 The People
 vs.
 Michael J. Callahan } Court of General Sessions. Part I Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree. Before Judge Cowing. Feb. 7. 1883.
 Julius Lutz, sworn and examined. I am salesman for Corgan Bros. at 125 Bowery; on the 23^d of last month there was a piece of tapestry Brussels carpet, which I have since found out was 46 yards instead of 55 yards and of the value of $35.50. I don't know anything about the taking of it. I last saw the carpet about four o'clock on the evening previous; I did not discover its loss till the next morning. The officer came and told me it was at the station house. I went there and identified it. The property was in my custody and was taken away without my consent. I took this card off the carpet I found in the station house and compared it with the stock book and found this piece of carpet missing. No 36665 is the number of the pattern. I can identify the carpet by the card and by the entry on the stock book. There are a number of carpet stores in the Bowery this piece of carpet was with others put in front of the store each morning; it was one piece only of that kind. I did not measure the carpet, we never measure the carpets but by them by the piece and tickets

0383

John Barrett sworn. I live 30 Madison St. in this city, am an expressman; on the 23 of last January I saw the prisoner in the station house. A young man came to me about six o'clock in the afternoon when I was putting up my horse and asked me if I would bring a bundle from Elizabeth to Market St. I told him it was rather late to go, it was a cold evening; he told me he would give me a dollar; he got upon the wagon with me. When we got to the middle of the block in Elizabeth St. the young man who employed me jumped off the wagon and said, "wait a minute." The officer hailed me and said, "stop." I said, "What is the matter?" I did not know what he put on the wagon, but in the station house I saw it was carpet. I went to the Tombs the next morning to tell what I seen. I saw Mr. Lutz that morning in Court. I swore that Callahan sat on the roll of carpet because he was the one that the officer grabbed. I did not see his face until I saw him at the station house, I saw the officer take him by the arm and hold on to him. It was the same man I saw at the station house who sat on the carpet in my wagon; the defendant was the man.

0384

Augustus B. Palmer sworn. I am an officer of the 14th precinct, I arrested the prisoner in Christie near West Sts. between six and seven o'clock in the evening on the 23rd last month. I was informed that parties were trying to sell a roll of carpet in Elizabeth St. and they had loaded it into an express wagon and gone away with it. I found Barnett and the prisoner in an express wagon with a roll of carpet. I stopped them, and neither knew what they had; they got it in Elizabeth and were going to Market St. with it. I told them to drive around to the station house and have it investigated; the carpet was identified by Mr. Lutz; the prisoner made a motion to jump off the wagon and I told him not to. Mary Craven sworn. I live in Brooklyn and was in Elizabeth St. New York on the afternoon of the 23rd of January. I saw the prisoner in the entry where the carpet lay and I saw him and another person load it on the wagon; the driver was on the seat. I went and told Officer Palmer about it. The young man who was with the defendant asked me to buy the roll of carpet and offered it to me for thirty dollars. I declined to buy the carpet.

John Barrett sworn. I live 30 Madison St.
 Michael J. Callahan sworn and examined in his own defence. I live 60 West Tenth St. I am a clerk, the last place I worked was Nugent and Steeles in Pearl St. I was going down from West Tenth St. about 5 1/2 and passed through Grand and Elizabeth Sts. Two young men asked me if I wanted to make two dollars by helping a man to remove some goods to Market St. They said, "wait a minute, the wagon will be along." I stood by the hallway and in about two seconds the express wagon came along and the two men put the goods on the wagon. They told me to jump on the wagon and show the driver where Market St. was. We drove through West and Ferry Sts. and the Brewery; the officer stopped the wagon and took us to the station house. I did not steal the carpet from Crofani's place and did not assist anybody in stealing it. I did not know the two young men who were in Elizabeth St. I was arrested once for playing ball but never for stealing. I did not touch the carpet. I did not try to escape from the officer. I could have run away; my hat fell off and that is the reason why he caught me. I wanted to run away. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

has a probable cause to suspect and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by

from the fact that while deponent was in a house in Pearl Street with defendant he had illicit intercourse with her, that just prior to his having connection with her said defendant he had said property attached to and in the pocket of the vest then and there worn by deponent as a part of his bodily clothing, that as soon as deponent got through with said connection he discovered that said property had been so feloniously stolen from his person, and he therefore charges the said defendant with the larceny thereof.

The People vs. Phillip Cohen Court of General Sessions. Part 7 Before Judge Gildersleeve. Jan. 29, 1883 Indictment for robbery.

James Farrell, sworn and examined, testified. I live 27 Gouverneur St. in this city. I know the prisoner, I saw him on the 17th of Dec. I signed the paper now before me at the Police Court, Judge Patterson presiding. I did not make the statement there that it was on the 3^d of January the property was taken from me, but I said it was on the 17th of Dec. I did not know the prisoner before that at all. I was forced into a hallway. I asked them to direct me to 27 Gouverneur St. as I am not acquainted in the vicinity where I lived very well. I met them in the vicinity of Mester St. They said they would show me, and passing by this hallway they forcibly thrust me in there, knocked me down and kicked me. I resisted all I could, but my coat was taken and my pockets rifled. My overcoat was taken off my person. It was worth eight or ten dollars to me. I lost sight of the prisoner immediately; they run away. I went to the station house and reported the case. I called for help but there was no one seen. It was some days subsequently that the prisoner was arrested. I have no doubt but he is the party. He aided the others in taking my coat. Did you see his hands on you? Certainly. Do you know whether he struck or kicked you? I could not tell which of them, but they all seemed to act alike; all three were together. The three remained in the hallway together until the property was taken, they went away together and the prisoner was one of them. Cross Examined. I was coming from visiting a friend in Spring St. I had been living in Gouverneur St. since last May. The reason why I asked them to show me where Gov-erner St. is because my memory is indistinct and I cannot think as I used to.

 This happened between five and six o'clock in the evening; it was dusk, nearly dark, the lamps were lit; there was no light in the hallway. I never saw Cohen before that to my knowledge I might identify the others now if I saw them. The young men looked about alike; one of them was taller than the prisoner. The prisoner kicked me. I could not turn in bed for two weeks after the occurrence. I cannot tell how many times Cohen kicked me. I saw him next in Court with officer M. Conley. I know the questions that were asked me at the Police Court, I answered and affixed my signature to the paper.

0457

Abraham Finckenstein sworn. I live 20 Hester St. am 12 years old, know the prisoner Philip Cohen two or three months. I saw him take an overcoat last Dec. from the last witness. I was playing tag, I saw him go in a hall with the man; he took him and held him down and took an overcoat off him. A fellow by the name of "Jack Harris" and another fellow was with Cohen. This was six o'clock at night between Norfolk and Essex in Hester St. As soon as Cohen took the overcoat he put it on him and ran up Norfolk St. All the boys ran away. Cross Examined. I saw the boys in a beer saloon on Hester St. I went around that night to the Attorney St. Court to get a policeman. I told them that night at the station house who took the overcoat and what occurred that night.
John M'Canley sworn. I am an officer of the 13th precinct. I know the premises on Hester St. that have been spoken. It was on the night of Dec. 17th Mr. Farrell and two or three little boys among whom was Finckenstein came to the station house and said he had been robbed of an overcoat in Hester St. I asked Finckenstein who the boys were? and he said that "Bill Cohen" was one of the boys I was looking out for him up to the night of the 3^d of January. I arrested him in Hester St. and the complainant and Fincklestein identified him. The prisoner told me a couple of boys gave him the coat, that it was in Baxter street, but where he could not tell. Phillip Cohen, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I live 3 Suffolk St. and worked for my uncle. I was at the corner of Suffolk and Hester St. going to my uncle's house and there were three boys, they said, "Dont you want a coat?" I said, no; they chucked it down, I picked it up, the lining was sunburned. I did not want to take it to my uncle's house. I took it to Baxter St. and sold it for fifty cents. I never saw the complainant until I saw him at the Essex Market Court. I did not see the boy Fincklestein; the coat was not worth more than half a dollar.

Jonas Cohen and Selina Cohen, the father and mother of the boy, testified that he was honest and truthful and was never arrested before. Lazarus Cohen, the uncle, testified that he was the uncle of the defendant, knew him for 12 years, he worked for him, and he was an honest boy. Abraham Jacobs testified that the prisoner worked for him four months and that he was honest.

John M. Canley, the officer was recalled, and said that the reputation of the defendant among the police was very bad.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of larceny in the second degree.
