David Beatty
of No. 187th Broadway Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 7th day of July 1880 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away from the possession of deponent, Out from a truck that deponent was driving the following property, viz: One bag of coffee of the value of Twenty Six Dollars, the property of George Musinck & Co and in deponent's charge as a common Carrier

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by James Taylor now present for the reason that the property in question was on a Police Court - First District.

of No. Castle Garden Street, being duly sworn, deposes

at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away from the possession of deponent, And from deponent the following property, viz: Prison a pocket book containing good and lawful Money, consisting of seven bills of the value of fifty dollars each thirteen bills of the value of ten dollars each and eight bills of the value of five dollars each collectively five hundred and twenty Dollars, the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Jacob Thomas

That deponent in company with the defendant went to a lager beer saloon in Greenwich Street and together drank some lager. That soon after deponent fell asleep and when he awoke the pocket book containing said property and which was in a pocket of the pantations worn by deponent was gone and that prisoner had also gone. That deponent was induced by the prisoner to go to the aforesaid saloon and Subscribed to before me this 7th day of July 1880 that no other person was near deponent while in the saloon and up to the time deponent fell asleep but the prisoner. That the prisoner was without money or decent clothing at the time he entered the saloon with deponent that when deponent next saw him he was dressed in a suit of new clothes for the possession of which he gave unsatisfactory and contradictory accounts and prevaricated in accounting for the possession of said clothes Deponent therefore alleges and believes and charges that prisoner with so taking stealing and carrying away from the possession and person of deponent the property above described
