Frederick H. MacMaster, 22 years of age stenoographer, of 150 Nassau street, New York city being further sworn deposes and says that on the 8th day of January 1889, deponent visited the said premises, named aforesaid, and there saw the said Thomas Black, John Doe, Richard Doe, and John Dillon aforesaid, and had dealings and conversation with them as follows:

Deponent entered premises No. 200 East 84th St. aforesaid and found Thomas Black at the head of a flight of stairs, where was a door which was locked, and said door was unlocked and opened by the said Thomas Black and allowed deponent to pass. Deponent passed through one room and went into another that opened into it where was a faro table and layout and the gambling game of faro in operation, the said John Doe dealing the said game while Robert Doe aided, assisted and abetted as game keeper. John Dillon was also present and presided over a roulette table and layout that was also present, and dealt the same in deponents presence.

Deponent sat down at the faro game and bought $2. worth of chips and made a bet of $1. on the 2 spot and was waiting for a decision in the said game when a person who had recently been arrested and convicted for violating Section 351 of the Penal Code named Dougherty, came in and sat down opposite to deponent. Deponent knew that said Dougherty knew him and therefor did not remain long at the said table and started to go out. As deponent went to the door he said to Thomas Black, "Open the door please," whereupon the said Thomas Black started to do so but before he had time to do it, John Dillon came running out and said, "Hold on there, you left some chips on the table," and had the said chips in his hand. Deponent said, "I gave them to that fello to play for me." Said Dillon replied, "You had better take them, and then you will be sure of them." Whereupon deponent said, "Very well, and took the said chips. The said Dillon then proposed to return deponents money and did hand deponent $2. and deponent gave the chips to the said Dillon. The deponent then asked Thomas Black to open the door, which he did and deponent went out.

After going down the stairs a man come out and had conversation with deponent. He said to deponent, "I know who you are and want to ask a favor of you. Johnny is sick and is trying to get money enough to go to Hot Springs, Ark. and I want you to skip this place for a while, and do not say anything about it to Comstock." Deponent said, "I can not do anything like that. Suppose he should find it out where would I be." The said party replied, "He wont find it out, I will fix that all right." Deponent told him that he did not how he was in any position to fix anything. The said party then told deponent to wait a moment and he would go and get Dillon. The said Dillon came down and proposed that they go over to the saloon on the oppostie corner and have a talk. After going in to the saloon went to the back of the room and sat down. Dillon said to deponent, "I am very sick and am trying to get enough ahead to get to Hot Springs and you will do me a very great favor by skipping this place for a while. Deponent said, "I do not see how I can do anything like that, it would be too much risk." Said Dillon was very anxious to have deponent to skip this place and wanted an answer. Deponent said, "Well I will think about it and let you know tomorrow." They then got up from the table and went to the front of the saloon and the other man went out on the sidewalk and the said John Dillon said to deponent, "Dont you want a new hat or something?" Deponent told him no. They then went across the street and said Dillon called deponent aside and said to him, "Now I want to ask a favor of you and want you to do it, and if I can ever be of any service to you let me know and I will be glad to do it. Skip this place and I will put $25. in an envelope and will drop it on the walk so you can get it or will hand it to you, and everything will be all right." "It will be doing me a great favor and helping yourself at the same time."

The said Dillon said that he would get some one to take deponent into a couple of places. As the said Dillon was very anxious to have deponent give him an answer deponent told him that he would meet him to day at 12 oclock at the corner of 13th St and Broadway, and promised to let him know what he decided to do. Deponent further says that he immediately upon reaching the office this morning made a written report to Mr Comstock and by his direction went up and had an interview with the said Dillon. Deponent further says from personal observations, conversations and dealings had with the said John Dillon, Thomas Black, John Doe, and ^{Robert} Richard Doe, and is informed and has just cause to believe and does believe that the said John Dillon, Richard Black, John Doe and ^{Robert} Richard Doe have in their possession at, in and upon certain premises situate and known as 200 East 84th, divers and sundry devise, apparatus, tables, establishment, pharaphanalia, layouts, chips, deal boxes, papers, books and documents for gambling purposes with intent to use the same to commit a public offence in violation of Chapter 9, Penal Code of the ~~State~~ of New York -

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Charles Morton

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. That the defendant and myself, although not legally married, have lived together as husband and wife since the month of April, 1888, that he has supported me and has also given me jewelry for presents, although not the articles mentioned in the indictment herein. That on several occasions the defendant pawned articles of jewelry for me at my request, and conversations which I had with him about money affairs, may have led him to the belief that I desired him to pawn the said articles for the purpose of raising some money. After he had taken the said jewelry, he did not show up for several days; but I would not have preferred any charge against him, if it had not been for my daughter who almost forced me to make a complaint against him in the station house.

0423

I never made a demand upon him to return the said jewelry or to deliver the proceeds of ~~the~~ its sale to me. My relation to the defendant was of such a nature, that if he had asked me to give him the said jewelry for his own use, I would have certainly given it to him.
