being duly sworn, says:

I am an architect, having my office in the German Savings Bank Building at the corner of 4th Avenue and 14th Street
in New York City.

I have known the defendant Charles Speidel for the past two years very intimately. During that period I had every opportunity of seeing him
at home in society and among highly respected and esteemed mutual friends. He is a man for whom I have a high friendly regard and esteem. I have always regarded him as a man of honesty and integrity, possessing many excellent traits of character. He was kind,

0456

gentle and liberal, and possessed the esteem and respect of his acquaintances. I believe if he were freed from the charges
now pending against him in the Courts, he would make a good and useful citizen.
His general reputation among those who knew him, and had opportunities of knowing
him well, was very good,
even to the last.

I am 36 years old. I am a practicing physician in New York City having an office and residence said City.

I have known the defendant
Charles Speidel for the past five years. I have attended him professionally since I first knew him.
I have visited him professionally
in jail during the past five months.
It is my opinion that any excitement, mental, or physical, or any mental or physical strain will affect his health unfavorably, more especially his eyesight, which has several times become deranged from a too vigorous supply of blood to the head. It is also my professional opinion that any long confinement, at hard labor, would injuriously affect the general health of Mr. Speidel. He has certain diseases which in my estimation are permanent in their nature and from which he will never recover. His health is undermined, and he is not in good health.

I also knew Mr. Speidel socially during the last five years. Up to the time the charges were preferred against him by Hornum & Co. he stood high in the community and among his acquaintances and friends as an honest and reliable man, with many good traits of character. He was a man of kind

LAW OFFICES OF

SIMPSON & WERNER,

TELEPHONE:
"LAW 518."

181 BROADWAY,

New York, March 21, 1887

Dear Sir:

Herewith we return to you the affidavits submitted on behalf of Speidel and send an affidavit made by one of the complainants which will acquaint you with all of the facts connected with Speidel's misappropriations. We did not deem it necessary to comment upon the affidavits as to character submitted in his behalf, in view of the fact that during the period covered by these certificates of character, Speidel was stealing from his employers and any appearance of respectability which he might have had in the eyes of his friends only shows how well he succeeded in deceiving them as well as those who employed him.

We have stated merely his circumstances and the amounts received by him as his compensation from which it can be inferred that outside of his vicious character there was nothing to tempt him to commit these wrongs during so many years.

Very Truly Yours,

Simpson & Werner

To
Hon. Frederick Smyth, Recorder.

Fol.1 GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE PEACE

----- x
The People, &c. : against :
Charles Speidel. :
----- x

City and County of New York, ss:

Max Werner, being duly sworn, says:

1. That he is a member of the firm of C. & S. Werner & Co. the complainants herein.
2. That Charles Speidel, defendant, was employed by said firm as head book-keeper and cashier from the 1st day of January, 1879 down to the discovery of his misappropriation to his own use of the funds of said firm in August 1886. That as such cashier and book-keeper he had charge of and access to all books of said firm and the moneys which came into their possession. That immediately upon the discovery of such appropriation by Speidel, the complainants caused a thorough investigation to be made by an expert accountant as a result of which it was found that Speidel stole from the firm between the period commencing January 1, 1882 and ending July 30, 1886, the sum of $13,404.96 which sum is made up as follows:

3	Amount stolen 1882,	$255.50
	" 1883,	2,479.39
	" 1884	2,763.81
	" 1885	4,138.27
	" 1886 from Jan. to July,	3,073.17
	Deficiency in bank balance,	694.82
	Total,	----- $13,404.96

4 These sums were taken in amounts ranging from ten dollars to three hundred and fifty dollars and the methods employed were many and various and concealed with great ingenuity and skill, so that detection would be very difficult and almost impossible in a business carried on ^{to} such a large extent approximating as it did to a million dollars and over per annum. The thefts carried on by Speidel from time to time were concealed by false entries in the books and by erasures therein made after inspection of the accounts by a member of the firm and by forcing the trial balance when the same was called for semi-annually by the firm.

3. Speidel who had no one dependent upon him for support excepting his wife received the following sums while employed by the said firm:

1879,	$30 per week and New Year's gift of	$100.
1880,	30 " "	200.
1881,	30 " "	250.
1882,	35 " "	250.
1883,	40 " "	250.
1884,	40 " "	100.
1885,	40 " "	100.
1886,	40 " "

During the years 1884, 1885 and 1886 Speidel became inattentive to his duties and addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors so much so that his discharge was ordered two or three times during those years but upon faithful promises of improvement made by him and re-instatement urgently asked for by him, he was taken back and given new trials. I was informed after his arrest herein, that Speidel was a person of bad character accustomed to abusing and mal-treating his wife and squandering his money in the wine rooms of this city with persons of loose moral character and particularly with one Bauman, the Teller of the Union Dimes Savings Bank who has recently fled to Canada, a defaulter in a large sum of money and whose methods of deception practiced by him upon the bank in appropriating its funds were exactly like those employed by Speidel.
