District Attorney which I told him I have told him just as I have made it."

Q Anything else-- what did he say to that? A I told him I was very sorry to be coupled in this matter whatever; it was unexpected to me; it was not solicited on my part.

Q Tell us what he said? A He said it placed him in rather an embarrassing position he did not expect. There was nothing of any great consequence passed between us. We were not together more than two or three minutes:

Q Have you told all ^{us} ~~us~~ that Mr. Linch said on that occasion?

A Yes, sir.

Q Everything-- tell us what he said to you when you first met, when you came together? A I do not remember the first sentence.

Q As nearly as you can after the ordinary salutation? A He said "You are a nice fellow".

Q And you responded to that you thought you were? A Yes, and the conversation drifted into connection with this affair.

Q When you got to this ^{affair} ~~affair~~ tell us all the conversation that occurred, what you said and he said in connection with this affair? A As I have remarked I told him the matter had come out, that it had been reported to the District Attorney; the District Attorney sent for me and I had an interview with him in his office and explained the whole matter to him as it had ^{transpired} ~~transpired~~ between him and I and that I regretted very much there was any publicity about it whatever as it was unsolicited on my part.

Q Did you tell Mr. Linch you were subpoenaed to come here this morning? A I did.

Q Was anything said on that subject? A He told me he had been also.

Q Anything else said on the subject? A He asked me what I was going to tesify to.

Q Did you tell him? A I did.

Q What did he say to that? A He said it was a pretty bad vase.

Q (By Mr. Nicoll) Those were his words? A Something to that effect. That was the intimation.

Q Was anything else said on that subject that you have not told us. I want all that transpired between you and Mr. Lynch on this occasion? A He mentioned the fact that he hoped I would not make any mistake so as to make any trouble for him; I told him I regretted very much the thing had transpired and I would state facts just as they had transpired and that only.

Q And you have so done? A Yes, sir.

Q Is there anything that you recollect that transpired at this interview that you have not told us? A I do not know of anything, sir.

Q How long were you together on Saturday? A Not more than five minutes.

Q Do you think you have told us all that transpired between you and Mr. Lynch in those five minutes? A Yes, sir;

I was in a hurry to get into the bank; it was between half past eleven and twelve o'clock and they close at 12 o'clock. I left him rather abruptly and told him I had some banking business to attend to.

Q Are you quite sure this was an accidental meeting or did you know Mr. Lynch had gone there to see you? A That I could not say.

Q Nothing said on that subject? A No, sir.

By the Court.

Q Did he say anything about your testimony, what testimony you were to give here? A Yes, sir, I stated that. He asked me what I would testify to and I said just as the occurrence had transpired.

Q Did he say anything on that subject further? A Nothing more than he said it placed him in an embarrassing position. I told him I regretted very much I was mixed up in it at all.

By Mr. Parsons.

Q I omitted to ask you what was your occupation? A I am a builder of life boats.

Q How long have you lived in New York? A 46 years.

Q How long have you carried on business here? A I was in the business with my father formerly; I have carried on Q A assume you are a gentleman of position and somewhat well known in your business and in your neighborhood, is that so? A Yes, sir, I presume I am.

Q Have you ever done or said anything which would permit the idea that you could be used to tamper with a jury?

A Nothing. My character is open to investigation.

By the Court.

Q Do you know what this man Lynch's business is? A Yes, I think I know he is connected with the railroad.

Q What railroad? A The Christopher & West 10th Street.

Q What position? A I could not say whether Secretary, Superintendent or what he may be, but I know he is connected with it.

By Mr. Martine.

Q What is his full name? A George W.

Q Lynch? A Lynch.

By the Court.

Q In any of these interviews did he refer to the defendant Sharp? A Nothing more than I stated in my first interview.

Q Did he say whether he had any connection with it? A No.

By Mr. Nicoll.

Q Do you know anything about his relation with Sharp?

A I do not.

vs. 3 Assault 3^d degree
Chas. A. Lawrence

Mr. J. Kennard will swear that was present on morning that assault occured and saw left strike the officer who was acting in the performance of his duty.

Do not think defendant would have committed such an offence if he had not been drinking. He is a gentleman.

Martin A. Sullivan will swear: I was in saloon
the morning of the assault
but was attracted outside by the quarrel going on outside, some party ^{who} ~~which~~ had commenced the fight with Lawrence called him
S. a son of a bitch, then the officer came down to stop the fight caught hold of S.
then S. backed up against fence adjoining saloon and was holding on to it. Officer took club out of his belt and and threatened to hit E. on the head to make him let go. I asked him not to hit him. I do not know that officer hit him. Then some one threw the officer down. E. tried to get away from him, and did not at any time strike the officer, or attempt to strike him. They went out to rail road track, and I saw the officer strike E. twice on the head, where E. was sprawled out on the ground.

Chas. A. Somers, mill owner.
Saw the commotion of a quarrel with another party who charged me falsely. Officer Wade came across the street grabbed me with his hand that he had the club in, and the club struck me. I asked him not to strike me, as I wanted to explain the difficulty. I held on to rail, but he wanted to get me away. I told him not to hit me as I would go with him, he then hit me on the head, twice, breaking the scalp, then some one hit him and I think he fell down. I did not strike him, nor make an attempt to strike. When he got he started for the park, whom I believe did hit him, when he did that I started to run away, but he followed me caught up with me hit me on the head, and I dropped into street. I had six stitches taken on my head.

Geo. R. Lansing, 252 W. 128th St will swear: I was of the party that Lawrence was in they had been playing pool
at "St James" 125th St near 8th Ave. Some one whom I did not know raised a quarrel inside, all went out, and the stranger called B. some hard names. The quarrel was about over when Officer Wade came along and took hold of B. he did not want to go, did not strike the officer at any time, but the officer struck him several times over my shoulder. I asked officer not to do so, as I would take him away. B.
