STATE OF NEW YORK,
County of New York ss. :

Thomas R. Gray, being duly sworn, deposes and says :
That he resides in the 412 Norfolk Street in the County of and State of New York, and is 35 years of age, and is an expert appointed by JOSIAH K. BROWN, New York State Dairy Commissioner ; That on the 14th day of September, 1885, in the store occupied by him, No. 383 Hudson street, in the City of New York in the County of New York and State of New York, one John Derand, against the form and statutes in such cases made and provided, and in violation thereof, and against the peace of the people of the State of New York, had in his possession, with intent to sell the same for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, a number of pounds of a substance, product, manufacture and compound, which was not Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, but had been made by manufacturing, mixing and compounding with and adding to a small quantity and proportion of natural Milk, Cream or Butter a large quantity and proportion of animal fats or animal or vegetable oils, and was a manufactured oleaginous substance not produced from Milk or Cream ; that it had been and was colored with some coloring matter whereby the same was made to resemble Butter, the product of the Dairy, and was so colored thereby, in semblance of and resembled Butter, and did resemble Butter the product of the Dairy ; that the said John Derand offered said substance, product, manufacture and compound for sale as and for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream at such time and place, with intent to sell the same as and for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, and did sell some considerable portion thereof, to wit, 1 pound as and for Butter, the product of the Dairy, and represented the same to be Butter at such time and place ; that the said substance, product and compound was not natural Butter produced from pure unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, and was not Butter the product of the Dairy, and was not made exclusively from Milk or Cream, or both ; that it contained some substance for the purpose and with the effect of imparting thereto a color resembling that of yellow Butter, and was in imitation and semblance of natural Butter produced from pure unadulterated Milk or Cream of the same, and was colored by some substance to resemble yellow Butter, and was in semblance of natural Butter ; that the same was a substance known as Oleomargarine ; that it had been made, manufactured and rendered after April thirtieth, 1885, out of some animal fat, or animal or vegetable oils not produced from unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, in imitation and semblance of natural Butter, produced from pure unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, by mixing, compounding with and adding to a small quantity of Milk, Cream or Butter a large quantity and proportion of some animal fats or animal or vegetable oils not produced from Milk or Cream, with design and intent to render, make and produce an article, substance and human food in imitation and semblance of natural Butter. That the same was not manufactured, or in process of manufacture on April thirtieth, 1885, but has been rendered, manufactured, compounded and mixed since April thirtieth, 1885, as deponent is informed and believes ~~That the tubs in which the same was contained did not have the words "Oleomargarine Butter"~~ ~~upon the top or side thereof, and such words were not burned in or painted thereon with permanent~~ ~~black paint, in a straight line not less than one half inch in length, where deponent could see such brand ;~~

~~that no printed label, bearing the words "Oleomargarine Butter" was delivered therewith to the purchaser thereof.~~

Deponent further says that on said 14th day of September 1885, he went to the said store of said Derand in said City and County, and told said Derand that he wanted to buy some Butter ; that said Derand showed deponent a number of pounds of the said Oleomargarine hereinbefore mentioned, offered the same to depo-nent for sale, and sold the same to deponent ; that he so sold to deponent 1 pound thereof, and deponent then paid to him therefor the agreed price thereof, amounting to the sum of $ 0.20 ; that, as deponent believes and charges, the said Derand at the time of so offering and selling the same, well knew that it was Oleomargarine, and had been manufactured and colored as hereinbefore stated ; that he did not tell deponent at any time that the said Oleomargarine so sold to deponent was not Butter, the product of the Dairy ; that deponent saw the tubs in which the said Oleomargarine was contained, and no printed label bearing the words " Oleomargarine Butter," was delivered by said Derand to deponent with the Oleomargarine sold to him ; that on the 3rd of September, 1885, deponent delivered a sample of such Oleomargarine, so purchased by him as aforesaid, to Charles M. Stillwell a chemist of the city of New York N. Y., and caused the same to be analyzed by such chemist, as shown by the annexed certificate of such chemist.

Wherefore, deponent prays that a warrant may issue for the arrest of the said John Derand and that he may be dealt with as the law directs.

day of October, 1885

To whom it may concern,

This is to certify that I was well acquainted with Hugh Dwyer, as his pastor, for three years. From 1881 to 1884 I am convinced that he was as honest and upright as any young could possibly be. Whatever may have come to him since must have been the result of evil associations.

He has doubtless been weak. I cannot believe that he has been intentionally misled. Lenient treatment in the present case will, I am sure, result in his reformation and in saving him to society.

Dear Sir:

I have ^{known} but little of Hugh K. Mayo for the last year and a half, and that little has not been in his favor; but during his childhood & boyhood I knew his family well and saw much of him, and at one time he was an inmate of my house and was constantly with my family for a fortnight. I regarded him as one of the brightest and most deserving boys in the world. I do not now know what he is, or what is to be his fate, but from what I have known of him in former years I most earnestly hope it may be the discretion & desire of the Court to give him a chance of being saved, by considering his present imprisonment & humiliation sufficient under all the sad circumstances, to satisfy the ends of justice.

Jas. M. Brady, Esq.,

My dear Sir:

I learn, with pain, of the difficulty in which Hugh Deyo has placed himself, and think that possibly, as a former employer of the young man, my estimate of his character may avail you something, in the defense you may be preparing for him.

As I understand it, the young man has been guilty of a petty crime, which he does not deny, and for which he is suffering now a terrible penalty. I called upon him this morning, in his cell at the toms, and found him thoroughly crushed and repentant.

While the young man was with me, he had my fullest confidence, and although it was evident that he was yielding too much to the persuasions of society for his good, there was no possible reason in all his dealings with me, to suspect him of dishonesty, or of any dishonorable motive or action. It would really seem to me that the punishment already received by this boy, through his temporary incarceration, and the disgrace that he has brought upon his mother, is as much as the disposition of the boy could endure.

I really believe that should sentence be pronounced upon him, and if, for this petty crime, he be sent to serve out a sentence in prison, it would be the absolute ruin a tion of the boy, as the disgrace would be one that he could never overcome. On the other hand, I do believe, that if leniency be shown him, that the lesson he has received, will be sufficient to correct any evil that may be in his disposition, and start him out on a course that may make a man of him. He is a young man of intelligence, and I believe of honorable and generous impulses. How he has been led into this trouble, I cannot imagine. I therefore voluntarily address you as I have done, thinking that the opinion of a former employer of Hugh, might have some weight with the judge when his case is submitted. Wishing you success in the defense that you have undertaken, I remain,
