ABRAHAM SUYDAM,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
No. 38 PARK ROW,

NEW YORK,.....September 23rd,.....1888.

Hon. Randolph B. Martine,

Dear Sir:

I am compelled to go to Sing Sing tomorrow morning early, and shall not return till about the middle of the day. If you desire me to be present when the case of John McDermott (who was remanded for sentence) is disposed of, it will be a favor to me.

If, however, you think it necessary to pronounce judgment at the opening of the court, I can only say that I have nothing to add to what I have already said.

In regard to the matter of restitution, I have no further information. Mrs. McDermott was in court when the case was last at the bar and knows what is required. I have written to the sister of the defendant, and told her that the sentence will be made lighter if restitution is made. I have heard nothing in reply. I think it likely that the wife and sister have communicated with each other, and perhaps have made good the complainant's loss, or will be prepared to do so tomorrow. I have done all in my power to accomplish this result.

Yours respectfully,

Abraham Suydam.

Dear Sir:

In reference to the case of Mich. C. Murphy who pleads guilty to stealing two pieces of silk from us, we would state that he has been in our employ for the past ten years, and up to the time of this theft, we believe him to have been very faithful.

We desire that some punishment be inflicted on him, as an example to our other employees of whom we have many, but would suggest a mild one- a sentence to the Reformatory if possible, on account of his poor parents, who are respectable people, and in the belief that he will afterwards become a trustworthy man.

With this suggestion we leave it entirely to your discretion.

of 150 Nassau Street, New York City, being duly sworn deposes and says, he is more than 21 years of age, and is employed as Chief agent of the New York Society for the Suppression of Vice, that he has just cause to believe, is informed and verily does believe, that E. E. McFadden & Robert Cohen whose real names are unknown, but who can be identified by Anthony J. Sullivan did, at the City of New York County of New York and State of New York, on or about the 22nd day of July 1888, unlawfully use a room, table, establishment or apparatus for gambling purposes—and did engage as a dealer or game-keeper in a gambling or banking game, where money or property was dependent upon the result—and did sell, or offer to sell what is commonly called a "lottery policy," and a certain writing, paper, or insurance, upon the drawing or drawn numbers of a certain lottery, hereto annexed, and did indorse and use a book or other document for the purpose of enabling others to sell or offer to sell lottery policies, writings, papers or documents in the nature of a bet, wager or insurance, upon the drawing or drawn numbers of a lottery, against the form of the statute of the State of New York in such case made and provided.

Deponent further says, he has just come to believe, is informed and verily does believe from personal observation and from statements made by Mr. J. Sullivan to deponent that the said E. E. McFadden and Robert Cohen aforesaid, now have in their possession, at in and upon certain premises occupied by them and situate and known as number 193 Second Avenue, (second and third floors) in the City of New York—and within the County and State aforesaid, for the purpose of using the same as a means to commit a public offense, divers and sundry device, apparatus, tables, establishment and paraphernalia layouts, chips, deal boxes, cards, lottery tickets, lottery policies, writings, papers, books and documents for gambling purposes, in violation of the Provisions of Chapter IX of the Penal Code of the State of New York, wherefore deponent prays that warrants may be issued for the arrest of the persons named aforesaid, and to search for, seize and take possession of all of said unlawful matter, and that all be dealt with according to law.

being further sworn deposes and says that on the 22nd day of July 1888, deponent visited the said premises, named aforesaid, and there saw the said

E. E. McFadden and Robert Cohen aforesaid, and had dealings and conversation with them as follows:

Deponent about 1.15 o'clock Sunday morning entered the said premises, which Robert Cohen informed deponent belonged to him as a residence, this being a flat. Deponent entered in company with E. E. McFadden, who knocked at the door and was admitted by one of the occupants. There were several persons in the room when we entered. As we approached the room McFadden looked up, saw a light in the window and said, "There is a light in the poker room." He also informed deponent that the table and layout were formerly kept and used by him at 111 4th Avenue, but that he moved from there because of fear of arrest. McFadden took a red cover off of the gaming table, which is a regular poker table, with a "kitty" in the centre of the table, the said table being covered with green cloth. The said McFadden said, "Who is going to play?" All of the persons in the room bought chips of him and after they had been playing awhile deponent handed the said McFadden a one dollar bill and he gave me ten white chips, five cents each, and five red chips, at ten cents each. Deponent played until he had lost four dollars and forty cents, when having one white chip left deponent said to McFadden, "Give me five cents for that; I am going to quit." The said McFadden took the chip, put it in the drawer and said to Cohen, "Give him five cents." The said Cohen did so. A chip was put into the "kitty" each time aces were up, by McFadden. Cohen occupied a seat at the game and repeatedly said to McFadden, "Look out for the kitty."

The said game continued, and money continued to be won and lost until 3.30 A.M., when the players cashed in their chips and left, McFadden giving them cash for the same; Cohen all the while present. The said Cohen remained in charge of the game place after the game ceased.

From conversations and dealings had with the said Cohen and McFadden, deponent believes that the said layout and gaming table and chips were used at 1114th Avenue, in a room kept for gambling purposes at that place, which deponent went to visit for the purpose of getting the evidence and found it closed.

Deponent further says that from personal observation, and conversations and dealings had with the said McFadden and Cohen, that he is informed, has just cause to believe and verily does believe and is positive that the said McFadden and Cohen now have in their possession at, in and upon certain premises situate and known as number 193 Second Avenue, divers and sundry device, apparatus, tables, establishment, paraphernalia, layout, chips, deal boxes, cards and documents for gambling purposes, in violation of Section 344 of the Penal Code of the State of New York.
