Statement of The People V. Brammick;

To the Jurors of the Grand Jury, Dr Sir

The hearer is Edmund Lewis brother of Ole Lewis and he also made complaint against accused Ole Lewis did not come to work this morning so I cannot send him until the afternoon or tomorrow morning. the next best thing I could do was to send his brother who was assaulted by the prisoner Brammick.

As the men assaulted are not very good at the english language I here state the occurrence as it took place and by questioning the witnesses you can bring out the facts.

Peter Brammick entered the new building 548 + 550 70 30th St and attempted to steal the lumber and when prevented went out and brought several unknown parties into the Building and assaulted the men at work using bricks, stones, and other weapons previously wounding Ole ~~Andrew~~ Lewis Edmund Lewis, who was laid up sick for 3 days after.

and pursued with a heavy chisel Paul Petersen one of the workmen, and it is believed would have killed him only for the interference of the police.
The witness to the latter fact is John Schilling also one of the workmen.

The lawyer Edmund Lewis has identified the prisoner Peter Brannick as his and his brother's principal assailant.

Yours, respectfully

James A. Ryan

On April 6th Peter Brammick entered No 550 W 38th St New building in process of erection, and attempted to steal "bridging" (pieces of timber put between beams to stiffen them). Ole Lewis stopped him when Brammick went out and brought in a gang of men and women who assaulted Ole Lewis, Edmund Lewis, and Paul Petersen. The prisoner after assaulting, with the aid of others, the two Lewis attempted to assault Paul Petersen with a heavy framers chisel and pursued him (Petersen) out of the building and into the street and only desisted when the police appeared when the prisoner ran away. John Milling proves the attempt on Petersen.

The prisoner's character is generally bad. He was under arrest for stealing barrels at the time he was identified as the man who assailed the Lewis.

Mr Irvine from whom the barrels were stolen did not prosecute the charge having been influenced there to by the solicitation of the Prisoners Father. The Detective who arrested

The People
John B. Green { Court of General Sessions. Part First.
Before Judge Gildersleeve. April 27, 1883.
Indictment for felonious assault and battery.
Edward Green sworn and examined. I live 340 East Twenty Fifth St. and am a coachman.
On Sunday the 4th of March I saw the prisoner; he is no relative; he struck me on the forehead with an axe; the scar that is over my right eye was made from that blow; it was the edge of the axe that struck me; it made so deep a wound that I bled at the mouth; it fractured the bone and a piece of the bone has been taken out. I walked with the officer one block to the hospital.
I was treated there. This assault took place at 340 East Twenty Fifth St. between one and two o'clock in the afternoon. This man was in my place, I did not want him there, and I ordered him out, and he told me if anybody was to go out I would go first. I said I would not go out first. I went to the door to go for an officer. He stood one side of the door and I stood on the other with the knob of the door in my hand and he ran behind me for an axe at the other side, and he drew it. I resisted with my right hand and kept as close as I could and let the knob

0375

of the door go; we were not more than about two feet apart. After he struck me I don't know how long I lay senseless, but I remember when I came to seeing a crowd of people round the door and the first one I recognized was the housekeeper. She asked me what was the matter? I told her the prisoner struck me with an axe. She asked him if he did. He said, "yes," using a bad expression, and I will strike him again or anybody else who will bother me. The housekeeper's husband and a crowd of people came around. The prisoner when he heard the officers were coming left the place and carried the axe with him. Cross examined. I always drink a little but was not intoxicated that morning. There was present at the time of the assault, the prisoner, his wife, a young daughter and myself. I do not remember seeing Jeremiah O'Brien in the room at the time I was struck. The prisoner obtained admittance to my house against my consent; he slept there two nights - his wife and two children came there. I know him over five years. Lucretia Lutgens, testified that on the 4th of March she was called down stairs, there was fighting and murder in the basement; she found the prisoner behind the door with a big axe in his hand. I asked him what was the matter? He said that the complainant abused him and his wife and children. The complainant came out of the bed room. I saw him all bleeding. I said to the prisoner, "My God, did you hit that man with an axe?" He said, "yes, and I will hit him again if he comes near me and will hit everyone that will interfere with me."

Thomas W. Mulry, sworn and examined. I arrested the prisoner on the 13th of March at the station house in West Twentieth St. I received the complaint on the 4th of March and was looking for him. An officer of the 16th precinct arrested him for me. The prisoner said that whatever he did he did it in self defence - that Edward and Jeremiah Green had a quarrel, he went to separate them and they turned upon him. Henry Lutgens testified that when he was called in he saw the prisoner have an axe in his hand and the complainant came out of his room with his head open. I saw the mark where he was hurt and I told him to go to the hospital to get his head dressed. He said to me, "I want you to remember that this man struck me with the axe. I asked the prisoner if he did it, and he said, "yes, I will strike him again when he comes up to me." He was moving three or four steps that way, and my wife jumped in between them. I said, "you will not." He said, "yes, you have got nothing to say. I will hit everybody that comes near to me." I called my big boy to get a policeman, and when I said that, the prisoner opened the door, took his axe in his hand, jumped out and went away.

John B. Breen, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I know Edward and Jeremiah Breen. On the 2nd of March Edward gave me permission to move my furniture in and on Saturday I went to work and came home. After supper my wife and two little girls went to bed. In the night Edward and his brother got quarreling and carried it on an hour or so. Sunday morning between one and two o'clock Edward got off the floor where he was lying asleep and he caught his brother in bed with his own wife. That enraged him and he threw his brother and wife out; the wife hid under the table and my wife screened her in the clothes closet so that he would not beat her. Afterward

Edward went out and got a bottle of whiskey and drank some of it; he got pretty drunk and commenced to abuse me, told me to get out, and afterward "Jerry" came in; they both got fighting. I got between them to separate them. They turned on me and said they would murder me and struck me, and I struck him with the handle of the axe.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty under the second count of the indictment.
