for the reasons following, to wit:

Deponent securely locked and bolted the rooms and doors of premises at the hour of 11 p.m. on the 12th day of May, or at about the hour of 3 A.M. on the 13th day of May Deponent was awakened by hearing a noise in the rear of his apartments when he saw the Defendant in the act of dropping a package. Deponent went in said room

J o h n R u s s e l l . ;

Before Hon. James
Fitzgerald, and a Jury.

Indictment filed June 9th, 1890.

Indicted for Grand Larceny in the First Degree.

New York, September, 11th. 1890.

Appearances; For the people, Assistant District Attorney, G. S. Bedford.

For the defendant, William F. Howe.

Maria A. Thayer, a witness for the people, sworn testified.

I am a widow. I have known the defendant at the bar about two years. I met him in the month of April. He courted me and I confided in him. I was engaged to be married to him. He had my confidence and I trusted him. We were engaged to be married in the month of May last. At the time of our engagement I had some money in three banks
the Greenwich, the Seamans and the Irving banks. Altogether I had $1.060. At the suggestion of the defendant I drew the money out of the different banks, and put it in a lump in another bank in 23rd street. This was done for the purpose of buying a house at Monsey N. Y. . I thought it was a good investment for the money. I drew the money out of the different banks and in company with the defendant I went to the bank in 23rd street and deposited

the money. The amount was $1.060 . I saw Mr. Griswold the cashier of the bank in 23rd street. I had the money in bills in my satchel, and went up to the desk, and opened an account and gave the money to Mr. Russell to take up to the cashier's desk. I stood nearby when he was talking to the cashier. I handed him the $1.060 . I found out afterwards that he only deposited $1.050. I was not aware of this until the cashier told me sometime afterwards. The defendant transacted the business with the cashier and I didn't hear what was said. I overheard one thing and that was, the defendant said, that this was money he wanted to deposit for the purpose of buying a house. I don't recollect what the cashier said to that as I didn't hear it. I left the business arrangements with him. When he had finished depositing it the cashier Mr. Griswold looked over at me, and said "You must put your name down here, because this is your money is it not?" and I said "Yes". He said, "That will give you the chance to draw it, so that you can both draw it", I said "Yes, I suppose I will have that privilege". I wrote my name down on a book. I cannot recollect anything else the cashier said. I went out. After we left the bank the defendant said to me "We will be all right now, I can draw the money and you will not have the trouble of coming down, and I, of course, agreed with him, that this money was deposited in the bank for the purpose of buying a house at Monsey, N. Y.. The money was deposited in the bank so that either him or I could draw it. The money was to pay a Mr. Van Houten at

Monsey, the owner of the house. The arrangements were completed for the purchase of the house. I live at Monsey N. Y. . . I have seen the house which I speak of but Mr. Russell transacted all the business with the owner. Mr. Russell told me he would go and see the owner and try and negotiate for the purchase of it, and at as reasonable a price as possible. Mr. Van Houten told me the price of it was $1,300. Mr. Russell came up from New York to Monsey on different trips, and went to New City, Rockland County for the purpose of seeing if the title was clear. The money was deposited in this one bank on account of our agreement to buy the house. The money was to be used for no other purpose. I assured the defendant at the bar that the money was for the purpose of purchasing the house and for no other purpose. The defendant told me he had $250.00 in the Excelsior bank and that he would make up the difference so that we could purchase the house. Mr. Russell was to come up to Monsey on a certain day, and bring the money with him for the house. He didn't come. I went to Spring Valley, a mile and a quarter and took an early train to New York. I couldn't find the defendant. The landlord where he lived told me that he had left. I went to the New York Life Insurance Company where he told me he was employed, and I didn't find him there. I then went to Inspector Byrnes and also to the Excelsior bank, and I saw Mr. Griswold and asked him if my money was there, and he said "No . I then discovered that the amount deposited was $1.050 instead of $1.060, and that the money had been drawn out by Mr. Russell . I never saw Mr. Russell after that until he was arrested. I had full confidence in him and trusted him with this money. I have no money now in any bank. The understanding between us was that the money should be drawn out for the purchase of this house at Monsey, and for no other purpose. I saw the defendant in Inspector Byrnes' office in June, I think, and I identified him as the party with whom I had this transaction. I had no conversation with him whatever. I understood he was in Europe. .

Cross-examination.

- Q. There was no definite time fixed when this house was to be bought at Monsey. A. Well before the first of May so that I could move out of the place where I was.
- Q. That was what the prisoner told you? A. That was what was understood between.
- Q. Between you and the prisoner? A. Yes sir.
- Q. And you were not told that by anyone else? A. No sir. It was not between anyone else, It was between us.
- Q. And it was understood it was to be bought before the first of May? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You went to the Excelsior bank where the deposit was made? A. Yes sir.

Q. You carried the money there? A. I carried the money from the banks.

Q. When you handed him the money you saw him hand the money to the cashier? A. Yes sir.

Q. When he had handed it in the cashier called you and said "It is deposited in your joint names and is your money".? A. It wasn't put in in our joint names. He only put it in his name.

Q. Now you first met this defendant when you were dining in a restaurant at the corner of 23rd st. and 6th av, didn't you? A. Yes sir.

Q. You and a lady friend were sitting at one table and he was sitting at another? A. Yes sir.

Q. And that was over 18 months ago was it not?

A. It is a good while ago.

Q. You flirted with him? A. I didn't flirt with him.

Q. Did he flirt with you? A. No sir, I never flirted with a man in my life.

Q. How did you come to speak with him? A. I was introduced to him.

Q. There and then-- at that time? A. No sir, outside of that dining room.

Q. You say you didn't flirt at that dining table?

A. No sir, I never flirted.

Q. And that was the manner in which you became introduced to him? A. No sir I never flirted with a man in my life.

Q. By whom were you introduced to him? A. By a young lady Miss Dusenbury who lives in Rockland County.

Q. Did she know him? A. She introduced me to him.

Q. At the time she introduced you to him did she know his name? A. I wont swear to that.

Q. You and she spoke to a strange man is not that the truth? A. Yes sir.

Q. How soon after did he accompany you to Monsey?

A. He didn't come to Monsey for 6 or 8 months after that time^QHe slept with you several^Atimes at Monsey?

A. No sir, I never slept with any man but my husband.

Q. You tell the jury that? A. Yes sir.

Q. How many times did he sleep in that house at Monsey?

Q. I dont remember.

Q. How many people were in that house? A. Nobody but myself?

Q. What were your means of support during these 18 months?

A. I have an income.

Q. You were to be married in the spring? A. Yes sir.

Q. Was there any date set for the marriage? A. When we had secured the house.

Q. Did you ever go to a hotel with Mr. Russell nin 23rd st

A. No sir.

Q. Did you not register in the St. Omer hotel as his wife? A. No sir.

Mr. Bedford;-- I will read a letter sent by the defendant to the complainant .

" New York, Apl. 10th. 1890.

Dear Maria;---

I cannot get up to-morrow but I will be up on Saturday evening, and you tell Mr. Van Houten that my attorney could not get up before Monday, but I will be up on the last train on Saturday night. You must have supper ready. Good bye. Your old reliable J. R. "

Also another letter;--

" Dear Maria;-- I hope you are well and in good health as I am at present. Now I hope you will give up being alarmed about me. You know I am full of fun and you must not think anything of it, so you must not worry about me. I love and respect you as no other woman in the world and I hope you will do same to me. I will have a gentleman for dinner on Sunday so I hope you will have something nice for dinner. He is a young man from the city. Now be a good girl and I will see you on Saturday at 3 P.M." .
Good bye dear until then. I am still your old reliable
John Russell".

J. C. Griswold, a witness for the people sworn, testified;--

I am secretary and cashier of the Excelsior Savings Bank on this city. That bank is situated at 118 West 23rd near 6th av. . On the 9th of April I recollect the defendant and this lady coming to the bank. Mr. Russell called to see me on March 26th, with a draft of $100.00 on the Seaman's Bank for Savings made by Maria a Thayer. I had never seen the defendant before that. He said he had this draft on the Seaman's Savings bank which this lady had given him, and asked if I could collect it. I told him I would collect it if they would pay it. He came afterwards on April 9th to open a bank account. He had previously opened another account with this $100. draft of Mrs. Thayers in his own name. When he came on April 9th this lady was with him. He said he wanted to open an account. I said to the lady, "this is your money is it not?" and she said "Yes". He said "that is all right". I said to Mrs. Thayer, "It seems queer if this is your money, if this man should be run over by a horse car and killed you might want to get the money and if your name is here, it would cause you a great deal of trouble". He said "That is all right let it go," and she said; "Hold on, John let me listen". I told her of this and she finally signed her name in the book. She said to the defendant, "This gentleman is right, it is business to do so". The money deposited was ten hundred and fifty dollars, and both these people had the privilege of drawing out the money I understood from them both, that they were to buy a house somewhere in the country with this money. They left the bank. About two or three days afterwards, Russell, the prisoner who is now on trial called at the bank and said that "that old fellow out in the country wouldn't accept payment for the house, and he had to come and get the money. I gave him the money $950.00. He went away. I couldn't tell where he went. I didn't see him after that for some months.

Cross-examination.

Q. Did you ever see him again after that? A. Once.

I saw him again on April 15th, when he came in and said he wanted the balance of it, and I gave him $100. more and closed the account. That is the last I saw of him.

George McCloskey, a witness for the people, sworn, testified;-----

I am a detective sergeant attached to the Central Office. I first saw the defendant John Russell in the latter part of March this year, and afterwards on the 27th of May. I arrested him outside of Delmonico's at the corner of 26th st. and 5th. av. He was in company with three other gentlemen. I told him the Inspector wanted to see him. He said he hadn't time to go down just then. I brought him to Headquarters right away, and I locked him up 'till the following morning. On the following morning he was arraigned in the police court and remanded back to our office. This woman was notified to come down from the country. I was present when the lady came down and saw her identify the prisoner in the Inspector's room. The Inspector asked him what he robbed the woman for, and he said he didn't think he had robbed her that he thought he was just taking the money, and would be able to repay her Friend Bristol: - You will remember my agent Mr Russell to whom Mr. Hatch introduced me, also the woman Mrs. Maria H. Shages of Ramsey N.Y. whom Russell claimed was worth $40,000, and wished me to marry her so as to "beat" her out of the money she had in the Savings Banks &c. and my declining his proposition, and my telling you the same advice I gave her in the day she called at my office to avoid Russell &c. - Well, I enclose you a slip I cut from the Bluecap Tribune of this date showing that Russell (Wm M. Dermott) actually did succeed in obtaining the poor little widow's money. - He will now be apt to learn from others that he is an old offender and has "done time" in prison for other offenses, although he would not heed my advice to examine into his past record just because she wanted the sympathy and love of some man. - I pictured to her the loss of her money through him and her repentance after it would be too late. - Notwithstanding her stubborn foolishness I must say I feel sorry for her or any other
