New-York, January 26', 1883.

Warden Fox,

Blackwell's Island.

Dear Sir:

Please be kind enough to send to the Court of General Sessions, Part I, on Monday, January 29', at 11 A. M., in charge of a Keeper, Harry A. Laindais, who was sentenced to the Penitentiary about January 11', 1883, for eleven months from the Court of Special Sessions.

There is an indictment against him for grand larceny, and as there is about five hundred dollars' worth of property under his control the complainants wish to have the matter disposed of.

Yours Truly,

John Mc'Keon, Dist. Atty., of No. 569 Broadway Street, 35 Years Blooming being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 10th day of Decr 188 2 at the above premises City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, and from 569 Broadway the following property, viz:

Two coats two vests three pairs of pantaloons and one over coat and in all of the value of eighty six dollars

the property of Deponent and his co-partners and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Harry Landais (now here) for the following reasons to wit: Said Landais admitted and confessed to deponent that he had stolen one coat one vest and one pair of pants above described. Deponent is informed by Officer Moran of the 8th Precinct that he visited the room of said Landais at 841 - 8th Avenue, and that he thus found the said coat vest and pants which said Landais admitted
