City and County } ss:

Edward B. Bumper

of No. 33-N-42

Street, aged 27 years, occupation Attorney & Counselor at Law being duly sworn,deposes and says, that on the 10 day of December 1891 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

Good and lawful money of the United States of the amount in value of Seventy five dollars the property of Albert A. Reed in the care and charge of deponent as attorney and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by J. Grant Mitchell

And the deponent further says that the said Mitchell was attorney for one Albert A. Reed, until replaced by the deponent on Dec. 1. 1891: that after said Dec. 1. 1891 said Mitchell agreed to act as attorney for said Reed in certain matters and to settle for said Reed certain bills owed by said Reed in New York City; that among the said accounts to be so settled by said Mitchell was one owed to A. Frank Richardson of New York City: that that on Dec. 9th 1891 said Mitchell wrote to said Reed of certain negotiations that had been conducted by him—Mitchell—with said Richardson in regard to his claim against said Reed and requesting said Reed to immediately send him seventy-five (75) dollars with which to settle said claim: that deponent, in accordance with instructions from said Reed, on Dec. 10th 1891 sent to said

Subscribed to before me this 10 day of December 1891
Police Justice

Mitchell at New York City by check, which is hereto annexed and made a part of this affidavit, twenty-five (25) dollars, which money was paid to deponent by said Reed: that said Mitchell received said check and deposited it for collection in the Garfield National Bank of New York City, and deponent is informed and believes that said Mitchell now has no funds in said bank. And the deponent further says that said Mitchell did not pay the proceeds of said check to said Richardson, as deponent is informed by Philip A. J. Russell, manager of A. Frank Richardson's business, according to instructions: but the deponent is informed and believes that the said Mitchell feloniously appropriated said proceeds to his own use: that he, the deponent, subsequently saw said Mitchell and demanded payment of said twenty-five (25) dollars; that said Mitchell promised to pay the same at once, but has utterly neglected for a period of several months so to do: that deponent, during that time has made diligent search for said Mitchell, but has been unable to find him: and deponent is further informed and believes that said Mitchell has not been at his office in business hours during that time: that said Mitchell has been dissevered for non-payment of rent: and that at present his place of business and residence are unknown and that he is secreting himself. Wherefore deponent charges said defendant with unlawfully and feloniously appropriating said sum of money with intent to deprive the true owner of the same.

lawfully sworn says, As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. I am but the attorney representing the complainant in interest, who now is and resides in Boston Massachusetts and have no personal interest in the prosecution of the above named defendant; and though the complaint herein was made by myself it was as an attorney. The defendant was acting as my assistant in settling claims against my client at the time of the commission of the alleged offense. I do not believe that it was the real intention of the defendant to commit the crime of larceny or misappropriate the money sent by me to him. I now believe that defendant intended and always has intended to make restitution of the money and properly adjust the claim.
