Anthony Corrista of 150 Nassau Street New York City being duly sworn deposes and says, that on or about the 28th day of February 1884 ^{Thomas Adam joining and} John Doe and Richard Roe whose real names are unknown, but who can be identified ^{at the city and county of New York of said}, did unlawfully contrive and propose a lottery, and did assist in contriving and proposing a lottery, which lottery was set on foot for the purpose of disposing of property by lot and chance against the form of the statutes of the State of New York in such case made and provided, and particularly in violation of Chapter 8 of the Penal Code of the State of New York.

Deponent further says, that on the 28th day of February 1884 he called at the place of business of the said John Doe and Richard Roe at number 77 Murray Street, in the City of New York aforesaid, and there saw the said John Doe, and had conversation with him in substance as follows.
Deponent asked, if they had prize chewing gum. The said John Doe replied, yes, and then showed deponent

a box containing as he said 150 pieces of chewing gum containing a little piece of paper which represented a prize. In the same box was also pictures, and as deponent was informed by the said John Doe a capital prize of a large scrap book. The said John Doe said to deponent that the pieces of chewing gum were to be sold to children for a cent a piece, and then the little ticket or paper inside drew one of the prizes that were in the same box, these prizes ranging from a little picture to a large scrap book. Deponent said to John Doe, it would seem as if every business now had a lottery. John Doe replied yes, we find it necessary to run one with our business in order to compete with our rivals. we do a very large business of this kind, and that we have a number of varieties, some having clocks and other articles of larger value in them. The said John Doe then and there showed deponent another box containing 150 pieces of chewing gum done up in the same way, and with prizes ranging from Balls down to little trinkets of wood and paper, and did inform deponent that the Balls were the capital prizes that the price of each of these different boxes containing the chewing gum and prizes to be distributed according to the numbers packed in with the pieces of chewing gum, were 75¢ each. Deponent purchased three boxes ^{of} each ^{kind} of the said John Doe, and paid the said John Doe the sum of 70¢ each per box, or the total amount of $4.20.

Deponent is further informed and believes from personal observation in the premises aforesaid described, and from information derived from the said John Doe in person, that the said John Doe and Richard Roe now have in their possession at, in, and upon certain premises occupied by them and situated and known as number 77 Murray Street in the City of New York aforesaid, several thousand lotteries which they have contrived and proposed, and now have in their possession with intent to sell and to use as a means to commit a public offense, to wit, that of furnishing to the retail dealers in confectionery, the said lotteries thus contrived and proposed by the said John Doe and Richard Roe

for the purpose of having the said lotteries drawn in these confectionery stores to induce little children to buy the small pieces of Chewing Gum valued at less than half a cent a piece.
 the children to pay one penny each for the small piece of chewing gum and also for the chances of drawing the capital prize in said lotteries.

Wherefore, deponent prays, that the said John Doe and Richard Roe may be arrested and dealt with according to law, and that the lotteries so contrived and proposed by them shall be seized and prevented from being drawn in the retail confectionery stores of the City and state to the great detriment of the children aforesaid who shall be led on to purchase almost worthless bits of gum with a view of drawing a greater prize.

One person by name W. E. Connor of Broadway, the sum of $500 - for the purpose of helping dependent to bring out the first regular issue. James R. Dear Sir

Having called at your office on Thurs.
& to day, to see you, without success, I wd ask, by letter, your kind an early consideration of the unfortunate situation of Mr L. E. Adams, who, without any crime, is held a prisoner, at a critical time for his business, on a very trifling charge.

The charge itself,
indeed, is not trifling;
and a bogus newspaper

0322 man, collecting money under the false pretence of issuing a paper we deserve to suffer.

But the evidence he gives of the substantial character of his enterprise seems quite sufficient to clear him of suspicion in regard to any such fraudulent character. Although, (through misfortune in having lost $6000 through the failure of "The American Exchange", he is now without money, (and a comparative stranger in the city from the West), yet he had by long effort obtained enough patrons to secure the 0323 issue of his paper,

"Capital and Fact," (a specimen copy of which I have now before me); but was delayed in its publication by the large order, for 100,000, given by Mr.
M. M. Pomeroy, President of the Atlantic & Pacific Journal Co.

His counsel, Mr.
G. W. Harrington, of 32 Greenwich Ave., has the draft of this contract with Mr. P. and also a letter stating the facts. And having known Mr.
Adams for some time is able to make such further statements as you may require.

0324

Mr Adams also refers to Mrs A. B. Morse of 30 & Second Ave., who is engaged during the day at the Inventor's Dept. Cooper Union.

What I would venture to ask, is that you wd satisfy yourself concerning these facts as soon as possible, so that Mr Adams may be discharged upon some nominal bail until the trial, before which he hopes to have the first number of his Paper issued. I understand that his Prosecutor himself is convinced that he made a mistake.

Anthony Bonastock of 150
or about the 28th day of February 1884
^{Thomas Adam joining and}
be identified ^{at the city and county of New York of} did unlawfully contrive and
chance against the form of the statutes
made and provided, and particularly
Code of the State of New York.

called at the place of business of the
said John Doe and Richard Roe at
number 77 Murray Street, in the City
of New York aforesaid, and there saw
with him in substance as follows.

a box containing as he said 150 pieces of chewing gum containing a little piece of paper which represented a prize. In the same box was also pictures, and as deponent was informed by the said John Doe a capital prize of a large scrap book. The said John Doe said to deponent that the pieces of chewing gum were to be sold to children for a cent a piece, and then the little ticket or paper inside drew one of the prizes that were in the same box, these prizes ranging from a little picture to a large scrap book. Deponent said to John Doe, it would seem as if every business now had a lottery, John Doe replied yes, we find it necessary to run one with our business in order to compete with our rivals. we do a very large business of this kind, and that we have a number of varieties, some having clocks and other articles of larger value in them. The said John Doe then and there showed deponent another box containing 150 pieces of chewing gum done up in the same way, and with prizes ranging from Balls down to little trinkets of wood

and paper, and did inform deponent that the Balls were the capital prizes that the price of each of these different boxes containing the chewing gum and prizes to be distributed according to the numbers packed in with the pieces of chewing gum, were 75¢ each. Deponent purchased three boxes ^{of} each ^{kind} of the said John Doe, and paid the said John Doe the sum of 70¢ each per box, or the total amount of $4.20.

Deponent is further informed and believes from personal observation in the premises aforesaid described, and from information derived from the said John Doe in person, that the said John Doe and Richard Roe now have in their possession at, in, and upon certain premises occupied by them and situated and known as number 77 Murray Street in the City of New York aforesaid, several thousand lotteries which they have contrived and proposed, and now have in their possession with intent to sell and to use as a means to commit a public offense, to wit, that of furnishing to the retail dealers in confectionery, the said lotteries thus contrived and proposed by the said John Doe and Richard Roe

 stores to induce little children to buy
 the small pieces of Chewing Gum
 valued at less than half a cent a piece
 the small piece of chewing gum and also for the chances of drawing the capital prizes in said lotteries.

 may be arrested and dealt with according
 and prevented from being drawn in the
 prize.

April 9. 1884.

Court of General Sessions. Part I Before Judge Corwin.

Indictment for grand larceny.

Joseph B. Gallagher sworn. I am in the circus and variety business; on the 27th of February last I was stopping at the St. Charles Hotel, 648 Broadway in this city. I had property in a box which stood in the hallway of this hotel. It consisted of a pedestal, which I used in my business and which I valued at one hundred dollars. It was made specially for me. I had also six or seven costumes and a bent gas-pipe and wire ropes. I put them down as being worth sixty dollars but they were worth more. The evening of the day when this box was in the hotel I met the defendant in Bleeker St.; he had in his hand two pipes and two wire ropes. Then I did not know my box had been opened, but I recognized these articles as my property, for there were none exactly like him. I asked the defendant where he got them. He said he bought it down on Thompson St. in a saloon. I told him the property belonged to me; he said he bought it for 50 cents. He was under the influence of liquor. There happened to be a detective behind him. He asked me if I wanted to arrest him? I told him, yes. He took him over to the Police Headquarters. I made a charge against him. The property found in his possession I valued at six dollars. I went over to the hotel and found that the box and everything in it was gone. The next morning myself and the officer went down with the defendant to Thompson St. He went down to the saloon where he said he bought them. The lady who runs the saloon said that he came in with the articles in his possession, laid them on the table, bought a couple of glasses of beer, drank the beer and went out again; she said he did not buy them there. After we went outside he said he bought them outside of the saloon. The officer brought him down to the station house. Cross Examined I came from New Haven to New York; this box was packed in New Haven. I had no occasion to open it after it arrived in New York. The last that I saw of the articles was in New Haven. I met the prisoner about a block and a half from the St. Charles hotel. When the box was in the hotel it was locked and a rope about 30 feet long was tied around it.

0430

Robert M Staught sworn. I am connected with the Central office of Police. Officer Cosgrove arrested the defendant and I took charge of the case when it came into the office. I asked the defendant where he got the stuff? He said he bought it in Thompson St. in a saloon. I took him the next morning to the saloon with the complainant and asked the lady in charge whether he bought it there? She said, no, but she remembered his coming in with it in his hand, laying it on the table and drinking a couple of glasses of beer and he went out. I took him to Court and this Gallagher made a complaint. After we came outside he told us that he bought it on the outside of the saloon. Cross Examined. The defendant was drunk the night of his arrest, but he was in a condition to know what he was doing; he could walk and talk; he spoke English very well. I could understand him.

Alexander Anstace, sworn and examined testified. I am a Frenchman, have been in this country five years and a half and have been in this city nine months. I sleep down in the Bowery.

I make artificial flowers. I don't know where the St. Charles hotel is. I was never in it. A man sold me this gas pipe and wire rope for fifty cents. I was in Greenwich St. at the time. I told the complainant and the officer that I bought the stuff in a liquor saloon on Thompson St. not in Thompson St. I said Thompson and Greene and Fifth Ave. I have been in the Tombs since I have been arrested. I have had no friends come to see me. I have one dollar in my possession now. I had nothing to do with stealing this property. Cross Examined I bought this to sell it again. The man from whom I bought it had a big mustache and he talked a little German; he talked French well. I did not tell the officer I bought it in Thompson St. but I went to a saloon in Thompson St. with the complainant and the officer. I said I bought it close to the saloon where we went in and had a glass of beer. I confused Thompson and Green St. I thought the things I purchased were worth about two or three dollars. I bought this property about 10 or 11 o'clock in the morning of the same day. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty with a recommendation to mercy.

*District Attorney's Office,

EUGENE A. PHILBIN,
DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

January 30th, 1901.

Robert Townsend, Esq., Assistant District Attorney.

Sir:-

On March 5th, 1884, William Armstrong was indicted for Burglary in the Third Degree, and the case is still pending in the office of the Clerk of the Court of General Sessions.

In view of the fact that this indictment is nearly seventeen years old, and that it would hardly be fair to require the defendant to come into Court with his witnesses at this late day and defend himself before a Jury, I would respectfully suggest that you recommend the discharge of the defendant on his own recognizance, thus enabling the Clerk of the Court of General Sessions to file away the indictment among the disposed of cases.

The case will appear on the calendar of Part I on January 31st, 1901, for such action as you may deem proper in the premises.

Very truly yours,

Wm. McKenna
Chief Law Clerk.
