Patrick Quinn

Court of General Sessions. Part First.

Before Judge Cowing. September 23. 1881

Indictment for petty larceny.

Antonio Magrino, sworn and examined, testified through the interpreter. Tell us about this? This boy (the prisoner) was selling newspapers in the corner of Vestry Place and he came to me and asked me if I had change for ten dollars. I took my money out and counted five dollars. I counted out a five dollar bill, three single dollars and two dollars in small change, in silver change and reached it out to him. Reached it out with one hand and I had the other hand to receive the ten dollars from him. At the same instant he snatched the money out of my hand; he ran away. I ran after him and caught him. At the same time some other people came up I think his brother or companion and he passed from behind money to the other. Have witnesses who saw him pass the money. Where did this happen? Vestry Place and Eighth St. How far away from there did he run before you caught him? About six paces away from my stand and I caught hold of him. Then I held him and a policeman came up and made the arrest. Cross Examined. The prisoner sells papers every Sunday morning at the stand. That is your business? I have a stand with fruits. How far is your stand from where the prisoner was? I am on one corner and he is on the other; he is just opposite me. How long have you known him? About two months that I know the prisoner by sight. He gave you a bill to change, did he not? No sir, I reached out my hand to receive the ten dollars he did not give me. How much money did you count out? I counted out ten dollars. Patrick Quinlan, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. Where do you live? Fifteenth St. I do not know the number, it is between Avenue A and B. With whom do you live? With my mother and sister. What do you work at? I go peddling some time. I was attending this newsstand Sunday morning for an old man who keeps the stand there. You have heard the statement of the complainant on the stand? Yes sir. He says <sup>that you</sup> snatched some money out of his hand and ran away, did you do it? No sir, I gave him the ten dollar bill to change. Did you do that? No sir. I want you to tell this jury how the whole thing happened from beginning to end? Yes sir. A boy came up and bought a paper off me and he gave me a ten dollar bill. I had not change, I went down to a lager beer saloon right next to where I keep a stand; he did not have change. I was walking past the Italian's stand to go to a grocery store. A little Italian said he would give me change.

 I gave him the ten dollar bill and he gave me the ten dollar bill back again in a mistake for a dollar. The man who was sitting here (the complainant) gave me the money.
 I kept the change in my hand, I gave it to the boy that gave me the ten dollar bill.
 Did you count the money? I did not count the money at all. I took what he gave me and I gave it all back to the boy. Then I was arrested I had $2.38 in silver; some of it was for the papers - some of it belonged to me and that was taken off me down in the station house. Did you take the change out for your paper? Five cents. The boy goes around Eighth St. I could get him if I was out, I don't know where he lives though. It is not true that you take the money out of this man's hand?
 No sir. He says you started to run away?
 No sir, I was standing on the corner of Eighth St. when the officer came up; the officer was about a block away and he found me standing there. How far did you go before he got hold of you? I did not go a step; he got me right at the stand.
 Where did you give the little boy his money? On the same corner where I got the change off the man; the little boy walked over and handed him the change there. I saw where the Italian put the ten dollar bill in his vest pocket. I did not know that he gave me too much until he took hold of me. I gave the boy the money before the Italian took hold of me.

 The little boy was right there when the Italian came up to you? No sir, he was after going away when the Italian came to me. I did tell the Italian I did not have it. Why did not you tell the officer? I told the officer.
 I did not have nothing neither. Why didn't you tell the officer that you had given all your money to the little boy? Because they did not ask me nothing about it then. Have you been in the Penitentiary? No sir.
 I was arrested once and got ten days in the workhouse. Seymour V. Parker sworn and examined testified. Did you arrest this boy?
 Yes sir. What time of day was it? It was between seven and half past seven o'clock on the morning of the 4th of Sept. broad daylight. I was about a block away, I saw him wrangling on the corner. I went back to investigate it; the complainant had hold of him he was trying to get away; he charged him with taking ten dollars; he said he did not take it. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
