The People
Frank Redemere

Court of General Sessions Part I Before Judge Fitzgerald April 1, 1892 Indictment for assault in the first degree.

Vincent Razuk, sworn and examined. I keep an immigrant boarding house at No. 11 Washington street and a saloon attached to it. The defendant did not board with me, he only came to the saloon that evening between eight and nine o'clock; he came with another man and he paid for two glasses of beer. The prisoner got up and came up to the bar. I stood at the end of the counter and he had a railroad spike in his hand and he commenced to knock with the iron spike on the bar. I said to him, "What are you doing?" He said, "I will kill you all here." I was standing at the time near him, and all at once he hit me twice on the head with the spike. My head was cut; here is the handkerchief full of blood. There were three others there; they are witnesses here.

Cross Examined. I have known the defendant one year. He was in the saloon about 10 or 20 minutes before he hit me. This happened between eight and nine o'clock in the evening. I had no conversation with the defendant before the trouble. He ran away and took the spike with him; he held it in his right hand. I did not do anything to him.

My bar tender was in the saloon. Did you call for the revolver before or after you were hit with the spike? It is not so. I have no revolver in the house. I called for Anthony. I don't know the name of the man who came into the saloon with the defendant but I know him by sight. I don't recollect having seen him in Court. I am not married. It is not a fact that I chased the defendant into the street. I did not go into the street at all. After my head was cut with the spike I remained at the bar and commenced to put water on my head. The defendant came back ten minutes after he left the first time. The defendant never worked for me. I do not recollect him bringing in January two men to my house as boarders. A policeman came to the door of the saloon five minutes after I was hit. He said if he had been there while the defendant was striking me he would have arrested him, but now he could not go around in the house to look for him and arrest him. I drank maybe two glasses of beer that day. I was not drunk. Did you go to look for the defendant after this happened? No. Did you not see the defendant in the street after that that same evening? No sir. I did not see him. What did you tell the policeman this man hit you with is just the same as I told here that he hit me with a spike there was a hole in the head; the doctor pulled the hair out of the hole. I went to bed after I got hit.

John Vida, sworn and examined. I live at 11 Washington st, and on the 5th of March I lived in the same place; that evening I was in the saloon kept by Vincent Razuk. I saw the defendant there and Charlie Vanchoss and a man by the name of Anton; the third man's name I don't know. It was half past eight in the evening. Razuk was standing at the bar and he called for Anton; then this man said, "you want to call for a man to fight me and he hit with a spike in the bar and made a hole in the bar, and then Vincent Razuk said, "What do you make a hole in the bar for?" and immediately this man hit him on the head with a spike and he commenced to bleed immediately. The defendant ran away and I afterwards saw him in another saloon the same evening at nine o'clock. I was present when the defendant was arrested.

Cross Examined: I have been living at 11 Washington st. eight months. I am a boarder there. I was standing at the bar, but he did not call me, he called another man, he called for Anton, who works for Vincent, he is a bar keeper; the defendant did not call for any beer, but one of the two persons who were with him did. I did not hear the complainant ask the defendant to beat him. I was sitting in the saloon the whole evening. When the defendant made a hole in the counter with the spike, the complainant said, "go away from here," and immediately he hit him on the head. I did not see the complainant drunk. I did not hear the complainant call for a revolver; we have no revolver in the house; there is a gun, a rifle in the house, but it is standing in the corner. No one ran after the defendant when he went out. The complainant's servant girl was in the saloon, but ~~at~~ the moment it happened she was in the kitchen; she came in afterwards. Did she come in before the defendant went out? No, he was not any more in the saloon when she came in. After Vincent was struck I took a towel and water and washed his head.

Charley Bachulis, sworn. I live at 11 Washington street and am a bar keeper there. I saw the defendant in that saloon on the night of the 3rd of March between 8 and 9 o'clock. The complainant stood at the bar not far from the ice box; the defendant came in with two friends and one of the friends treated him to two glasses of beer, and then Vincent sent up some one to call Anton the other barkeeper down. The defendant had a spike in his hand, and he said, "you sent for that man to fight me," and he hit with the spike into the counter and made a hole in it, and afterwards he hit the complainant in the head and then ran away. About ten minutes later the defendant came back to the saloon and he looked for Vincent again and then he went away. I did not see him any more because he ran away.

Cross

Examined: I have been nine months in the employ of the complainant as bar keeper. I did not speak a word to the defendant while he was at the bar; his friends paid for the beer; the complainant did not say anything to them. About five minutes after the policeman came but he did not arrest him; the detective is here who arrested him. I did not meddle in the matter.

Patrick English sworn. I am an officer and arrested the defendant on the 13th of March at 38 Washington street; he resides there. I asked him why he hit this man with a spike? He said he did not hit anybody with a spike. He said there was a fight in the place and when he saw the fight he ran out. I examined the bar in the complainant's place and found a hole in the bar made by a sharp instrument. Shown to me by the complainant. I made that examination on the 7th of March, the day I received the warrant. I had been looking for the defendant from the 4th to the 13th. I went to his residence and did not find him until the 13th. I saw the complainant in Court where he procured the warrant; I noticed a little plaster on his head.

Frank Redermen, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I have never been convicted of crime. I went into the saloon at five o'clock and was there two hours. I was standing at the bar drinking beer with a friend named Koshul; the owner of the place asked me if I would treat him to beer. I said, Do you think I am as good as to treat you? Then he came up and he hit me in the face with his fast in the face and flew in the chest I gave him a blow back, and he called for the other people who worked for him, for Arthur and Charley; they came and they threw me out of the saloon and immediately a policeman came when I was outside.

He called for Arthur and Charley, and he said to bring a revolver. I saw the revolver there. There were about twenty persons in the saloon besides Arthur and Charley.

They all came after me and tried to beat me while I was outside; the policeman came there and the complainant said to him that I struck him with a knife. The name of the policeman was Shenady, he is not here, he did not arrest me. The policeman chased the complainant into the saloon and told him to go in. Was the complainant drunk? Yes sir. Did you see the complainant again that evening?

Yes, he ran around the street till about twelve o'clock with a revolver in his hand.
I saw him from seven till ten o'clock.

You saw him all the time running around the street with this revolver in his hand?

No sir, he came to look into the saloon where I was, Mr. Spizer's saloon. You said a minute ago you saw this man running around the streets from seven to ten o'clock with a revolver in his hand what did he mean? He did not have it in his hand, he had it in his pocket.

How do you know that he had it in his hand? I saw it in his hand and then he had it in his pocket.
About ten minutes after this happened I saw the complainant in the street.

Q. Now ask him if he met a servant girl on the sidewalk when he went out of the complainant's saloon after the fight? Yes, I saw the girl in the street. Were you ever employed for the complainant? Yes, a couple of times. I brought some green people to him.
Ask him if he means by that he brought immigrants - people who just landed? He means immigrants from Castle Garden, and he treated him for it. Do you remember in January bringing two men that stopped there over night and that had some trouble with him? I know it; the two immigrants that I brought to Vincent they were made drunk, and Vincent stole two watches from those green people. Were you and the complainant on good terms? Yes. What did you hit the complainant with? Only with my fist.
What did you hit him with? I hit him twice on the forehead with my fist.

Did you have any spike with you at all, did you have anything in your hand?
I did not have a spike.

Cross Examined. Why didn't you have Vincent arrested when you saw him running around the street for three hours with the revolver?
I was in the saloon at Mr. Spizer's and I did not want to make a complaint. I don't know who put the hole in the counter. Before I hit the complainant I told him to let me alone, to let me go in peace. I was born in East Prussia, I speak English but I speak my own language, Polish, better.

Maggie Snyder, sworn. I remember the night of March 3rd. I went down with another lady to the store. I saw the complainant and the defendant; there were lots of men in the saloon.
I looked in the window. Vincent came up to Frank and pushed him and Frank hit with his hand on the bar; then Vincent came up to him and got hold of him by the collar; then they pushed each other till they came to the door leading to the street and then Frank hit the complainant on the head. I did not see anything in Frank's hand. Frank came out into the street and I got hold of him and I took him home to the place where he lives.

0136

He lives not far away from that saloon.
 My Counsel Ask her this, if any one she came after the complainant hit Frank? The other people came near to the door and he ran out; they did not get hold of him. Ask her if she saw the complainant's servant girl in the saloon at the time? I saw her in the saloon when I looked through the window.
 Ask her what she did? She took the bar by which they fasten the door; there is a cross bar; she took that bar and tried to hit Frank but he ran away and she did not hit him. Did you hear anybody call for a revolver? Vincent called for a revolver but the barkeeper would not give it to him. Was Vincent's head bleeding? Yes sir from here (pointing to the head) I did not see anything in Frank's hand, he did not have anything in his hand. Did you see the complainant that night after this happened? I saw him going for a policeman with another man.
 I saw him after that happened. About what time was that? It was between seven and eight o'clock when I saw him going for a policeman, I know the policeman.
 It was between seven and eight o'clock when this occurred. Did you see the complainant after that again on the street the second time? I saw him only once in the street. Did you notice whether the complainant was drunk or not? Vincent was drunk. How long have you known the defendant? Three years I have known him. What is his reputation for peacefulness? They all know him for a good man, I know him for a good man. I never saw him in a fight. Did you see the complainant the next day? Yes, I saw him. Did he have anything to say about this fight? No, he did not talk to me.

Cross Examined: I have known Frank three years; he does not live in my house; he has his own rooms, he is married, his wife is here. Did you see any revolver in Vincent's hands? He took it into his hand and the others took away from him the revolver. When you heard him call for a revolver his head was bleeding, he had a cut upon his head? Yes sir. That is when he called for the revolver. Yes sir; he was bleeding already.

Frank Fisher, sworn and examined. I remember the night of the 5th of March. I did not see the defendant in the saloon. I saw him that evening on his way home, it was nine o'clock. I saw him in front

His house near the door. He had something in his hand that looked like a revolver. I have known the complainant about two years. I don't know anything about emigrants having any trouble in his place in January. I know the reputation of the defendant for peacefulness. I have known him for four years and I never knew him to be in a fight.

Israel Spizer sworn and examined. I know the defendant. How long have you known him? One year. What is his reputation? I did not hear anything in particular about him. Did you learn that he was a good fighter? No, never heard that. Do you know the complainant in this case? Yes, sir. What is his reputation for peacefulness? Vincent does not harm anybody.

Vincent Razuk recalled by Dist. Atty. On the night in question did you have a revolver in your hand or did you call for a revolver?

The Court. He said, he never had a revolver. Do you recollect, gentlemen, this man stating he never had a revolver?

Jurors

Yes, sir

Affidavit

R. J. Moore.

Deputy Attorney

63. Pine Row

N. Y. City, N. Y.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace in & for the City & County of New York.

The People &c vs Annie Rogers.

Attempted Suicide.

City & County of New York, s.s.:

Annie Rogers, being duly sworn deposes & says; that she is the Defendant, in the above entitled cause; and that since the first of July 1891, the defendant has been so ill, that she has been continuously confined in the Hospital with the exception of between five & six ^{days} weeks ^{at a} time since the arrest herein.

Defendant says, that she is now very ill & suffering from continuous masturbation which, so near she is, that it is with the utmost difficulty that she can sit up, or move about; and that she is, informed by the physician at the Hospital that she must have rest & quiet such as she cannot secure in prison; though the motions are most kind & considerate.

Defendant says that at the time when she is charged with having committed the crime herein alleged, she was suffering from the effects of liquor and had been arrested for intoxication, having taken three drinks of liquor while very sick, and destitute, said liquor having been given her by a gentleman with the best of motives, thinking it would do her good in her feeble condition, & that not being accustomed to the use of liquor it rendered her wild, & she was amused & taken to the station house, & that while in said station house deponent asked for a drink of water, which was not given her, & that shortly after asking for said drink the deponent became so crazed & bewildered as to know nothing of what she did, & that she has no knowledge or recollection of having attempted her life. Deponent further says that she has been advised by physicians "that she can not live long," owing to her condition caused by an injury to her side some time ago. That she has relatives in Syracuse this State who are willing & have offered to take care of & provide for her, & that if she is permitted so to do, she will at once go there.

Deponent further says that she was never arrested or intoxicated save & except as herein set forth.
