0190

The People
 vs.
 Mary T. Gallagher

Court of General Sessions. Part I Before Judge Martine. October 5. 1891

Indictment for grand larceny second degree.

Mary Simon, sworn and examined, testified I lived at No. 213 West Twenty Fourth street on the 9th of September. I know the defendant - I employed her as a domestic; she came to me on the 6th of Sept. Sunday morning and left on Wednesday; she was to come for one week on trial. I went out on Wednesday afternoon and told her to take charge of the house. I was gone about an hour, and when I returned I did not find her. I had not paid her for her services and she never returned. My husband met her in the street afterwards and she denied her identity. I think it was the following Saturday she was arrested. There was missing from the house two suits of a gentleman who was rooming in my house, Mr. O'Donnell, who is here in Court. I am positive that the prisoner is the girl who worked for me; she gave her name as Mary Gallagher; she said she lived with a lady who kept two boarding houses in the same street on the east side. She told it so well I really believed her and did not go to see till afterwards - my husband went. I think she said on Twenty Fourth street between Lexington and Third Avenue.

Cross Examined: The two suits of clothes I speak of I had not seen them in the house. I only know what I have been told about them. When the defendant came to me on Wednesday it was in answer to an advertisement. I told her to come and try it by the week and I would pay her the first week. I engaged her by the month. "If suited, you remain; if not, I will pay you when the week is ended." She was to sleep home. I paid her three dollars for the week. Wednesday was the day that the two suits were missing from the house. I spoke to her in the morning as I went out and she answered me. There was no talk of Mary going away from my house; everything ran very nicely. She was to stay in the evening till her work was done after dinner, after six o'clock. She was to do chamber work and washing and ironing for me. Was there any washing and ironing in your house on that Wednesday? No sir. She did not have her chamber work finished. John J. O'Donnell owner. I live at 40 West Twelfth Street now, but on the 9th of September I lived at 213 West Twelfth Street in the City of New York. I saw the defendant there on the 7th of Sept. About eleven o'clock in the morning I came down from the Hoffman house and went into this house and asked to see the landlady. I had just engaged rooms at the house that day. I saw the defendant up stairs. I unpacked my trunk and gave her two suits of clothes, and told her they had been in my trunk some time and to air them. It was about half past one or two o'clock when I gave her the clothes. I told her to air the clothes and bring them back. I was going down to the Hoffman house and would be back. I stayed at the hotel. When I came back that evening I went up to my room. I asked for the servant and asked for my clothes. I found the clothes gone and the servant also. That was about half past six o'clock in the evening. I gave the defendant a Prince Albert suit valued at thirty seven dollars and the other was a black cloth suit valued at twenty dollars. The twenty dollar suit was worn once and the other suit was worn about eight or nine times. I did not lock my door when I went out. I hung my clothes up and left the door unlocked and went to the Hoffman house for my overcoat and hat case. I have not seen my clothes since. The defendant was in my room when I gave her the clothes; she went out with the clothing in her possession. I did not see her again after that nor the clothes.

0193

Cross Examined. Did you know your clothes were hung up on the line in the yard? No. I did not see them hung up but I was told they were. When I left the house I went out of the front hall door. It was probably ten minutes past two o'clock when I went out - that was the first time I went out of the house by the front door. I did not have a key to the front hall door. I believe it fastens by a spring latch, but I cannot say. It took a key to unlock it but it locked itself on the inside. The suit of clothes I valued at thirty seven dollars. I bought about a year ago in Key West Florida and it was made by Keneen of New York. My measure was taken down there and I ordered it through a merchant. I should think I wore it about eight or nine times. I only had worn the twenty dollar suit once.

I bought that suit in a ready made clothing house in Key west Florida; it was a kind of Cheviot cloth Alfred J. Simon, sworn and examined.

I am a bookkeeper; on the 7th of Sept.

I lived at 223 West Twenty fourth st. with my wife, the first witness; at that time we had the defendant, Mary Gallagher, in our employ. I left the house on that Wednesday about 10 minutes after eight o'clock and saw her in the house and I next saw her on Friday morning in Eighth street and Sixth Avenue. I thought I recognized the woman, I walked along with her. I tapped her on her shoulder and said, "Is your name Mary?" She said, "No." "Did you work for my wife in Twenty fourth street?" "No," "I always worked in Eighth street; I never lived up there." I said, "I guess you are the woman I want." She said, "Oh, right. I will go with you to the policeman." She walked with me to the policeman. I stated the case to him and he made the arrest. I had no particular conversation with her afterward. Subsequent to that I made investigation as to where she lived. She said she worked for a lady who had two boarding houses in Twenty Fourth street. I made enquiries from Lexington Avenue to the river, and there was no such house there. I made that investigation the Saturday morning after the arrest. I made no other investigation as to where she lived. I never called on Mrs. McClave. I do not recognize that name.

 Cross Examined. Campbell is the name of the policeman who arrested her. He took her to the station house and to the Court the same day; she was discharged at the Police Court because there was no witness.
 John Casey, sworn and examined.
 I am an officer attached to the 16th precinct. I first saw the defendant on the 12th Sept. Saturday evening at the 16th precinct station house. I asked her name, age, and whether she was married or single and where she lived. He said her name was Mary Gallagher, aged 32, a widow, and she gave me her residence 357 Fourth Avenue. I asked her why she told the witness on the day that he caused her arrest - that was on a Friday - why she denied her name and denied having lived in his house? He said she would not tell anybody in the street whether name was on her address. I asked her what her right name was and she said, Mary Rafferty. I asked her why she claimed the name Gallagher? She said she intended to be married to Michael Gallagher sometime. She also said she was the widow of a man who was killed on the Erie Railroad. I asked her where she had been working and she gave me the name of Bloomington, that she had been making shirts there for a week or two; she gave me the name of a woman in West 25th St. I do not remember the name; she ~~gave~~ ^{gave} me the name of a woman in 352 Fourth Avenue on the second floor and I went there, and she also gave me the name of a place in Bridgeport, Conn. I did not go to Bloomington because she did not give me the name of any person who knew her there. I went to the place in 15th Street that she directed me to and saw the woman who claimed to be the proprietress of the house, and she did not know any person by the name of the defendant. I went to Fourth Avenue and saw Bridget McElvire and Miss McGarry. Mrs. McElvire is now in Court; she went to the Station house that Sunday night and she met me there; she saw the defendant and Mrs. Clave said to the defendant, "Good evening, Mrs. Brown." The defendant called her by her name I would not be positive what she said. She said to the defendant, "Where did you get the pair of new shoes you brought to Mrs. McClave's - which you brought to Mrs. McGrip's house on the Wednesday that you left Mr. Simon's house about four o'clock that afternoon?" She said she brought them. I asked her if she had any money when she worked at Mr. Simon's house and she said, "no". I asked her where she got money to buy the shoes? She said, "I got it home in my trunk. I asked her what she did with the shoes? Mrs. McClave made answer and said, "I suppose she gave them to her uncle." She said, "yes, I gave them to my uncle; I pawned them." I asked her where she pawned them and she would not tell me. At the time I asked her where she had been working she did not give me any address in East 74th street or in Eighth street.

Cross examined: I did not ask her for any address in Eighth street. I asked her what her address was at that time, and she said it was at No. 332 Fourth Avenue.

I knew that the defendant had been arrested on this charge before I had the case, and I knew she had been discharged by the Magistrate. I was not present when she was discharged by the Magistrate in the Police Court. I did not know anything of her arrest at that time, but when I arrested her the second time I knew that she had been arrested and discharged, or I was informed of it. I am the Ward detective. Officer Macdonald arrested the defendant on the charge she is now being tried upon; he is connected with my precinct; he is not in Court. I sent him to find her with Mr. O'Donnell at six o'clock Saturday afternoon. I told him where to go to look for her; he evidently found her there. I was not in the station house when the officer brought her in. Then I came in the conversation that I have related took place between us which I have testified to. I sent the officer to the corner of Greenwich Ave. and South St. to find her. I had learned of that in the morning. My attention was called to this case when I returned from my vacation on the 10th. I commenced to make the investigation on the 11th. In the mean time I had been making investigations. In consequence of a conversation I had with Justice Kelly I tried to find her myself and sent officer Madden after her.

 Bridget McBlain, sworn and examined.
 Where do you live? No 352 Perth Avenue.
 What is your occupation? I live out, with every one who employs me. Where did you live last? I lived last with General Cesnola. Did you ever hear of this defendant? Yes. I saw her for two weeks that she was at Perth Avenue where I stop where I am out of a place. What name did you know her by? He stated when she came there she was Brown. Did you see her come home to 352 Perth Avenue on the evening of Wednesday the 7th of Sept? No Sir. I was out and I was not watching anybody. Did you ever see the defendant with a pair of new shoes? Yes, I saw her with a pair of shoes on her feet. I could not tell whether they were new or old. I guess they were new. I do not know I did not see her buy them but I saw her having them on her feet. Did you ever see the defendant bring home a bundle?
 No Sir. I never did. You never told anybody you saw that? No. I never saw a bundle of any kind; if I saw it I would tell you. I remember going to the station house and seeing the defendant there. ^{old Pop} I had a conversation there with the man about the key. I do not remember what questions he asked her. I first had a conversation with officer Jarey on Sunday night when he came looking for the person who had a room.

 He examined the room; there was nothing at all there; the woman had the things all cleaned out. I mean the housekeeper. I think I saw the defendant two days before I saw her in the station house. I did not see her the evening the things were missing. I passed her on the stairs going out and in while she was in that place; it might be two or three times a day. He occupied a room separate from me. I had nothing to say to her. He was never in my room and I was not in his. He was there two weeks and I was there only one week. I could not tell you the day I saw the shoes on her feet. When did you forget all this about the shoes? I did not forget at all. I told you at first. I have not any more to say.
 Did you tell the officer anything about the shoes? No I did not tell him. He questioned the lady of the house about bundles, and the lady of the house said she (the defendant) had nothing only she got a new pair of shoes. I did not hear anything said by anybody in the station house about shoes. The officer was questioning the lady, but he did not question me; I had nothing to say. Officer Carey is mistaken when he said that I told him the defendant came into the house with a pair of new shoes.

When you were served with a subpoena Friday to come down here today do you remember what you said to the officer? Yes. He said if I did not come down he would put me in the penitentiary. I said to him, the penitentiary and him might go to the devil. I did not want to come down here again I had been here so many times before. How old a lady are you? I do not know. I would not tell you if I did know. When I was asked to come down here I told Officer Carey I did not want to come. My car fare was not paid. I have told you everything I know about the case. I have never spoken to the lawyer of the defendant about the case until I came on the stand to testify.

Mary J. Gallagher, sworn and examined in her own behalf testified: I lived at 352 Fourth Avenue when I was arrested. I remember engaging with Mrs. Simms in answer to an advertisement; she asked me if I was a good washer and ironer and I said, yes; she said, you look healthy and strong, and I said, yes.
 She asked me where I lived and I said on Fourth Avenue. She did not ask me for any reference; she engaged me to come for the first week on trial. I asked her if her girl was gone. I did not care about going Saturday. She said she was going to night. I said, I will come tomorrow morning. She said, you need not come until nine o'clock. I was to have twelve dollars a month. She said, you can go home when your work is done, you have got nothing to do in the basement whatsoever; the chamber work you have to do for each floor and after each floor is done you can go home. I will see to the baby myself in the day time. On Wednesday this gentleman came from the Hoffmann house about ten o'clock and enquired for the madam. I was up stairs at the time, and I came down

She told me to take him up and show him a small hall bed room. I did so and we came down stairs again. I do not know what passed between him and Mr. Simms. He went away and came back within half an hour and a man came with him carrying his trunk. I got two suits of clothes from him to air. I brought them down and hung them on the line in the yard. I brought them up and put them in his room. I was through with my work and I went home. I went out of the front door and took a little washing with me belonging to ~~the~~ a lady in the house and returned Friday or Saturday with it. She was not in a very great hurry for it. I was walking over in Sixth Avenue going to the residence of Mr. Nelson to get a cup of tea when the husband of the lady (Mr. Simms) said, "Mary, do you live in Twenty Fourth St?" I turned and said, "No." "Did you work for my wife?" I said, "yes Mr. Sir." "I am going to have you arrested." I said, "there is two spears over there." and I went right with them. When I was brought to the Police Court the Judge asked me what I done with the clothes, and I told him, and he told me to go home; he could make no case, and I was discharged. Mr. Carey arrested me Saturday night. I never told Carey I worked in Bloomington's. I told him I worked at Clark's in Broadway five years shirt making. I was two years with 'Keaps' and I worked in Sixty First St. I told Carey that I have never been convicted of crime and have never been in the penitentiary. I never stood in a station house before this charge. I am married, and my husband works in a dining room at 5 Greenwich Ave. he is working there going on three months. Cross examined. I did not deny in the station house that he was my husband; his name is Michael Gallagher. I went by the same name in Fourth Avenue. It was a great mistake a boat Mrs. Brown. They asked me where I was born, and I told them I was born on the ocean. Mr. McFlain asked me why I did not take the name of the steamer. I said I did not know, it was so long ago. I said it was Brown. I had no idea it was going to turn out to anything at the time. Before I was employed by Mrs. Simms I came down from Cornwall on the Hudson. I told Officer Carey that too I was on a visit to Mrs. Dalton, and prin to that I was in Connecticut three months with Mrs. Andrews. I lived nearly two years at Andover with Mrs. P. Grote; she is a widow lady. I worked there six months. Then I went to live with Mrs. Donaldson at 104 East Tenth street; she moved to Fifty Sixth Street and Madison Avenue. I asked Cary to go there. I worked nine months for Mrs. Donaldson; she kept a boarding house. I used to stay with my sister when I came back and forth to the city; she lives on the west side. I don't care about giving her name. I don't want her to know anything about it. I do not think my husband has been in court today; he is very busy in a restaurant; he has been around here for a week. I never worked in Twenty Fifth Street. I remember giving Officer Cary an address in East 25th St. 116, Mrs. Ruby's house. When I lived in Tenth St. Mary Ryan lived with me there; he went and asked for Gallagher; they told him no, that was not my name. I went to see this girl. I did not live in there. I went there for a couple of days and I stopped there with her. It was before I went to Mrs. Simms. I did not stay in Mrs. Simms because the work did not suit me.

The defendant pleaded guilty to petty larceny.
