Dear Sir

Sarah Clark was transferred from the alcoholic cells of this hospital to Ward 29 of the 1st Med. Division on Oct. 2^d, and has been under my care since then. So far as I can see, the only sign of the blow which she claims to have received is a very slight scalp wound of no account whatever. The woman's general condition is not that of perfect health, but this state of things is in my opinion entirely independent of any recent injury, and is the result of an old of

44

The People } Court of General Sessions. Part I Thomas McGinnis } Before Recorder Smyth. Feb. 20, 1882 Indictment for petty larceny from the person and receiving stolen goods.

George Marzoff, sworn and examined, testifies as follows: Where do you live? No 308 West Fifty second st. What is your business?
 Boarding stable, livery. Do you know the defendant here? Yes sir. Did you lose any property, and if so, when? About the 24th of December I lost it. What did you lose? A Buffalo robe. Did you ever recover it? Yes sir.
 Will you tell the jury how you connect the defendant here with it? Mr. McGinnis come in the stable to clip a horse or two, and I being away I lost the robe in the morning.
 I received information that the robe was in the Fifty sixth st. stable, in another livery stable, and I went there with a Ward detective and found the robe; the man who brought the robe from him gave him three dollars. He brought McGinnis back to the livery man and he (McGinnis) acknowledged that he took the robe and sold it for three dollars. Cross Examined.
 When did you miss this robe from your stable - what time in the day? O. a few days after it was taken. Who was the 0429

owner of the property taken? George Johnson.
Was there a gentleman in Johnson's employ
that you know as Tom Brady at that time?
No sir. Did he ever work for him? Not as I know of. Do you know a man named Thos.
Brady? Yes sir. Who did he work for? For me.
Edward Reilly, sworn and examined, testified:
Do you know the defendant here, McGinnis?
Yes sir. Do you know anything about this robe that we are enquiring about? Nothing at all, only Tom McGinnis came to me and said. There was a Buffalo robe and there was a private family breaking up; those old things were left, he said I could get it very cheap. I said I was not in need of any; if I see it, if it is a private family breaking up I will take it.
So he brought me the robe and I gave him three dollars. You gave the robe back?
Yes sir. The prisoner is the man who sold it to me. Did he say anything about a man of the name of Bosser having sold him the robe? No sir. Or giving him the robe to sell? No sir, he did not; he told me it belonged to a private family.
Cross Examined. What is your business?
Stable Keeper. I do not know what McGinnis was doing at this time, I knew him to work around horses. I did not ask him where he got the Buffalo robe from; he told me it belonged to a private coachman but he did not mention his name.

Thomas McGinniss sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I reside 244 West Forty seventh St, am a coachman. Tom Brady worked for this Margolf and he told me that he was not in the habit of paying his men and that he got this Buffalo skin for wages; he had nine in the family and they wanted bread and he sent round the robe for me to sell, which I did. Reilly was not in the stable when I went there and I went back again to the stable and Brady told me that Reilly was not in. I went back again and Reilly said he would give three dollars for it - that was as much as he could give. I went back and told Brady; he told me to give it. I came back and handed him the three dollars. That is all I know about it. I did not know the robe was stolen. Cross Examined. In my examination at the Police Court I said, "The robe was brought into my room by George Posser and I sold it to Edward Reilly." Brady sent owner of the property taken? George Johnson.

Was there a gentleman in Johnson's employ
that you know as Tom Brady at that time?
A - 1 P. 11. P. 1. 7. 11.

this robe by Vasser into my room and I sold it to Reilly. The robe was worth ten dollars; the other one was worth nothing. His man Vasser stole a lot of things from Reilly's and Barsall or whatever his name is;
I have lived with Judge Wilton and Ex Gov. Tilden, I have a good reputation and was never arrested in my life.
I have been in the Truhs sixteen days.
Vasser is in prison for the same business.
This Brady gave him another robe to pawn or sell. The last man I worked for was J. J. Collins in 56th St. I worked for Ira Brown. Edward Reilly recalled. I know Mc Ginnis over five years and I have never heard anything against him. I don't know Brady, I have seen Vasser. George Margoff recalled. I have not a man now in my employ named Brady, but I had at that time I don't know what has become of him; he left about the time these robes were missing. Two or three weeks before this I had McGinnis arrested on another charge of stealing a robe which was taken into a liquor store in 53rd St. and 8th Ave; he was tried and the Judge gave him the benefit of the doubt.

0432

George Vasser sworn. I know McGinnis.
In Dec. last I left a Buffalo robe in his house by order of Brady, but not to sell. I received it from Brady in the street.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of receiving stolen goods with a recommendation to mercy.
