The People vs. Plaintiff

vs.

John Marsh, Earl Marsh,
and James J. Sullivan, Defendants

City & County of New York ss.

John Marsh, Earl Marsh
and James J. Sullivan the defendants in the above entitled action being duly sworn, say and each for himself say as follows to wit:

On the 3^d day of May A.D. 1857 the said John Marsh was arrested in the City of New York upon a charge of robbery, and taken before a Police Justice by whom he was held to answer the said charge.

On the 10th day of the said month of May, the said John Marsh was admitted to bail, and entered into a recognizance with the said Earl Marsh, and James Sullivan as sureties, in the sum of two thousand two hundred dollars, conditioned according to law for the appearance of the said John Marsh before the Court of General Sessions in and for the City and County of New York to answer to an indictment upon the said charge of robbery doon. afterwards, the said John Marsh went to look for a. Farmer, in Coldkill, Sussex Co N.J. and was absent from the City of New York for about two weeks and during his absence the indictment against him for the said alleged robbery was put upon the calendar of the said Court of General Sessions for trial, and on the 3rd day of June A.D. 1857 the said Court of General Sessions, the Hon.

Justice B. Louving City Judge presiding ordered the said recognizance to be forfeited.

Within a few days afterwards the said John Marsh returned to the City of New York, and his father on learning that the Police authorities were looking for him promptly notified the said Police authorities that the said John Marsh was at home and could be had whenever he was wanted, and the said John Marsh was thereupon almost immediately arrested upon a bench warrant issued by the said Court of General Sessions upon the said indictment for the said alleged robbery.

The said John Marsh and his said parties thereupon supposed that the purpose of said recognizance had been substantially accomplished by the said arrest, and that no further proceedings would be had against them thereon.

Nevertheless on the 5th day of July A. D. 1887 a judgment was entered against them upon the said recognizance in the office of the County Clerk of the City and County of New York for the sum of two thousand two hundred dollars, the penalty thereof and execution was issued thereon. On the 19th day of December A. D. 1887 the said John Marsh duly appeared before the said Court of General Sessions to answer to the said indictment and was thereupon by the said Court discharged upon his own recognizance.

The defendants John Marsh from the day of his first arrest until the day of his discharge as above set forth has at all times been and is now in the City of New York ready to answer to the said indictment (except during the said period of about two weeks, during which he was absent, as above, set forth, and that absence from the city was for a legitimate and honest purpose and not for the purpose of flight or evasion.

The people have lost no rights in the promises but are in all respects in the same condition as if the condition of the said recognizance had been in all things kept and observed.

This affidavit is made for the purpose of applying to the Court of Common Pleas to vacate and set aside the said judgment entered upon the said forfeited recognizance.

William G. Sears being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 6 day of January 1887, at the City of New York, in the County of New York, Hugh H. Bullough did, in violation of the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, unlawfully and wilfully throw, expose, and place in and upon a certain street, highway and public place in said city, open for the passage of animals, and situate in the 10th Ward, in said city, and known as The Boro therein, a certain salt and substance known as common salt, for the purpose of dissolving certain snow which had theretofore fallen and then was deposited thereon; which said salt and substance was not by him, the said Hugh H. Bullough, thrown, exposed, or placed upon a curve, or crossing, or switch of a railroad track then and there being.

Wherefore the Complainant prays that the said Hugh H. Bullough may be arrested, and dealt with according to law, and more especially according to the following law made and provided, to wit: "An Act to prevent injury to animals in the City of New York;" passed February 8, 1876.

Court of General Sessions. Part I Julia McDonald (Before Recorder Smyth May 23. 1887.

Indictment for grand larceny in the first degree.

Herman Gladstone sworn and examined.

I live 21 Christie St.; my business is salesman, drummer for a firm in 33 Christie St.; on the 11th of May between 9 and 10 o'clock at night I was in Elizabeth St.; the defendant spoke to me and asked me if I would not like to go up stairs. I went up in a room and took off my coat. I gave her a dollar and had a ten dollar bill in the same hand. I had four silver dollars and a ten dollar bill in my left hand pocket of my pantaloons; the defendant took the dollar and the ten dollar bill and wanted to run away. I caught hold of her and said, "Give me back my money," and then she wanted to fight me with the other hand. Then I took my overcoat and went out in the street; she stayed there. When I got to the street I found a police officer and told him the whole story. About fifteen minutes afterwards she came down stairs and the policeman arrested her. I waited outside all the time. Cross Examined. She took the ten dollar bill out of my hand the same time I was giving her the dollar. It is not a fact that I wanted her to undress; there was no talk about undressing. After she took the money freely out of my hand. I did not want to have anything to do with her, all I wanted was my money. I know the girl pointed out to me in the Court room; she was at my home to talk to me about this, not to make any complaint against the defendant. I did not say to the defendant that I would make it cost more than fifty to one for the dollar she got from me. I said in the Court that many other people were robbed in that way. I met the girl pointed out to me in the street with two young men; she said, "you will have no profit out of this, and if you do not prosecute her then you will have your money again." Then she said she (the defendant) had a sick mother and I should take pity. I said for my part I would forgive her. We did not have any talk in the street about the price.

Edward Brady sworn. I am an officer of the Sixth Precinct and arrested the prisoner on the 11th of May between 9 and 10 o'clock. I first saw the complainant standing around the street and I ordered him away; he was in Elizabeth St. near Rester. I asked him what he was doing there; it was near 61 Elizabeth St; he told me something and in consequence of what he said I arrested the prisoner. I saw her coming down stairs. I asked him if that was the woman, and he said, 'yes'; I took her to the station house. The complainant made a charge of stealing eleven dollars; she was locked up but not ~~checked~~ searched. Sergeant Thompson was in command at the time. There was no warrant there to search her. The house out of which the prisoner came is what is known as a bed house.

Julia M. Donald sworn and examined in her own behalf testified - I am going on 25 years of age. I am an unfortunate girl I met the complainant on this night on the street and had a conversation with him; he came up to me; after speaking to two girls before that; he brought them up the stoop and ran down again. I did not hear what they said, but I came from the corner of Mester St. I spoke to him and he asked me how much I wanted. I asked him if he wanted to go up stairs and he said, 'yes'. He asked me how much I wanted and told him a quarter for the room and a dollar for me. He gave a quarter for the room and he came up stairs with me in the room. I don't know whether he pulled it out of his pocket or whether he had it in his hand, one silver dollar. I laid down ^{on the} bed and after I laid down he said

"Take off your clothes!" I said, "No, not for that money." He says, "Give me my money back." I said, "No." Then he went down stairs, and going down stairs he said, he would make me pay fifty dollars for the one. I went right out with the man and he met an officer and had me arrested. I did not grab any money out of the man's hand, ~~he grabbed~~ he handed one silver dollar to me. Cross Examined. I did not see ten dollars with him. He did not pull out any money that I know of. I don't know whether he had it in his hand going up stairs or not. I came down stairs two or three minutes after him as soon as I could get ^{on} my hat. I live at 61 Hester street. The house I went to is a bed house. I will tell you the truth, I have been in the town nine going on ten years.

Edward Brady recalled. It was fifteen minutes after the complainant came down stairs when the prisoner came down.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.
