City and County } ss:
of New York,

Gus Tuzze

of No. 64 Catherine Street, aged 28 years, occupation Bartender being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 27 day of April 1891 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the night time, the following property, viz:One gold watch of the value of $50. Good and lawful money

Court of General Sessions of the Peace OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, AGAINST

William H. Dunn

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

of the CRIME OF Grand LARCENY in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said William H. Dunn

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the ninth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ~~eighty ninety one~~, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud one Ellen Harmon of the proper moneys, goods chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said

Ellen Harmon

That the said William H. Dunn was then engaged in the flour business; that he had purchased in Brooklyn, in the said State, then lately before five hundred barrels of flour for which he had agreed to pay the sum of fifteen hundred dollars; that by paying for the same at once he would, according to an arrangement he had made, be entitled to a reduction of any dollars, in and purchase price; that he then had a sum of money toward the amount necessary to pay for said glass but lacked the sum of one hundred and seventy five dollars thereby; and that it was then necessary that he should obtain such sum of one hundred and seventy five dollars in order to make up the amount of such price and secure such reduction therein. —

0096

And the said Edwin Tarnon — then and ^{there} ~~there~~ believing the said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said William H. Dunn — and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said William H. Dunn, the sum of one hundred and seventy five dollars in money, lawful money of the United States of America and of the value of one hundred and seventy five dollars, of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said

— Edwin Tarnon —

And the said William H. Dunn — did then and there feloniously receive and obtain the said proper moneys, goods, chattels, and personal property, from the possession of the said Edwin Tarnon, — by color and by aid of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations aforesaid, with intent to deprive and defraud the said Edwin Tarnon, — of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said William H. Dunn was not then engaged in the glass business, and he had not purchased in Brooklyn aforesaid the lot of one hundred

he had not agreed to pay the sum of fifteen hundred dollars; and he had not made any arrangement according to which he would be entitled to a reduction of sixty dollars in and purchase price of property for the same at once; and he did not then have a sum of money toward the amount necessary to pay to said person, and did not have the sum of one hundred and seventy five dollars ready; and it was not then necessary that he should obtain the said sum of one hundred and seventy five dollars in order to make up the amount of cash price and secure such reduction therein.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said William H. Dunn to the said Ellen Tarnon was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as she the said
 William H. Dunn
 at the time of making the same then and there well knew

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said
 in the manner and form aforesaid, by the means aforesaid, the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Ellen Tarnon, then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.
