ST. JOHN'S GUILD.

AN APPEAL.

The most urgent charity of the City of New York in the Summer Season, is that of the Floating Hospital, and Seaside Nursery of St. John's Guild.

Nine years past, the The Floating Hospital has been before the public ; two years the Seaside Nursery has given additional care to little sufferers.

Means for doing this work are required. The need of the SEA SIDE NURSERY was made manifest in the excursions of the FLOATING HOSPITAL.

Please aid us in this work, give us what you can.

The Nursery is situated at CEDER GROVE, STATEN ISLAND, immediately facing the ATLANTIC OCEAN, as it rolls between SANDY HOOK and CONEY ISLAND.

All contributions handed to mesenger, will be acknowledged through the press, and checks can be drawn to the order of THOS. G. GREY.

John W. This paper was a copy of an appeal which the said Guild had published, soliciting donations for its summer work of saving sick children. The ~~only~~ difference I recognized between the composition of our genuine appeal and this paper was that in the latter the name of Thomas G. Gray was substituted for that of Mr. Benjamin B. Sherman, the Treasurer of the said Guild. I at once said that no such man as Thomas G. Gray or the prisoner who was shown to me had been authorized to solicit or to receive any moneys for the said Guild. I have been informed that he was arrested at the instance of Mr. Otis W. Randall, of No. 256 Fifth Avenue, at whose residence an application had been made for money to assist the charity work of the said Guild by a District Messenger boy, who was in the employ of the prisoner. I was also informed that many of the signatures which purported to show contributions were forgeries; but that the name of Mrs. Charles Schlesinger was a genuine signature and that she had given ten dollars to a District Messenger boy who bore the paper found on the prisoner's person.

H. Macy & Co., J. A. Bluxome & Co., H. C. W. Koch & Son, and Mr. Moirs, all on Sixth Avenue; that deponent collected no money of these parties and reported to these two men, who then sent him to call for Mrs. Sprague, at No. 330 West 23rd. street; that deponent did so, and Mrs. Sprague gave deponent one dollar, marking the amount on the subscription paper as "Cash Paid One Dollar"; that deponent took the said one dollar to the said John Marks and also returned to him the envelope; that deponent was employed nearly three hours ~~and~~ by the said John Marks and the other man, for which service he received ninety cents.

The People } Court of General Sessions. Part 4.
 v. William McKert } Before Recorder Smyth. Aug. 27, 1883 Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree. James Kenney sworn and examined.
 I carry on business at 2389 Third Ave.
 and keep a cigar and tobacco store;
 on the 4th of July I saw the prisoner in my place. When I first saw him it was about half past one as near as I can judge; he remained in the store about an hour and a half I was doing some work
 and after that I went up stairs to clean myself. I left the prisoner in the store and the clerk was behind the counter. I came down in about an hour and a half or two hours, about four o'clock. At half past one I had a silver watch and a gold chain in my vest pocket, and the vest was hanging up on the wall. I left it there when I went up stairs; the watch and chain were worth fifty dollars and it belonged to me. I came down with another vest on intending to change
 the watch out of that pocket into the vest
 I had on and it was gone. The prisoner and the clerk were there, but the clerk informed me that the prisoner disappeared for half an hour.

0296

I don't know anything about his disappearance. I have seen the property since in the possession of detectives Hurd and Gallagher. I identified it as mine; my monogram was on the locket which was fast on the chain. Cross Examined. I have known the prisoner about two months, he used to work next door to me. On the 4th of July when he was in my place he was not doing anything, he was merely looking at me work. On the 3rd of July he worked for me, helping me to paper a wall; he worked the greater part of the day. On that day the prisoner found a watch which was on a shelf behind the counter and he handed it to me. My store is on the east side of Third Avenue and my counter and shelves are on the south side of the store; on the north side of the store is a soda water fountain and a shooting gallery in the rear. This vest was about 22 feet as near as I can tell from the door on the north side behind the second counter. While I was in the store I had no particular reason for looking to see if the chain was hanging down from the vest or not.

0297

John Burd, sworn and examined. I am an officer of the Seventh and arrested the prisoner on the 5th of July last at 4 o'clock. I searched him and a pawn ticket was found upon him which was issued by Simpson. I went there and obtained the property upon that ticket, which was a silver watch and gold chain and locket. I showed that property to Mr. Kenney and he identified it as his. I asked the pawn broker if the prisoner was the man who put it there and he refused to say anything. About two doors from the station house he said that two men went in and took the watch and pledged it and gave him the ticket. Cross Examined. Mr. Kenney asked the prisoner what he had to say about it. Mr. Kenney took him aside, but I heard all he said to him. I do not recollect that I heard Mr. Kenney say it would be better for him to confess. Is it not true that the prisoner said to you that two men must have gone into that store and stolen that watch - not that two men did go into that store and stole the watch? No sir. I am sure about that. There were no threats made.

against the prisoner by me or Mr. Kenney, nor were there any promises or inducements held out to him to tell about this watch. Officer Gallagher was present when the arrest was made of the prisoner. Edward Gallagher sworn. I am an officer of the Twelfth, and was present at the arrest of the prisoner and his search. I saw the pawn ticket taken from him; he had it in his stocking. I went to the pawn brokers, saw the property recovered and was present when it was identified by the complainant. Cross Examined. I found four or five other pawn tickets in his pocket; he claims they were for his own goods. I did not find an envelope on any part of his body. I helped to search him. I saw everything that the other officer took from the prisoner. He said he wanted to get home to put the pawn ticket in an envelope and send it to Mr. Kenney the complainant. He denied all knowledge of knowing anything about the watch and he claimed that another man gave him the ticket. He said he did not know the man or where he could be found. He told me that this man told him to take it to Mr. Kenney.

0299

William Meekert, sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified. I am 24 years old and have been in this country six years. I have never been arrested before. I have known Mr. Kenney five months, I worked four days for him papering walls. I found a gold watch there and I handed it to him - This was on the 3<sup>d</sup> of July - O, he says, I forgot all about it, I left that watch here the other day to take it up stairs. I returned it to him. I was in his place on the 4th of July about two o'clock in the afternoon: Kenney was there when I went in; he left the store a few minutes after I came in and he remained out of the store till about four o'clock. There are a good many people going in and out of that store - drivers and conductors of the Morrisania cars. There was in the store a clerk and a starter from the Morrisania line beside myself. Mr. Kenney's vest was hanging on the left hand side when you go in behind the counter - the north side. It could not be reached without going behind the counter. I was in the store from two to eight o'clock in the evening. I did not steal that watch and chain and locket and do not know anything about anybody stealing it. At 8 o'clock I went down twenty 5th St. and met a friend and went down to the Polo grounds. I came home at ten or half past ten in the evening. I was home all day on the 5th of July till near four o'clock. I did not leave the house at all until I went to a restaurant. I was going up to Mr. Kenney. While I was in 129th Street and Third Avenue I was sitting on a shoe black stand having my shoes blacked when a gentleman with a light mustache, a black Derby hat and a kind of gray suit came up to me and handed me an envelope with "Mr. Kenney, present" on it. He spoke to me. He must have seen me before in that store because I was in that store nearly every day. He says, "Will you oblige me to take that letter over to him?" I put it in my pocket and said, "All right, I will take it over to him." He ran over to another corner, and he and another gentleman talked together and afterwards they disappeared through 129th St. and Second Avenue. I said to a young man who was standing beside me, "There is something wrong about this." I took it out and put it back again and went to a lager beer saloon because I knew that Mr.

0300

0301

Kennedy's watch and chain were gone. I was frightened and I put that ticket in my stocking, so that I would not put myself in trouble. I went to Mr. Schwab's lager beer saloon and his clerk told me that Mr. Kennedy was looking for me, to go over there, that he wanted me to finish the walls. I went over and said, "How do you do, Mr. Kennedy?" He says, "I want you to help me finish that wall here." I said, "All right. I will do it." I took off my coat and hat right away and was going to work. He went out and got two detectives and got me arrested. On the way down to the station house he promised if I would give him the ticket or knew anything about it he will let me go and discharge the detectives. He told me if I pawned it myself he will give me time to pay it off by the week or by the month. Did you say to the officer that two men went in there and stole that watch? No sir. Did you say to the officer that two men went in and took the watch? No sir. I did not. I did not say that they pledged it and gave you the pawn ticket. I told him there was two gentlemen; one of them stood up and gave me the ticket and the other one was on the other side; he was speaking to him. I did not pledge that watch and do not know who pledged it. I was home when the watch was found until four o'clock in the afternoon. I was not out of the house. I could not go down in Delancey St. and pawn the watch inside of ten minutes after I was arrested. I never left the house till 4 o'clock and I was arrested 20 minutes afterwards in Mr. Kenney's cigar store, 129th St. and Third Ave. Cross examined. These men met me about 10 minutes after four and I went right over to Mr. Kenney's. There was a young man with me at the time these young men came up to me. He is not here, I do not know him. I knew that Mr. Kenney had lost a watch and chain and when I opened the envelope I thought it referred to this watch and chain. I put the ticket in my stocking. I was frightened. I did not know that I done anything wrong. I thought he was going to get me arrested on suspicion that I had stolen the watch myself. I never was in trouble before like this in my life. This envelope had Mr. Kenney's name on it and one of the officers took it and put it back again in my pocket. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree.

0302
