The People
 vs.
 George Coulter } Court of General Sessions. Part I Indictment for grand larceny. } Before Recorder Smythe. Jan. 27. 1882

Louis Jehl sworn and examined, testified:
 On the 14th of January I was a dentist at 225 Boring. I had a show case; there were about thirty to thirty two artificial sets of teeth; they were my property; some of the sets were worth five, some eight and some worth twenty dollars, I lost six sets of teeth, which I valued at from forty to fifty dollars I missed them about nine o'clock in the evening. At seven o'clock I went to light the show case and the sets of teeth were all there; when I went to the show case at nine o'clock ~~the~~ <sup>teeth</sup> was gone.

There is a padlock on the show case and the padlock passes through had been forced, ripped off, broke one side of it and then the bar had been taken out and the teeth taken out. I saw the sets of teeth in Dr J. L. Johnson's on Monday evening at 8 1/2 o'clock; the same evening they were stolen. Cross Examined. I missed six sets of teeth. I recollect making an affidavit before the Magistrate to which I attached my signature. I recollect swearing that I lost two sets of artificial teeth, not at $25, but at $30. Justice White wanted to reduce it. I did not

He asked me to reduce it in order to bring it down to the Jurors. Mr. Conklin the prisoner refused to have it reduced; he wanted to have it tried by the Court and jury. I swore that I had reason to believe that the prisoner was the man who stole the two sets of teeth because I was so informed by Frederick D. Tomlinson, that he offered them for sale to him (Tomlinson). Mr. Tomlinson's place of business is at 155 Bowery and mine is 225. I recollect going before the grand jury, but I did not swear that they were worth $12.50 each set; it must be a mistake. Frederick D. Tomlinson sworn and examined. I am a dentist at 155 Bowery; the prisoner brought in two sets of teeth. I saw the complainant at my place on the 16th; he identified two sets of teeth as his property. The prisoner brought them into my and wanted to sell them to me for ten dollars; he said he had taken them for a debt; he wanted to go to Philadelphia; he lost $36 playing at a faro bank. They were in my hands. I had not bought them from him; he came to me somewhere in the neighborhood of from seven to half past eight o'clock on Monday evening the 16th; the complainant came in and identified them. How long after the prisoner put them in your hands? It might have been 10 or 15 minutes, the prisoner was there when the complainant came in, he was arrested immediately. George J. Conklin, sworn and examined, testified in his own behalf. I was living in Jersey City, I was stopping at 256 Hudson St, on the 16th of this month I offered two sets of teeth for sale to Mr. Jamison. Had you stolen those teeth? No sir. From whom did you receive these teeth? Daniel Traphagen 18 1/2 Washington St. in this city. I don't know whether he is a bar tender or a partner. I guess he is <sup>not</sup> a bar tender but a partner in the business; it is a liquor place. I recieved the teeth on Monday evening the 16th. Traphagen gave me a piece of paper. There is a gold refiner, go up to this gold refiner and see what they were worth, he says. He asked me to go to sell this article for him, and he sent me to this gold refiner and he handed me a slip of paper and I went up there. They were closed. Before I went out of the store he told me if that place was closed to go to some other place and try to sell them for him. I went out of the store and went into a liquor store up the Bowery. I am acquainted with the bar keeper and I asked him if he knew anybody would buy such an article as that.

 I went up the Bowery and went into this dentist's place, Mr. Tomlinson. I handed them to his boy and his boy called him up stairs; he said, he may possibly buy them and he may not. He asked me if they were gold. I told him I did not know any thing about them. Mr. Tomlinson went to get a bottle of acid to test them, and while he was testing them an officer came in and arrested me. Mr. Jehl, the complainant came in.
 Cross Examined I told Mr. Tomlinson I got the teeth as a deposit for ten dollars, that I lost some money playing faro bank, and that I wished to get to Philadelphia. I lost money at a faro bank down town. I don't know the name of the street. John Wilkinson is the name of one of the men who was in there. I cannot recall the names of the others.
 I had about twenty dollars when I went in and I lost about eight dollars there. I know Traphagen about a year. I have been peddling for the last six months.
 Henry Chapman, an officer, testified that he arrested the prisoner; his home was down in the First ward; he was born there. I arrested him on the 16th of January about 8 o'clock. I have known him 12 years.

vs.
Henry Cousins

Court of General Sessions. Part I.
Before Recorder Smyth. Jan. 27. 1882 Indictment for grand larceny of money.
Edmund Imbach sworn and examined.
I am a druggist and on the 2nd of January I missed fifty dollars - one and two dollar bills, a five dollar gold piece and a ten dollar gold piece; it was my property. My place of business is 686 Sixth Avenue. I had the money that day in a desk in the store. I saw it on Monday at five o'clock in the evening and when I went to my desk again at nine o'clock I found everything except the pocket book and the money; it was gone, the desk was not locked between five and nine o'clock; the desk is located back at the prescription counter. I was there during all that time, I had not left the store between five and nine o'clock. There was nobody else there except a few customers. The prisoner went out for my supper at seven o'clock; while I was eating my supper in the back room he was out in the store. I was a quarter of an hour eating my supper from the place in the back room at which I was eating my supper I could not see the desk where the money was; the prisoner was in the front part where that desk was I engaged

the prisoner to work for me, to clean the store and to do errands. When you discovered that the money was not in the desk did you pay anything to him? He was not there any more. I guess he left at  $\frac{1}{4}$  or  $\frac{1}{2}$  past seven. He did not work Monday; he only got my meals. Sunday he did not work; it was New Years day. I engaged him the Wednesday before, he worked five days for me. Did he return after he left that evening at  $\frac{1}{4}$  past seven? I never saw him again; he never came to the store again. Did you discharge him that night? No sir. He was employed by the week. I paid him his wages the Friday before. I owed him his wages, but he never called for them. I saw him in the Police station after he was arrested; that was a week after I missed the property. Did you go to the Police Station when you missed that money and make a complaint? No sir, I could not go. I sent down a notice on Wednesday to the Police. I have not seen that pocket book since. There had been a few customers in the store between five and nine o'clock, but nobody was behind the counter. The desk at the prescription counter is about five feet from the ground. There are two counters in the store; the prescription counter runs across the store and the other counters run the other way. The prisoner was behind the counter when I was eating my supper. I owed the prisoner five dollars wages. The prisoner during the hours of five and nine, I think about seven o'clock, went down stairs to get coal. I was in the store; he was gone about five minutes. I am positive that none of the four or five customers that came into the store were behind the counter that night. Max H. Schmittberger sworn. I am a police officer of the 29th precinct. I arrested the prisoner corner of Thirtieth St. and Sixth Avenue on the 12th of January. He asked what he was arrested for? and I told him for stealing some money out of a store where he was formerly employed. He stated that he had not taken any money. I said, "Why did you not go back to the store, the man owed you some money didn't he?" He said, "I got a dollar and I thought that was all I was entitled to. That was all was due." Henry Cousins sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I don't know anything about the money that was taken from Mr. Dubach. I did not take any money from him. I remember him telling me that

0488

0489

I could go for the day, that my work was through. I went down at about half past five and got coal. I did not stop to lock the door, it was on a jar and I supposed Mr. Imbach must have locked it. I went away about half past seven o'clock from Mr. Imbach's store and fully intended to come back the next morning to my work. I got in with my friends as young fellows generally do going around from place to place and commenced to drink a little and I felt sick the next morning. I did not go back. He sent a messenger for his cellar key and I returned it and I thought he did not want me any more. This is the first black mark on my character. I worked for Mr. Dewitt Clinton Rice, Treasurer of the American Express Co. I stopped working there three or four years ago, and since then I have been working as a waiter in the all night places on Sixth Avenue. Cross Examined: I had been there three or four months in the all night places. I was out of a situation three or four months before I went to Mr. Imbach's. I cannot tell how many drinks I took the night I left Mr. Imbach's, but I was not so intoxicated that I could not take care of myself. I was home between the 3<sup>d</sup> and the 12th of January, back and forth, up and down the Avenue, I was home all the time. Max Schmittberger recalled. I went to the prisoner's house on Wednesday evening and his mother stated to me that he had not been home since New Years.

Edmund Imbach recalled. The prisoner could see the pocket book every day of the five days he was there.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

The People vs. Annie Craig } Court of General Sessions Part I Indictment for burglary in the third degree and } Before Recorder Smythe Jan. 12. 1882 petty larceny. Mary Ann Cullen, sworn. On the 30th last Dec., I lived at 561 Eleventh ave., on the evening of that day the room was pulled to tight - the front room on the fourth story; the door was closed tight but not locked. I went out about one o'clock to the next room on the same landing. I was not absent five minutes. I was standing at the door and I heard a foot like as if it was leaving my room. I kind of looked down stairs and I saw the prisoner with a bundle on one arm and a basket on the other. I ran into my room and I missed my dresses off the rack - three skirts, a basque, an over-skirt and a sacque. I valued them at about fifteen dollars. I halloed after her and she did not stop. I went after her and caught her on the third landing. I held on to her; she dropped the clothes at her feet.
 I saw my little girl on the stairs and I halloed to her to get a policeman; she got him at the corner I believe, and I held the prisoner at the door.
 I kept hold of her until the policeman came.

That was officer Harvey. What did you find in this bundle that she dropped when you took hold of her? Three shirts all my own property. Cross Examined. There was nobody in the room when I left it. I pulled the door shut. I don't remember that the prisoner said anything to me when I caught her. I asked her why she ran away with my clothes, why she went in to rob me. I could not tell what answer she made me, but I held on to her. Did this woman live in the house? No sir, I never seen her to know her before. Phillip Harvey sworn and examined testified. I arrested the prisoner on the 30th of Dec. on the lower ground floor 531 Eleventh Avenue. I was called in by a little girl, the daughter of the lady who was on the stand. I came to the house and found the prisoner standing in the hallway; there was two or three women there and the complainant. There was nobody holding the prisoner, but some one was holding the door. I took the prisoner away; that is all I know about it. Cross Examined. The prisoner denied taking the things; the complainant said that she had stolen her property, the dresses.

He charged the prisoner with having them in her possession - that she had caught hold of her and taken them from her. Annie Craig sworn and examined in her own behalf testified. How old are you? Forty eight. What is your business? I do general housework. Where were you working on the 30th of December? I was not working in any place, I was home that day. Where do you live? No. 553 Thirty eighth St. I went out on that day Friday, to visit a niece of mine that went to housekeeping as I thought on that block. So I did not have the right address and I went to enquire on the top floor. There was no such person lived there. I was going down and I met this woman on the stairs. She then and there accused me of taking those things. I know no more about them than anybody in this room. I had only my market basket on my arm. I did not go into this woman's room. I had no necessity to go. Did you take anything? No. Cross Examined. Did you go into her room? No, I did not. I knocked at the front room on the top floor. I was told no person lived there of the name of Meekham by a woman who came to the door. I was going down stairs then I had nothing in my hand at all only a market basket. I did not have a bundle. Mrs. Cullen came after me, grabbed me and tore my ~~clothes~~ and held me there and sent out for an officer and accused me there and then of taking the clothes. The name of the woman I came to see was Catherine Meekham. Did she ever live in that house? This is where I thought she moved to. Did you ever see her in that house? No sir. When did you see her last? In Sixteenth street. How long ago was that? About two weeks previous to this. I think it is 340 between The 8th and 9th avenue; she was living with her husband then. Did you go down 16th street that morning? No sir, I did not. I saw her two weeks previous to this and she told me she was going to move up on this block Eleventh avenue between Forty fifth and Forty sixth sts. on your left going up town. That is what took me there that day. I had my basket with me because I was intending to buy some things when I went home. Had a few cents when I was arrested. The officer searched me; he did not search me for money; there was no money found on my person. I lived in 38th St. off and on going on two years. I have never been in this Court before. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.
