on the 16th day of December 1889 in the day time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

A quantity of ladies wearing apparel of the value of two hundred dollars.

the property of deponents daughter and in deponents care and custody and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by James Doyle. (Now here) and another man not yet arrested, for the reasons following, to wit: that at the hour of 11 o'clock A.M. said date said window was in good condition and at about the hour of 2 o'clock P.M. said date deponent saw this defendant who had previously been employed by deponent and all other men suspicious and not yet arrested together and in company with each other in the act of leaving the girls entrance of said school and at that time this defendant had a bag in his possession. Depnunt pursued the said unknown man and caught him on the corner of 30th St and 7th Avenue. When the crowd got around depnunt and took said unknown man from depnunt. He the said unknown then got on a coal cart and made his escape.

Depnunt is informed by Officer John Carey of the 16th Precinct Police that on the night of said date the said defendant was arrested in the 16th Precinct on a charge of intoxication. And at that time he had a bag containing clothing. And he the said defendant has since admitted to him the officer in the presence of Officer Edward J. Brett that the property he had in his possession at the time of his arrest was a portion of the property stolen from the school house.

Depnunt further says that his daughters has since seen said property so found in the possession of the said defendant and have fully identified said property as theirs and as a portion of the property stolen from said premises at the time of said burglary. And after depnunt saw this defendant and said unknown man leaving said premises depnunt examined said premises and discovered that said window had been broken as aforesaid.

Wherefore depnunt charges the said defendant and said unknown man with being together and acting in concert with each other and burglariously entering said premises and feloniously taking stealing and carrying said property.

the afternoon of said day I was out with Officer Millhanser on a tour for the discovery of violations of the excise law.
Millhanser went into the dehe remained in the place too long, I went to the side as the chain permitted. Looking into the bar room, I saw Millhanser lying on said to the defendant: Let thereupon ran for the officer were separated by the officer

On the 23rd of October, 1889, I was sent out with officer Dwy to look after violations of the excise law. Seeing a man come out from the hall door of the defendant's place with a pitcher containing beer, I went into the saloon. The door was chained, but at my request opened by a man who was in the saloon with the defendant. I asked for a glass of beer, but the defendant went from behind the bar to a room in the rear of the saloon, without giving me a drink. I followed him and told him that I had to arrest him for a violation of the excise law in keeping open on Sunday. My right hand was jammed in between the lounge and the wall, being thus incapacitated. ~~When~~ When I freed it, I tore almost the whole skin off the back of it.
