Dear Sir:-

On behalf of this Board, I beg to acknowledge the receipt of a communication from you dated September 8th, enclosing a letter from Rachel Silverstein who wishes to obtain certain information about her husband Barret (or Bernard) Silverstein, who is alleged to have voted in the City about twenty-two years ago.

We cannot determine from the papers which you have sent us whether this person was a citizen or not; it will be necessary for us to have some further definite information, such as a house address.

I herewith return to you the papers forwarded to me.
