Galt St by Repts Council,
 This occurred at 118 & 13th at night in a bar room. It was after dark. I had been drinking a few glasses of beer, can not say how many, as I did not count them.
 I had no chance to see who were in the bar room. There were about 7 or 8 people. I went in with a friend of mine named Deyan. I don't remember what took place till I found myself on the floor. When I first went in I went up with Deyan & had a glass a beer, Deyan paid for it. The bar keeper served us. The first thing I knew I was struck. The blow knocked me on the floor. I don't know who did it. Then when I was down I felt a sting in the back & got up & then received the other shot in my arm. I am positive that I saw only with a pistol in his hand.

and leveled it at me & discharged it. The ball took effect in my left arm. He was facing me at the time & about 5 feet from me. The pistol was about ~~6~~ inches long - did not see the handle. When he shot I said God he's got an other one. I never had any trouble with Dohy. Know no reason why he should shoot me, did not observe what Dohy did with the pistol. I walked out. I know Mr Prager & don't know if he was there. He may have been. I know Mr Harkins, did not see him there. Did not speak a word to Magguchi or to Dohy. I was in there about 15 minutes. This was election night. I know of no reason at all for the shooting. I did not see Bryan in any fight there. I first commenced to drink that day at about 11 o'clock in the morning & drunk freely through the day. I did not see any pistol ~~in~~ⁱⁿ beyond ^{house} on that occasion.

 saw Christopher Maggocchi now here shoot Complainant.
 Maron was lying down and as he went to get up Maggocchi fired two shots at him. I saw Duly there but did not see him do any thing, except to shore me.

to Duly did not have a pistol so far as I saw. I did not see him shoot Maron & I think I would have seen it if he had done so. I had been drinking that day. Am a horse-shoer. I did not strike Maggocchi.

 I did not see Duly inside with a pistol, but I saw him standing outside with a pistol and fired from it into the bar room. I was standing at the door. I had beer or 8 drinks that day, beer whiskey or anything else that came along. I was not drunk. The lights were lit in the bar room. I was about 2 feet from Muzzocchi when he fired. I took no part in any quarrel. I just came in as the fight commenced. I saw Moran when he was knocked down.

Re-enactment

I can not tell who knocked Moran down. There were three or four on him.

Dealy was one, Mullins was another. I tried to stop the fight by shoving Muzzocchi back & then he fired & Dealy pushed me out of the store. A few minutes after that I saw Dwyer.

Re-4.

I was not drunk. I saw the pistol in Maggocchi's hand. I do not know where he took it from. If Dwyer had had a pistol in his hand I could have seen it. As far as I could see he did not have one.

I saw Hetherington there.
Did not see him pick a pistol from the floor.

Nicholas McPherson

Christopher Muzgochi the accommodating duly sworn in his own behalf says

I arrived at No 228 E 121st. I was in Douglas barroom on Nov 4th at about 6 o'clock in the evening. I went with a young man named Herken. Went in for a drink. There were there at the time I went in Duly, McKenna Prager Mullins, Hetherington and Owen Kane. I was sober.
I had a pistol. I had the pistol because I had charge of an election district and had money in my pocket and I had been warned that they were going to turn over my box and make trouble. I was there all day. Between 12 & 1 o'clock Deegan came down to the polls and commenced to blackguard me & to swear trouble. I told him to keep away. I had no trouble during the day. There were 3 cartridges in the pistol.

After I got through at the polls I went to Donovan's.

I invited the party in there to take a drink. At that time Dwyer & Moran came in & walked up to the bar & called for drinks by themselves. Dwyer looked at me and said "Christie you son of a bitch I have got as good a man with me as you are".

I told him I didn't come to recognize him. He put his hand in his pocket and says "I'll fix you any how". He pulled out a pistol, but Dwyer & Finger seized him. When he drew his pistol I drew mine but waited for him to use his. When they seized him his pistol fell on the floor & then I put mine in my pocket again.

Hetherington picked up Bryan's pistol & said "I've got it."

Bully & Prager then let go of Bryan and took hold of Hetherington who then said "I haven't got it!"

Bryan picked it up & went out of the back door.

I turned to Moran & said "I give you more credit for sense than to let that fellow lead you into trouble". He replied "I can lick any body that don't like him and I can lick you". He struck me in the neck. Others seized hold of him & then McKenna ~~struck~~ struck me on the side of the face and knocked me over against the bar, but I didn't let go of Moran.

While we were clinched Bryan came at the front door and fired 2 or 3 shots. Moran at this time had been thrown on the floor. I did not fire at Moran. I can't state whether I took my pistol out at all after I had once put it back in my pocket. I was finally seized by Cane & Moran went out. Moran & Dugan were both under the influence of liquor.

McKenna was scarcely able to keep his feet, and was staggering. When Moran went out Prager & I only were left in the place. After this Dugan came back to the front door, threw the door open, cocked his pistol and fired at me, making the 4th or 5th shot fired by Dugan. I am a musician. I have worked at one place the Haymarket for 7 years & for 7 years more in Mercer street, all under one man.

I do not know who shot Moran. I did not know at the time that he had been shot. He said nothing about it. He made no outcry or allusion to it. There was some shooting going on outside also.

Before Thomas Daley the accused being duly sworn in his own behalf say,

I reside at 165 E 119th I have lived there for 40 years.
I am a carpenter & work for my father. I did not have a pistol on last election day. I did not discharge a pistol in Brooklyn that evening. I never carried a pistol on my person.

I was in at Brooklyn when Maggacchi & Harkness came in. Maggacchi asked me to join them in a drink. Then James Morrison came in and went to the bar for a drink. Dwyer said something to Maggocchi and he told him he didn't want him to speak to him, that he had tried to take his (Maggocchi's) life the year before. Dwyer said he would do it any how & would fix him, at the same time ~~after~~ drawing a pistol from his pocket. Proyer & I sprang on him to take away the pistol & he let it fall.

 Helthy then then said "I've got it" and we then sprang on him to take it. He said "I haven't got it", letting it fall & Dwyer picked it up & went out ~~by~~ the back door. Maggocchi turned to Moran & told him he was foolish to get in any trouble on account of Dwyer. He replied that he could lick any one who didn't like Dwyer & struck him in the face. Maggocchi then got hold of him & was then struck by some one I don't know by whom. They were then clinched with Morans back towards the door.

I saw Bryan then at the door with a revolver in his hand and heard three pistol shots from there. The pistol was pointed towards Mozzocchi. Moran then got knocked down in the corner, I can't tell by whom.
He then got up & went out.
He did not mention that he was shot & I did not know that he was. Bryan afterwards came back to the door and fired in an other shot. I was sober. Both Bryan & Moran were drunk, so was McKenna.

Xc D I had been drinking some.
I had had about 4 or 5 glasses

Hon. Benjamin K. Phelps
District Attorney re re New York

Dear Sir:

Michael Sarau Jr. has been arrested and indicted for stealing goods from us.

His father, Michael Sarau, we believe to be a very worthy, estimable man, and we have known him for many years.

He is deeply grieved at the crime of his son.

He feels, and we agree with him, that the young man should be punished; but he would be very glad, if consistent with the ends of justice and your views, if the punishment could come in the way of commitment to the Penitentiary rather than to States Prison.

If you should see your way clear to arrange this we should be glad.

Very truly yours
Rufus B. Ody
