from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

Ten metal plates of the value of Eighty One Dollars.

the property of Angelo Scott & May of which firm deponent is a member and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Philip Stanley and James McCabe (both now here who were acting in concert with each other) for the reason that on said date, the said property were in deponent's said premises at 13 Frankfort Street.

Deponent missed said property and is informed by Officer Andrew Nugent of the 4th Precinct that he found the said property in the possession of the two defendants. Deponent has seen the said plates and identifies them as his property and charges the two defendants with grand larceny.

After a careful examination of the facts in this case, I am satisfied that no conviction can or should be had, and from the statements contained in the affidavit of the Complainant, verified May 10th 1892, and presented herewith, it appears that the defendant was not guilty of any crime.

I therefore recommend that the within indictment be dismissed.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK against

Samuel Strauss

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse Samuel Strauss
of the CRIME OF Grand LARCENY, in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said Samuel Strauss late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 26th day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, at the City and County aforesaid, being then and there the clerk and servant of one Peter F. J. Hansen and as such clerk and servant then and there having in his possession, custody and control certain goods, chattels and personal property of the said

Peter F. J. Hansen

the true owner thereof, to wit:

the sum of twenty six dollars and fifty cents in money, lawful money of the United States of America and of the value of twenty six dollars and fifty cents, the said Samuel Strauss afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, did feloniously appropriate the said sum of money to his own use, with intent to deprive and defraud the said

Peter F. J. Hansen
of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof; and the same goods, chattels and personal property of the said Peter F. J. Hansen did then and there and thereby feloniously steal, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.
