Cross-examination.

I had that harness about one year. I paid $45. for it. There were other articles stolen that brings the value up to $50. I dont remember seeing this man around the stables since the time I discharged him. I discharged him because I had no further work for him to do.

RICHARD H. MOORE, a witness for the people, sworn testified:

I am an officer of police attached to the 9th Precinct. I arrested the defendant on the night of the 28th of January about 3 A. M. . I was standing at the corner of 13th Avenue and Bl oomfield Street, in company with Officer Kelly at about 3 A. M. We saw the shape of two men, and we started over and I shouted to the prisoner at the bar to stop. He had a bag with something in it over his shoulder. I asked him what it was and he said " a few little things". I asked him to let me see them, and he took the bag off his shoulder. I put my hand into the bag and the first thing that I pulled out was a saddle. The complainant afterwards identified the articles in that bag as his property. I asked him where he got this saddle and he said a friend of his gave it to him. I asked him, where, and he said 14th Street and 9th Avenue. I said "I thought you had given up that business" and then I told him, he might as well tell me where he got it. Then he said he found it at 13th Street near 4th Avenue. We then took both the prisoners to the Station House. When we got there I told the Sergeant how we came to arrest these men, and then the Sergeant asked him how he came to get this stuff, and he said that he met a friend on 10th Avenue who gave it to him. The place where I arrested him is about two blocks from Mr. Halligan's stable.

Cross-examination.

. The defendant lives about two blocks from where I arrested him. The defendant was going South from the Direction of this stable.

PATRICK J. KELLY, a witness for the people, sworn testified:

I am an Officer of Police attached to the 9th Precinct. I was present at the time of the arrest of this defendant in company with another officer. We went over and stopped the defendant and asked him what he had in the bag, and he said a few little things; he told us that he found them at the corner of 14th St. and Ninth Avenue. He afterwards said he found them at the corner of 13th Street and 10th Avenue. When he got to the Station House he told the Sargeant that he met a friend, who gave them to him at 20th Street and 10th Avenue.

Cross-examination.

I accompanied the officer and the defendant to the Station House. This was about 3 o'clock in the morning.

JOHN A. CROKER, a witness for the people, sworn,
testified:

I am a Sergeant in the 9th Precinct. I remember the 27th or 28th of January when this defendant was brought into the Station House. I asked him where he had got those articles, and he said he got them from a friend at 20th Street and 10th Avenue.

HENRY KING, a witness for the defendant, sworn,
testified:

I live at No. 369 West 12th Street. I was once convicted of a crime and sentenced for five months in the Penitentiary. I was in company with this defendant John Donavan on the night of the 27th of January last.
I met him at Washington Street and went up-town as far as 25th Street with him. I left him at about half past 1 o'clock at 14th Street and 13th Avenue. While I was with him we both found a bag near a stable, and he took it up and took it along with him. I do not know what the bag contained. Afterwards we looked at it and found out that it was harness. We walked along for quite a time and I finally left him. Donovan didn't steal that harness at all, he found it on the street as I have described.

Cross-examination.

I am a truck driver by occupation. I do not know where Mr. Halligan's stable is. The stable at which we found the harness was at 18th Street and 11th Avenue. We didn't go near Halligan's stable on that night. I was with Donovan all the evening until the time I left him. I thought the property might have been stolen, and that we could return it to the owner on the following morning. I do not know that Mr. Donovan stole that harness.

CATHERINE DONOVAN, a witness for the defendant, sworn testified:

The defendant is my son. He is 20 years of age. He has always been a good boy and works hard.

The Jury returned a Verdict of " Guilty of Grand Larceny in the Second Degree".
