

No. 165 East 121st Street.

Hon. William L. Strong.

Mayor of the City of New York.

Sir:

I hereby beg leave to apply to you for appointment to the office of City Marshal in the City of New York. I was appointed a City Marshal on May 5th, 1891 and have since said date been actively engaged in the performance of the duties of that office, during said time I have secured quite an extensive clientele and have been the official marshal of the House and Real Estate Owners Association of the 12th and 19th Wards of the City of New York.

The Executive Committee of said association as will appear by the resolutions already submitted to your Honor in this matter heartily endorses my application.

I might add that during my said term as City Marshal I was never called upon to answer any complaint filed with the Mayor.

I trust that your Honor will give this application your careful consideration, and perhaps give me an opportunity of having a personal interview with you at which occasion I would be pleased to submit further recommendations as to my experience and qualifications.

Yours very Respectfully,

Dated New York May 1st, 1897.

My Dear Colonel:-

Mr. William E. D. Stokes has urged me to write you a letter in the interest of John Crow, who wishes to be appointed marshall. Stokes speaks of him very highly indeed, and if consistent will be very glad to know that the appointment has been made.

Believe me

Very sincerely yours

Most respected Sir:
I filed an application in Your Office when you had the appointment of City Marshals. My application remains in Your Office yet. I am an Old Soldier <sup>and</sup> a Member of Reno Post No 44. Philip J. Biglin Commander, G.A.R. my application is backed by the G.A.R. I am not affiliated with any particular Politics. I was appointed a City Marshal in 1885. by the Hon William R. Grace, as an independant.

I can earn a good living at it,
and can furnish good bonds.
If you should have a vacancy,

Dear Citizen

You have it in your power
I believe under the new Charter to carry over for the next six years your City Marshall. You have had no more loyal or worthy representative in that department than Wm A. Maas. He has done his work well, and to the credit

New York, November 6th, 1897.

Hon. Silas C. Croft,

My Dear Sir:-

Continuing the subject broached by me yesterday in our conversation, I beg leave to submit the following suggestions as to the power of Mayor Strong to appoint marshals of the City of New York for a term ending May, 1903, which appointees shall be irremovable by the incoming Mayor, except for cause.

Section 1424, chapter 378 of the laws of 1897 (the Greater New York Act) reads as follows: "The Marshals in the City of New York as heretofore known and bounded, and the marshals and constables in the Cities of Brooklyn and Long Island City, and in the several towns mentioned in section one of chapter one of this act, in office at the time this act shall take effect, shall continue to hold such offices and perform the duties thereof until midnight of the thirty-first day of January, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, and said terms of office shall then expire, except those of the marshals in the late City of New York and the marshals in the late City of Brooklyn, who shall continue to be Marshals of The City of New York, as hereby constituted, till the expiration of their respective terms."

You will notice that the marshals of the present City of New York shall continue in office until the expiration of their respective terms. Section 95 of said act does indeed give the Mayor power to remove public officers holding office by appointment except members of the Board of Education and judicial officers; but this section must be read in connection with section 1424 which is a later section and modifies the former. Besides that it is evident that the Legislature meant to make an exception in favor of the present marshals. With reference to no other head of department or appointee of the Mayor is there a statement that they shall continue until the expiration of their terms; and the exception having been made in favor of the marshals it must be evident that it was so made intentionally; And there is reason for this also: The heads of Fire, Police, Dock, Public Works and other Departments, <sup>in</sup> are in a sense subordinates of the Mayor carrying out a part of his executive duties. The work of marshals on the other hand is similar to that of the sheriff and is of quite a different nature from that of any other official.

Section 1427 is as follows: "On the expiration of the terms of said marshals of the City of New York mentioned in the last clause of section fourteen hundred and twenty-four of this act, the said mayor shall appoint their successors for terms of six years respectively." Here is the intention of the Legislature clearly indicated, viz: that it desired the marshals appointed by the present Mayor to serve out their terms of office. So too section 1428, relating to the duties, powers &c. of marshals states that they shall apply to the marshals appointed "or continued in office pursuant to this title." No language can be plainer. "Continued in office" can mean only that the next mayor shall have no power to remove the marshals appointed by Mayor Strong except for cause.

In any event there is at least sufficient in the above contention to warrant Mayor Strong in appointing marshals before the expiration of his term; and if Mayor Van Wyck should attempt to remove such appointees they can resort to the Supreme Court to maintain their positions.

Please urge the Mayor to give this matter due consideration. The present appointees, or such others as he may appoint, will undoubtedly be of a different political belief from those that would be appointed by the incoming Mayor.

Please urge the Mayor also to consider my individual case. During my present term of office and the preceding terms I have never had a charge made against me. I am a Veteran of the War of the Rebellion and have served my country both on the battlefield and in public office without criticism, and I think I am not asking too much if I should now ask Mayor Strong to exercise the power which has been given him by the legislature and re-appoint me as one of the marshals of the City of New York for the term ending May, 1903.

Respectfully yours,

My Dear Mr. Mayor:-

Let me recall to your mind Mr. Andrew Wagner who has recently learned of your intention to appoint the marshals. Mr. Wagner is deserving, honest and efficient, and you may accept my assurance that you will make no mistake if you include him in your list of appointments. He did good work for McKinley and "Sound Money," a year ago, and labored hard in the interests of Mr. Low, during the last campaign. You will find him the right man in the right place.

Yours very truly,

His Honor,

NEW YORK, November 8, 1897.

Hon. Edward J. H. Tamsen,

My dear Sheriff:-

Enclosed herewith I beg to hand you the application for my father.

I have only a few signatures, but they are all of good people.

I repeat, that it is of the utmost importance for me, that father gets this appointment, and for this reason:-

For a number of years I have been the sole support of my parents and have always taken good care of them.

As long as business was good, I did not feel it, but now with the great competition, it is just as you yourself said: "A lawyer is only too glad to get a case".

So you see what help father's appointment would be. Not only would I be enabled to make a nice living, but with the business that I could get him from various lawyers and landlords, he could save and be of assistance to me when things do not go exactly right.

In other words two people would be benefitted by one appointment.

Father is a very educated man. He speaks English, German, French, Polish and Roumanian fluently, and understands Italian, Bohemian and Slavish pretty well; the former languages he also writes grammatically; he is a good bookkeeper, is a graduate of the Leipzig Commercial School.

It seems to me that a man like him ought to have preference over the usual run of Marshals.

As far as vacancies are concerned, I repeat what I said verbally, that the Mayor will remove a number of them against whom there are charges, but whether any of them are in the 7th Judicial District, where father resides, I do not know.

I know, however, that there are two in the 5th and one in the 4th, Judicial District; and if necessary father could remove to Mr. Lutz's District, which is in the 4th Judicial or to the 4th Assembly District which is in the 5th Judicial District, as the Organization badly needs a man like father in that District.

Again asking you to secure this appointment, and with many thanks in advance, believe me to be,

dear Sir,

Yours very respectfully,

Esteemed Sir:-

We, the undersigned, citizens and residents of the County of New York, and engaged in the business or profession at the places set opposite our names, do hereby respectfully request the appointment of Bernard E. Jaworower of 224 East 79th Street, New York City, to the position of City Marshall.

Mr. Jaworower has been connected with various charitable organizations and his being conversant with a number of languages, especially fit him for the position.

He has been employed at one time in Castle Garden for about eight years, as interpreter.

His appointment is greatly desired by us, as representative merchants and lawyers of the County of New York.

Dear Sir:

My name will be mentioned to you by the Hon. Amos G. McBook, City Chamberlain, in connection with the office of City Marshal to which I herewith respectfully make application to be appointed.

In support of my appeal I beg leave to say that I have had considerable experience in public business.

In 1866 I was elected a Councilman in the Sixth Senatorial District, and in the following year I was chosen an Alderman in the old Ninth Ward, where I now reside and have lived the past thirty-five years. At the end of my Aldermanic term President Grant appointed me Collector of Internal Revenue for the Sixth Collection District of New York.

Since that time I have served in various capacities in the public service, my last employment being in the U.S. Marshal's office under ex-U.S. Marshal
John W. Jacobus.

I am a Republican in politics, and by birth an American of New England extraction; and my name is enrolled with yours as a member of the New England Society of New York, with which I have been associated as a life-member since 1865.

If there be anything in the recommendation of Gen. McLeock or in my statement that commends me to your favorable consideration, and you have concluded not to re-appoint all the present incumbents as City Marshals, I would be pleased to succeed to one of these places which is now at your disposal.

Very respectfully,

William D. White.

Some three years ago, upon my recommendation, you appointed Marcus Moses a City Marshal. Since that time, he has made a good and consistent record of service, no fault having been found with him anywhere, so far as I know, in the discharge of his duty.

I can recommend him to you for reappointment, and shall be glad to hear that you have done so.

To the Hon Wm. L. Strong

Dear Sir:-

Two years ago I presented to you, through your private secretary, Mr. Hedges, a petition, signed by over two hundred business men in the vicinity in which I reside, praying to be appointed a City Marshal for the Ninth District Court.

I was then told that my application would receive due consideration, but I have not heard from you.

As I understand that the office of City Marshal expired on May first last,

I would most respectfully request that I might be considered an applicant for the office.

If you desire, I can furnish you with a petition signed by an additional three hundred business men, who would all vouch for me as to my ability, etc.

Although not a strict

Having been in business of years, I can flatter myself that I can secure

Dear Sir:

You will remember, some time ago, a conversation which I had with you and Mr. Hedges in relation to the reappointment of City Marshal Charles A. Farley. At that time I gathered, from what you said, that Mr. Farley's record was without reproach and that his reappointment was delayed in pursuance of a policy which you had adopted in relation to all the marshals. I understand now that you have taken up the subject of the appointment of city marshals, and I beg that you will not forget Mr. Farley's case in due time. From my experience with Mr. Farley in the transaction of business, I am satisfied you can make no better appointment than his.

Dear Mr. Burroughs:

This letter will be presented to you by Mr. Louis Leubuscher, one of the Marshalls appointed by the Mayor in 1894. He has an unblemished record, and from an acquaintance of many years I will vouch to the fullest extent for his integrity. He is anxious now to be reappointed by His Honor before the end of the year; and I feel sure that after you have heard from Mr. Leubuscher as to the firm<sup>s</sup> for whom he is at present doing business, and their opinion of him, you will do me the favor to request his reappointment.

I have already written the Mayor about it and he understands the situation, I think, quite fully. At any rate I rely upon your friendship for me to assist the matter.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Congressman Low has requested the appointment of Mr. Frank W. Bartley as City Marshal, and I desire to supplement that request and say that you could not select a better man, both as to character and qualification. I have known him a great many years and am able to speak of him from actual knowledge and not in the usual perfunctory way in which endorsements of this kind are given.

I was at one time, with Congressman Low, Assemblyman Andrews and others, interested in the gentleman who seeks re-appointment, and between whom and Mr. Bartley the choice now seems to be. In this connection I desire simply to say that few, if any, of the gentlemen who formerly endorsed the man you have in your mind would be willing to renew it. Of course I write this in confidence, for I think you should be aware of all the facts in the matter, and that in the one case you will be appointing a man who will be a credit to your administration, which I feel would not be true in the case of the other.

Sincerely yours

Mr. B. L. Burroughs,

Dear Mr. Burroughs:

Congressman Low has asked for the appointment of Mr. Frank W. Bartley as City Marshal with my concurrence and desires, and he had informed me that it seemed likely that it would be done. Subsequently, at my request, Assemblyman Andrews called to see the Mayor, and he also informed me last evening that the Mayor had, (as he understood it), agreed to appoint him. Mr. Bartley called this morning to be sworn in and was informed by the Mayor that the choice would be between him and Alexander Matthews who is at present a Marshal. I am greatly interested in this matter as Mr. Bartley resides in my district, is a young man of most excellent habits and connections, and would be a credit to the appointing power.

I am very well acquainted with Matthews, and did what I could in the first instance to have him appointed, and, while I do not care to say anything against him, I certainly would not repeat the efforts I made at that time, in view of his record as a Marshal.

If you can in any way aid in bringing about the appointment of Bartley, I shall esteem it a favor, to be reciprocated with others which you have very kindly extended to me.

Sincerely yours

Dear Mr. Burroughs:

Assemblyman Andrews called on the Mayor this morning presenting the resignation of Marshal Martin recently appointed, and desired to have substituted therefor Mr. Robert J. If he were not the proper man I certainly would not write in his behalf and I speak from an actual knowledge of his qualifications.

It would be very pleasing to Andrews and myself if this appointment could be made, and I will appreciate it if you will use your best efforts in that direction.
