The People
vs.

Martin M. Tribon

Court of General Sessions, Part I
Before Judge Corwin
Monday April, 7, 1890.

Indictment for grand larceny in the 2nd degree.

John B. Warren, sworn and examined.

I don't live in the city of New York. I was here on the 23<sup>d</sup> of March. I slept that night at either 154 or 156 Seventh Avenue. I do not know exactly the number - Fifty first st. I knew the defendant before the 23<sup>d</sup> of March and was friendly with him. I occupied the same room with him on the 23<sup>d</sup> of March. I went to bed about half past nine - the two of us, we occupied the same bed. I undressed and put my pantaloons on a chair at the foot of the bed. There was fifty two dollars in bills in the pantaloons and it belonged to me. I took the money out in his presence when I paid the room rent, which was two dollars for one week. I was in the Kitchen and paid the lady in the defendant's presence. I went to bed and fell asleep and woke up a quarter of six o'clock. I am positive that I bolted the door. There was no one but myself and the defendant in the room; the bolt was pulled back.

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

0441

I looked at my pantaloons and discovered my money was gone. I never authorized him or anybody to take the money. Cross Examined. He did not wake me up before he left the room and he did not tell me he was going up to see a man corner of Sixty Sixth St. and Third Avenue and for me to meet him there. I went to a restaurant where a fellow boarded that I got acquainted with the day before and found the defendant. I did not have a drink with him. I never drank a drop in my life. I have known this man two or three years. I live in Wooster, Mass., I came on from Massachusetts with the defendant; we got here Saturday morning the 23<sup>d</sup>; we came here to get work on a Railroad. I knew he had been employed on a railroad. I have been employed on a horse railroad in Wooster as conductor. We arrived in New York on the Fall River boat in the morning, but the room was not hired until night. I went to Coroner Levy's office between ten and eleven o'clock but he was not in, and we both the second time. We hired the room in the evening for a week and I paid for it because he told me he had no money. It is not a fact that I told the defendant I had ~~no~~ money, that I ~~had~~ <sup>would spend</sup> my money, and when that was gone I could take his. Our baggage was in one valise. After we left Coronado Lopez's office we walked around the streets and went to the saloon where we met the next morning. We went into a place where we saw some ladies, I cannot remember the street. I should think it was between one and two o'clock when we were there. We stayed there about half or three quarters of an hour. I went upstairs with a girl. I suppose it was a house of prostitution. I am not a married man. I went into several saloons with him because he wanted me to, but I never drank a drop in my life. I think it was half past nine o'clock when we went to bed. I bolted the door. I am positive I counted the money before I went to bed and there was fifty two dollars and a few cents of change in the pocket.

ORIGINAL

POOR QUALITY

0443

I did not suspect that any of the ladies relieved me of my money, for I counted it just before I went to bed. I got my breakfast in the restaurant under where the room was; it cost me 20 or 25 cents. I had change left for that. After I had my breakfast I went to the restaurant where the defendant takes his meals with whom I got acquainted the day before. I asked if he was there. I went there and found both of these men I cannot remember the name but his first name is Devony; he is the man that he introduced me to the day before, he had been a conductor on a car. I knew where he took his meals. I went to the place and enquired for him and then he told the saloon and I went up and found him. He was standing at the bar. I went up and spoke to him. I said, "I want to see you a minute," and he went out. Then I went to speak to the other man; he started out of the door and ran down the street. I went after him to the corner of the next street. It is not a fact that I stayed there and had a drink. I asked the prisoner on the street for the money and he would not give it, and then I spoke to the officer. The prisoner said he did not know me. I asked him no more questions but handed him over to the officer. I knew him three years before this larceny. The money I had consisted of ten five dollar bills and two one dollar bills, but it was changed when we found it. I had no ten dollar bills. Cross Examined. I should think we were in four or five different saloons. I do not remember being in Stewarts, where there were bar tenders, pictures, &c. I sold him a watch in Boston and he was to pay me when we got to work. I paid fourteen dollars for that watch and chain. The watch and chain was in my vest pocket where I went to sleep hanging up on the bed post in full sight.

Maurice J. Capney sworn. I am an officer of the 15th precinct and arrested the prisoner on March 23<sup>d</sup> at 7 1/2 o'clock on Sunday morning. I met him at 65th st. and Third Avenue. I saw him and Warren talking together; the prisoner says, "Come on, Warren." I says, "That is the trouble?" The prisoner says, "Nothing is the trouble." Then Warren told me that the defendant stole fifty two dollars out of his pocket. The defendant said that he did not have any money at all; "you can search me right here." I says, "No, we will go to the station house." I brought him to the station house and searched his pocket. I did not find any money. I put my hand down inside his pants. I thought he was pulling up his drawers. Warren says, "Search him around the leg of the pants." I did and found fifty five dollars there. I found it between his pants and drawers. He did not have suspenders on at the time. He said, "That is my money." I asked him how much he had and he said, "you count it, I don't know. It consisted of one ten, five, two's and one's." The defendant claimed in the station house that he did not know Warren, and then going down to Court he said, "Say, you aint going to send me away, are you?" He said that to Warren. He (Warren) said, "You took the money and if you give me back the money I won't have you arrested at all." The defendant did not say anything.

Warren was put in the House of Detention.

The case for the defense.

Lorenzo Snapple sworn. My brother is one of the Assistant District Attorneys. I don't know the prisoner personally, but know his brother. I don't know where the defendant lives, but his family reside in Maine.

Martin M. Tibon sworn. I live in Bangor, Me., I have never been arrested or charged with crime before this. I have known the complainant three years. There was a strike three years ago on the Northern Boston Railroad and I was employed as a conductor at that time. By staying through the strike, (for they did me no harm) they granted me a few favors and I put on the road five different men, four of whom knew Mr. Warren. He came down to get a job and they introduced him to me. He had no money and knew no one in Boston. I took him to my boarding house; he slept with some one of the four men whom he knew. I paid his board and tried to get him on the road, but the Superintendent said he had all the help that he wished to have. He then went away and I did not see him for a month, perhaps six weeks. He came back and said that he could not find any job, and he was particularly hard up, so much so that he walked from Boston to Lowell. Had he told me he did not have money, I should have given it to him; but he said nothing. Then I saw him again in Sept. He seemed quite anxious to come with me to New York. This was about the 15th of March. I left the Third Avenue Railroad the latter part of January and went to Wooster by the Norwich line and met him on the street; then we had a cigar together. I was going to see my wife. We left Wooster together. I paid my fare and he paid his; we went to Boston, hired a room and stayed there over night. I paid one dollar for the room. I had a watch that bothered me a good deal. He said, "you will need to carry a better one, I will sell you mine." I took my money out of my pocket to pay him. I said I would rather owe you ten dollars, I am quite apt to spend my money and you will keep yours, I know I will have money. That is the way he sold me the watch; they took it away from me at the police station. Then we took the six o'clock boat for New York by the Fall River line. The boat was about half an hour late. We went into a saloon in Murray Street and we had a drink; he certainly drank and then we started and had some breakfast, and then we went up to Coroner Levy's office. I had a letter to him from Mr. Jeffrey, who lives on Sixty Sixth St.; he is from Maine, I got the letter from him in January. I also had an introduction through him to Coroner Levy; the Coroner told me that any time I came to New York he would do all he could for me. I went with the complainant to the Coroner's office; we got there about nine o'clock. The Coroner was not in and would not be till half past ten; we took the horse car up to the Third Avenue stables; we got out and I showed him through there. We have to put the names on the board; they do not call you into the office till you put your name up. I showed him into the car house and took him into different saloons and introduced him to the boys I was acquainted with; by "the boys" I mean Conductors and Drivers. Then we took the Elevated train to Horner Levy's office at the City Hall. We saw the Coroner, and he told us to come in Monday, that he could not do anything for us before then. I asked him what Road he thought he could put us on. He said he thought Seventh Avenue. Then we went up and engaged a room that night. In the afternoon we went and had some dinner, and then he (the complainant) seemed quite anxious to take in some of the Museums. I never went to but two of these when I was in New York. I did not care about going there. He said he would like to see some nice saloon; we went into Stewart's and a number of different ones, and we walked around all the afternoon. He went and had supper in this boarding house nearly under where we roomed and went to bed early. We were not drunk, but it is not any use to say that we were sober because we were not; we both had been drinking; he drank lager and I sometimes drink something harder - whiskey quite often. I visited some ladies in the afternoon but I did not go up stairs; we went to bed at half past nine o'clock. I went to bed first, I was rather sleepy. I could not say whether or not he counted his money before he went to bed, but I did not see him count it. I had slept with him before; he is a very sound sleeper. I told him the night before we went to bed that I wanted to see the bartender corner of 66th St. and Third Avenue, where he met him; we went up that day and I found he was on nights, and I supposed he went off at six o'clock in the morning. I woke him up. I got up somewhere after five o'clock and went over there. I told the complainant if he got up before I came back to come over there "and if you dont I will be back very soon," and he said, "All right." I went out and went over there.

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

ORIGINAL

0448

I believe there was a bolt on the door when I went out the next morning I shoved the door too. I could not bolt it on the outside. I went up to the place and he came a little after seven. I think he took a drink. I went to the water closet and afterwards I said to him "we had better go down and get our valise." Our clothes were in there. I had a railroad cap and undershirts and a neck tie; he has about the same thing; he has got a pair of rubber boots down at the pier. He never accused me of stealing his money until we got near the officer. We were walking along, and in a minute my pants button was off and I was holding them up. He got the officer and had me arrested. He said to the officer that I took his money. I said, I had not. I could not believe him because if he had really lost his money he could have any part of mine that I had. I don't remember him saying that if I gave him back the money he would not make a charge against me. I went to the station house and they searched me there. I was excited never having been arrested before; the officer was searching me and I took my money out of my <sup>pants</sup> pocket at once. I shook and it fell in there (meaning between the drawers and the pants).

ORIGINAL

0452

It is my money, every dollar of it. Cross Examined. The complainant had no ill feeling toward me on March 23. I paid two dollars for the room that night which we intended to occupy a week. I had been drinking the morning I was arrested and was very excited. I had not been drinking to excess. I do not remember denying to the officer that I knew the complainant. I was sober enough to say to the officer that I had not any money belonging to the complainant. There were two buttons off my pants. I did not have suspenders. I was so nervous, the money dropped down through. I think we had about fifteen drinks of lager during the entire day.

Maurice J. Loagney recalled. It was 12 o'clock when he made the arrest Sunday morning. The defendant said, "I have no money at all; he did not say, 'I have no money belonging to the complainant.' The complainant was perfectly sober. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty with a recommendation to mercy.

Indictment filed March 19th , 1890.
Indicted for Carrying a Concealed Weapon.

APPEARANCES: For the People, Assistant District Attorney W. T. Jerome .
For the defendant, Robert Debarrill .

I am an officer of the Municipal Police of this City
I arrested the defendant now at the bar on the 30th day of January this year. I found upon his person the knife which is now in Court, I found it in his inside vest pocket. I arrested him at No. 118 Mulberry Street a little after one o'clock. I do not talk Italian and the Defendant talks very little English.
I asked him where he got the knife and he said he found it. I arrested him, and as he was going through Canal Street, he kept opening his vest and kept his hand up
When I came to the corner of Canal, and Mulberry Street.
I looked at him and saw three buttons of his vest open and the edge of this knife sticking out. I ran my hand in and pulled it out.

Cross-examination.

Q DidN't he say to you that somebody had given it to him? A. No sir.

Q Are you sure he said he found it? A. He said the knife was found.

ANTONIO TUOZZO, the defendant, sworn testified.

Q Now will you please describe to the Jury, your actions on the day of your arrest, the 30th of January?

A I, and Antonio Tullio, my companion, were walking together and found two beer checks, and Antonio found this knife. Tullio had one knife of his own and he gave me this knife as a present. Then we went into a beer saloon to get beer for the checks, and the proprietor of the place asked us where we got the checks, and Antonio Tullio said he found the checks. The proprietor said that wasn't so, that he stole the checks of somebody, and while we were in the saloon the proprietor of the place called a policeman and had us arrested. I was arrested on the charge of having stolen checks. I did not steal the checks. On the way to the station House the policeman found this knife in my pocket. It was right in my vest pocket with the edge sticking out so that everybody could see it. It was in my inside vest pocket. I did not intend to use this weapon on any person. I have lived nine years in this country and never was arrested and never did any harm to anybody. I have been working steadily for a contractor in Tarrytown.

Cross examination

The man who was with me had a knife. I think it was a stiletto. I had known this other man for about two years. We had worked together for some time. On this day we were not working.

The Jury returned a verdict finding the defendant guilty of Carrying Concealed Weapons.
