Keep an oyster stand: have a partner.
 Left the stand at 8 P.M. counted my money: had 23 in bills. Did not go on any saloon. Met Ida Levy ^{about 8:15} on street: she asked me to go upstairs: I went up with her. Had some silver: gave her a silver dollar: she said "Can't you give me a bill" I gave her a one dollar bill from the roll and put the roll back in my left hand trousers pocket. Took off my coat and vest. While having sexual intercourse felt her hand in my pocket.
 She got up and went quickly out of the room and locked it from the outside: my roll of bills was gone: she had left her hat in the room: she returned for her hat and I demanded money I said "Give me my money" (can say this in English) There were two women and a man outside: they said she didn't take my money. We went down stairs and I got hold of her when we reached the street to get my money back.
 Saw a policeman across the street and went over: he came right over she was going away very quickly, the policeman hurried & arrested her.

occupation Keep oyster stand being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 31st day of October 1893 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession and person of deponent, in the nighttime, the following property, viz:

Twenty two dollars lawful money of the United States the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Ida Levy (now here) for the reasons that deponent accompanied the defendant to a room at premises 316 Chrystie Street where deponent took said money which was in a box and gave the defendant a dollar therefrom and put the remainder in a pocket of the pantaloons then worn on his person and while deponent had said pantaloons upon his person he had sexual intercourse with the defendant. Immediately thereafter and before deponent left the room deponent missed said money.

After some time I ordered them out, because it was late, and I was about to close my place. This was about half past eleven at night. Both were under the influence of liquor. I put both of them out through the side door. And soon afterwards police officer Beck arrested the woman and drove the man away. He did not arrest the man at this time. He stated to me put it away for her for safe keeping. Her reason for so asking her was because thought she would go out and spend all she had. She refused and went away. She had been drinking.

Her next visit over to Jersey City was on the 10th. inst. She called on her sister and told her that a man would be over from New York and would give her $27. For her and he would also ask her what she knew about her character and to tell him about her. Louise Malloney did not stop with her sister as her sister would not have her there.

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1894.

MISS MULLALY'S CHANCE MEETING.

Both Were Arrested and the Man Had Her Pocketbook.

Policeman Back, of the Church street station, arraigned in the Tombs Police Court to-day John Lenahan, thirty years old, a bricklayer, of No. 88 Third avenue, on a charge of grand larceny. The policeman said that at half-past eleven o'clock last night he arrested the real complainant, Louisa Mullaly, thirty years old, of No. 443 West Twenty-second street, and took her to the station house for safe keeping, as she was "somewhat under the influence of liquor." When the young woman got there she said she had been robbed of her pocketbook by a man who accosted her on Cortlandt street. Policeman Back then went out and arrested Lenahan, whom he had previously seen in Miss Mullaly's company. In Lenahan's pocket was found a pocketbook containing $27.25, and in his pocket was 10 cents.

Miss Mullaly identified the pocketbook and the $27.25 as hers. Lenahan denied having taken the pocketbook from the woman. He said he went to Garwood, N. J., yesterday to collect some arrears of wages and had met the complainant on his return to New York. They had been in a saloon drinking and she gave him her pocketbook. After giving it to him she began to cry out and the police came up and arrested her for disorderly conduct. He claimed that the policeman and the woman were swearing falsely against him. He was held in $500 bail for trial and Miss Mullaly was sent to the House of Detention as a witness. Miss Mullaly says she is a sister of the Rev. Mother Superior of the Little Sisters of the Poor. She has been a domestic, but lost her place on October 1. Since then she has been sick at her married sister's house at Harrison, N. J. She contradicted herself twice regarding her home in this city.

On the 15th day of November, 1892 at about half past eight o'clock P. M. Mr. James W. Mc Laughlin and myself called at the Second Precinct Police Station in the City of New York. In response to a question by Mr. James W. Mc Laughlin in regard to the arrest of the above named defendant, the Sergeant at the desk, Mr. Heap, said that he remembered that the defendant above named was arrested on the 26th day of October at 11.55 P. M. That about a half an hour before the complainant in this action, Louise Mullaney, was arrested and charged with drunkenness. Mr. Mc Laughlin asked the Sergeant to make an Affidavit of the above facts but he refused. The reason he gave was that he didnot make the entries on the Police Blotter himself, but the Sergeant who relieved him. The Sergeant further said that we could get all the information we wanted from one, Stephen Kelly, Proprietor of the Saloon on the corner of Courtlandt and Washington Streets. Mr. Mc Laughlin and myself went to the Saloon of said Stephen Kelly, and in response to questions made by Mr. Mc Laughlin, Mr. Kelly substantially told ~~the~~ ~~following~~xx what is contained in the Affidavit made by himself and attached hereto.

That while Mr. Kelly was making the Affidavit, he was called to the side door by some one who I afterwards found to be Officer Back, and I overheard the following conversation: "Now Mr. ^{if any body} Kelly, comes around to speak to you about this case you should give them no information, and mind you the story I told ~~you~~ in the Court, in case you are called, must be substantiated by you. My Dear Judge:-

I notice on the calendar for to-morrow the above case. I have tried to have it disposed of either by a trial or by a recommendation in the other parts, but have been unable to do so. They can see by the papers that no conviction can be had and do not care to dismiss it because you tried the case when the conviction was obtained.

I cannot have the case disposed of unless you will dismiss it. You know that the people cannot hope for a conviction, and why put me to the trouble and take up my time to twice try an ^{old} assign case. I did not know until a few minutes ago that the case would be placed on your calendar. I hope that you will find sufficient in all the proceedings in the case to discharge the defendant upon his own recognizance.

Yours very truly

Dear Sir

I take the liberty to write you, concerning the case of Louisa Mullaly, who is the plaintiff in the case of Union Bank & Mullaly. Louisa has been in my custody for the last eight months and I have found her to be honest, respectable and modest girl and with the exception of her one failing I can speak of her in the highest terms.

I submit this, because there has been an attempt to pervert the character of the plaintiff. The defendant says that she had collected on a bill with regard to which she was in this way. This is a statement and which I submit I cannot be having contrary to the evidence, that which was made her of at the former trial.

The defendant's name is not in the paper in the office ~~is~~ as it not being in any way to the understand that it was made

The People
vs Jury Livery

Court of General Sessions Part I Before Judge Fitzgerald November 16. 1892 Indictment for assault in the second degree Wolf Herzowitz, sworn and examined, testified Where do you live? No. 337 East 106th Street How long have you lived there? Two years and a half. What is your business? Sailor. Do you know the defendant? Yes. How long have you known him? About five months. Did you see him on the 31st of October? I see him every day. I do not know exactly whether I saw him that day or not. Do you remember the day you had the trouble with the defendant? It was on a Monday.
On Monday October 31st 1892 about what time of day was it that you met the defendant? About four o'clock in the afternoon.
Did he say anything to you? He came up to the house and asked me why I made him move & he said that if he could not live in the house I could not be the landlord. Did he say anything else? He pulled out the knife and he made a lunge at my breast and I caught it with the hand; it cut my hand and cut me in the arm. He stabbed you in the arm? Yes.
Did he strike your body? No, another man caught the knife and took it away from him. Is that the knife, he had (knife shown) Yes. Did you have your wounds dressed? I tied it up with a handkerchief myself. Who was present at the time you had the quarrel? Louis Hoffman. He is in Court now? Yes. The defendant was not living in your premises at that time was he? No, he moved away two or three weeks before. You had him dispossessed? Yes sir.

Q. Examined. Did you have any trouble with him when you had him dispossessed? He did not pay his rent for a month, and I told him he has to move. He said, "Never mind, I will move, but I will fix you." There were two other persons present when he said that. How long have you had that knife? From the day when he stabbed me. Has it been in your possession ever since? The policeman and the knife. Before the day you were cut with it, how long before that had you this knife? I did not see it before that time. Is that your knife? No sir, it is the prisoner's knife. Where did ~~he have~~ that knife? In the pocket. I did not have time to see. Was it open or closed? It was closed.

but immediately opened. Now did he stab me in the arm? He aimed it at my chest, and I got hold of the knife with the hand and the knife went into my arm and there he stabbed me in the arm.
Now did he get cut first, in the hand or in the arm? Not in the hand; then did the knife go down & cut me; then he stabbed me in the arm. Did you have a coat on? Only a jumper.
I was working there. Now you got the jumper on now? No, I was not. I have another jumper on.

Loring Hoffman came and examined.
Do you know the complainant in the case? No. Do you know the defendant?
I saw him when he lived in the house.

No. 337 east 106th Street. Do you remember the 31st of October 1892 his coming to the house 337 east 106th Street, Monday? No sir.

Tell the jury what you saw happen there that day. I was working at my trade.
I am a painter. Then some one, a painter who was in the house said, "there is a fight on the top floor." Then I came up to the top floor there were several persons there already. Then the people cried out, "he has a knife, he has a knife". Then I saw they were holding each other - the complainant and the prisoner - the prisoner had a knife in his hand and I reached out and got the knife out of his hand. Did you see the defendant strike at the complainant with the knife? No, I was not there when he stabbed him. When I came up there were several persons all around him. Is that the knife that the defendant had (knife shown)?

Yes. Did you deliver that to the policeman? Yes, I gave it to the policeman. Did you see any blood on the complainant? Yes, I saw blood. I did not see the actual stabbing, but I saw the arm bleeding because I did not come up at the beginning.

Q. Examined. Did you see the Italian was bleeding? No, I did not see it. I did not see any blood on him. Did you see any blood on the German or your friend the complainant? Yes, I saw on his sleeve he had some blood, but I do not know where it came from. How was the complainant dressed? He only had a jumpsuit on. I saw his arm was bleeding and the handkerchief was full of blood. He held the handkerchief in his hand. I do not know which arm was stabbed - it was on the left arm. I saw the blood and there was blood on the jumper. What color was the jumper? I did not notice. I just came from my work and went away to my work immediately - it was a light, bluish color.

 I am a presser of pants. Tailors do not use such a knife as that.
 Some other knives, I saw and examined.
 I am an officer. I remember the 31st of October 1892? I do. Was that the day you arrested this defendant Henry Lowmy? It was Did you arrest him on a warrant? No sir You arrested him at the request of the complainant? Yes. Where did you find him?
 I found him in 333 East 106th street, crunched in a little room nearly under the bed in the corner where he had hid.
 Did he tell you he had lived there?
 No. I asked him what he was doing there? He made no reply. Did you ever see this knife before? I did. Where did you get that knife? From Louis Hoffman.
 Did you ever ask the defendant anything about this knife? I did not. Did you ask him any thing about the fight? I did.
 What did he say? He said that he did not stab the man at all. I asked him what he was doing in the room there, why he hid away there? He gave me no reply; he said he could not speak any English. Did you see the complaining witness, that day, did you see any cuts on his arm, did you see any blood on his arm? I did. Did you see his hand? I did not take notice of his hand at the time. I saw the arm but once attempted to find out where this man was and arrested him.

Was examined. Did you see the cuts on his arm? I did. There were two small cuts on his left arm. They were not very deep to the best of my judgment. You did not think it was a case you would take to the Hospital, anything of that kind? I did not. I did not see the cut in his hand. I did not look for it. You saw this defend-ant in his own home, was he? He was in a little room crunched in a corner of the bed on the floor at 333 East 106th near a bed, between the bed and the wall, a little corner, a sort that space (showing) it looked like a bundle of rags lying there. I do not know that he is a ruffian. Had he the appearance of being asleep? He had no appearance of being asleep. You do not believe he rolled off the bed? I have no reason to believe he did. I do not know if he could talk any English, he said he could not. I got the knife from Louis Hoffmann. I did not notice any blood on it. It was closed, and it is now in the same condition as it was when he handed it to me. I got it from him on the 31st of October previous to making the arrest.

Louis Hoffmann recalled by forensic. Before I handed the knife to the officer I did not see any blood on it and did not wipe it off and did not clean it. I closed it up, and when the officer came I gave it to him closed.

Samy Simony, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified: I have do you live? No. 311, 107th street, east side. Took at that knife. [Interpreter:] He gives answer, "it is my knife." Did you stab that man Herskowitz on the day that he swore here that you did? No sir. I only touched him with my hands. I had the knife open. Kept in your pocket? Then I was talking to him, and a great many people surrounded us, and then I took the knife into my hand, but I did not intend to do anything with the knife. When the policeman came to where he was he says he found him crunched down behind a bed in the corner, ask him if the policeman remembers it correctly? Yes. I was sitting there on the floor. Let him explain what he was doing there, how he got in that position? I did not know where to go, and I know the policeman will be after me, there I put myself there between the bed and the wall. What is your business? I have a fresh cart going out and buying rags.

Cross examined: Did you ever live in the complainant's house, 537 East 106th Street? Three months I lived there in his house. I was ~~there every day~~ ^{away} two weeks when I was arrested. I left the house because he offered five dollars to my wife; he wanted to have connection with her. My wife told me so, and that is the reason I left the house. I only owed him for half a month's rent. I went around to see him on the 31st of Oct. I was a little drunk. I went as fast as time to have a talk with him as a friend. I had the knife in my pocket, but I had no intention of doing anything with it. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the second degree.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace for New York City

The People vs
Ellen Ludlow
Def

City and County of New York ss:

Maud E. Hughes being duly sworn deposes and saith:

1 That she resides at no. 149 West 21st St in this city,

That she has known the above named defendant since she was three months old,

That defendants mother was in the employ of deponent from the time of she first saw defendant and until the defendant had attained the age of three years, at which time defendants mother left the employ of deponent and took defendant with her.

That deponent saw defendant nearly every day thereafter until she had attained the age of 14 years, and that deponent saw defendant ~~for~~ nearly Every day until she was taken in to the employ of deponent in the year 1887, excepting for the period of about one year when deponent was absent from the City.

While defendant was in the employ of deponent, deponent was doing an extensive "fancy goods" business and that deponent often trusted defendant with large sums of money for the purpose of paying bills and purchasing goods and for deposit in the bank.

That on one occasion deponent gave to defendant Five Hundred Dollars to deposit in the bank at another time Two Hundred Dollars for the same purpose.

That she frequently trusted defendant with sums of money in the amount of one hundred dollars to pay bills and to purchase goods.

Deponent further says that she frequently left her jewelry which defendant might easily have taken if she wished, and that if defendant was inclined to steal, she had many opportunities to do so but that deponent always found her honest, and industrious and can not say too much in her praise and that deponent would be glad and willing to take her back into her employ tomorrow if she were in need of a servant of any kind.

Deponent further says that she truly believes that until the present trouble the defendant has been an honest, upright girl - and that if she were not ~~deponent~~ would certainly have known it.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

*Agremiah Sugars,
Timothy S. Sugars
and Thomas S. Humphreys*

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment accuse Agremiah Sugars, Timothy S. Sugars and Thomas S. Humphreys of the crime of perjury committed as follows:

Heretofore, to wit: on Tuesday the eighth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety two, there was held a general election throughout the State of New York, and in the said City and County of New York, and on the said day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, the said Agremiah Sugars, Timothy S. Sugars and Thomas S. Humphreys, all late of the City and County aforesaid, were public officers, to wit: the Supervisors of Election of the Twenty-second Election District of the Second Assembly District of the said City and County of New York, duly appointed, qualified and acting as such for and at the said general election, and as such then and there constituted and

Thompson, and Directors of Election as aforesaid, a duty that one of them should tender to him the said John Smith, the following preliminary oath: "you do swear (or affirm, that you will fully and truthfully answer all such questions as shall be put to you touching your place of residence and qualifications as an elector," as then the said Jeremiah Dixon, Timothy E. Dixon and Thomas E. Thompson then and there well knew.

Nevertheless, the said Jeremiah Dixon, Timothy E. Dixon and Thomas E. Thompson, acting such Directors of Election as aforesaid, well knowing the premises, and that the said John Smith had been so challenged as aforesaid, neither of them did then and there tender to the said John Smith the said preliminary oath, but on the contrary each and all of them, being such Directors of Election as aforesaid, did then and there feloniously, negligently and knowingly refuse, neglect and omit to tender the said preliminary oath to the said John Smith, and thus the said John Smith then and there, notwithstanding the said challenge, did then and there appear to vote in the said election without vote, without reason tendering or admitting to him or requiring him to take any oath whatsoever, or submitting him to any inquiries concerning his qualifications as an elector of the said Election District, at the said election; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

Second Count. --

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said Grenville August, Timothy S. Rogers and Thomas S. Humphreys of a misdemeanor, committed as follows. --

To-wit: on the said eighth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety two, there was held a general election throughout the State of New York, and in the said City and County of New York; and on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, the said Grenville August, Timothy S. Rogers and Thomas S. Humphreys, at that date of the City and County aforesaid were the Inspectors of Election of the Twenty-second Election District of the Second Assembly District of the said City and County of New York, duly appointed, qualified and acting as such, for and at the said general election, and as such then and there constituted and composed the Board of Inspectors of Election of the said Election District. And on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, one John Smith did personally appear and present himself before the said Jeremiah Sugors, Timothy S. Sugors and Thomas S. Humphreys, so being, such Inspectors of Election, and so constituting and composing the Board of Inspectors of Election of the said Election District, at a meeting of the said Board of Inspectors of Election then being duly held for the reception of the votes of the duly qualified electors of the said Election District, at the duly designated polling place of the said Election District, and until the polls of the said Election in and for the said Election District were open for the reception of votes, and did then and there offer to vote in the said Election District at the said Election, whereupon the said John Smith was then and there, and before he had so voted, duly challenged in respect to his right to vote in the said Election District at the said Election. And the said John Smith having been so challenged as aforesaid, there then and there became and was by the laws of this State imposed upon the said Jeremiah Sugors, Timothy S. Sugors and Thomas S. Humphreys, such Inspectors of Election as aforesaid, a duty that one of them should tender to him the said John Smith, before he was permitted to vote at the said election in the said Election District, the following preliminary oath: "I, the undersigned, swear (or affirm) that you will fully and truly answer all such questions as shall be put to you touching your age, residence and qualifications as an elector," as they the said Jeremiah Lyons, Timothy S. Lyons and Thomas S. Humphreys then and there well knew. Nevertheless, the said Jeremiah Lyons, Timothy S. Lyons and Thomas S. Humphreys, not being such Inspectors of Election as aforesaid, well knowing the premises, and that the said John Smith had been so challenged as aforesaid, neither of them did then and there tender to the said John Smith the said preliminary oath, but on the contrary, each and all of them, being such Inspectors of Election as aforesaid, did then and there unlawfully, wilfully and knowingly refuse, neglect and omit to tender the said preliminary oath to the said John Smith, and him the said John Smith, then and there, notwithstanding the said challenge, did suffer and permit to vote at the said election in the said Election District, without tendering or administering to him, or requiring him to take any oath whatsoever, or subjecting him to any inquiries concerning his qualifications as an elector of the said Election District, at the said election; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

Third COUNT.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said Jeremiah Lyons, Timothy E. Lyons and Thomas E. Shumway of a felony of the ~~Crime~~ or committed as follows:

Heretofore, to wit: on the said eighth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety two, there was held a general election throughout the State of New York, and in the said City and County of New York, and on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, the said Jeremiah Lyons, Timothy E. Lyons and Thomas E. Shumway, all late of the City and County aforesaid, were the Inspectors of Election of the Twenty second Election District of the Second Assembly District of the said City and County of New York, duly appointed, qualified and acting as such for and at the said general election, and as such then and there constituted and composed the Board of Inspectors of Election of the said Election District. And on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the city and county aforesaid, one John Smith did personally appear and present himself before the said Jeremiah Lyons, Timothy S. Lyons and Thomas S. Humphreys, solemnly and lawfully sworn as Inspectors of Election, and so constituted and composing the Board of Inspectors of Election of the said Election District, at a meeting of the said Board of Inspectors of Election then being duly held for the reception of the votes of the duly qualified electors of the said Election District, at the duly designated polling place of the said Election District, and whilst the rolls of the said election in and for the said Election District were open for the reception of votes, and did then and there offer to vote in the said Election District at the said election; whereupon the said John Smith was then and there and before he had so voted, duly challenged in relation to his right to vote at the said election in the said Election District.

And the said John Smith, having been so duly challenged as aforesaid, the said Jeremiah Lyons, Timothy S. Lyons and Thomas S. Humphreys, solemnly and lawfully sworn as Inspectors of Election as aforesaid, well knowing the premises, and that the said John Smith had been so challenged as

I received, & accordingly did illegally receive a vote from the said John Smith, without exacting from him the said John Smith the oath or any other proof of qualification required by law in such case, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.
