MURIDDIN FAIZ, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am a Minister of the World Community of Islam and a New York State Area Chaplain, New York State Department of Correctional Services, having been issued Identification Card No.
039275 thereby.

2. Since approximately 1973, I have been visiting Mujahid Abdul Halim (Thomas Hagan) at the Eastern Correctional Facility, Napanoch, N.Y. as his minister. Over the years, he has been increasingly concerned with the fact that his co-defendants in the within indictment were innocent of the crime of which they were convicted with him.

3. During the past several months, he has indicated that he would like to relate the details of the planning and execution of that crime in order to exonerate his innocent co-defendants. He also expressed to me that he was now prepared and willing to testify on their behalf at any hearing granted in this matter and subject himself to direct and cross examination as to all the details of his involvement in said crime.

4. On November 29, 1977, he prepared his affidavit which accompanies this notice of motion in his own handwriting in my presence but was unable to obtain a notary public because of the late hour in which it was completed. At the request of William M. Kunstler, I asked Mr. Hagan to call him the next day and certify that he had indeed written and signed the affidavit in question. On November 30, 1977, I delivered the said affidavit to Mr. Kunstler at his office in New York City.

5. I firmly believe that Mr. Hagan is telling the truth and that he is now prepared to furnish every last detail of the crime of which defendants were convicted from the witness stand and that his purpose is to exonerate two innocent men.

1) I am one of the persons indicted for the murder of Malcolm X at the Audubon Ballroom, N.Y.C. on Feb. 26, 1965.

2) That I have been sentenced to life in prison for

3) that I am now incarcerated on Eastern Correctional Inst.

4) that I am writing this affidavit in the hope that it will show my dependants of the charges brought against them in this case. My 4 dependants are Thomas X Johnston wife, Martin X Butler.

that sometime in 1964 Malcolm X was said to have gone against the Leader of the Nation of Islam, the Hon. Elijah Muhammad.

In the following year Malcolm X was declared a hypocrite by the Nation of Islam.

That in the Summer of 1965 I was contacted by a brother named Lee and another person named the situation with Gerald X. I told I thought it was very bad for anyone to go against the leadership of the Hon. Elijah. Then known as the First Marriage of S.O. I was told that situation should move on. I was willing to fight against a government I opposed if that situation was moving away from me for my pastor the. I thought I was fighting for truth & right. There were a few meetings held concerning the situation, there were held in a car driving around.

Bro. J. J. Ben, a Brother James Miller &
the other Brother's name was well known or a name like that. From these meetings it was decided that that the only place that would be was sure to be was the Audubon Ballroom on Feb. 21, 1965.
Therefore, the plan was to hold the pastor there.
On Feb. 21st 1965 we met at the Ballroom Sunday morning. On Feb. 20th 1965 was had gone to the Ballroom to check it out.

One Sunday morning we, the above named, got in the Rev. Martin Luther King and the N.Y.C. and parked the car on the lower floor and then we went into the ballroom.
We & Bro. Ben took seats down front in the first row.

... to them the gun shot started the ...
was, picking his pocket. I used a 45 caliber.

Now she told a lawyer and mother & told the shot gun. She plan was that when the shooting started people were to be taken out one by one & placed with the ... get out of the Ballroom.

So when the shot gun went off Mrs. Lee & I first our gun at Mr. X. & ran for the door.

I was shot in right leg but was able to keep moving on just one leg. I was able to get down stairs by sliding down railing to the door. I was captured right outside Ballroom by a police officer.

WILLIAM M. KUNSTLER, being duly sworn, deposes and
says:

1. I am the attorney for the above named defendants and I am making this affidavit in support of their motion, pursuant to §440.10(g), Criminal Procedure Law, for orders (1) vacating their judgments of conviction upon the ground that new evidence has been discovered since the entry thereof which could not have been produced by them at their trial even with due diligence on their parts and which is of such a character as to create a probability that, had such evidence been received at the said trial, the verdicts would have been more favorable to them, (2) dismissing the within indictment as to them, or, in the alternative, (3) granting them new trials, and (4) such other and further relief as may be just and proper in the premises including, but not limited to, an evidentiary hearing to prove the allegations hereinbefore set forth.

2. At approximately 3:00 p.m. on Sunday, February 21, 1965, Malcolm X, a/k/a Malcolm Shabazz, a/k/a Malcolm Little, hereinafter referred to as Malcolm X, a former minister of New York

City Mosque Number 7 of the then Nation of Islam, a Muslim religious organization with its headquarters in Chicago, Illinois, was shot to death just prior to addressing an audience in the main ballroom of the Audubon Ballroom, an auditorium located at West 166th Street and Broadway in the County and City of New York.

3. Subsequently, and on or about March 10, 1965, three Black men, namely Thomas Hagan, a/k/a Talmadge Hayer, Norman Butler, a/k/a Norman 3X Butler, and Thomas Johnson, a/k/a Thomas 15X Johnson, hereinafter referred to as Hagan, Butler and Johnson, respectively, were indicted by a New York County grand jury for the murder of the said Malcolm X, a copy of which indictment is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

4. After the said defendants had interposed their pleas of not guilty, their trial began in Part 37 of this Court on December 6, 1965, before Hon. Charles Marks, then a Justice thereof, and ended with their convictions by a jury on March 11, 1966. On April 14, 1966, all said defendants were sentenced by Justice Marks to state prison for the terms of their natural lives.

5. On May 22, 1968, the Appellate Division, First Department, affirmed their judgments of conviction, People v. Hagan, 29 A.D.2d 931 (1st Dept. 1968). The Court of Appeals likewise affirmed said judgments on April 16, 1969, People v. Hagan, 24 N.Y. 2d 395 (1969), and the United States Supreme Court subsequently denied certiorari, Hayer et al. v. New York, 396 U.S. 886 (1969).

6. Defendants are presently serving their sentences at Walkill Correctional Facility, Walkill, N.Y. (Johnson), Ossining Correctional Facility, Ossining, N.Y. (Butler) and Eastern Correctional Facility, Napanoch, N.Y. (Hagan).

7. On February 28 and March 1, 1966, Hagan, after having previously testified in his own behalf and denied his guilt, TT. 2675-2755, */ was then recalled as a witness for Butler and thereupon testified that he had been approached early in the month of February, 1965, and offered money to assassinate Malcolm X, and that, with a number of confederates, had planned and executed the crime. TT. 3135-3179, 3211-3241. However, even though vigorously pressed to do so by counsel for these movants, TT. 3145, the prosecutor, TT. 3151-2 and the trial judge, TT. 3145, he refused to name his accomplices or give any but the sketchiest of details about the said planning and execution. But he constantly reiterated that neither Butler nor Johnson had been involved in the crime. See eg. TT. 3145-6, 3149 and 3170. As he explained it, "I got up here for one reason and that was to clear the two men of this charge that I know they are not guilty of." TT. 3218. He insisted that he and "four. . . other people," TT. 3155, had committed the crime, but that the movants were not involved "and didn't have anything to do with the crime that was committed at the Audubon Ballroom February 21st, that I did take part in it, and that I know for a fact that they wasn't there. . . ." TT. 3145.

8. During his incarceration at Eastern Correctional */ All references to the trial transcript will be indicated by the letters TT, followed by the appropriate pagination.

<sup>**</sup> It should be remembered that there was no physical evidence linking Butler or Johnson to the crime, they were not apprehended at the scene of the crime and that each had an alibi for the afternoon of February 21, 1965, alibis supported by other defense witnesses. TT. 177, 3019, 3244, 3417 and 3516, all et seq.

Facility, said Hagan has been regularly visited by Department of Correctional Services Chaplain Nuriddin Faiz, a Minister of the World Community of Islam, formerly known as the Nation of Islam, and, after many meetings with said chaplain, he decided to furnish the details of his involvement in the planning and execution of the assassination of Malcolm X on February 21, 1965, including the names of his confederates, which he disclosed to said chaplain on November 29, 1977, during a meeting at the said facility.

9. Prior thereto, and on October 11 and November 5, 1977, the undersigned, accompanied by Chaplain Faiz, met with Hagan at the said facility and participated in lengthy discussions with him, at which time he furnished us with many facts about the crime, including that much of the planning had taken place in Paterson, N.J., the details of the diversionary tactic that preceded the assassination, the types of weapons employed and who used them, and the shooting itself. I was - - and am - - firmly convinced that he told us the truth and would do so on the witness stand should this Court order an evidentiary hearing herein.

10. I have been assured by Chaplain Faiz and Mr. Hagan himself that the latter is now prepared to testify fully as to all of said details, including the names and last known addresses of his confederates at any evidentiary hearing held by this Court, most of which information was unavailable to defendants' prior counsel at any time and which, the record clearly reveals, was specifically withheld from them, the prosecutor and the trial judge during all stages of the prior proceedings, TT. 3145, 3151-2, 3169, 3173, 3176, 3177, 3179, 3216, 3219 and 3230-31, and, in fact, was not fully revealed by Mr. Hagan until November 29, 1977.

11. There can be no doubt that such evidence is newly discovered within the meaning of §440.10(g), Criminal Procedure Law, and that it could not have been produced by these defendants at their trial, even with all due diligence on their parts. It is also undeniable that, had such evidence been received at the said trial, it would create a probability that the verdicts would have been more favorable to them. Moreover, there can be little question that evidence that persons other than these movants committed the crime in question furnished by one who is testifying against his penal interest is admissible in this state. People v. Brown, 26 N.Y. 2d 88(1970) See also Chambers v. Mississippi, 410 U.S. 284 (1973). Under the circumstances, movants are clearly entitled, as a matter of law, to an evidentiary hearing at which the said new evidence can be presented to this Court for its consideration thereof with reference to the granting or denying of the relief, or any of it, sought herein. 38 N.Y. 2d 407 (1975) */

12. Movants have been incarcerated for more than twelve years, a tragic deprivation of liberty if, as they have consistently maintained, they are indeed innocent of the crime in question. Now, their co-defendant, who is in the unique position of knowing the truth thereof, has, after considerable soul searching, come forth and revealed the details of the crime, including the names of his confederates, and is prepared to go to even greater lengths

on the witness stand in any evidentiary hearing scheduled herein.

Movants are entitled to their day in court, so long delayed, to attempt to prove that they were wrongfully convicted and that they are entitled to their immediate freedom or, at the very least, to a new trial. Nothing short of such a hearing would comport with the standards of due process of law and the equal protection of the law mandated by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and the decisional law of this state. People v. Crimmins, supra.

13. On November 30, 1977, after talking to Mr. Hagan on the telephone and recognizing his voice, and being assured by him that he had written his affidavit in his own hand and signed it and now swore to the contents thereof, I notarized same.

14. No previous application for the relief sought herein, other than as indicated above, has been made to this or any other Court.

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully prayed that (1) defendants' judgments of conviction be vacated and the within indictment dismissed as to them, or, in the alternative, (2) they be granted a new trial, or, in the further alternative, (3) this matter be set down for an immediate evidentiary hearing, and (4) defendants be granted such other and further relief as may be just and proper in the premises.

4. At all times, the People must have known and the police certainly did know the identity of "Brother Jean" as well as the fact that he was a police officer and this vital information was never given to the defense but was, instead, deliberately withheld from it.

5. This is particularly significant in that one of the defenses asserted during the trial was that the authorities, and particularly the New York City Police Department, might have been involved in the murder. See eg., summation on behalf of defendant Butler on pp. 3725-26, Trial Transcript. To hide from the defendants the identity of an eyewitness who was an undercover police agent violates every principle of fair play as well as all of the decisional law in this area. It was done wilfully and deliberately and undercut one of the thrusts of the defense.

Ind. No. 871/65

WILLIAM M. KUNSTLER, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am the attorney for defendants herein and I am submitting this affidavit in support of their motion, pursuant to §440.10, subdivision 1(b), (f), (g) and (h), Criminal Procedure Law, for orders vacating their judgments of conviction and dismissing the within indictment as to them or, in the alternative, granting them new trials and other related relief.

2. In a previous affidavit, submitted herein on or about December 8, 1977, in connection with a supplemental notice of motion bearing the same date, I made reference to the fact that a "Brother Jean" who was on the platform of the Audubon Ballroom as a security guard at or about the time that Malcolm X was killed on February 21, 1965, was, in fact, an undercover agent of the Police Department of the City of New York by the name of Gene Roberts and that his true identity was never revealed to the defense during the within trial. Since submitting said affidavit, I have obtained the portion of the transcript of People of the State of New York v. Shakur et al., Ind. No. 1848 1/2 - 1969, which refers to the said Roberts' testimony therein in which he admits that he was indeed present at the time and place when Malcolm X was assassinated and observed a great deal of what happened thereat. Pp. 5724-5736 of said transcript are attached hereto and made a part hereof as Exhibit A.

3. Detective Roberts, who had been a patrolman on February 21, 1965, Exh. A, p. 5732, testified fully at the Shakur trial about what he termed "the truth about the assassination." Ibid. at p. 5726.

Q. You are going to tell us the truth about what happened to Malcolm X?

A. Yes.

Q. And this is the truth that you observed?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you testify at the trial of three people who were charged with the assassination?

A. No.

Q. But you saw it happen?

A. Yes.

Q. But you didn't testify?

A. No.

Q. Didn't you want the truth to come out there?

A. Yes.

Q. Why didn't you testify?

A. I wasn't called.

Q. But you knew what happened?

A. Yes.

Q. And you didn't testify?

A. No.

4. Prior to taking the stand in the Shakur trial, he had been informed by the prosecutor that "Mr. Lefcourt. . .or. . . somebody" was going to ask him about Malcolm X. Exh. A at p. 5728. He had then told him "what really happened there." Ibid. at p. 5729. He then proceeded to testify at great length as to what had happened at the Audubon Ballroom on February 21, 1965. Among other things, he said that he had been a member of the first rostrum security guard which had been relieved after the speech of one Benjamin Goodman. Ibid. at p. 5730. When Goodman finished, he had introduced Malcolm X who then "approached the platform and gave the Muslim greeting." Id. At that time, "two individuals near the front of the auditorium jumped up, one hollering, 'Get your hand out of my pocket,' at which time there was a small commotion." Id. He had "started down the aisle where the commotion was," Id., when he heard shots. He had seen "[T]wo individuals" fire at Malcolm and then run down the middle aisle of the auditorium. Id.

5. Roberts, after seeing Malcolm clutch his chest, went down "one aisle", Id., arriving at the rear of the auditorium simultaneously with the two men he had seen shoot at the victim. Ibid. at pp. 5730-1. As one passed him, Roberts had "grabbed a chair," Ibid. at p. 5731, when "[T]he individual who was subsequently caught, named Hayer. . .", Id., looked in his direction and fired "what looked like a .45. . .", Id., at him. Because Roberts had sidestepped, the bullet had missed his body but hit his jacket. Id. He had then thrown the chair in his hand at Hayer, knocking him to the floor, but the latter had gotten to his feet and hobbled

"out the front," Id., at which time another security guard had arrived in the vicinity and taken "a shot at the same individual." Id.

6. Roberts had then gone out the front door where he saw a large crowd "kicking and stomping. . . an individual." Id. He had then returned to the stage of the ballroom where "I proceeded to give Malcolm mouth to mouth resuscitation," Id. Some twenty minutes later, the police "finally got there and took him over to Medical Center." Id.

7. He also testified that he had been a member of "Malcolm's organization," Ibid. at p. 5732, for some time, that he had attended "various meetings", Id., at which the victim had spoken at that same ballroom, and that, on every such occasion "prior to that night" there had always been "large contingents of uniformed police" present. Id.

Q. But that night there were none, right?

A. This afternoon there was only a few on the outside.

Id.

Moreover, he had not seen any other police officers "around" on the day of the assassination. Ibid. at p. 5726.

8. The standard applying to new evidence is that it must be "discovered since the entry of a judgment. . . [and] could not have been produced by the defendant. . . even with due diligence on his part" and must be "of such a character as to create a probability that had such evidence been received at the trial the verdict would have been more favorable to the defendant. N.Y. §440.10, subdivision

1(g), Criminal Procedure Law. That the willingness of Thomas Hagan, after years of soul searching, to testify as to the identity of his confederates in the assassination of Malcolm X and the detailed plans relating thereto meets every aspect of this standard hardly requires further discussion on movant's part. If Mr. Hagan had been prepared to so testify at the original trial, it is highly probable that the verdicts as to these defendants would have been more favorable, to say the very least. The prosecutor well understood the potential effect of Hagan's testimony and thoroughly undermined it at the trial. See TT. 3147-3180 and 3211-3241.

9. The new evidence relating to the identity of Detective Gene Roberts also fully meets the statutory standard for a variety of reasons. The hiding of his identity deprived movants of a potential witness who (a) observed the assassination and the events immediately succeeding it, (b) could have exculpated these defendants, (c) would have added substance to the defense theory that the murder of Malcolm X was brought about or instigated by the New York City Police Department and other law enforcement agencies, and (d) would have discredited many of the prosecution's crucial witnesses by the sharp variances between his testimony at the Shakur trial and that given by the former at this one.

10. Furthermore, it makes very little difference whether it was the police, the prosecutor or both who concealed this vital information. The only relevant consideration is that the state did not disclose it to the defense, even when requested, and the onus falls on the entire prosecution which was thoroughly tainted by the failure to inform.

11. Just a cursory reading of the trial transcript reveals the enormous extent of the disparity between Roberts' testimony in Shakur and that given by many witnesses at the within trial. For example, Cary Thomas, the People's first significant witness, testified that, just as Malcolm X began to address the audience at the Audubon Ballroom, one man stood up "in the rear" and said, in effect, "Man, what are you doing with your hand in my pocket?" TT. 236, 386. This is in sharp contrast to Roberts' version that "two individuals near the front of the auditorium jumped up, one hollering, 'Get your hand out of my pocket'." Shakur TT. 5730. Additionally, although Roberts testified to knocking Hagan down with a chair after being shot at by him, counsel does not recall any other trial witness so stating. Shakur TT. 5731. In this connection, see the testimony of Vernal Temple, Edward De Pina, George Whitney, Jasper Davis, John Davis, Ronald Timberlake, Fred Williams and Charles Blackwell.

12. Moreover, Roberts' testimony that, although there had always been "large contingents of uniformed police" at all of Malcolm X's previous meetings at the ballroom, there were "only a few on the outside" on this occasion, Shakur TT. 5732, would have substantially buttressed the defense contention that the police were somehow involved in the assassination. In this connection, see the startling testimony of Patrolman Gilbert Henry that he had been concealed in the Rose Room at the Audubon Ballroom at the time of the Malcolm X meeting with another officer, Patrolman John Carroll, at the direction of their superior officer, a Sergeant Devaney, TT. 2443, 2451, who had given them specific instructions "to remain where [they] would not be seen." TT. 2442. At this time, Patrolman Henry had with him a walkie-talkie which was "connected with another walkie-talkie" in the possession of an officer in the Columbia University Presbyterian Medical Center. TT. 2414. After hearing the first shots, Henry had entered the main ballroom where he did not see any other uniformed officers or recognize any detectives. TT. 2438. #/

13. It must be kept in mind that, at this time, the FBI's COINTELPRO operation was in full swing, beginning in 1956 and continuing, according to the Bureau, until 1971. Book III, Final Report of the Select Committee to Study Governmental Operations with Respect to Intelligence Activities, United States Senate, April 23, 1976, p. 3, hereinafter sometimes referred to as the Church Committee Report. One of the techniques employed in this program was the instigation of enmity or factionalism within rival Black groups. Ibid. at pp. 40-54. Included within this technique was the use of hostile third parties against targeted groups. Ibid. at pp. 49-50. Moreover, the then Nation of Islam was designated as a "primary target." Ibid. at pp. 21, fn. 93, as was the Hon. Elijah Muhammed. Id.

14. Instigating or encouraging the murder of Malcolm X would have fitted the aforementioned COINTELPRO techniques to a T. As former Assistant to the Director William C. Sullivan testified before the Church Committee, "[N]o holds were barred. . . ." 11/17/75, pp. 97-98. That these techniques created serious risks of physical harm to their targets is fully documented in the Church Committee Report which concluded that "[W]hen the willingness to use techniques which were concededly dangerous or harmful to the targets is combined with the range of purposes and criteria by which these targets were chosen, the result is neither 'within bounds' nor 'justified' in a free society." Church Committee Report, at p. 9, Testimony James B. Adams, 11/19/75, Vol. 6, Hearings, pp. 73, 75. At the very least, defendants were entitled to the testimony of Detective Roberts to buttress this claim and to lead to further witnesses to sustain it.

15. Interestingly enough, the FBI was involved in the investigation of the Malcolm X killing, despite the fact that it was a case ostensibly not within that agency's jurisdiction. At the trial, Special Agent JOHN C. Sullivan testified that he had been contacted by another agent shortly after the assassination and that, following that conversation, he and another agent named Joseph T. Quigley had gone to a Brooklyn address where they had been shown one of the murder weapons by a Ronald Timberlake, one of the People's other witnesses. People's Exhibit 12, a .45 cal. revolver, was taken by Agent Sullivan. That evening, after Sullivan had telephoned the New York City Police Department, he was visited an inspector, a deputy inspector and a detective and, after a conversation, had turned the weapon over to the detective in question. Sullivan had returned to Timberlake's home the next evening and had a further conversation with him which was terminated when New York City police officers arrived. Moreover, the FBI had received some thirty photographs from the Police Department of "people who were in the area when Malcolm was killed." TT. 1773-93.

16. The hiding of the identity of a key witness to a murder is such a denial of due process of law that it is difficult to think of a more heinous one. Fundamental justice would require the granting of a new trial on this ground alone. It is obvious that the defense never knew of the existence of this witness, other than by the designation of "Brother Jean," and that he would have been called if his identity had been made known to it. Even if the People did not know the identity, it can hardly be questioned that the Police Department certainly did and that it had the responsibility and obligation to make it known, particularly when the defense constantly inquired about it. See eg. TT. 1727.

17. For all of the above reasons, as well as those set forth in previously filed and served affidavits, defendants are entitled to the vacation of their judgments of conviction and the dismissal of the indictment as to them or, in the alternative, to a new trial, or, in the further alternative, to an evidentiary hearing to prove the allegations set forth in this and the other affidavits heretofore served and filed herein.

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that this Court grant all or some of the relief prayed for herein as well as such other and further relief as may seem just and proper in the premises.

Q The security section?

A Yes.

Q And what was your particular assignment?

A I can't remember, offhand.

Q To protect the speakers or anything like that?

A I can't recall.

Q Who were the speakers?

A Ozzie Davis was one of the speakers. I can't remember any of the others.

Q And it was the job of the security section to be security at that meeting?

A Yes.

Q That was a memorial for Malcolm X?

A Yes.

Q And Malcolm X is a very important figure in relation to the Black Panther Party, is he not?

A Yes.

Q All of these defendants, you've heard talk of Malcolm X, haven't you?

A Yes.

Q Now, after -- now, you've attended lots of rallies and meetings while you were in the Black Panther Party concerning Malcolm X?

A I've attended lots of rallies, yes, not all concerning Malcolm.

Q But there have been many concerning Malcolm?

A Yes.

Q Were you ever asked to speak at one of those memorials for Malcolm?

A Yes.

Q And you didn't, did you?

A I didn't hear you.

Q You didn't speak?

A The one I was asked to speak at was back at -- back at 2026 Seventh Avenue. There I did speak.

Q You did speak at one, but you didn't speak at another, is that your testimony?

A I didn't speak at the one at Cooper Junior High School.

Q Oh, you were asked to speak that day?

A Yes. I didn't speak at that one, mainly because I don't like talking in front of large groups. Arriving back at 2026 Seventh Avenue I was asked by Afeni Shakur to give a brief speech on Malcolm. Over there they had a PA system set up, but then the office, they were playing a lot of Malcolm's speeches, recorded speeches, and I gave about a five-minute talk on what happened at the -- what happened there at the assassination of Malcolm.

BY MR. LEFCOURT:

Q You were there, weren't you?

A At the assassination of Malcolm X?

Q Yes.

A Yes, I was.

Q Did you help do it?

A No, I did not.

Q You were his bodyguard that night, weren't you?

A MMM That afternoon, yes, I was.

Q And there were no other police around but you were there?

A I really don't know.

Q You didn't see any, did you?

A No.

Q Isn't it a fact that you helped murder Malcolm

A No, it isn't. But would you like to know the truth about the assassination?

A. SHAKUR: Yes.

Q We all would like to know the truth about the assassination.

THE COURT: Counselor, you behave yourself.

MR. PHILLIPS: I think the admonition -- may the witness answer the question?

THE COURT: Does the counsel wish the question to be answered?

A. SHAKUR: Yes.

MR. PHILLIPS: Yes; He said so.

BY MR. LEFCOURT:

Q You are going to tell us the truth about what happened to ~~ME~~ Malcolm X?

A Yes.

Q And this is the truth that you observed?

A Yes.

Q Did you testify at the trial of ~~MEM~~ three people who were charged with the assassination?

A No.

Q But you saw it happen?

A Yes.

Q But you didn't testify?

A No.

Q Didn't you want the truth to come out there?

A Yes.

Q Why didn't you testify?

A I wasn't called.

Q But you knew what happened?

A Yes.

Q And you didn't testify?

Q Isn't it a fact that during that trial two

MR. PHILLIPS: Your Honor, there were three defendants in that case. Mr. Lefcourt again has everything confused.

MR. LEFCOURT: I don't have --

THE COURT: All right. Proceed.

Q And the third one was not a Muslim, was he?

A I don't know whether he was or not. It was stated that he had been in the Newark mosque. I didn't know whether he was or wasn't.

Q Now, you discussed this whole testimony with Mr. Phillips about Malcolm X, haven't you?

A Yes.

Q And Mr. Phillips told you that there is a time that Mr. Lefcourt is going to ask you about Malcolm X

A When the meeting started, one of his lieutenants,

Benjamin Goodman, was the first one to speak.

At the end of Benjamin Goodman's speech, the rostrum security was relieved. I had been on the first rostrum security. So I proceeded to the back where we met the security captain who told us to just sit around and in a half hour if you would be on post again.

At that time there was another group that was on security. After Goodman finished his speech, he introduced Malcolm X.

Malcolm approached the platform and gave the Muslim greeting, at which time two individuals near the front of the auditorium jumped up, one hollering, "Get your hand out of my pocket," at which time there was a small commotion.

I started down the aisle where the commotion was and the next thing I knew chairs were being overturned, shots were being fired.

Two individuals were running past the front stage, firing at Malcolm and then proceeding down the middle aisle of the ballroom.

As I turned, I saw Malcolm grasp his chest. I didn't see him fall. And I followed down one aisle, and by the time I got to the back of the auditorium the two individuals that was in the middle aisle, we arrived at

I then turned, proceeded out the front door. I saw a large group of people and they had an individual, kicking and stomping him.

I came back into the ballroom, went to the stage where I proceeded to give Malcolm mouth to mouth resuscitation.

What appeared to be twenty minutes later that the police finally got there and took him over to Medical MEM Center.

MR. CRAIN: Your Honor, can the witness ~~be~~ please answer the question before we recess?

THE COURT: Mr. Crain, will you please be seated.

I suggest to counsel that when we resume we do not try the Malcolm X case. This is a case in which these defendants are on trial. I have permitted this deviation only because you asked the witness whether he killed Malcolm X.

MR. LEECOURT: I think it should be only because the witness and Mr. Phillips had agreed--

THE COURT: Your sarcasm again, Mr. Lefcourt, will --

We will declare a luncheon recess.

The jury is cautioned not to discuss the case among yourselves or with anyone else. You are to continue to maintain an open mind as to the guilt or innocence of the accused.

Should anyone approach you to discuss this case, please avoid conversation. If he persists, report the incident to the Court.

You are in no way to discuss this case outside of court. You are to refrain from all discussion of the case during the time you serve as jurors.

You are to continue to avoid reading newspaper accounts. You are to continue to avoid listening to radio reports or viewing reports on television.

We will resume at two-fifteen.

[Whereupon, the jurors and the alternate jurors leave the courtroom, and the following proceedings take place:]

THE COURT: All right. The Court is in recess.

AFTERNOON SESSION

TRIAL CONTINUED

(All the defendants, their counsel and the assistant district attorneys were present in the courtroom.)

THE COURT: All right, have the jury out.

(Whereupon the members of the jury enter the courtroom and take their respective seats in the jury box.)

THE COURT: All right, we may resume.

MR. LEFCOURT: May I apologize to those jurors who sometimes only view my back because of of inadvertence in walking up front?

DETECTIVE GENE ROBERTS, previously sworn, resumed the stand and testified further as follows:

Q Now Detective Roberts, did you ever testify before any grand jury or investigating body concerning the testimony you gave this morning about the assassination of Malcolm X?

THE COURT: Counselor, I thought I suggested and now I direct that we not go into the Malcolm X case. That has nothing to do with the case on trial.

MR. LEFCOURT: Your Honor, that was my last point. That's all I just wanted to ask that question and move on to something else.

THE COURT: All right, manifestly there can be good reasons for not using a witness in a trial. Now please get on with something that's relevant to the issues before the Court.

MR. DEFCOURT: Well, your Honor, may we have just that question answered?

THE COURT: No.

Q Now that morning that you went to the Malcolm X memorial at Cooper Jr. High School, do you recall what time you woke up that morning?

A No.

Q Well, do you recall that the meeting, the memorial was about 9.30 a.m. at the school?

A Yes.

Q And after that, later on in the day, you returned to 2026, did you not?

A Yes.

Q And at that time, you saw Massadou from the National office of the Black Panther Party, did you not?

A I think he was there at that time, yes.

Q And others were there?

A Yes.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK :

MUHAMMAD ABDUL AZIZ (NORMAN 3X BUTLER) and KHALIL ISLAM (THOMAS 15X JOHNSON), :

Defendants. :
----- -x

STATE OF NEW YORK )
COUNTY OF NEW YORK ) ss.:

WILLIAM C. CHANCE, Jr., being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I was the attorney for MUHAMMAD ABDUL AZIZ (NORMAN 3X BUTLER), one of the movants herein, at his trial in 1966 on the within indictment.

2. As such, I am convinced that there would have been a different result insofar as my then client was concerned had THOMAS HAGAN, ONE OF HIS co-defendants thereat, furnished the names of his confederates in the assassination of Malcolm X as well as the full details of the planning and execution of the crime.

3. Moreover, I did not know the identity of the "Brother Jean" who was depicted giving mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to the said Malcolm X, nor, I am sure, did any of my co-counsel in the case, even though we had asked for such information before and during the trial.

4. Furthermore, now that I know that "Brother Jean" was an undercover member of the New York City Police Department named Gene Roberts and that he was an eyewitness to the assassination, I feel that his testimony on my defendant's behalf would have buttressed his case by (1) contradicting many of the People's witnesses; (2) exonerating my defendant; and (c) furnishing significant evidence that the New York City Police Department and/or other law enforcement agencies were deeply involved in the said assassination.

5. I am firmly convinced that the identity of this police officer was deliberately kept from the defense in order to prevent it from producing highly relevant and material evidence that would, in my opinion, have probably changed the verdict against my client to a more favorable one.

6. I believe that, given the existing state of the law, defendants herein are clearly entitled to a new trial for all of the grounds set forth above.

MUHAMMAD ABDUL AZIZ (NORMAN 3X BUTLER) and KHALIL ISLAM (THOMAS 15X JOHNSON),

Defendants. :

STATE OF NEW YORK )
COUNTY OF NEW YORK ) ss.

1. I was one of the attorneys for KHALIL ISLAM (THOMAS 15X

JOHNSON) at his trial on the within indictment. Charles Beavers, my co-counsel, died some seven or so years ago.

2. I have been informed by WILLIAM M. KUNSTLER, my ex-client's present attorney, that THOMAS HAGAN, one of his co-defendants at the trial, is now prepared to reveal the names of his confederates in the assassination of Malcolm X and furnish the full details of the planning and execution of the crime. I feel that, if Mr. Hagan had been prepared to do this during the trial, it would probably have resulted in a more favorable verdict insofar as Mr. Johnson was concerned.

3. Mr. Kunstler has also informed me that the identity of "Brother Jean," a security guard who gave mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to Malcolm X after the latter was shot, is now known and that he was, in fact, one Gene Roberts, an undercover police officer of the City of New York. I am convinced that, had defense counsel known this man's identity before or during the trial, he might well have been called as a witness for one or more defendants. Among other things, he might have exonerated my client as well as explained the strange absence of police security at the Audubon Ballroom meeting of February 21, 1965. The withholding of his name, clearly known to the authorities, deprived all defendants of an eyewitness who might have been immeasurably helpful to them at the trial.

4. It is my professional belief that, given the present willingness of Mr. Hagan to testify fully about his role and that of his confederate in the assassination of Malcolm X, and the now known identity of "Brother Jean," these defendants are clearly entitled to a new trial under New York law.

SIRS:"

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE, that defendants, by their counsel, will move this Court, upon the affidavit of WILLIAM M. KUNSTLER, duly verified the 5th day of January, 1978, and all the proceedings heretofore had herein, at a Part 30 thereof, held in and for the County of New York at the Criminal Courts Building, 100 Centre Street, New York, N.Y. 10013, on the 16th day of January, 1978, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon thereof or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, for an order producing said defendants in the said Part 30 on the 19th day of January, 1978, in connection with their motion for relief pursuant to §440.10, CPL, which is scheduled to be heard on said date, and retaining said defendants in a penal institution within the City of New York until the final determination of their said motion by this Court, and granting such other and further relief as may be just and proper in the premises.

WILLIAM M. KUNSTLER, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am the attorney for the defendants herein whose motion for relief pursuant to §440.10, CPL, is scheduled for a hearing on January 19, 1978, in this Court.

2. Because of the complex nature of this motion, I consider it imperative that defendants be present during the said hearing. I consider this motion to be a major proceeding affecting the most important and significant rights of the defendants and that, without their presence, the said hearing could not be complete.

3. On December 27, 1978, by letter, I asked the Assistant District Attorney in charge of this matter to produce said defendants and he has just informed me that it should be done by application to this Court.

4. Furthermore, in view of the fact that the proceedings herein will probably be lengthy, it is also requested that both defendants be kept in the New York City area in a suitable place of detention until said proceedings have been completed in this Court. Constant consultation will be required, given the nature of this proceeding, and this can only be done if they are physically present within reasonable proximity to my office.

5. The defendants are located within 100 miles of this city, Mr. Butler being at the Ossining Correctional Facility and Mr. Johnson at the Walkill Correctional Facility. It is further requested that they be kept within the same penal institution in the City of New York, should this request be granted, and that suitable arrangements be made thereat for their protection.

6. No prior request for the relief sought herein, other than that set forth above, has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE, defendants respectfully request that all of the relief sought herein be granted, as well as such other and further relief as may be deemed just and equitable in the premises.

COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

WILLIAM M. KUNSTLER, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am the attorney for defendants herein and I am submitting this supplemental affidavit in support of their motion for new trials pursuant to §440.10, Criminal Procedure Law.

2. On December 19, 1977, I served and filed an affidavit supplemental to others previously served and filed by me in this matter. In ¶15 of said affidavit, I supplied information as to the involvement of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in the investigation of the assassination of Malcolm X. Since that time, other information has come to light which, in my opinion, requires the drafting of another supplemental affidavit in this case.

3. During the trial of the within indictment, both from eyewitness testimony and ballistics evidence, it was clear that a Luger had been used in the slaying of Malcolm X. As pointed out in my affidavit of December 8, 1977, this gun was picked up by Charles H. Blackwell, wrapped in a jacket, and, according to his Grand Jury testimony, then turned over to a "Brother Jean." TT. 1663. "Brother Jean" was later identified, long after the trial, as Gene Roberts, a New York Police Department undercover agent. At the trial,

NYC.gov/records however, Blackwell said that his Grand Jury testimony was wrong and that he had handed the Luger to one Rueben Francis. TT. 1743-44.

4. Despite this fact and the additional one that Rueben Francis had shot and wounded Hagan while the latter was attempting to escape from the Audubon Ballroom after the shooting, he was never called as a witness at the trial. Francis was arrested on the day of the assassination and indicted on March 10, 1965, for assaulting Hagan and related charges. He was freed on bail two days later, bond having been set at $10,000.00. When he didn't appear in court on May 25, 1965, an order of forfeiture was entered three days later.

5. On or about February 2, 1966, while the trial of this indictment was in progress, Francis voluntarily surrendered himself to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. It might be pointed out that at the time of Francis' surrender, the People were still presenting their case, yet he was not called to testify. On information and belief, no notice was given to the defense that Francis was now available.

6. It should be kept in mind that one witness who was called by the People, namely Ronald Timberlake, was permitted to testify in a closed courtroom from which all spectators and the news media were excluded. TT. 1289. It was Timberlake who had removed the .45 caliber pistol attributed to Hagan from the Audubon Ballroom, taken it to his home, "broke the gun down. . . inspected the chamber . . . took the bullets out of the clip." TT. 1318. He had then called not the New York City Police Department, but the FBI. TT. 1323. When the agents arrived at his home, he gave them the weapon and "[T]hey marked it, tagged it and slipped it in a bag." TT. 1325.

7. All of the above information is contained in either the trial transcript or in the file of People v. Frances, Ind. No. 873/65, New York County.

WHEREFORE, defendants repeat their prayers as set forth in the Notice of Motion and papers submitted subsequent thereto.

WILLIAM M. KUNSTLER, being duly sworn, deposes and
says:

1. I am the attorney for defendants herein and I am submitting this affidavit in opposition to the People's papers served and filed on February 9, 1978 in opposition to defendant's motion herein.

2. In essence, the People claim that:

- a. The affidavit submitted by co-defendant Thomas Hagan is (1) not newly discovered evidence because it is not materially different than his testimony at the trial, or (2) conceding that it is materially different, it would not have probably altered the jury's verdicts; and
b. The failure to reveal the identity of then Patrolman Gene Roberts does not warrant the relief sought by defendants.

3. The affidavit of Thomas Hagan

The People's claims with reference to this document

are patently ridiculous on their face. Not only is the affidavit in question considerably more extensive than Hagan's testimony at the trial, furnishing full details as to the planning and execution of the assassination of Malcolm X, but it reveals the first names of said co-defendant's accomplices and states that Hagan is prepared to give their full names and last known addresses at any evidentiary hearing set by this Court. To reveal their full names and residence data in a public affidavit would subject them to harrassment and pressure as well as possible physical harm. In comparing this affidavit with Hagan's testimony at the trial, the Court will see that, at the latter, he was evasive and answered many questions by refusing to do so. Eg. see TT. 3152, 3154, 3155, 3159, 3176, 3177, 3178, 3219, 3238 and 3239. Even when ordered by the Court under threat of contempt, he refused to elaborate on details. TT. 3155. Not only did the prosecutor emphasize the significance of his failure to answer many questions on cross-examination, but the Court, in its charge, frequently alluded to that fact. Eg. see TT. 4106, 4109, 4111, 4112, 4113 and 4114.

It is patently obvious that the material in his affidavit and his willingness to elaborate on it when called as a witness is considerably different than his testimony at the trial and that any jury might be considerably impressed by the full story. On information and belief, the authorities at the Eastern Correctional Facility, where he is presently incarcerated, thought enough of his affidavit to place him in protective custody at that institution as soon as it was made public last December. Moreover, in considering the potential effect on a jury of his testimony as it is now an-

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
ticipated, the Court must take into consideration the fact that there is a mass of other new evidence that would be presented to the same panel, some of which has already been discussed in previous affidavits and some which will be set forth, infra. There can be no doubt that Hagan will be a powerful and compelling witness for defendants at any future trial and that he <sup>in</sup> is a position to reveal the complete story about the planning and execution of the plot to murder Malcolm X. To say otherwise is to flout all reason and logic.

4. The hiding of the identity of Gene Roberts

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
The People take the position that there was no duty whatsoever on the prosecution to reveal that an undercover agent was present on the stage at the time of the assassination, chased one of the murderers (Hagan), was shot at by him and felled him with a chair, thus facilitating his capture. When the People have peculiarly relevant information about the identity of a crucial eyewitness, which knowledge is uniquely their own and could not be known to the defense, and this fact is not made known to the defense, it is no different than hiding or concealing physical evidence. This is even more so when the witness, as here, would have substantiated a claim by the defense that the assassination was aided or abetted by the authorities.

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
To claim that the defense knew all about Gene Roberts because his name appeared on a witness list which was eventually turned over to it, is an example of pure sophistry. The defense at the trial kept asking for this list, TT. 181, but the prosecutor con-

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records sistently refused to turn it over. Id. See also TT. 65-66, when the defense moved for the production of the list, which said motion was denied. It was not until long after the trial had begun that this list was finally given to the defense, TT. 1795, at a time when it was valueless, containing as it does some 119 names and addresses. TT. 1797. In fact, the defense counsel pointed out that they had asked for the list from the beginning and that, because of the number of names on it, it was now impossible to do anything with it. TT. 1796.

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
But the most ingenuous aspect of the People's use of this list to excuse the failure to call Roberts or inform the defense of his existence is contained in the aforesaid list itself.
Introduced as Defense Exhibit AA (formerly People's 39 for identification), it contains not only Gene Roberts' name but that of a Joan Roberts, living at the same address as the one attributed to Detective Roberts. Presumably, Joan Roberts is the wife of Gene Roberts and, if she were not present at the Audubon Ballroom on February 21, 1965 - and it is difficult to imagine that an undercover agent would take his wife to such a function - then her name was added for protective coloration. Under any circumstances, the two names, included in many husband-wife pairs, could hardly excite the interest of the defense, even assuming they had any time in which to attempt to interview 119 new potential witnesses.

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
Moreover, even if they had, by chance, attempted to interview Roberts, the overwhelming odds are that he would not agree to any such interview (he refused to entertain one with present counsel). And, if he did, would not have disclosed his undercover status. The simple fact of the matter is that, if there 60

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records ever was a case in which disclosure was mandated, it is this one.

The entire defense case was prejudiced by the failure to reveal what only the People and the police knew -- namely, that an undercover police officer had been a vital eyewitness to the assassination and its aftermath, a witness who, because of his training and position, would have carried enormous weight with the jury.

Roberts' affidavit does not answer any of the serious issues raised by the defendants herein. All that it contains are representations that he knows nothing about anything and does not even admit that he was an undercover police agent. But some of what it does not contain is of importance here. There is no allegation that he saw either defendant at the scene of the murder; in this connection, when one takes into consideration the shaky backgrounds and conflicting stories of the eyewitnesses who did testify, Roberts' testimony could have been of enormous significance in the outcome of the trial insofar as these defendants are concerned. If nothing else, he would have fleshed out the defense claim that the police were somehow involved in the murder.

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
For the Court's convenience, a copy of the list referred to above is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

5. There is one more factor in this puzzling case which requires some elaboration. Although Malcolm X was shot with, among others, a Luger, this weapon was never found. It was taken from the scene by one Reuben Francis, TT. 1631, a person who was not called to testify at the trial, even though it was he who had shot Hagan while the latter was fleeing. Francis had been indicted for the latter crime, jumped bond, and finally turned himself in to the FBI on or about February 2, 1966, while the trial was in progress. It is passing strange, indeed, that Francis' availability was not made known to the defense, in view of the fact that he, like Roberts, was a key witness to all of the events surrounding the crime and had, in fact, taken one of the murder weapons from the scene, a weapon that eventually disappeared.

6. Finally, the so-called "abundant" or "overwhelming" evidence against these defendants involved no physical evidence whatsoever, but solely the testimony of seven eyewitnesses, three of whom identified both, three who identified Butler only and one who identified Johnson only. Many of these witnesses contradicted each other and themselves as well and all left much to be desired as to their credibility. A brief summary of each such witness will make this abundantly clear:

- a. Cary Thomas: identified Johnson (TT. 242) and Butler (TT. 237). This witness had numerous narcotics convictions (TT. 267) and was, at the time of the trial, under indictment for arson. (TT. 277) He had been a heroin addict (TT. 280) and pusher (TT. 293) and had been committed to Bellevue Hospital as a psychiatric case two years earlier. (TT. 277-8) Not only was he contradicted by other witnesses as well as Gene Roberts, but he contradicted himself, (TT. 304, 333, 470) and admitted making many testimonial errors. (TT. 466). He was paid as a material witness, (TT. 362)
- b. Fred Williams: identified Butler as being involved in the disturbance that preceded the murder (TT. 1514-16) and Johnson as having the shotgun (TT. 1522), but then said could only identify "one for sure," i.e., Butler. (TT. 1568) Told police, couldn't identify anyone "until I see more pictures of them." (TT. 1598)
- c. Edward De Pina: this 70-year-old Portuguese alien (TT. 805), with a criminal record of assault, policy and federal liquor law violation (TT. 828-9) identified Butler whom he had never seen until the day of the murder (TT. 846). In court, he mistakenly identified one of the defendants' lawyers as the man who had taken him to Bellevue Hospital to look at Hagan. (TT.890) He picked Butler out of lineup which contained white men. (TT. 937)

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records

d. Jasper Davis: identified Butler as the man sitting next to him in the Ball Room (TT. 1095). He was shown only one photograph of the defendant. (TT.1166-7)

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records

e. Ronald Timberlake: this witness would not testify until the courtroom was cleared of spectators and the press (TT.1289). He identified Butler as involved in the shooting. (TT. 1317). He took the Q45 pistol home with him (TT. 1318) and later turned it over to the FBI (TT. 1323-25. He was the only witness to testify that Butler was caught and pummeled by the crowd outside the Ballroom. (TT. 1374-5)

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records

f. Charles Blackwell: identified Butler whom he had never seen before. (TT. 1621-22) from a distance of no closer than 25 feet. (TT. 1622) He contradicted his grand jury testimony and his statements to the police as to the disposition of the Luger. (TT. 1743) First, he said that he had given the weapon to Gene Roberts (grand jury and police) but at the trial changed this to Reuben Francis. (TT. 1662-3, 1743). Admitted lying as to where two assassins sitting. (TT. 1666) and about their rushing to the stage. (TT. 1745) He contradicted his grand jury testimony on many occasions. (TT. 1693, 1736-40). #/

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records

h. Vernal Temple: identified Johnson as a man he had seen in the Ballroom (TT. 663) and he recognized him as a man he had seen once before in a Muslim meeting in Chicago four years earlier. (TT. 665, 776)ds NYC.gov/records

In essence, the above is the "abundant" or "overwhelming" evidence against these defendants, both of whom had family alibis and were not apprehended at the scene. Taking into consideration the total absence of physical evidence, the pandemonium at the scene and the resultant

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records

He said he saw Johnson briefly without a weapon near the ladies' room. (TT. 1625) uncertainty of eyewitness identification under such circumstances, the shaky nature of the testimony itself as well as the lack of credibility of most if not all of the said witnesses, and the external and internal contradictions in their testimony, and one could hardly characterize this evidence as anything but weak and uncertain. In judging the effect of the newly discovered evidence upon a jury, the strength or lack of strength of the case against movants must be given considerable weight.

7. From all of the above, as well as the material contained in previously submitted affidavits, and the total unresponsive nature of the People's affidavits and memorandum, the defendants are clearly entitled to a new trial, or, at the very least, to an evidentiary hearing to produce Thomas Hagan and others to testify before this Court. Only by such a hearing, should the Court be reluctant to grant the new trial sought by defendants upon the papers before it, can an intelligent and thoughtful decision be made in this case. Defendants maintain that, under existing law, they are clearly entitled to a new trial on what they have shown herein, but that they are prepared to meet their burden of proof should this Court opt for such an evidentiary hearing.

WHEREFORE, defendants respectfully move for some or all of the relief prayed for in their Notice of Motion, together with such other and further relief as may be just and proper in the premises.

Dear Mr. Kunstler:

The Police Commissioner has asked me to reply to your letter of January 19, 1978.

I have reviewed your request to interview Detective Eugene Roberts regarding the murder of Malcolm X in 1966, and regret that I cannot be of assistance. We have discussed the matter with Detective Roberts, and it is presently his position that he does not wish to be interviewed. If you need to hear this personally from him, kindly let me know and Detective Roberts will be asked to write you.

Your request for access to our files about Malcolm X, under the Freedom of Information Act, has been referred to the Public Inquiry and Request Section of the Police Department for their attention.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM M. KUNSTLER, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. Following the hearing before this Court on February 15, 1978, I visited Thomas Hagan at the Eastern Correctional Facility, Napanoch, N.Y. on February 22, 1978, and informed him of the Court's statement that a more specific affidavit was required from him in connection with the motion for a new trial pending before it. He agreed to furnish one and said that he would give it to Emam Nuriddin Faiz, a World Community of Islam Minister and an official Chaplain of the New York State Department of Correctional Services upon the latter's next visit which was scheduled for Saturday, February 25, 1978.

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
2. On Saturday, February 25, 1978, Mr. Hagan called me at my home in New York, N.Y. and informed me that he had just signed the affidavit in question and that Chaplain Faiz had witnessed it. In view of the shortage of notaries at Eastern Correctional Facility, I asked Chaplain Faiz to read the affidavit to me and then to put Mr. Hagan on the line. Mr. Hagan, whose voice I recognized from my prior conversations with him, acknowledged that it was his affidavit and swore to the contents thereof. Accordingly, when the original document was brought to me by Chaplain Faiz on February 27, 1978, I notarized it as of the date that Mr. Hagan spoke to me and swore to the contents thereof.

3. In view of the fact that names and other identifying data are included in the affidavit, Mr. Hagan insisted that its contents not be made public other than to the Court and, if necessary, the District Attorney. He felt that it might be very dangerous for the individuals named and described in the document if the information therein were publicized. Accordingly, I assured him that I would adhere to his wishes and so informed this Court in a telephone conversation on Monday, February 27, 1978.

4. In view of the above, I am furnishing the original affidavit to this Court and sending one copy by messenger to Allen Alpert, the Assistant District Attorney in charge of this matter for the People. It is my express understanding that the contents of the attached affidavit will be kept confidential by all concerned in view of the dangers inherent in public disclosure of its contents.

5. I also informed the Court that I would move to clear the courtroom of both public and press in the event of an evidentiary hearing during Mr. Hagan's testimony as the same dangers would be present thereafter.

I, Thomas Hagan, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

That this affidavit is an addition to my first affidavit. And that the statements made herein are more in detail and hopefully will clear up any doubt as to what took place in the killing of Malcolm X and the innocents of Norman Butler and Thomas Johnson.

It was some time in the summer of 1964 that I was approached concerning the killing of Malcolm X. The time must of been a month or so before the Hon. Elijah Muhammad spoke in New York City in 1964.

I was walking in downtown Paterson when two brothers, both Muslims, was driving by in their car.
I knew these men well. They asked me to get in the car. They wanted to talk to me. Both of these men knew that I had a great love, respect and admiration for the Hon. Elijah Muhammad.
They started talking about what was going on with malcolm x and how this man was defaming the Hon. Elijah Muhammad. This was the feelings of most men in the N.O.I. at that time.

The full names of these men are:

- 1) Ben or Benjamin Thomas or Thompson. He lived on Hamilton Ave. in Paterson N.J. He was a member of Mosque # 25 Newark N.J.
- 2) Bro. He also known as Leon Davis. He also lived on Hamilton Ave. in Paterson N.J. across the street from Ben. He was also a member of Mosque # 25 Newark N.J.

I know that it was Ben who spoke to Leon first and then they spoke to me. I learned from them that word was out that Malcolm X should be killed. I can't say for I don't know who passed that word on. But I thought that Ben knew.

the Leon got together with two more men.
Both lived in Newark N.J. ones name was William X. He was staying on Central Ave. on St. Georges Ave. Right across from the Mosque in Newark.
I never knew his last name.

The other man was a Bro. named Wilbur or Kirby. I don't know his full name. But we used his car on Feb. 21, 1965

We met a few times to discuss how to carry out this killing. Some times we talked while driving around. At Ben's or Jack's house. Some times we drove around for hours.

We tried to get as much information on the movements of Mal X. as we could.

We, the people above stated, drove out to Mal X.
house one night to see what security was there.
We found it heavily guarded. We soon decided that the only place that Mal X. would be was at the Ball Room where he was making speeches to the people there. In fact we attended one of these meetings to see what security was there. We learned that no one was searching at the door for weapons.
This was in the winter of 1964-65.

We talked about this on the way back to Jersey. We drove back in Ben's car. We knew that the only place that Mal X. was sure to be was at that Ball Room. And we decided that with a crowd there we had a good

Chance of getting in there and out after the move was made, the shooting that is.

We decided to visit the Ball Room the night before the killing to set this up. It was a dance that night and we came there like everyone else, got a ticket went in and looked the place over. This was Feb. 20, 65

This night we used Bens car and on the way home we discussed what everyone thought. Everyone agreed that we would do this the next day Feb. 21, 1965. The next morning we would meet at Leons house and Bens to go over our plans. We decided after looking at the place that we would get there early. Drive in and take seats: Leon and me up front and left side facing stage. Ben. and William right behind us.
I had the 45 Auto. Leon the Luger. William had the Shotgun. Willbur or Kinley had the set in the back of the place. His job was to accuse someone of picking his pocket and throw the smoke bomb.
This was timed to happen when Mal X stated to greet the people. Almost at the same time William would fire the shotgun and Leon and I would fire
our guns at Mal X. and run for the door.

76

On Feb. 21, 1965 we drove to N.Y.C. in Wilbur or Kinky's car, a blue cat, about a 1962 or so. we parked a few blocks from the Ball Room on a street leading to George Washington Bridge. we figured that with all the people there we could make it out in the crowd.

As for the weapons I got them from a man who had them for sale I bought them from him. This person had nothing to do with the crime. I made the smoke bomb that was used.

O, Thomas Hogan here swears this affidavit in the Dept. that the information would exonerate Thomas Johnson and Norman Butler of the crime that they did not commit. This affidavit is factual to the best of my knowledge and I am willing to state what took place in the matter before any Court of law.

WILLIAM M. KUNSTLER, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am submitting this affidavit in support of defendants' application for an evidentiary hearing in connection with their assertion that the murder of Malcolm X was procured, instigated or arranged by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and/or the New York City Police Department.

2. During oral argument before this Court in January, defense counsel was requested to submit any information they may have gained from an examination of those documents which the Federal Bureau of Investigation would permit them to see. This affidavit is in partial response to that request.

3. Attached hereto, in its entirety, is a memorandum from the Special Agent in Charge of the Chicago Division to the Director, dated January 22, 1969, concerning the Nation of Islam. The Court's attention is called to the first page in which the addressor states that one technique employed against the Nation of Islam was the development of "factional disputes . . . the most notable being MALCOLM X LITTLE." P. 1.

4. The Final Report of the Select Committee to Study Governmental Operations With Respect to Intelligence Activities, United States Senate, 94th Congress, 2d Session, popularly referred to as the Church Committee, Book III thereof, is replete with documentation of the concerted effort of the FBI to promote violence between what it classified as Black extremist groups, among which it included the Nation of Islam. See eg. pp. 189-198, Book III, supra. According to the Church Committee Report, "Approximately 28% of the Bureau's COINTELPRO efforts" were expended in this area. Ibid. at 10. In many instances, the Bureau took full credit for causing violence among such groups. Ibid. at pp. 42-3.

5. It does not take a great deal of imagination to come to the conclusion that the publicized rift between Elijah Muahammad and Malcolm X was ideal for the promotion of violence between members of the Nation of Islam and Malcolm's Organization of Afro-American Unity. The existence of COINTELPRO as an official program of the FBI and the circumstances of the feud between Malcolm X and Elijah Muhammad was ripe with possibilities for the encouragement of violence between their two organizations and what could have been more perfect for this purpose than the procuring of the murder of the most accessible target, namely Malcolm X.

6. This explains the total lack of police protection at the Audubon Ballroom on February 21, 1965, one week after the bombing of Malcolm's home in Queens, the stationing of a police officer in the emergency room of an adjoining hospital before the shooting with walkie talkie contact with two officers hidden from public view at the time of the contact of certain new with the FBI and their nonavailability as witnesses at the trial, the disappearance of one murder weapon and the turning over of another, after it had been broken down, to FBI agents.

7. There is at least enough here to call for an evidentiary hearing. It is submitted that District Judge John Sirica had less at his disposal in the way of incriminating material than does this Court. If the truth is ever to be determined, it remains for courageous judges, when confronted with strong possibilities to grant the hearings necessary to develop it. Otherwise the dark areas of our society, so graphically illustrated in the Church Committee Report, among others, will be hidden forever, with the resultant danger to our institutions and the lives and welfare of many of our citizens.

WHEREFORE, defendants reiterate their request for an evidentiary hearing on all aspects of their motion, so that this Court will be able to make an intelligent disposition of this matter.

Memorandum

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI (100-448005)

DATE: 1/22/69

FROM : SAC, CHICAGO (157-2209) (P)

SUBJECT: COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM
BLACK NATIONALIST - HATE GROUPS
SOCIAL INTELLIGENCE
(NATION OF ISLAM)ReBulet, 1/7/69; Chicago letters 12/24/68 and 1/14/69.

ReBulet has been thoroughly studied and discussed by the SAC, the Supervisor, and Agents familiar with facets of the NOI which might indicate trends and possible future direction of the organization. The Bureau's concern is most understandable and suggestions appreciated.

Over the years considerable thought has been given, and action taken with Bureau approval, relating to methods through which the NOI could be discredited in the eyes of the general black populace or through which factionalism among the leadership could be created. Serious consideration has also been given towards developing ways and means of changing NOI philosophy to one whereby the members could be developed into useful citizens and the organization developed into one emphasizing religion - the brotherhood of mankind - and self improvement. Factional disputes have been developed - the most notable being MALCOLM X LITTLE. Prominent black personages have publicly and nationally spoken out against the group - U.S. District Court Judge JAMES HENTON PARSONS being one example. The media of the press has played down the NOI. This appears to be a most effective tool as individuals such as MUHAMMAD assuredly seek any and all publicity be it good or bad; however, if the press is utilized it would appear it should not concentrate on such aspects as the alleged strength of the NOI, immoral activities of the leadership, misuse of funds by these officials, etc. It is the opinion of this office that such exposure is ineffective, possibly creates interest and maybe envy among the lesser educated black man causing them out of curiosity to attend meetings and rallies, and encourage the opportunist to seek personal gain - physical or monetary - through alignment with the group. At any rate it is felt such publicity in the case of the NOI is not overly effective.

As the Bureau is aware the NOI several years ago organized Progressive Land Developers, Inc., and more recently United Dynamics Corporation, both incorporated in the State of Illinois. Both have well known NOI officials as officers - ELIJAH MUHAMMAD is not shown as involved in either. The professed purpose of these groups is economic in nature and gives no appearance of being religious in nature.

Activity by these groups was most limited until the past year to year and one half ago. Since that time the NOI has invested heavily in business properties in the Chicago area and in land in Michigan and Georgia. It was noted publicly regarding formation of these two corporations by the NOI was limited throughout the United States - only two articles have appeared and both dealt briefly with Progressive Land Developers, Inc. buying land in Michigan. Both articles were published in cities other than Chicago.

[REDACTED] contacted this office and volunteered data to the effect he had been surveying NOI business ventures and wanted to write an article about same but needed assistance. Bearing the above facts in mind re the two corporations, the Bureau was requested to give permission to furnish [REDACTED] with pertinent public record material relating to ownership of these non-religious ventures with emphasis on the fact it appeared membership monies were possibly being misused. The Bureau granted permission and [REDACTED] was given all possible assistance. At this time he is working on his article and assures this office he will advise us of the article and its publication. Re Chicago letters set forth full details. It is hoped that publicity emphasizing NOI non-religious ventures will cause factionalism among the leaders and discredit them among the black community and the organization's membership.

ELIJAH MUHAMMAD is sole leader of the NOI claiming to have been so appointed by ALLAH. He further claims to be the only divinely appointed leader of all black people in America. His "gimmick" in creating an aura of mysticism has been proclaiming the black man to be God and the future ruler of Earth; branding the white man as the Devil; the future lies in his destruction by ALLAH through the forces of nature; and a call for a separate state or territory of their own or equal justice and equal opportunities in the United States if they cannot have separate territory. These "gimmicks" would be most attractive to many black people in the lower economic strata who would want to hear the white man condemned and castigated because of their own rights. Of course, the development of a seemingly large following would also attract the opportunist - a black man who would profess to believe MUHAMMAD's teachings but is really out solely for personal gain. As is apparent, MUHAMMAD has created through the above an almost fanatical devotion to him on the part of his following; however, this devotion and subservience is purely voluntary as members are specifically instructed to leave if they cannot follow all of the "Laws of Islam". The turnover is constant and while many have left because of the NOI's demands they still believe in his teachings.

ELIJAH MUHAMMAD, as far as is known, has not designated, or even shown a preference for, an heir apparent. With two exceptions the national leadership is composed of members of his family. All are dependent on MUHAMMAD and the group for their livelihood. Over the years various members of the "Royal Family" have been in the favor of MUHAMMAD only to fall by the wayside because they dared question MUHAMMAD's edicts. A prime example of this would be WALLACE MUHAMMAD who was until about 1964 considered most likely to be the heir apparent and MUHAMMAD himself indicated ALLAH might be communicating with WALLACE. Of course, WALLACE subsequently was suspended by his father because he refused to believe W. D. FARD was ALLAH. It is still believed WALLACE MUHAMMAD is the only member of the "Royal Family" who could give proper spiritual guidance to the organization. No one has emerged as a successor to WALLACE insofar as this sphere of activity is concerned.

Recent indications are that HERBERT MUHAMMAD is closest to MUHAMMAD. He is self-stated to be MUHAMMAD's personal aide. He has illusions of running the NOI from "behind the scenes" when MUHAMMAD passes on.

There is no indication HERBERT himself will be able to guide the flock spiritually nor is there any indication as to how he plans to accomplish same. He is interested only in such financial gain as the membership will make available to him.

In our opinion there is no one presently in the NOI who will be able to replace MUHAMMAD and the mystical spell he is able to cast on some members of the black race. This must be done to insure survival of the group.

Further, there is no means at present to determine who will succeed MUHAMMAD. Past experience has shown he does not particularly trust any of his sons or daughters and they could be in favor one day but completely in disfavor the next. HERBERT MUHAMMAD is as susceptible to this as any.

It appears the NOI is headed on a collision course for a factional split after the death of MUHAMMAD. The power struggle could well develop among members of the "Royal Family" and could well involve some of the more prominent NOI ministers who could well align themselves with a certain member of the "Royal Family" or could entertain illusions of "ruling" a segment of the NOI. It is not beyond the realm of possibility that anyone of MUHAMMAD's more prominent ministers could make a power play on MUHAMMAD's death. At present, however, MUHAMMAD seemingly has all of them totally subservient to him.

As mentioned earlier, the spiritual aspects of the NOI must be maintained to keep the group going. It is recalled that when MALCOLM X LITTLE defected and later was murdered, many dissenting NOI members sought out WALLACE MUHAMMAD for spiritual leadership. When WALLACE MUHAMMAD returned to his father on another occasion and was presented to NOI members gathered at an Annual Muslim Convention in Chicago he was wildly acclaimed. It is felt WALLACE MUHAMMAD is still warmly thought of by his father as he is the only son or daughter who is not monetarily motivated. It is known MUHAMMAD still asks about WALLACE.

G 157-2209

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
It is further known WALLACE is adamant in his belief W. D. FARD is not ALLAH. WALLACE is acknowledged clandestinely by members of the "Royal Family" and is friendly with many of them. He is thought to be held in esteem by NOI members despite his suspension. It is not beyond expectations that he could be sought out for support in a power play by a member or members of the "Royal Family" or by various NOI ministers to be a figurehead or the leader. His beliefs are the brotherhood of mankind and self improvement with no hate for other men.

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
WALLACE MUHAMMAD is well aware of this and maintains his contacts.

The above is pure speculation but factual data can only be obtained as time passes and events occur. At this time proper courses of action can be planned and implemented.

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
ReBulet refers to legal action against the NOI on the death of its leader and asks such questions as
1) Does MUHAMMAD have a will? 2) Is the NOI incorporated?
3) In whose name and where are NOI bank accounts? 4) In whose name are NOI assets such as mosque buildings, MUHAMMAD's home, etc.?

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
There is no information available as to whether or not ELIJAH MUHAMMAD has a will. This would be information available only to MUHAMMAD and, possibly, an attorney.

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
MUHAMMAD's Temple No. 2 of the Holy Temples of Islam is shown as being an Illinois corporation at the Cook County Recorder's Office, Chicago; however, there is no evidence of same on file with the Secretary of State, Corporate Section, Springfield, Illinois.

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records Bank accounts maintained by MUHAMMAD's Temple No. 2 in Chicago are in a state of complete flux at present. Accounts both savings and checking have been maintained for several years in the name of MUHAMMAD's Temple No. 2 at the South East National Bank (all having balances of under $1,000.00); at Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Company of Chicago (all now closed); at the American National Bank and Trust Company of Chicago (unavailable due to bank policy). ELIJAH MUHAMMAD was not shown as being authorized to draw on any of the above accounts. Rather those authorized to draw included officers of the Temple - any 2 of 4. Only one bank account was located for ELIJAH MUHAMMAD. It was a savings account containing less than $5,000.00 and was in the name of ELIJAH and CLARA MUHAMMAD.

NOI properties have been closely followed by this office insofar as title holder, evaluation, etc., are concerned. MUHAMMAD's Temple No. 2, including the University of Islam No. 2; is in the name of MUHAMMAD's Temple No. 2; various business ventures purchased by the NOI are in the name of Progressive Land Developers, Inc., or United Dynamics Corporation (both described above) as are land purchases in Michigan and Georgia. So far as can be determined, NOI properties are in one of the above names. The exception to this are MUHAMMAD's residence at 4847 South Woodlawn; his residence at 2118 East Violet Drive, Phoenix, Arizona; and a residence at 1122 Staples Street, N.E., Washington, D.C., which are in the name of ELIJAH and/or CLARA MUHAMMAD at present.

Chicago's experience insofar as MUHAMMAD's legal advice is concerned dates back to 1959 at which time ELIJAH MUHAMMAD was given legal advice to withdraw his teachings against the white man and the government, both synonymous in NOI teachings, to avoid prosecution. At that time he emphasized religious aspects in the NOI and commenced emphasizing economic benefits to be derived by the black man who joined the organization. It appears, based on NOI land and business ventures in the past two years, MUHAMMAD is implementing monies accrued over the from the membership and from appreciation from properties sold. His success or failure in these business and farming ventures has not yet been determined as they have only been in effect for a year or so.

Over the years MUHAMMAD's legal involvements have been closely followed. He has been represented by numerous attorneys and evidently seeks out advice on new endeavors. IRS has reviewed the NOI and some of its officials but results were negative. Income Tax Returns filed by such individuals as HERBERT MUHAMMAD, who made substantial money from the NOI, and CASSIUS CLAY, were reviewed and no discrepancies were noted. It was noted attorneys executed these returns. Perhaps the most significant factor is recognition of the NOI as a religion by USDC and subsequent court, both Federal and State, approval for NOI services in Federal and State prisons.

Chicago has no source in Probate Court, Cook County, Chicago, and has not considered the development of same due to the many scandalous allegations relating to political appointees and their associates in this area. It is not deemed advisable to approach such a person as the Bureau would be in an extremely embarrassing position if there were the slightest leak that the Bureau was involved in probate of any estate.

Chicago, as the Bureau is aware, has always been on the alert for methods by which the NOI could be directed or disrupted. As is evidenced by the present cooperation with [redacted] this policy continues.

Chicago continues its contacts with its sources whose identities are known to the Bureau and feels these sources will be of possible extreme value at the time of the demise of MUHAMMAD. At this time appropriate recommendations will be made.

Ind. No. 871/65

STATE OF NEW YORK }
COUNTY OF NEW YORK } ss.:

WILLIAM M. KUNSTLER, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. Attached hereto are documents recently received by me from the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I have numbered them consecutively for the purpose of bringing certain matter contained therein to the Court's attention.

2. Many of these documents relate to other suspects in this case, while some give descriptions or designations that conform to those contained in the most recent affidavit of Thomas Hagan. In this connection, the Court's attention is respectfully called to the following pages thereof:

§ 7, 8, 9, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 27, 28, 30, 32,
35, 38, 39, 40, 41, 43, 44, 47, 48, 50, 51
3. Much of the information contained in the above material was, by its terms, was furnished to the New York City Police Department.

4. Moreover, the man referred to on Page 40 is undoubtedly Reuben Francis, the eyewitness who turned himself into the FBI during the trial and was never revealed to the defense as being available to testify although it was he who had shot Hagan. Mr. Francis is, in counsel's opinion, the Malcolm X bodyguard referred to on Page 7, beginning at 10 lines from the bottom, who, at both Page 7 and 40, is described as being seen with a large amount of money on the day after Malcolm's assassination.

[REDACTED] advised that a large number of MMI members were former NOI members in the New York City area who chose to follow MALCOLM X. NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records

On August 18, 1964, [REDACTED] furnished a list of all persons known to [REDACTED] that at that time were affiliated with the MMI. The list was obtained from [REDACTED]. The list included 132 names, 26 of which had arrest records. [REDACTED]

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records

The exact membership of the MMI is unknown. It is known that a large number of NOI members, possibly in excess of one hundred, left the NOI in New York City, ostensibly to join with MALCOLM X and the MMI, however, probably due to the inactivity of the MMI because of MALCOLM's absence, very few members actively participated in MMI affairs. At the three Islamic religious meetings, which are held weekly, the average attendance is only twelve to fourteen persons. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

On September 17, 1964, [REDACTED] made available an MMI business card, which read as follows:

Malcolm K. Little

in his hand while Malcolm X was on the stage speaking. They did not actually see Malcolm X shot, but stated before they dropped to the floor, they saw Hayer with a gun in his hand pointing it towards Malcolm X. The next thing they saw was Hayer trying to run out of the Ballroom with a gun in his hand. According to [redacted] as Hayer ran out, one of Malcolm's group shot three times at Hayer with an automatic pistol. Hayer did not have the pistol on him.

[redacted] was arrested outside the Ballroom.

[redacted] also stated that [redacted] who was sitting in the front row in the Audubon Ballroom was shot in the foot during the shooting spree in which Malcolm X was shot. He also stated that [redacted] was also hit during the shooting spree in the Ballroom and both [redacted] and [redacted] were treated at Columbia Presbyterian Hospital, New York City.

[redacted] later advised that the Police found a 12 gauge sawed off double-barrell shotgun manufactured by J.G. Higgins, model 1017, also bearing the number 5100. The Police advised, upon examination, that the shotgun had been fired and left at the scene.

At approximately 7:45 p.m., on February 21, 1965, [redacted] advised that Hayer was being detained in the prison ward at Bellevue Hospital, under guard. He stated that Hayer had one bullet in him which entered his left thigh and shattered the thigh bone. He stated the hospital plans to put Hayer's left leg in traction and that the bullet would stay in the leg for about two weeks until such time as the bone would be healed enough to permit an operation.

On February 21, 1965, [redacted] New York, contacted the office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) at New York City and stated that he had one of the pistols used to kill Malcolm X. [redacted] was at that time in [redacted]

Malcolm K. Little

[redacted] and asked that Bureau [redacted] at the [redacted] address as soon as possible. [redacted] then contacted the same date by Agents of the FBI, [redacted] was in the back of the Audubon Ballroom, the same date, to hear Malcolm X speak. He stated that he is a member of the OAAU. He said Malcolm X was just introduced and began to speak when some people began to scream somewhere about eight rows from the front of the auditorium. He said people in that area began to move away and Malcolm X put up his hands as though to quiet the crowd.

[redacted] down and was heard to say "Keep your seats." [redacted] then [redacted] shots rang out, but [redacted] could not see who was doing the shooting. After the shots were fired [redacted] the person shooting headed for the exit. Some of the people in the audience tried to stop them by throwing chairs at them or in their way. At this time, two of Malcolm X's men were shooting at the assailants as they were trying to leave the Ballroom.

[redacted] said two men involved in the shooting passed [redacted] but as the other two men involved were running towards the exit, one turned to fire back at Malcolm X's men.

As this man then turned to run through the exit, [redacted] threw a "body block" into him knocking him down the stairs, at which time this person dropped a .45 caliber pistol. [redacted] picked up the gun and attempted to shoot the man he knocked down as he was running down the stairs, but the gun jammed and he ran out of the building.

[redacted] said he checked the gun and noticed that three rounds were still in the clip. [redacted] then turned [redacted] over to Special Agents of the FBI a .45 caliber automatic pistol, serial number 335055, containing a clip with three rounds of ammunition.

At 10:15 p.m., February 21, 1965,

[redacted] came to the office of the FBI, at which time, they were furnished a .45 caliber automatic pistol, which was obtained by Agents of the FBI from [redacted]

Malcolm K. Little

[redacted] stated that Hayer, who was arrested immediately after shooting Malcolm X, has been charged with homicide and that [redacted] member of Malcolm X's group, was charged with felonious assault and possession of a deadly weapon.

[redacted] also stated that the Police Department has a witness who identified [redacted] as the person assisting back at [redacted] [redacted] was believed to have fired a shot which struck Hayer in the leg. He said [redacted] is suspected of being the person who fired a .32 caliber pistol, which has never been recovered by the Police Department. [redacted] stated that it is estimated that up to four persons may be involved in the killing of Malcolm X.

[redacted] further advised that an autopsy performed on Malcolm X reflected that he had ten wounds in his chest, thigh and ankle plus four bullet creases in the chest and thigh. The autopsy located one nine millimeter slug and one .45 caliber slug, and several shotgun pellets in the body of Malcolm X.

[redacted] said that when the Police Department examined the Audubon Ballroom after the shooting, they found a sawed off double-barrel shotgun wrapped in a green suit coat. In the suit coat pocket was found a key for a Yale lock, a package of camel cigarettes and an empty eyeglass case bearing the optometrist name [redacted]. The shotgun contained two discharged Remington express shells, single 0 buckshot shells and there were indications that the gun was recently fired.

[redacted] also stated that in the Ballroom was found three .45 caliber shells and slugs, six nine millimeter shells and two [redacted] and 10 pieces of lead, presumably fired from the shotgun.

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
The FBI Identification Division, on February 22, 1965, identified prints of the person arrested in the shooting of Malcolm X as Talmage Hayer, who up until then, was known to the Police Department only as Thomas Hagen. Identification records reflect that Hayer, FBI #1424967, is a male, Negro, born March 16, 1942, at Hackensack, New Jersey, last known residing at 347 Marshall Street, Paterson, New Jersey.

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
Malcolm X arrived at the Audubon Ballroom, February 21, 1965, in a white 1965 Cadillac. Malcolm X was surrounded by his bodyguards and was then escorted into the front corridor of the Audubon Ballroom and then to the stage. When Malcolm X began to speak, a disturbance occurred between two men. Up in the front near the stage, Malcolm X's bodyguards started to move towards the two men causing a disturbance when Malcolm X said "hold it." Without hesitation, two men occupying the front seats, left side, middle aisle, looking towards the stage, got into a crouched position and fired several shots in the direction of Malcolm X. The fire "spitting" from the guns "crashed" into the chest of Malcolm X and he fell backwards as if knocked down by a sudden powerful force. Still in the crouched position, the gunmen hastily moved toward the exit in the back of the hall, stepping over persons who were laying on the floor. It is believed that approximately 20 shots in all were fired during the shooting.

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
[redacted] viewed a photograph of Talmage Hayer and identified him as one of the persons who shot and killed Malcolm X on February 21, 1965, at the Audubon Ballroom.

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
[redacted] advised on that date Hayer's fingerprints were found on the clip of the .45 caliber pistol that was picked up by [redacted]

Malcolm K. Little

[redacted] identified [redacted] from photographs as the man who was sitting [redacted] and said "Get your hands out of my pocket" in the Audubon Ballroom, just before Malcolm X was killed. [redacted] cannot recognize [redacted] from photographs as being in the Audubon Ballroom on February 21, 1965.

On March 4, 1965, [redacted] stated that as of this date, Hayer, Butler and Johnson, all arrested for the killing of Malcolm X, have refused to furnish any information other than their name and age.

On March 8, 1965, [redacted]

advised that

[redacted] was interviewed by the New York City Police Department on the same date. According to [redacted] stated that he saw Hayer shoot Malcolm X and also observed Butler and Johnson in the Audubon Ballroom the day Malcolm X was killed. [redacted] Law Johnson ran out the side exit after the shooting.

[redacted] stated that Johnson, when arrested, denied being in the Audubon Ballroom on February 21, 1965. [redacted] stated that [redacted] after the shooting, he picked up the shotgun used to kill Malcolm X and gave it to [redacted] [redacted] also picked up a German Luger pistol and gave it to another person to hold until the Police arrived.

[redacted] stated that the German Luger was never turned over to the Police Department and this gun could probably account for the nine millimeter slug in Malcolm's body. [redacted]

Malcolm K. Little

On March 10, 1965,

[redacted] advised that they [redacted] in conducting interviews of persons, particularly MMI members who were present in the Audubon Ballroom when Malcolm X was shot, seem to have the same "clear cut" story that they were in the Ballroom when Malcolm X was shot and when the shots rang out they fell to the floor and never got a look at the assassins. [redacted] stated that the Police Department learned that [redacted]

[redacted] of the MMI in New York City, has instructed members of the MMI and the OAU to cooperate with the Police Department but only say that they fell on the floor when the shooting started and cannot identify the person who shot Malcolm X.

[redacted] said the [redacted] is now shifting their investigation towards officials of the MMI.

[redacted] In reference to [redacted] stated that [redacted] has been received that [redacted] also was one of Malcolm X's bodyguards the day he was shot, [redacted] has been seen in the Harlem area "dressed to kill" wearing one hundred dollar suits and a "pocket full of hundred dollar bills" since the death of Malcolm X. [redacted] said that [redacted] has no visible means of support at this time.

[redacted] also stated that on March 10, 1965, the New York County Grand Jury handed down first degree murder indictments in the killing of Malcolm X on February 21, 1965, against Talmage Hayer, Norman 3X Butler and Thomas 15X Johnson.

The following additional developments have taken place relating to the [redacted] investigation of the murder of Malcolm X Little. Little was shot and killed on 2/21/65 as he was about to address a meeting of the Organization of Afro-American Unity, which group he headed.

[redacted] has advised our New York Office that a conference was held of all personnel connected with the investigation of this murder. As a result of a thorough discussion of all evidence and information obtained from witnesses, [redacted] has developed two "suspects at large" whom they declined to identify. [redacted] New York Office has ever [redacted] information regarding [redacted] and [redacted]. The [redacted] is attempting to fully identify these individuals. Photographs and descriptions of these two individuals were made available to the NYCPD. [redacted] expressed deep appreciation for this assistance.

[redacted] is currently under investigation and is included on the Security Index. No active investigation has been conducted regarding [redacted]. However, [redacted] has been identified as a member of the Nation of Islam (NOI) but has not occupied any leadership position which would warrant an active investigation. Our New York Office has since advised that the [redacted] has eliminated [redacted] as a suspect.

discussion was held by members of the Muslim Mosque, Inc. (MMI), founded by Little in March, 1964, concerning the continued existence of the organization. According to [redacted] [redacted] Secretary, MMI, an official of the NOI who was not identified, asked that he return to the NOI on 2/25/65. He declined and remarked that the MMI would continue with "seven figure heads" taking over the movement until such time as someone appears with "super human ability" to lead the organization.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date February 24, 1965

[redacted] was at the rally in New York City on February 21, 1965 at the Audubon Ballroom, where MALCOLM X was killed. This meeting was sponsored by the Organisation of Afro-American Unity (OAAU).

[redacted] arrived at the ballroom [redacted] and [redacted] were speaking. MALCOLM X was not in sight. About 3 p.m., MALCOLM X appeared on stage right and walked to the podium. BENJAMIN X then left the stage.

MALCOLM X gave the Muslim greeting, "As Salaam Alaikan," and then said "Brothers and Sisters." At this time a Negro male, wearing a three-quarter length black leather coat, pushed his chair back, stood up, and said to the Negro male sitting on his left "Get your hand out of my pocket."

The Negro male who stood up was very dark, of slender build, about 5'10" tall, weighing 160 pounds, age in the late 20's, lean face, with medium length straight hair.

This man then pushed his coat back and produced an object which looked to be metallic and raised his arm. At this point, people from the audience, which consisted of about 400 individuals, began jumping to their feet. MALCOLM X told

The next thing [redacted] was that [redacted] heard about four gun shots, which were fired in rapid order, and which sounded like they came from a semi-automatic pistol.

[redacted] then fell to the floor and [redacted] bellowed [redacted] blood on MALCOLM X's face. While lying on the floor about five minutes later [redacted] heard at least [redacted] gun shots, which sounded like they came from the same type gun mentioned above and from the [redacted]

This man wore brown or Cordovan-colored shoes and had medium-sized feet. [redacted] he could furnish no further information regarding the murder of MALCOLM X, as the scene was, by this time, "utter confusion."

[redacted] possessed no information concerning any plans of retaliation by the followers of MALCOLM X or any other officer.

[redacted] did not know who shot MALCOLM nor did he see any firearms. [redacted] it appeared to him there was a definite lack of security at this rally. In addition, [redacted] there did not appear to be enough guards in the front of the hall nor any guards near the exits.

[redacted] the Audubon Ballroom is rectangular shaped, with walls at the left-center side and the left rear side. He said that chairs were set up in rows for the audience to sit in with aisles on either side and an aisle down the middle. [redacted] was at the rally in New York City on February 21, 1965, when MALCOLM X was killed. The rally was held at the Auden Ballroom, 166th Street, at Broadway.

[redacted] at the Ballroom about 2:45 p.m., at which time BENJAMIN X was speaking and he was alone on the stage. [redacted] MALCOLM X appeared on the stage and walked to the podium. BENJAMIN X then left the stage to the right wing, through the door MALCOLM X had just entered.

MALCOLM stood on the podium and said something to the effect "Good afternoon Brothers and Sisters." At this time a Negro male, wearing a suitcoat length black leather coat, stood up and loudly told a Negro male on his left, "Get your hand out of my pocket." The man standing up wore khaki pants, white shirt, open to the collar. He was about 5'11" tall, weighed about 165 pounds, slender build, age about 29, slight beard and mustache which was trimmed in a circle around mouth and chin, looked "African" with short-cut woolly hair, with medium-dark complexion.

MALCOLM then stepped to the right side of the podium (MALCOLM's left) and said "We will have none of that." The man standing put his left hand in the left pocket of his jacket and [redacted] MALCOLM said, excitedly, "Don't do it," and stepped further to his left.

[redacted] four or five rapid gun shots and saw what appeared to be gun flashes from the standing man's extended left arm. Red stains appeared on MALCOLM's shirt front and he slumped and fell to the floor.

SUBJECT: MALCOLM K. LITTLE, also known as Malcolm X

Malcolm K. Little, leader of the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI), and the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU), was killed on the afternoon of February 21, 1965, at approximately 3:10 p.m. while speaking at a meeting of the OAAU being held in the Audubon Ballroom, 166th Street and Broadway, New York City. The New York Office was immediately advised of the incident. [redacted] who was present at the meeting.

[redacted] was [redacted] at the back of the hall when [redacted] called out indicating that his pocket had been picked. [redacted] observed also [redacted] standing near the front of the hall about the third or fourth row. [redacted] apparently firing some sort of weapons. He also recalls seeing two other men standing at the time, one several feet behind the first two, and the other several feet to the side. He presumed that they were also involved in the shooting. [redacted] two shots and saw Malcolm X fall backward to the floor. He then heard a volley of shots, probably twenty. [redacted] believes the assailants were also shooting at Malcolm's guards. At this point [redacted] ran to the foyer of the hall. [redacted] which commanded a view of the entrance to the hall. [redacted] observed [redacted] who was identified as John Hagen, running down the aisle crouching and weaving with a .45 caliber pistol in his hand. [redacted] one of Malcolm's followers who was behind the man, fired three shots, one of which evidently hit Hagen. [redacted] learned that Hagen was caught outside by Malcolm's followers.

[redacted] Negro male, age 22, was arrested when [redacted] the John [redacted] officer stated [redacted] During the arrest, a warning shot was fired in the air. A .45 caliber clip with four bullets was found in Hagen's pocket and it was discovered he was wounded in the left thigh. He is presently in the Jewish Memorial Hospital under police detention. Hagen, subsequently identified by Identification Division through fingerprints, substituted by New York Police Department, as Talmage Hayer, also known as Thomas Hayer, FBI Number 142496F, a Negro, born March 16, 1942, [redacted] New Jersey.

Office was instructed to not furnish the New York Police Department with any information developed without prior Bureau clearance. New York Office has alerted pertinent offices where MMI and NOI are active, to alert their sources for any information bearing on the situation. Information concerning the assassination of Little was telephonically furnished to the Duty Officer, [redacted] Secret Service. Pertinent information was also furnished to Acting Assistant Attorney General John Dear of the Civil Rights Division, and Assistant Attorney General J. Walter Nease, of the Internal Security Division, and to [redacted]

You will be kept advised of pertinent developments.

Up to now, this appears to be a murder case, basically a problem of the New York Police Department, and the FBI should not become involved. We are maintaining contact with New York Police Department for any information of Bureau interest. As indicated [redacted]

SUBJECT: MALCOLM K. LITTLE, also known as Malcolm X

[redacted] who witnessed the killing of Malcolm X on 2-21-65, advised the New York Office on the night of 2-21-65 that he had been given [redacted] witness account of the [redacted] incident.

Upon discussing this assignment with [redacted] on the night of [redacted] also told him he expected something to happen to Nation of Islam (NOI) Temple #7, 102 W. 116th Street, New York City, and the nearby NOI Shabazz Restaurant before 3 a.m., 2-22-65, and requested [redacted] to cover the situation. [redacted] did not disclose the basis for his belief and possibly it was only [redacted] on his part based on his knowledge of the violent feud existing between the NOI and Malcolm's group, the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI).

[redacted] also advised that [redacted] called one [redacted] in Chicago, Illinois, at about 11:30 p.m., 2-21-65, and told him that two of Malcolm's men flew out of New York for Chicago and should then be in Chicago. [redacted] said they will "hit" either Elijah Muhammad (NOI leader) or the University of Islam (NOI school in Chicago). Again [redacted] did not disclose the source of his information.

This is one of numerous reports received that Malcolm's followers may attempt to kill Elijah Muhammad to avenge the death of Malcolm X. The Chicago Office reported on 2-21-65 that [redacted] had advised that the [redacted] a Chicago NOI member, had received a long-distance telephone call from one [redacted] informing her that six of Malcolm's followers were proceeding to Chicago to take the life of the Messenger (Elijah Muhammad). [redacted] had informed one [redacted] that cars were loading up with unknown individuals who were going to the "Temple" (presumably the Chicago NOI Temple) to blow it up. [redacted] was appropriately advised of these reports.

At this meeting, attended by approximately 80 persons, the discussion centered around the burning of Malcolm X's home. The consensus was that the NOI was responsible, although no one had any real facts to substantiate this claim. It was decided that no reprisals would be made against the NOI.

While at the funeral, he chattered with former members of the [redacted] Nation of Islam (NNI) Temple, [redacted] recognized from having had contact with them while visiting that temple [redacted] stated, however, that [redacted] does not know them by name.

One of these, to the best of [redacted] was present when Malcolm X was shot. This man described the person who handled the shotgun as a tall, dark skinned Negro whom [redacted] recognized as a member of the Newark

189

On guard at the rostrum at which Malcolm X was speaking were Robert 35X, formerly of the New York Temple, and Charles 26X, formerly of the Newark Temple.

When the distraction was created just before Malcolm X was shot, both of these guards left the immediate area of the rostrum which is in violation of all the rules of "standing post" both in the Muslim Temples and in Malcolm Little's organization.

This fact made the persons participating in the discussion records NY convinced that the shooting was a conspiracy in which the two guards participated. [redacted] has no factual knowledge about such a conspiracy, how the shooting occurred or who participated in it. The man who started the distraction by clapping someone's hand was in his pocket was described as a short, dark skinned Negro with bushy hair and a mustache, who was believed to be a member of the Newark Temple.

Referenced airtel dated 8/22/69, reflects Miami has the authority to assist WCKT-TV, a local Miami station, in preparation of a documentary-type expose of the NOI in the south Florida area, the objective being to show how the NOI takes money from the black people of the Miami area and gives nothing in return. Miami requested the Bureau meetings, conventions, or other affairs.

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records

Objectives are not clear in that it cannot be determined whether his expose is to be confined to the Miami area or is to be national in scope. However, the following is set forth for consideration:

It would appear that [redacted] would desire to present a counterproductive program to the NOI. He mentions exposing misuse of donations and receipts from the sale of "Muhammad Speaks" (MS). This is most difficult to do from interviews of the membership as they consider donations they make much as would regular church goers. It is recognized ELIJAH MUHAMMAD and other NOI leaders live lavishly. This has been exposed and is well known. It had no discernible effect on the NOI membership. It is known, and has been reported in semi-annual NOI reports available to Miami, that the NOI, for the past several years, has received donations, and proceeds from the sale of real estate in both New York and Chicago, to buy buildings in Chicago, and converting some into restaurants, nightclubs, etc.

Investigation has determined there are registered in the names of Progressive Land Developers, Incorporated, and/or United Dynamic Corporation, both incorporated in the State of New York, as members of the Board of Directors.

Enclosed for Miami is a Xerox copy of an article entitled, "Black Muslims Set Their Sights on the Supremacy of Capitalism" by WILLIAM JONES, which article appeared in the "Chicago Sunday Tribune," 1/25/69, page 1. This article sets forth full details regarding the NOI's use of monies received. It is felt the pertinent development is the fact that the NOI does not file monetary receipts - the investments not being titled under the name NOI, Muhammad's Temple Number 2, etc. When ELIJAH MUHAMMAD becomes incapacitated or passes on, what happens to these holdings insofar as the membership is concerned?

[redacted] may desire to contact the "Chicago Tribune" as to whether he can use the above article.

Chicago has not for several years conducted any photographic surveillances of NOI conventions, etc., due to racial tensions. It would appear [redacted] could obtain such photographs from issues of LS which are available to Miami. It would further appear [redacted] could purchase ELIJAH MUHAMMAD's LP records, which are advertised in LS

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records

weekly or could contact Radio Station WFAE, Miami-Ft. Lauderdale, for taped speeches by MUHAMMAD as his tapes are advertised as played thereon at 5:30 a.m. each Sunday. It is also noted MUHAMMAD's books, "Message to the Black Community" and "The Black Book" are available in NY. Of course, NY is the best source of NOI activity.

It would appear [redacted] might consider direct contact with various NOI ministers in the Miami area as past experience has shown they welcome changes to be interviewed. If former members who are willing to discuss the situation could be located, this should be considered.

[redacted] is attempting to refresh some of the exposes that occurred around the time of the defection of MALCOLM X LITTLE as top level sources could be endangered and future activities thereof curtailed.

Referenced Miami airtel dated 6/25/69, reflected [redacted] is attempting to locate statements of prominent government and police officials regarding dangers created by the NOI. Again, Chicago agrees that the constant hate is especially true as it relates to the children of the membership who are indoctrinated from birth on to hate the white man.

In an effort to keep [redacted] proposed documentary current, the following observations are set forth:

part of our society; it does infer a step forward may be occurring insofar as the NOI and police cooperation are concerned.

Chicago utilized a local Federal judge to speak out against the NOI. The judge of MALCOLM X LITTLE, who was not the Foreman's desire to resolve him in a non-violent contest. It is felt this trend would continue.

As you are aware, the NOI has carefully avoided any and all contact with other Black Nationalist groups and their involvements other than to call on them to join the NOI. Chicago is not in possession of information as to whether the NOI Temple in Miami is operating a University of Islam for children of its membership, but whether it does or not, [redacted] may desire to consider interviews of NOI leaders in Miami regarding the indoctrination of the children, specifically, as it relates to their feelings towards the United States Government, etc.

[redacted] may also desire to consider interviews of various local southern Florida police chiefs for their comments in this regard and also interviews of local prison officials relating to NOI activities therein.

William M. Kunster, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am attaching hereto Page 2 of an FBI report made by Special Agent in Charge of the New York Division to the Director on March 3, 1966.

2. It contains a copy of a letter, apparently received by the prosecutor from the FBI relating to an alleged meeting between John Ali, then the National Secretary of the Nation of Islam, and Thomas Hagan at the Americana Hotel on the evening of February 20th, 1965, the eve of the murder of Malcolm X. Although the FBI indicated that it was indeed Hagan who had met with Ali, the prosecutor did not question the former about the meeting but did interrogate defendant Butler about it. TT.

...crossed the witness stand by Assistant District Attorney VINCENT J. DEMERY, the doctor admitted that he treated BUTLER, but four days after the killing of MALCOLM X and that the injury could have been caused by a person falling down a flight of stairs. It is noted that when [Redacted] testified at the trial, he stated that one of the assassins jumped over MALCOLM XAYER while running down the stairs to get out of the room. A balloon after MALCOLM X was killed. The defense attorneys objected to [Redacted] approach the doctor. Judge CHARLES MARKS reminded the defense attorneys that the doctor was their witness.

[Redacted] stated that District Attorney DEMERY requested [Redacted] to meet with JOHN ALI, NOI National Secretary, at the Americana Hotel, NYC, the night before MALCOLM X was killed. BUTLER NYC gov records said information was received that JOHN ALI met with HAYER the night before MALCOLM X was killed, but that the witness to this meeting was later arrested for theft and was now considered undesirable as a state witness.

[Redacted] stated that CHARLES 37A J. BENJAMIN GOODMAN, FIRST DEPUTY SHERIFF, DEPOSES AND SAYS:

1. I am presently a resident of the city of Chicago, am employed as an assistant engineer at Evanston Hospital, and a member of the World Community of Islam.

2. I was a member of the Fruit of Islam from 1957 until May of 1964.

3. During this time period, I was Assistant Minister to Malcolm X, at Mosque # 7 in Harlem, New York City.

4. Among my functions as Assistant Minister was to give speeches throughout the Northeast, and to provide security for Malcolm, from time to time, as one of his chief aides.

5. During the late 1950's and early 1960's, I became acquainted and closely associated with Norman 3X Butler and Thomas 15X Johnson, who were also members of Mosque #7 during this time period.

6. Among the duties that Johnson and Butler performed as members of Mosque #7 was bodyguard to Malcolm X.

7. In early 1964, when Malcolm left the Fruit of Islam and formed the Organization of Black Muslims, I left with him as his Assistant Minister.

8. Butler and Johnson remained in the Fruit of Islam as members of Mosque #7.

9. On February 21, 1965, in the early afternoon, I was at the Audubon Ballroom at West 166th Street in New York City, where Malcolm X was to give a speech.

10. As Assistant Minister, I gave an introductory speech, approximately ten to fifteen minutes in length, to the four to five hundred people in the ballroom.

11. While giving the speech I was able to and did observe the faces of all the people in the crowd, as one of my reactions was to look up and down for Malcolm's person.

12. At no time did I see the faces of Butler or Johnson, whom I knew well, and would have been sure to notice since they were still Muslims from Mosque #7, and there was a high degree of animosity between the Fruit of Islam and the Organization for Afro-American Unity.

13. Additionally, no Muslims would have been admitted to the ballroom without Malcolm's notification and permission, and no such notification or permission was sought from Malcolm or from me on February 21st.

14. After my speech, I said, "I would give his life for the people", then went directly to a dressing room to deliver a message at Malcolm's instruction.

15. While in the dressing room (behind a closed door) for a very short time, I heard noises which I later learned were the shots which killed Malcolm.

16. I therefore did not witness Malcolm's assassination.

During the years

17. After Malcolm's assassination, I had conversations with many of the people in the Ballroom on February 21st, including many OAAU members.

18. All of these people said that five people were involved in the assassination, and those OAAU members who knew Butler and Johnson from Mosque #7 said that they were not present.
(Butler and Johnson)

19. During 1965, I was summoned to the New York Police Precinct at or near 51st Street and Amsterdam in New York City.

20. Detectives questioned me about Malcolm's assassination, and showed me pictures, among which appeared to be pictures of Butler and Johnson.

21. I told these detectives that Butler and Johnson were not present at the Audubon Ballroom on February 21st.

22. I was summoned to the New York Police Precinct

158

at or near 100th Street in New York City, and again questioned about Malcolm's assassination.

23. One of the detectives was a sergeant dressed in plain clothes, and another was a man which was Galante, or something similar.

24. I told these detectives that Butler and Johnson were not present in the ballroom on February 21st, and that I had not witnessed the actual shooting.

25. Despite what I told them, these detectives continued to try to persuade me to say that I had witnessed the shooting, and that Butler and Johnson had been present. When I refused to make such a statement, they began to leave.

26. Later in 1965, I was summoned to an interview with an assistant district attorney named Stern, who had another assistant present when we talked. I told them that I knew Butler and Johnson, but that I had never been present at the ballroom that day, and that I had not seen the actual shooting.

27. When I said this, Mr. Stern became angry and said that he knew I had previously said that I had seen the shooting through an open dressing room door. This was not true and I had never said this to anyone. In his anger, Mr. Stern threatened me, saying, "Have you ever been to jail, and would you like to go to jail?"

28. Also in 1965, I was interviewed by an FBI agent several times. On each occasion, I told them that Butler and Johnson had not been present at the Audubon Ballroom on February 21, 1965.

29. I was never called to testify at the criminal trial of Butler,

Johnson and Hagan.

BENJAMIN KARIM, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I have previously executed an affidavit in this matter on or about May 15, 1978, under the name of Benjamin Goodman. Since that time, I have adopted the last name of Karim in place of Goodman.

2. I have read the Supplementary Affirmation submitted in opposition to the within motion and the exhibits thereto and I hereby reiterate and affirm the contents thereof and my earlier affidavit.

3. During my first interview with the police, I was shown some photographs of black men but could recognize no one. Later on, I was shown photographs again, which included those of Butler and Johnson, and I told the police that Butler and Johnson were not present in the ballroom on February 21, 1965. They attempted to force me to say that these men were present by stating, in one way or another, that they had participated in the murder and I must have seen them there. One officer in plainclothes, whom I now know as named Cilento, became very angry when I would not say that But-

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
I never told any police officer that I had looked over the heads of the crowd that day; what I did say was that I had scanned the crowd.

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
4. Shortly after my second interview by the police, I was asked to sit down with an assistant district attorney by the name of Stern. He said that a police officer had told him that I had said that I saw the shooting through an open door and I told him that that was a lie. At that moment, he became visibly angry and threat. I asked him whether he was going to put me in jail because I wouldn't let him put words into my mouth. He then stormed out of the room leaving with another man. I asked this man, who had a copy of Louis Lomax's book, When the Word is Given, whether they were out to destroy the Nation of Islam because most of Mr. Stern's questions dealt with the activities within the Nation. He said, "Yes," and I replied that he would have a hard job.

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
5. After that interview, I was taken to the Grand Jury where I was told by a man named Butler that he was angry at some of my answers about looking at the audience and indicated that I had told him in his office that I hadn't looked directly at the audience when I spoke. I did not tell him this and couldn't remember having done so. When he asked me if I knew whether Butler or Johnson were in the audience, I answered that I did not because, if they had been in the far rear or off to one or the other sides, I might not have seen them. When I tried to explain that it was difficult for me to believe that they that two innocent men have been in jail for many years. While I didn't think so then, I understand now that my testimony might have been of some help to them, and I want to do something about it.

WILLIAM M. KUNSTLER, an attorney duly admitted to practice in the courts of this State, hereby affirms under penalty of perjury that:

1. I am submitting this reply affirmation to the People's Supplementary Affirmation in Opposition to Motion to Vacate Judgments, a copy of which was received by me at approximately 1:45 p.m. on July 18, 1978.

2. With reference to that portion of the material dealing with the affidavit of Benjamin Goodman submitted to this Court last May, I contacted Mr. Goodman today and he reiterates that, had room on February 21, 1965, he would have seen them. Not only did he know them well but they had served as Malcolm X's bodyguards before the latter's defection from the Nation of Islam.

3. Moreover there was only one entrance to the room in which the meeting of the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU)

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
ized defendants and alerted everyone concerned.

4. It is obvious from reading Mr. Goodman's grand jury testimony, which covers some 39 pages, that only three pertain to his observations of the audience. Mr. Goodman was asked on page 20 whether he looked "at the audience or . . . above the audience" when he spoke. He replied that "you rate in the whole audience." Id. He added that "[I]f you were or less weigh the whole audience," Ibid. at p. 21.

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
5. The last man who proceeded to cross-examine Mr. Goodman by reminding him that, on March 30, 1965, in the former's office, the witness had allegedly said that, when he spoke, he looked "over the head of the crowd." Id. But Mr. Goodman did not recall making that statement.

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
6. The tone of the interrogation then changed to an obvious attempt by Mr. Stern to put words in Mr. Goodman's mouth. Ibid. at pp. 22-23. Mr. Stern was intent on forcing the witness to state that he didn't know whether either defendant was present that day.

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
Q: So you do not know whether or not either of them was there, is that correct?

A: No, sir, I can't say that they weren't nor could I say they were, because I didn't see them.

Ibid. at p. 23

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
Although Goodman asserted he didn't see the defendants had been in the audience, he would have recognized them as would the guards at the entrance to the room. He did not see the shoot-

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records
Although Mr. Stern's notes, Appendix C, state that he was informed by the police that Goodman told them that he "doesn't look at" the defendants, this statement does not appear in the two police reports. Appendix B.

ing and could not know what the People's evidence would be. If the defendants had been hiding behind chairs or in a closet, he would not have seen them, which explains why he answered Mr. Stern's question, supra, as he did. Mr. Stern failed to question Mr. Goodman about the points raised by the latter in his affidavit or to explore the fact that, if either defendant was seated in the audience, the witness would have recognized him.

8. It is inexplicable why Mr. Goodman wasn't called as an introductory witness to set the stage for Mr. Capone. One explanation, of course, is that he would have provided exculpatory evidence about defendants. The eagerness of the People to accept the concept that Goodman always looked over the heads of the crowd without specifically questioning him about this particular day is quite revealing.

9. Mr. Goodman is prepared to take the witness stand and recount under oath this experiences with Mr. Stern and state the threats made to him thereby. If anything Mr. Stern's affidavit, the grand jury minutes and Mr. Goodman's affidavit are evidence of the need for an evidentiary hearing on this point.

10. The People in no way answer Mr. Hagan's affidavit, other than indicating that there is nothing in their files indicating that "any of the persons identified by Hagan in his affidavits as having been involved in the murder of Malcolm X." Mr. Alpert's affirmation at p. 2.

11. As for the unredacted copies furnished Mr. Alpert by Special Agent Steven Edwards, they do not include the key documents furnished with my affidavit of April 29, 1978.

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records omissions will make this point clear:

a. Document 38, which states that an informant "described the person who handled the shotgun as a tall Negro whom he recognized as a member of the Newark Temple. . . . a lieutenant in the Newark Temple." (emphasis added)

b. Document 39 (p. 2 of document 39), states that "[T]he man who started the distraction by claiming that someone's hand was in his pocket was described as a short, dark skinned Negro with bushy hair and a mustache, who was believed to be a member of the Newark Temple." (emphasis added.)

12. The fact that some of the unredacted FBI documents indicate other names than Mr. Hagan has included in his affidavits is of no significance whatsoever. In the first place, the agents' informants might have been mistaken about or not known the real or adopted names of the murderers. Secondly, we have seen only a handful of Islam in the possession of the FBI. Lastly, there can be little doubt, whatever the identity of the killers, that the information in the FBI documents is exculpatory and, if known to the police or the prosecution, should have been turned over to the defense. In the last analysis, it is obvious that the FBI and its informants knew that the assassins had come from or been associated with the Newark Mosque, a temple with which neither Butler nor Johnson had any relationship.

for defendants did not know of the whereabouts of Reuben Francis or that he was kept from their knowledge by the prosecution. All of the transcript was not available at the time earlier affidavits were prepared and the exchange about Francis was not picked up and an apology is in order. However, it must be pointed out that Francis' deposition only came out in cross-examination late in the trial and that the prosecutor refused to give the defense any copies of statements taken from him. TT. 2604. Moreover, it was obvious that, because the People had charged Francis with complicity after the assassination, that they gave him with the assurance that he would be able to see the Fifth Amendment would make him truly unavailable, as a practical matter, as a witness. The entire Rauben Francis episode, including his surrender to the FBI in the middle of this deposition, and his disposition of one of the murder weapons, is puzzling, to say the least.

14. In conclusion, the People's opposing papers do not, in the slightest, meet the issues raised in Mr. Hagan's second affidavit or alter the effect of that of Mr. Goodman. If anything, they point up the necessity for an evidentiary hearing so that this Court can judge the credibility of Messrs. Hagan and Goodman as well as other witnesses. There is certainly more than enough raised in the moving papers to indicate that, only by virtue of an evidentiary hearing will there be any hope for a just and fair resolution of this motion.

JOHN J. HENRY (JURY)

WILLIAM M. KUNSTLER, an attorney duly licensed to practice as such in the State of New York, under the pain and penalties of perjury, hereby affirms as follows:

1. I am submitting this affidavit pursuant to the understanding reached in open court on September 11, 1978.
2. Counsel has furnished to the Court and the People the names of three of the four men who participated with Thomas Hagan in the assassination of Malcolm X at the Audubon Ballroom on February 21, 1965. I have received what I consider to be accurate information that two of these men, Benjamin or Ben Thomas or Thompson and Huey P. Newton, reside in Paterson, N.J. and attend the World Community of Islam Mosque in that city. I have also been informed that, following the publicity generated by the hearing of July 26, 1978, the two men have now returned thereto. The third man, identified as William X in Hagan's affidavit of February 25, 1978, is apparently one William Bradley, who is serving a long sentence at the Caldwell State Prison in Bergen County, N.J. According to my information, his sentence is 7 1/2 to 15 years.

3. From our experience with Mr. Bradley who first came participation in the murder and then stated that he was not going to jeopardize himself for anyone when interviewed by an Islamic minister, it is highly unlikely that any importuning on defendants' part, through counsel or Islamic ministers, is going to have any significant effect. In this light, it is our suggestion that, under the supervision of the Court, the People be directed to interview all three men and to conduct the same type of investigation that would be customary when information by one accomplice is furnished which implicates others in his crime.

4. Mr. Hagan has given the names, as he knows them, of his accomplices and described in full all the particulars of the crime and its preparation. He is in a position to identify these men and they should be presented to him for such purpose, whether through a lineup or showing of photographs. It should not be difficult to locate the two who are on the street and Mr. Bradley is readily available for interrogation.

5. In other words, Mr. Hagan has given a great deal of information which can only be realistically followed up by the authorities. Defendants are in no position, either financially or logistically, to do much more than they have done to date. They both feel that there is enough before the Court at this point to grant them the new trial they seek, but they cannot afford to gamble on that chance -- the three men who, along with Hagan and one other, murdered Malcolm X.

6. Under an order from this Court, the People, with their im-

NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records NYC.gov/records sense resources and manpower, could easily follow up on the leads furnished by Hagan and be in a position to report to the Court as to the results thereof. From any point of view, it is simply too
quired to ascertain the involvement of the three men referred to above.

7. Concededly, this is an unusual case with ramifications that go well beyond the New York City scene. But courts are not powerless simply because we are dealing with unique situations and it would seem, in the interest of justice, that this Court should consider seriously the suggestion put forth above. If the defendants have spent almost fourteen years of their lives in prison for a crime they did not commit, then we have a miscarriage of justice. It would seem that they have presented enough to raise a strong possibility, even probability, that they might be innocent men. Under those circumstances, this Court cannot afford to leave any stones unturned that might conclusively prove that innocence.

Application for Certificate
Granting Leave to Appeal

Dear Sirs:

This Office has been informed of an application for a certificate granting leave to appeal from an order of the Supreme Court, New York County (ROTHWAX, J.), dated November 1, 1978, which denied the motion of the defendants to vacate the judgments convicting them of the murder of Malcolm X and sentencing them to life imprisonment. This response is submitted pursuant to Rule 600.8(d)(4) of the rules of this Court.

On December 1, 1978, I received from Mr. William Kunstler, attorney for the defendants, copies of his motion requesting leave to appeal and of his affidavit in support of the motion. Included with the instant motion papers were copies of the decision of the court below and of the twenty-one affidavits submitted in support of the motion by eight different persons on fifteen separate dates during the eleven months the motion was pending. Mr. Kunstler did not, however, provide this Court with copies of the People's responses to his motion. I am therefore enclosing with this letter a copy of the People's responses in the court below to Mr. Kunstler's motion to vacate the judgment. (It should be noted that Appendix "2" of the People's response dated July, 1978 has not been included. Appendix "2" comprises unredacted copies of certain Federal Bureau of Investigation documents which were submitted only to the court below. If this Court should desire to review these documents, they will, of course, be made available to the Court).

Respondent opposes the application. The papers now before this Court include the response by the District Attorney covering the matters raised in the papers submitted by the applicant in the court below and the opinion of the Justice who denied the motion. The application for a certificate granting leave to appeal contains no new allegations.

Sincerely,

Allen Alpert
Assistant District Attorney
