following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

One over coat and one suit of clothes of the value of thirty dollars

the property of deponent's husband, but in deponent's care and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid

BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by

James Johnson & John Jackson for the reasons following, to wit: that on said date said premises were broken as described and said property carried away that in breaking said door some metal instrument had been used to pry open said door leaving marks upon it and the door frame belonging to it, that deponent was informed by Max Seiffert of 1977 1/2 Ave

of

that he saw the defendant upon said date enter a car and that that said Jackson had a large bundle covered with buff paper in his possession that they both had just departed from the above premises. Defendant further says that she has been informed by Officer Adam Lang of the 27th Precinct that when he arrested the defendant he found in the possession of said Jackson a chisel which when fitted to the marks or abrasions on said door exactly fitted them

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

James Johnson
and John Jackson

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse James Johnson and John Jackson of the CRIME OF BURGLARY IN THE THIRD DEGREE, committed as follows :

The said James Johnson and John Jackson both late of the Twelfth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the fourth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty- eight —, with force and arms, in the day — time of the same day, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the dwelling house of one John King (the christian name "John" being fictitious, his real christian name being to the Grand Jury unknown) there situate, feloniously and burglariously did break into and enter, with intent to commit some crime therein, to wit : with intent, the goods, chattels and personal property of the said John King, — — in the said dwelling house then and there being, then and there feloniously and burglariously to steal, take and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

James Johnson and John Jackson

of the CRIME OF Grand LARCENY in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said James Johnson and John

Jackson, both — late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, in the day — time of said day, with force and arms, one overcoat of the value of fifteen dollars, one coat of the value of ten dollars, one vest of the value of three dollars, and one pair of trousers of the value of six dollars, of the goods, chattels, and personal property of one the said John King, in the dwelling house of the said John King. — there situate, then and there being found, from the dwelling house aforesaid, then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT.

of the CRIME OF RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS, committed as follows :

The said James Johnson and John Jackson, both — late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, with force and arms, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the goods, chattels and personal property in the second count of this indictment particularly described, of the goods, chattels and personal property of the said John King. — by a certain person or persons to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, then lately before feloniously stolen from the said John King. — unlawfully and unjustly, did feloniously receive and have ; (the said James

Johnson and John Jackson

then and there well knowing the said goods, chattels and personal property to have been feloniously stolen), against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.
