Sir, I have the honor to accept your invitation to attend the ceremonies appointed for the transfer of the Grant Monument to the City of New York, on the 2nd of April next. Your Esteemed Letter would have received my earlier acknowledgment, but I have been away from home for some time & only found your favor here to day forwarded from my address ~~above~~ in New York.

If convenient, I would like to be accompanied on this interesting occasion by my Son & daughter, Mr Stanton Siclley

& Miss Eda Siclley.

Very Respectfully

POSTAL TELEGRAPH-CABLE COMPANY.

This Company transmits and delivers the within message subject to the following TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the message written on the face hereof and the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any UNREPEATED message, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any REPEATED message beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially insured, nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages. And this Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

Correctness in the transmission of messages to any point on the lines of the Company can be INSURED by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon, at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz: one per cent. for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance.

No responsibility regarding messages attaches to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of this Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminal office. For delivery at a greater distance a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

This Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the company for transmission.

This is an UNREPEATED Message and is delivered by request of the sender under the conditions named above. Errors can be guarded against only by repeating a message back to the sending station for comparison.

No employee of this Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

Dear Sir:-

Your invitation to attend the ceremonies of the final transfer of the tomb of General Grant to the City of New York came to hand this morning, too late for acceptance, as no trains leave in time to reach New York before three or four o'clock in the afternoon. However, I shall keep same as a souvenir, for which I am obliged.

Yours truly,

My dear Sir;

The circumstance that I did not receive an invitation to the dedication of the Monument to General Grant has given rise to some newspaper comment, but I have today written to several journals giving them the exact facts.

The invitation to me was addressed to me at Washington, where, indeed, I have spent the larger part of my time for more than thirty years. The address, therefore, was proper.

Unfortunately the letter was retained in Washington for three days or more, and it only reached me this morning. The mishap was due to the delay in Washington.

Very truly,
