Eugene W. Collins
of the Central Office Police upon his oath complains that Hawley Ingles at premises No. 89 South 5th Avenue Street, in the City and County of New York, unlawfully keeps and maintains a Gambling House, and knowingly permits divers, idle, disorderly and evil disposed persons to resort there, to gamble and play at cards and games of chance for money, in violation of the law, and to the common nuisance of the People of the State of New York.

Deponent further says that in said premises on the 18th day of April 1887 said Hawley Ingles did unlawfully and feloniously deal the game called ~~Five~~ Red and Black of twenty-four hours win from deponent the sum of six dollars at said game, and that within said premises are exhibited, kept and used by the

Said Hawley Ingles
Red and Black

To Charles McDonnell Captain of the Police Department of the City of New York.

Whereas, report having been made in writing, and upon oath to me, WILLIAM MURRAY, Superintendent of the Police Force of the City of New York, by a member of the Police force of the City of New York. That there are good grounds for believing that a room or rooms situated within the premises known as Number Eighty Nine (89) South Fifth Ave. in the City of New York are used as and for common gaming rooms for therein playing for wagers of money at games of chance, in violation of the statute.

These are therefore, in the name of the people of the State of New York, to authorize and command you the said Charles McDonnell to enter the said premises, and rooms above mentioned, and forthwith arrest all persons there found offending against law, but none others, and seize all implements of gaming, and convey any person so arrested before a Magistrate to be dealt with according to law, and bring the articles so seized to the office of the Property Clerk.
