I find the Defendant Guilty of the crime charged.

Police Court, 1st District.

City and County } ss.
of New York,

of No. 110 East 14th Street, aged 31 years, occupation Restaurant being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 14th day of November, 1888, at the City of New York, in the County of New York, Charles W. Hallman

(now here) did feloniously and fraudulently make, forge, and utter a certain instrument in writing purporting to be a check on the German Exchange Bank and which is hereto annexed for the reasons following to wit: on the above described date the said defendant came to deponent and representing to him that Jobst Hoffman, whose signature is on the said check, was desirous of having the said check cashed. Deponent believing that the representation made by defendant was true gave to the defendant the said money. Deponent is informed by Jobst Hoffman (then present) that the signature Jobst Hoffman on the said check is not his, and that he was not authorized the defendant money for him.

Wherefore deponent charges the said defendant with feloniously and fraudulently making, forging and uttering the said check.

Thomas R. Gray being duly sworn, says, that he resides at number 77 East Greene Place Street, in the City of Brooklyn, County of Kings and State of New York, is 37 years of age, and an expert appointed by HON. JOSIAH K. BROWN, the New York State Dairy Commissioner; that, at the times hereinafter mentioned, one William H. Demarest was the keeper and proprietor, of a restaurant, a place of public entertainment, and had his said restaurant in a room in number 17 South Street, in the City of New York, County of New York, within this State, and occupied and controlled such room and was in charge of such room and restaurant; that on the 26th day of November, 1887, deponent went to such William H. Demarest's said restaurant and ordered a lunch consisting of bread butter and beef and the said William H. Demarest in response thereto in his said restaurant then and there served to deponent as food for deponent and as a part of the said lunch so ordered by deponent, who was then a guest and customer of said William H. Demarest in his said restaurant, a substance in imitation and semblance of natural butter, produced from pure unadulterated milk or cream of the same, which had been made out of some animal fat or animal or vegetable oils not produced from unadulterated milk or cream from the same and by mixing, compounding with and adding to milk, cream or butter such animal fats or animal or vegetable oils not produced from milk or cream, so as to produce an article, substance and human food in imitation and semblance of natural butter and which had been made in violation of the provisions of Section 7 of Chapter 183 of the Laws of 1885, as amended by Chapter 577 of the Laws of 1886; that a more particular description of such manufactured substance, the ingredients thereof and the amount of the same are unknown to deponent and cannot be stated herein for that reason; that the same was so served by said William H. Demarest in the ordinary course of his said business; and said William H. Demarest asked, and deponent then and there paid him 15 cents for such lunch; that deponent then and there took from the substance so served to him by said William H. Demarest a sample thereof for analysis in the manner required by law; and thereafter, on November 26th, 1887, deponent delivered such sample so taken by him as stated, to one Edmund G. Lutz who was and is known to deponent to have then been, and who since has been and is now, a chemist, practicing as such at number 122 Boring Street, in the City of New York County of New York, within this State, and deponent caused the said substance to be analyzed by such chemist; that the certificate of such analysis thereof, made by said chemist, is hereto annexed.

Deponent charges that the said William H. Demarest against the peace and dignity of the People of the State of New York, and the statutes in such case made and provided, wrongfully and unlawfully so served such manufactured substance and caused, procured and suffered the same to be so served to deponent, and was thereby guilty of a misdemeanor; and deponent, therefore, asks for a warrant against the said William H. Demarest for violation by him of Section 27 of Chapter 183 of the Laws of 1885, as added thereto by Chapter 583 of the Laws of 1887, and that he may be dealt with as the law directs.

No women have ever been permitted to enter the museum and young men under the age of eighteen years have not been permitted to visit except they have come with father or guardian. It has been considered as the finest Antiquities Museum in the country and has never been used for any other purpose than that of a museum.
