No. 7 Washington Place. These goods were all addressed to the consignees. I did not see that horse and wagon until the following morning. The value of the goods on that truck at the time I last saw it was about $500. Altogether the truck, horse and load on it was worth $1800.

Cross-examination:

I am the owner of the truck, horse and harness. I know the value. The horse was worth about $250 and the truck was worth $250 and the harness worth from $75 to $125. I know these facts because I have paid for the various articles mentioned.

JOSEPH COLEMAN, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a truck-driver and live at 48 Spring Street. I am in the employ of the last witness. I am the individual who drove the truck which he has mentioned. It was loaded with the articles which he has enumerated. I was on Pier 26 North River and removed one of the cases from the truck and took it down the dock. When I came back the truck was gone. Next morning I found it in a stable at No. 224 Mulberry Street. I didn't know who took it.

Cross-examination :

I received orders from Mr. Bu-dock to take this load along the North River front and deliver the cases at the various steamship companies.

3.

WILLIAM WILSON, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a truck-driver and live at 239 Mulberry Street. I found Mr. Burdock's truck in front of No. 53 Mott Street on the night of the 21st. of January. It had been driven up close to the gutter. When I saw it I waited there awhile to see if I could see a policeman so that I might give it in charge of him. Not seeing any officer I took the truck around to the Elizabeth Street Station and they advised me to take it to this station, which I did. Afterwards I ascertained that the truck was the property of Mr. Burdock.

EDWARD J. BOYLE, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a truck-driver employed by Patrick Lee. I was in North Moore Street on the afternoon of January 21st. about half past five o'clock. I was driving on the truck. I saw this defendant at that time. He was driving the truck. He was ahead of me and I noticed he was driving so fast that he dropped a case. When I called his attention to the fact that he had dropped the case he did not stop but kept on going as fast as he could. I saw a man running along the sidewalk keeping even with the truck. I do not believe I could identify him if I saw him. I have known the defendant for about four years and have seen him frequently. I could not be mistaken in my identification of him.

Cross-examination:

I have been in the trucking business about 13 years. The defendant was driving the truck very fast.

4.

I didn't know who the truck belonged to at the time I saw the defendant driving it. I know Mr. Burdock and can identify some of his trucks.

ABRAHAM MINERLE, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer attached to the 23th. Precinct. I arrested the defendant Fallor on the morning of the 22nd. of January at No. 147 Thompson Street. I first saw him at five minutes of seven in the morning. I went into his room and found him in bed. I woke him up and took him out in the street. I told him I wanted him to tell me what he had done with the truck which he took from the Old Dominion Steamship Company's Pier 26 North River. He hesitated for a few minutes and he finally said "I drove it to 130 White Street". I said: "What did you do with the goods?" He said: "I left them there." He went along then and told me that he and Mitchell and a man by the name of McGinly had done this. He said that they had met and jumped on the tail end of an empty truck going down the dock; that they saw this truck standing by the second elevator, which is about 250 feet from the gate; that he jumped on the truck and drove it to 130 White Street where they deposited the goods. He told me who was with him and all the particulars about the taking of this truck. I afterwards arrested the other man. I was present in the Police Court when these men were arraigned. I heard their statements. I afterwards went to No. 130 White Street and found the story which the defendant told me was true.

The District-Attorney then read to the Jury the following statement made by the defendant in the Police Court:

"I am guilty and I desire to make a statement under oath of the whole thing. On the 21st. of January 1892 I was in company with a man by the name of McGinly and Michael Mitchell. We took a horse, truck and goods from Pier 26 North River. I drove the truck to the corner of White and Center Streets where we met a man who asked us to drive the horse and truck containing said goods to 130 White Street. After holding the goods we were told to go to No. 162 Mott Street and we would get our money."

DEFENSE:

JOHN F. FALLOR, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I was standing on the corner of a lager beer saloon in North Moore Street on the afternoon in question. A man by the name of McGinly and Mitchell stood there talking. We went in and had a glass of beer or something. I got talking with them. Then there was a truck passing on which I used to drive for E. S. Jaffrey and Company. I ran out of the door and jumped on the truck. I went down with it to Pier 26. These two other men were behind me. I saw this truck in question in front of a scale and I jumped down off the truck I was on and on to the other truck and drove it off. These other men asked me if I would drive it for them to White

Street. I knew Mitchell from boyhood but the other man who was with him I had never seen before. I did as they told me and drove the truck to the corner of White and Center Streets. When we got there I saw these two men shaking hands with a third man. After that they gave me instructions to drive to No. 130 White Street. I drove there and the goods were there unloaded by these two men. After that I drove the truck to a liquor store in Mott Street where we were to get our money. We went into the store and got some money and I left the truck there. I had no intention of stealing this truck and only went on it to oblige these men whom I had met on the corner. I thought they had some authority over the truck and had I known it was stolen property I would not have gone away with it.

The Jury returned a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the first degree.

Indictment filed Feb. 3-1892.

Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County } ss:
of New York,of No. 81 New Street, aged 55 years.occupation Importer being duly sworn,deposes and says, that on the 26 day of January 1892 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the due time, the following property, viz:

Money of the value of One hundred and eighty-three dollars and sixty-eight cents

the property of Deponent

and that this deponent
has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Henry Ferrando from the fact that on said date one Michael Bacci was indebted to deponent in the above sum and that said Ferrando was in his employ and authorized to collect bills. That deponent is informed by said Bacci that said Ferrando on said date called upon him and collected said amount of money. Deponent further states that said Ferrando has never paid over said money and has appropriated the same to his own use and benefit.

in the City and County aforesaid the said being a five story brick building, in part Produce store & dwelling and which was occupied by deponent as a ~~and in which there was at the time a human being, by name~~

were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly from the yard into the window - leading back the catch of said window. Raising the window and entering the store with the intent to commit a felony on the 9th day of February 1892 in the Night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

One overcoat - one suit of clothes. one pair of pantaloons.
One coat and vest. flannel coat

and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid
BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by

Alto Forbush (nowhere) and one Joseph Keller. in the city of New York on the 9th day of February 1892

for the reasons following, to wit:

that - at the hour of 10
30 O'clock P. M. said date deponent locked and closed said store. Learning said property therein. and in the following morning deponent discerned that said place had been entered as aforesaid and said property taken therefrom.
Heppner is informed by Officer Thomas

I depose that the said Keller admitted and confessed to him, that- he and this defendant Otto Forbick, who worked for this complainant, had entered said place and stolen said property therefrom. that- he the officer then arrested this defendant Otto Forbick and that Forbick then admitted that- he was in company with Keller when Keller entered said store- and that- Keller had given him two dollars out of the proceeds of the burglary wherefore deponent charges this defendant Otto Forbick and the said Keller with being together and acting in concert- with each other and burglariously entering said premises as aforesaid and stealing said property- to-wit- the sum of $100.00

REPORT OF THE NEW YORK SOCIETY FOR THE PREVENTION OF CRUELTY TO CHILDREN.

100 EAST 23D STREET,

New York, February 10th 1892

CASE NO. 62594 OFFICER Schuyler
DATE OF ARREST February 10th 1892
CHARGE Grand larceny.

AGE OF CHILD 15 years.
RELIGION Hebrew.

FATHER Jacob.

MOTHER Katie

RESIDENCE Syracuse, N.Y.

AN INVESTIGATION BY THE SOCIETY SHOWS THAT

Society has no record of boy's ever having been arrested before. Boy states, that his parents are living in Syracuse, N.Y., that he ran away from home about 3 weeks ago, that he came to New York 3 days ago and that since then he had been living in "Uncle Sam's lodging house" (Bowery) making his living by selling papers, earning about 60¢ daily.

Boy admitted having stolen several articles, which he found in rooms of different hotels.

When arrested boy was dressed in a grand army suit and wore a messenger boy's cap. He is a smart fellow and tells a good many lies.

A cousin of boy, one John Forgotston, a real estate business man desires to have boy committed.

All which is respectfully submitted,

STATE OF NEW YORK.
CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK. } ss.

Police Court--First District.

Thomas Linnelan
of No. 29 City Hall Place Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 6th day of February 1892 at the Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, from the person of deponent, by force and violence, without his consent and against his will, the following property viz:

Two Keys of the value of fifty cents and one collar button,
all together of the value of fifty five cents

of the value of fifty five cents Dollars,
the property of Defendant

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by force and violence as aforesaid, by Charles Franklin (now free) and three other men not arrested - for the reason that on said date deponent was walking in Pratt Street, when the defendant did catch hold of deponent by the neck, when the other three men (not arrested) did violently and with force take from deponent's pockets the said two keys and collar button. Wherefore deponent charges the said Franklin with Robbery and prays that he be held to answer

Police Court— 3 District.

City and County of New York, ss.:

Bessie Butler
of No. 81 Eldridge Street, aged 26 years, occupation Keep house being duly sworn deposes and says, that the premises No. 81 Eldridge Street, 10 Ward in the City and County aforesaid the said being a dwelling house and which was occupied by deponent as a dwelling and in which there was at the time a human being, deponent and her husband and five boarders were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly breaking the two locks on the basement door leading into said premises and entering on the 23 day of January 1892 in the day time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

A quantity of family linen; four scarf pins and an alarm clock
All of the value of Six hundred dollars

the property of deponent and her husband
and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid
BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by Frank Freeman and Henry Scharffer (both now here)

for the reasons following, to wit: that at about the hour of ten o'clock on the morning of said day, deponent is informed by Josephine Andrews, her servant,
she securely locked and fastened
the said basement door and left.
Deponent and her husband were in bed asleep in one of the rooms of said house. When she returned in about a half an hour or longer she found said basement door open and upon entering saw the defendant <sup>Freeman</sup> coming down stairs and ~~by~~ violently pushed her aside and escaped. Depo-nent upon hearing the noise left her room and went to the basement. Depo-nent is informed by her husband that the defendant Schaefer was in the house and pointed and aimed a revolving pistol at his body with intent to escape. Said Schaefer came down stairs and pointed and aimed said pistol at depo-nent's body and attempted to escape but was prevented by depo-nent who caught his arm. Said linen was found removed from the kitchen to the hallway and said scarf pins and alarm clock were found on Schaefer's person. Said <sup>Freeman</sup> was subsequently arrested and is identified by said Andrews.

Therefore deponent charges the defendants with acting concert in the breaking and entering said premises and stealing ~~therefrom~~ said wife; I came down stairs; the young man had got out, Freeman came into the hall way and left the door open. The girls were in the kitchen; as I turned the other man came down, I ran to the kitchen and Schaffer held the revolver and said, "if you come again I'll shoot you", I ran down stairs on top of him and she grabbed him, then I got the pins out of his hands. We grabbed ~~him~~ the pistol.

Q. Where was Freeman?

Q. Did not see him
 Q. at all, he escaped
 Q. Did you see the man who escaped?
 Q. Did not see him — that is all I know — it was a revolver

went there I saw
 Mr. and Mrs. Butler
 holding him down,
 I took this Revolver
 out of his hand; it
 was not loaded
 I took him to the Station House, and
 we found these goods,
 he gave us the name of the accomplice; I went and found Frank Thompson; and we went to 15 Perry
 and got, and she came in and she identified him out
