New York, Dec. 21, 1891.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People,

Asst. Dist.-Atty. G. S. Bedford;

For the Defendant,

Mr. P. A. McManus.

ROBERT NELSON, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 340 East 21st. St. and keep a saloon at that number. On the night of Nov. 8 the defendant came to the side door of my saloon and asked for admittance. I refused to admit him. A companion who was with him by the name of Norton was allowed by me to enter the saloon. I closed my door on the defendant and went into the back-room with Norton. I afterwards came out to let Norton out and as I did so the defendant picked up a stone, threw it at me and struck me in the forehead. I was stunned and fell down from the blow. I had seen him previously at several times. I had been told that he had a very bad character. I am positive he struck me with the stone. I was attended by a physician and suffered great pain from the wound in my head.

Cross-examination:

I never had any trouble with any other persons in my saloon. A week previous there was a crowd of boys in the saloon whom I had to put out. I didn't give Norton the companion of the defendant any drink on this night. I was attended by a doctor the next day in my place. There never was any difficulty or dispute between the defendant and myself.

MARGARET NELSON, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am the wife of the last witness and live at 340 East 21st. St. On the night of Nov. 8 at about ten minutes before nine I was present in the saloon with my husband. My husband went to the door and after he got to the door I went outside and went to look for a policeman. When I returned to the saloon I found my husband at the sink. His head was bleeding from a wound. I did not see who threw the stone.

Cross-examination:

There was a disturbance in our place a week previous to this and I caused some boys to be put out on the street. I went out in the hall about half an hour after my husband was struck and I found the stone which I now produce. It is a piece of a flag-stone. I had a conversation with the defendant Wagner just before I went for the policeman. He asked me to allow him to enter the saloon and I told him I did not care to have him come in. He was quite polite in his conversation with me.

3.

MARTIN ROBINSON, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police-officer attached to the 18th. Precinct. I was on duty on Tenth Avenue on the 8th. of November. This case was reported at the Station House on that evening. I went in search of Edward Manger and found him in a saloon on East 21st. Street at about ten o'clock that night. I told him what he was charged with and he said he knew nothing whatever about it. I brought Norton to the Station House and he identified the defendant as the man who struck him with the stone.

MICHAEL NORTON, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I was in company with Manger on the evening of the 8th. of November. We went together to the saloon of Mr. Nelson. Nelson opened the door and allowed me to enter. I asked him if my friend Powers was in there and he said Powers had just left. I went in and had a drink. He would not allow Manger to come in. After I came out I found Manger waiting for me and quite a large crowd was in front of the door. Someone in the crowd threw this stone in over our heads and it struck the complainant. Manger didn't throw it.

Cross-examination:

I am not a relative of Manger. We were going out of the saloon together when someone outside threw the stone. I know he did not throw the stone because he was close to me and I could have seen him throw it if he did so.

4.

EDWARD MANGER, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am 22 years of age. I know the complainant Nelson. I did not strike him with a stone on the night in question as he has testified. On that night I went with Nelson to find his friend Powers. When we got to Nelson's store he went in there, but Nelson would not allow me to go in and have a drink. He pushed me out and slammed the door in my face. I stayed in the hall waiting for Nelson to come out. As soon as he came out we walked out of the door together. There was a large crowd outside and someone in the crowd fired a stone which struck the complainant on the head. We both went away.

Cross-examination:

I have been three times convicted. Twice of assault in the third degree and have served two terms in the Penitentiary. I did not get angry at Nelson when he slammed the door in my face. I did not throw the stone at him and could not say who did throw the stone.

The Jury returned a verdict of "guilty of assault in the second degree".

The complainant in this case asks leave to withdraw the charge by him heretofore made as will appear by the withdrawal herewith annexed.

I have examined the complainant and all the witnesses for the People, and know that the defendant is a hard working man and the father of a family, that upon the night in question he had been drinking and became quite drunk; that upon being ejected from the saloon in which he then was he thrust his hand through a pane of glass causing it to break into many pieces, which were found the court against him in this indictment.

I am satisfied that when the defendant committed the act complained of he did not know what he was doing by reason of his drinking. His previous character has always been good. I therefore suggest that the indictment be returned.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. Since making the Complaint I have ascertained that the defendant is a hard working man and the father of a family who are in very poor circumstances. I am also informed that he had been drinking very heavy for some time before this trouble occurred and I now feel satisfied that he did not know what he was doing. As this is his first offence I respectfully request permission to withdraw the Complaint.
