Dear Sir:-

I enclose you herewith a petition which explains itself, and if you could consistently see your way clear to favoring it with your signature I would feel under many obligations.

You may recall the case to mind, and that I had a talk with you in regard to the length of sentence. You were disposed to give him a light sentence but there was too much interference on the part of his friends and the result was a five years term. The young man has been pretty severely punished. His remorse and fretting have almost ruined his health, his father has since died through grief, his mother is rapidly failing, and there are several smaller children dependent on the efforts of the boys. These considerations move me to ask your valuable assistance in asking for his pardon, and I sincerely hope you will favor this petition.

Dear Sir:

I enclose herewith a letter from our Mr. A. E. Whyland regarding John Goff, who will come before you to be sentenced on Monday. I omitted to send this in a letter written by Mr. F. B. Thurber to you last week. I have little to add to what has been written you regarding Goff. It, certainly, is a hard case, but his offense was a great one occupying the position with us that he did. I am sure your good judgment will dictate your actions in this matter. I shall be in your court on Monday, and if you should wish any further information regarding Goff's family, character, etc., I shall be very glad to give it to you.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Sir

In reference to the Shuber Whyland & Co. I would like to ask you why it was you gave young Ryan and Welkinghoff the same length of time as you gave the others. as for young Ryan he had worked their such a short length of time and had been out of there just about two months when he was arrested And why is it that Whyland's nephew Mimmick was not drawn in it as well as the others for it was through Mimmick Bushell And G. off that the others were brought in to it And if it was only known there are a great many of the relatives of the.

Hon. Recorder Smyth

Dear Sir:

We learn incidentally that the case of the employees of Thurber, Whyland & Co., who combined to rob them, will probably be considered by your goodself to-day. Conspiracies to rob merchants (which have grown into a positive epidemic) has occasioned a great feeling of uneasiness in business circles. The risk and care of business already are in many cases too great for the slender margins of profits involved, and it would seem as though those who conspire against both the houses that employ them to protect their interest, and also against the interest of their honest fellow employees, ought to receive the lesson that the law will not palliate such offences. The exclosed slip indicates to what an extent this process has already obtained.

Respectfully yours,

Austin Nichols & Co.

0558

AN EPIDEMIC OF DISHONESTY.

Recently Messrs. Thurber, Whyland & Co. and Austin, Nichols & Co., of New York, discovered conspiracies among their employés to rob them, and now comes another account where Messrs. Henry Nordlinger & Co. suffered in a somewhat similar way, and the following dispatch from Pittsburg, indicates a somewhat similar conspiracy there:

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 1.—David Niblack and seven others, including one woman, were arrested this morning for robbing wholesale grocery stores on Liberty street. The robbery has been systematically carried on for nearly a year, and it is estimated that goods amounting to at least $10,000 have been taken. The plan was for one of the thieves to secure employment as a watchman in the store, and after dark the goods would be carried off and sold to their customers. Six arrests for receiving stolen goods are yet to be made.

Mr. W. A. Parshall.

Dear Sir:-

I again address you concerning John Goff. I am particularly interested in his case because he came with me when he was but a boy, and has been up to the time of his downfall straightforward, sincere, and attentive to his business.

He has always been faithful, and this regard for our interests has resulted in his promotion through different positions to that of buyer. He has been well liked by everybody, and his natural disposition is too good to be crowded and stamped upon by imprisonment.

We ought to give him an opportunity to get away from the scenes of his boyhood and start his life anew. I will guarantee that hereafter the community will not be troubled by any dishonest work of his. I do not wish to countenance dishonesty or crime, nor to apologize, for a moment, for Goff's disregard of our interests, but this is a case where justice can well be tempered with mercy. Life has just opened before him. The weak judgment of a boy was not proof against temptation. The lesson has been a dear one to him, and I ask that sentence be suspended, and that he be given an opportunity to begin his life anew in a new neighborhood.

Very truly yours,

W B Thurber

My dear Sir

Yours making inquiries as to the conduct of Chas M Williams at hand. Williams was in charge of our Wood Yard as Supt & Book-Keeper for abt 2 year. He came to us as a poor man out of work. The poor law that he had some ability as a book or Supt and poor gave him that position. For the first year and a half he gave good satisfaction, but was under the daily supervision of our very Careful Treasurer. About June 1886 the Treasurer on acc of his health was obliged to go out of town and left his affairs in the hands of one of our Directors who did not enter into all

[redacted] details of the [redacted] Williams [illegible] us to [illegible] the checks for deposit, but letter re the cash. Being plummer time and business slack we did not think it strange that no letter cash came in, on cash sales. At the End of about 4 Months, and the day before our careful Treasurer was to arrive, Mr Williams left for parts unknown. On a few days his wife had letters from him from Canada
We found our accounts so mixed up, could not tell what wood was paid for or not, so negotiated with him to come back and tell us what money he had collected but not accounted for, and we would not prosecute
He did so and we found that he had colected about $600. + in fact all the cash business of the Summer, and even pressed our responsible customers to pay their bills, which we are not in the habit of doing. We also found that he had given some wood out of the Yard without making any charge of it whatever. Some of our Directors think we may have lost perhaps $1000. — He was next employed by the Society for improving the Condition of the poor here in Brooklyn. But they knew the whole history of his transactions with us. He has a very nice wife and two or more children, and is said to be well connected Abroad. We were not at all before Recorder Smyth.

Thursday, September 20, 1888.

Indictment for attempt at extortion.

Peter Hartman sworn and examined, testified: I am an hotel proprietor and conduct that business at 57 and 58 Whitehall Street and in connection with that business I sell liquor, I am licensed by the Board of Excise, I know the defendant Stanley Granger, he was employed as he represented himself to be by the order and law society, he came to my hotel prior to his arrest on the 27th of June I believe of this year, I do not remember the exact date but about that. I was sitting on the sidewalk in front of the hotel and he asked me to come in the store that he wanted to see me on some very important business; I told him to state his business as I was sick and could not go in. He said it is very important that I should come inside. So I went in with him, he took me in the back room to a table and pulled out two memorandum books and he looked over them some time and found my name. He said, "are you Mr Hartman? I says, yes. He says, "you know me, don't you?" I says no. He says, "I am a member of the Grand Army Post and I came heretio interview you in regard to protecting you against certain indictments that I will have against you on Monday." I says, "how is that?" He says, "I have come in your place and I am going before the Grand Jury and I can either squash these or push them, if you will fix it up with me." I told him I had nothing to fix with any such man as he was, I says, "you get out and leave my place, I consider you a blackmailer," that is all the conversation we had. Did you give him anything? No sir. Had you violated the Excise Law? Not to my knowledge. The Defendant said he was a member of the Law and Order Society and also a member of the Grand Army Post, I think it is Ensigne Post.

The Witness repeated the conversation he had with the Defendant. He said, "I have got enough for three indictments against you and we can fix this between ourselves, I will squash it if you can fix it with me or I can go before the Grand Jury." I told him I had nothing to fix with any such man as he was, for him to leave the place, I considered he was a blackmailer. Did he leave? He did as if he was shot out of a gun. There was no one present at the time this conversation was held in the room.

D. J. Whitney sworn and examined. I am in the commission business, I am chairman of the committee of enforcement of the law of the Society for the Prevention of Crime. I know the Defendant Granger, in the month of June 1888, he was in our employ. His business was to obtain evidence from pool-rooms, gambling houses and liquor places of violations of the Excise Law and report the same to me by written report. He made several reports in reference to Mr Hartman's place prior to the offence alleged in this indictment, he was on for some two months or more, he reported violations of the Excise Law on Sunday and in every instance he was instructed not to drink any liquors.

Cross Examined. I appointed him myself upon a recommendation received from Albert Day of the Brooklyn Society by whom he was employed, he was appointed the same time with Williams who was sent to the State Prison a short time ago. We employ men of the best character that we can get. The Defendant had been in Mr Day's employ and he highly recommended him. Since I have received this recommendation I have become familiar with the Defendant's general character, I know it is bad. You are one of these amateur detectives who have organized this society to aid the police in suppressing the sale of liquor, are you not? If you knew what you were talking about you would not ask that ridiculous question.

By the Court. Q. Are you an amateur detective, answer it yes or no.

A. No sir.

Q. Are you connected with the Society for the purpose of aiding the police in endeavoring to ascertain whether crime has been committed or not?

A. No sir, not directly, no more than any officer would in the enforcement of the law.

Stanley Granger sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified: I know Mr Whitney, the last witness, I think I was employed on the 11th day of May 1888 I was never arrested charged with any crime before, I have been locked up in the Tombs since the 29th of June; previous to being employed by the Society I was a brick layer and plasterer by trade. What was your business when you were employed by them?? Going around among pool-rooms and gambling houses to obtain evidence and on Sunday to liquor saloons to get evidence against them for violation of the Excise Law. I have a wife and three children and a mother I was formerly a soldier, I served three years in the late rebellion. I belong to Grand Army Post G.K.Warren 286 Brooklyn. The way I come to go to Mr Hartman's place it was on June 27 I went into Mr betts of the Eastern Hotel, I thought he was a comrade, I was at the door and he saluted me and I returned it as any comrade knows what it is. I went back and had a cigar and I asked Mr Wall if he would join me, this was in betts place, and he refused and while I was standing back there I spoke to one of the porters and asked him if this man was the boss, pointing at Mr Wall. I was a private soldier in the army of the Union. The porter pointed to Mr Wall as the boss of the hotel, I went over to him and said, "comrade, you have been open here on Sunday and if you are not careful in the future you will be apt to get in trouble. He says, "all right, I am not the proprietor, Mr betts is. He says to me "if you come in such a day, naming about two days afterwards, hewill talk business with you. I says to him, "Mr Wall, I have no business with Mr betts, I merely tell you as a comrade in our favor." The appointment was made for two days afterwards, I was not in that place again. I made a mistake in my statement about being in there, I said that I was in on the 27th but I meant to say that that was not the time I was in there, that was the last day that I was in there. This conversation that I am telling the jury about took place as near as I can remember about ten days before the 27th. On the 27th I went in there and had a lass of lager and Mr Wall drank one with me and he returned the compliment. He says to me, "will you deliver a message, will out go to Mr Hartman, it is right on the block with me and tell him what you have told me?" I told him I would and so I went up. Mr Hartman was sitting outside and I called him in and I told him the same as I told Mr Wal·, I told him that if he kept open on Sunday for the future that he would be apt to get in trouble. So he brought a man up to me, a stranger to me; he says "did you ever see this man in the place on Sunday?" He says, "I never did." He says, "if you ever catch him coming in here on Sunday, punch him in the head, he is no good", or words to that effect, I don't recollect exactly, and when he said it I walked out of the place, that is all I have to say about the case and all I know. I did not ask or demand any money, I never opened a memorandum with his name in it, I did not tell him I would go before the Grand Jury and have three indictments squashed. I reported him as violating the Excise Law to the president of the Society before this, I don't remember the date, it is all down in the statement, sworn affidavits every week, sworn to before Counsellor Morse.

Cross Examined. I know a man by the name of Williams, he was not with me when I visited Mr Wall, Williams went with me sometimes on Sunday and sometimes we were separate. Before I was engaged by the Society for the Suppression of Crime I worked in Livingston Street, Brooklyn, for the Society for Improving the Condition of the Poor. I am a mason by trade, I have never been in prison in my life before this and never went by any other name than Stanley Granger. I am positive that Mr Wall told me to deliver a message to Hartman, I knew before this that Hartman had been violating the Excise Law on Sundays.

George E. Wall was called by the District Attorney in rebuttal and on being sworn and examined, testified as follows: What is your Business, Mr Wall? Superintendent of the Eastern Hotel. Where is that hotel located? Located at the foot of Whitehall and South Sts. Do you know the defendant at the bar, Stanley Granger? I amerely know him by seeing him in there twice. He came into your place in June, did he? It was in June, yes sir, he came in. Did you have some conversation with him? Yes sir. State to the Jury what that conversation was?

Objected to. Objection overruled. Exception.

He came in to me and wanted to know if my name was Mr Wall, I told him it was: he saluted me, I did not recognize him as a comrade at all which he says I did, I did not; he said he would like to see me on a little business, he said that he was one of the offcers of the Law and Order Society and there were indictments against us. I says, "you come in again, I will see the proprietor and see what he says about it." He did not come back as he agreed to, I think he agreed to be there in two or three days: about four or five days after that he came in and called me over and sat down at the window. He took out a book and showed me where he had evidence of different places he visited, where he had been in on Sunday: he explained to me how he would drink and not drink, he would take it in his mouth and spit it out in the bottle and hold the handkerchief over his mouth. He said his salary was quite small and that he could hardly get along with his salary only twenty dollars a week and a large family. There were several indictments against us and he could have them squashed and fixed up himself with us. I says, "I have not had a chance to speak to the proprietor as yet but I presume if you are any ways lenient that I may fix matters with you." He says, "you may call fifty dollars lenient while I might call one hundred dollars lenient": and he showed me where he had Mr Hartman down, he said he was going up to see Mr Hartman; I did not send him to Hartman with any message whatsoever. I left him standing in the door! he went up to Hartman's place and the next thing Hartman came to see me: this man had represented that he was a comrade of mine. I don't know whether he does belong to the Grand Army; he said he went down by my door running, whether he did or not I don't know, the next thing I heard he was arrested with this man Williams.

The People
vs.
Peter Green. } Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Recorder Smyth.

Wednesday, September 5, 1888.

Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree.

J. Edgar Ambler sworn and examined by Mr Jerome. What is your business? Butter dealer. Do you know the defendant at the bar? No sir. Did you ever see him before? When he was arrested. You know him by sight, is that right? Yes sir. The charge against him is stealing a wagon and hand-cart both belonging to you, of the value of one hundred and fifty dollars, did you see this wagon and hand-cart that it is alleged he has stolen? In his possession?

The Court: Was he the owner of the wagon?

Counsel: I will admit that the complainant was the owner of the wagon.

By Mr Jerome: Were you owner of the wagon and hand-cart? Yes. What was the hand-cart worth? Ten dollars. What was the wagon worth? About one hundred and forty dollars. Where did you see them last before the larceny? In front of my door 424 Fourth Avenue, Tuesday evening, the 7th of August of this year. When did you next see them? At the Station House the next morning, I was invited to go there, I saw them standing in front of the door of the Station House. They were your property? Yes. That is all the knowledge you have in regard to this transaction? Yes sir. Did you ever see the defendant before that time? No sir. Did you ever authorize the defendant to take the wagon and push-cart? No sir, never saw him before.

Cross Examined. I have learned since that the defendant lives in my immediate neighborhood, so he told me.

James Trunky sworn and examined by Mr Jerome. You are an officer of the municipal force of this city? Yes. Did you arrest the defendant at the bar, Peter Green? Yes. When and where? On the morning of the 8th of August at 30th Street and Third Avenue. Did he have any property with him? A wagon and hand-cart. What did you do with the wagon and hand-cart? He got stuck on the track of a Third Avenue car going down, he stopped, I got the driver and conductor to help us off the track with it and shoved it over to the curb, I asked Peter Green what his name was and he told me it was Peter Green, I asked him how he come by the wagon, seeing Mr Ambler's name on it and he said he had borrowed it to move some furniture, I made him my prisoner and took him to the Station House. What sort of a wagon was it? A business wagon for one horse. Had he a horse in it at the time? No sir, the hand-car was chained to the front of the wagon. Did you take the hand-cart and the wagon to thecStation House? Yes sir. You took it to the Station House and left it in front of the door? Yes sir, of the Station House. And Mr Ambler identified it as his property, is that right? Yes sir.

Cross Examined. At the time that you saw the prisoner he was facing toward the residence of the owner of the wagon, was he not, he was facing toward the place of business of the complainant? He was behind the wagon, shoving it, trying to get it off the track. Was he not acting as if he was on the way towards the place of business where the wagon came? Yes sir, at the time I made the arrest he was on the front when I went towards him when he got stuck on the track and he came around to the back of the wagon. He made no further statement with regard to the wagon after I took him to the Station House than that he had borrowed it to remove some furniture. I do not know that I have ever seen the Defendant before, I searched him when I reached the Station House andfound nothing on him.

Peter Green sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified: Where do you live? I live 234 East 29th Street How long have you lived there? I am living going on to thirty-three years around in that immediate neighborhood. You had this wagon in the manner in which the officer said you had it? Yes sir. Did you intend to steal it? No sir, I did not, I only intended to do a little work with it; there was a man there in front of the door and I asked him for the loan of it, in front of Mr Ambler's door, I would not tell you his name, I never saw him before or since, I did notask him if he belonged there, I asked him if I could have the wagon to remove some things in the evening of the 7th of August I think it was after eleven o'clock in the evening. Mr Ambler's store was not open, the wagon and the cart were chained together, I did not expect to get them apart; it was not furniture I wanted to remove but a trunk. I never was arrested for stealing before, I was arrested for intoxication once and paid my fine of ten dollars and once I was arrested twelve years ago for assault and battery and got one month in the Penitentiary. I was going to move the trunk from my wife's house to my aunt's where I am boarding.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree.
