It appears that deft.

On his return to the city

vs

Max Cohen

City and County of New York, ss

Lester Cohn being duly sworn, says, I am a member of the firm of M. L. Cohn & Co., at No. 258 Canal Street, in said City, manufacturers of clothing.

The goods which the defendant is charged with stealing were intended for my firm and shipped to them by Mess. D. M. Hodgdon & Co., of Boston, Mass. The goods were returned to me, as I verily believe in the same condition as when they left Boston. They were all enclosed in two cases properly closed and nailed and upon opening said cases and examining the goods they were found thoroughly complete and no part thereof were missing. From an examination made of this proceeding and all the surrounding circumstances connected therewith I verily believe and charge the fact to be that there was no felonious intent on the part of the defendant, Max Cohen, to steal the said property or any part or portion thereof and I verily assert that he is free from any criminal intent so far as I know. The goods in question reached our possession the same day they were found and were surrendered upon the suggestion of the defendant himself.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS

The People, &

vs

Max Cohen

City and County of New York, ss

Samuel Goldstein being duly sworn, says:- I am an expressman residing at No. 227 E. 31st Street having my stand at No. 152 Grand Street, in said City. I am the person who received the postal card to call at the pier at the Old Colony Steamship Co., and transported the goods which the defendant is charged with stealing. Said postal card was given to me by a young man with reddish complexion wearing ~~in~~ eye glasses, who instructed me to take said property to No. 8 1-2 E. 60th Street in said City, where I am informed the same were subsequently found by the Police. Upon arriving at said latter place I delivered the goods to the identical young man who delivered to me the postal card and he paid me my express charges therefor. I have not seen the young man since nor would I be able to recognize him were I to see him this present moment, so far as my personal knowledge extends or is concerned. The defendant took no part nor did he participate in ordering me to call for said goods or take the same away and I verily believe that the defendant is blameless from everything herein concerned.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.

PART I.

-----	x
THE PEOPLE etc.	:
vs.	:	Before
PATRICK COOGAN	:	Hon. M. A. Childersleeve, J.
-----	x

(Indictment filed August 6, 1889.)

New York, August 9, 1889.

The Jury was empannelled, and having been declared satisfactory to both parties, were duly sworn; Mr Brannigan having been assigned as Counsel for the defendant.

Dr. Mathew D. Field called as a witness on behalf of the people being duly sworn testified as follows:-

Mr Jerome opened the case for the People.

DIRECT-EXAMINATION by Mr Jerome.

- Q. You are a Physician practicing in the City of New York?
A. I am; yes, sir.
Q. And have been for a number of years? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And have made a specialty of insane cases? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Have you examined the defendant at the bar? A. Yes.
Q. State to the Jury his mental condition at the present time?

0258

A. I saw him in the Tombs two days ago. He is in a very much demented condition, together with depression: he is very confused; and it is difficult to get much connected history from the man: you get points here and there; I don't think he has any realizing sense of the position he stands in before the law, or of anything, even the most simple questions. On further inquiry I found that he was at Bellevue Hospital on the 7th of July suffering from alcoholism --- Alcoholic melancholy, and was there quite violent at one time, requiring mechanical restraint, and had numerous delusions. He improved, and was discharged on the 14th of July; and this condition is such as would naturally follow an attack of that kind; and I think it probable was the result of that.

Q. At the present time do you think he sufficiently understands the nature of a criminal charge and trial to instruct his Counsel, and make a defense against such a charge? A. No, I do not; and I think he is a dangerous man to be at large.

0259

Dr. Stuart Douglas called as a witness on behalf of the People being duly sworn testified as follows:-

DIRECT EXAMINATION by Mr Jerome.

Q. You are a Physician practicing in the City of New York?

A. I am.

Q. Have been for some years? A. Seven years.

Q. And have devoted yourself to the study of the insane?

A. I have.

Q. Have you examined the defendant? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How recently? A. I examined him yesterday; and before that I examined him sometime between the 8th and 14th of July.

Q. From your examinations at those periods can you state his condition as to sanity or insanity; and whether he would be able to understand the nature of a criminal charge and trial sufficiently to enable him to instruct his Counsel? A. I can.

Q. Please do so. A. I think he is now too demented to appreciate the gravity of the charge, or to assist his Counsel in any way.

Q. Do you consider that he is a proper person to be at large in the community? A. No; I think he would be a dangerous person to be at large.

JUDGE'S CHARGE.

Gentlemen of the Jury: A person is presumed to be responsible for his acts. The burden of proving himself irresponsible is on the accused person, except in certain instances provided for by the Code. Where, however, an accused person is able to show that he is either an imbecile, a lunatic or insane, he can not be tried or sentenced to be punished for any act committed while in such condition. The Code provides not only that he can not be punished, but he shall not be tried for a crime while he is in a state of imbecility or insanity, incapable of understanding the proceedings necessary for his trial and making his defense.

The Physicians who have examined this defendant state that he has been restrained on account of the disease of the mind before. Soon after he obtained his liberty he had some trouble with his wife and attacked her with a hatchet, and it appears from investigation, they say, at the present time the condition of his mind is such that he could not intelligently advise his Counsel as to his defense, and is incapable of making a proper defense, or understanding the proceedings of a trial.

If you are satisfied that these Doctors are not mistaken about that, and their statements carry conviction in
