John Henry Dixon

Scout of General Sessions. Before Judge Cowing. November 30. 1880.
Indictment for grand larceny of money.
Robert Casson, sworn and examined. I carry on a private despatch for the delivery of letters, notices, books; it is called "Hussey's Special Message Express." I am the proprietor and active Manager and was so in the 1st of July. I know the prisoner; he was employed by me a year before he took my money; it might be nine months. I do not know exactly; he was a messenger doing anything I wanted him to do.
The general duties of my office is the delivery of letters, books and special messages - money, drafts, anything that the banks employ me to do; the prisoner was in my employ on the 1st of July. I remember that date perfectly. I entrusted him with money to deliver that day the money was brought into my by the receiving teller of the Bank of New York to take up town to 33 Union Square, A. A. Patton. I filled out the receipt myself, made it out and attached it to the letter, so that he could get this signed when he delivered the letter. All the writing matter was on the receipt when I gave it to him; this in pencil is Dixon's.
"Hussey's Instant Special ~~Message~~ Post, 54 Pine Street, basement, near William 03 15

The Messenger must obtain the time on delivering the message. Date, July 1, 1880. Residence or business place, 33 Union Square. "Then the time of delivery; hour 1.50 (in pencil) Messenger, Dixon." In pencil; signature of receiver, in pencil. A. A. Patton, Jr. E. R. "It probably might be one o'clock when I gave this to him; he went away with it. Then he came back he had to go to Forty Second St. after he had gone there. I should judge he was gone two hours. Then he returned he gave me the receipt. I asked him if he delivered the letter all safe. I believed he had delivered it, I considered the receipt was all right when he said so to me. Then he fixed up all the other work he had to deliver on the line of Broadway; he bundled up his books and letters and small packages and I never saw him again after that. I did not see him for some months. I next saw him on the 19th of Nov. at 42 Wall St. at the house of Mr. Donaldson; an officer from the 8th precinct in uniform. I went in and looked around. I saw several persons sitting there. I did not see the man that I wanted to see. The prisoner was in my employ as a servant. I gave him $3.00 to deliver in a sealed envelope. Cross examined. I deliver magazines from Harpers, Scribners, Appletons. I do not deliver heavy freight, but light valuable packages by special messengers sent from my office. Sometimes I have twenty five and sometimes I have thirty messengers; they are selected by myself as a rule. I have regular routes for my men to take. I have men in my employ that I have had for a dozen years; sometimes I have got them from the Young Men's Christian Association. I do not pick them up in the street. I am very careful about that. I get recommendations from men. I do not take them without some sort of representation as to their character. I thought the prisoner had a good character; when I took him he was recommended to me. I have given him money letters before this and he delivered them safely; he went up to the Fort St. George Depot with the coupons. but that had nothing to do with the letter. I do not know personally that my messengers signed receipts themselves when they deliver tickets for lectures and circulars. I don't you know sometimes when you have had a number of these invitations or tickets to send out that messengers if they have been obliged to wait sign them themselves? They ask the servant girl their name and when the servant could not write they accept a cross for the receipts but not for money letters. After he came back I sent him with other work up

Broadway Was that delivered? Not that I know of, for I found a package of those things in a liquor store in West Broadway and have the package in my office of letters and books that the prisoner never delivered. I paid Dixon seven dollars a week and he used to get some money for addressing circulars and things of that kind; he used to make two dollars extra. I don't remember reducing his wages to six. I could tell by my books, I might have done it. I think I was kind to him in giving him all the money I could spare him for the work he did. I know Mr. Patton; that is the gentleman (positively being) Amos A. Patton, sworn and examined, testified I am a singing teacher. my place of business is 33 Union Square; private pupils come to that place over Decker Bros. I reside in Hartford, Conn. I have occupied rooms at Union Square for seven years. Do you know the prisoner at the bar? No sir, I have never seen him. Will you look at that signature there, is that in your handwriting? No sir.
 Was that signed by your directions? Never under any circumstances. Did you receive any money by Husey's Special agency Post on the 1st of July? No sir, no envelope. Did you receive anything from this man? No sir.
 I never saw him until I saw him at the Police Court.

0318

John M. Dixon, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I have lived 184 Spring St before my arrest; previous to the 1st of July I was employed by Hussey's Express, I was engaged there close on twelve months. I am an Englishman. I have been about two years in this city and I was two years and a half in Montreal. On the 1st of July I was sent with two messages, one with a letter and the other with six hundred dollars worth of coupons payable to bearer. I had to take the letter with the coupons to the Grand Central Depot. I had this letter for Union Square with me at the same time. I took the letter as I was directed and put it into my inside coat pocket. I put the other letter in the outside pocket with the receipt. I went direct by the Elevated Railway to Forty Second St. I was ordered if I saw one of our messengers there to give him the coupons. These coupons were payable to bearer. I gave him the coupons. I had to take a certified check up to Murray Hill and to bring the check down to the office again, also with the receipt for a letter I was going to deliver. I got the check certified and took the Elevated Railway to Fourteenth St and Third Avenue with the intention of delivering this letter. When I put my hand in my pocket for the letter I lost the letter.

0319

or it was taken from me. That was the letter purporting to have three hundred dollars in it. I was told to be careful with the coupons but I was not told to be careful with the letter. I have been in the habit of delivering letters of little value, hundreds of them, and of receiving and delivering money. I have had perhaps four or five hundred dollars at one time in money and larger amounts in checks almost every day. When I returned to the office I signed the receipt because I did not think the letter was valuable. I have signed receipts before by the proprietor's directions. Suppose you had fifty or sixty letters to take several blocks in the city you could not get through if you had to wait at every house until these receipts were signed; they keep you standing outside, we have to sign them ourselves to get rid of them the best way we can; we have to sign the name of the girl who is standing at the door. The proprietor has hundreds of these receipts signed so in his possession. I came back to the office with the certified check and then I was told that the letter contained three hundred dollars. He gave me my afternoon routes. I went out, I afterwards went to 42nd St. to see if I could find anything of the letter. I could not. I left my bundle of letters that I ought to have delivered in a place and then I went up town. I could not find the letter. I was advised then to keep out of the way. That is the transaction. It was between one and two o'clock in the afternoon when I was at the Grand Central depot. Did you ever have any of that money? No sir, not a cent of it. Did you ever see any of those bills? I never knew there was any in it and I never touched one of them. If there was any money in the envelope you lost it?

Yes sir. ~~Cross~~ Examined. The envelope was sealed and I lost it. Occasionally the receipts are pasted on the envelope. I found the receipt in my pocket. I could not say whether the receipt was handed me separate from the envelope that day or not. I found the receipt in my outside pocket where the letter was. I found that when I got down to Fourteenth St. and Third Avenue. The letters after Mr. Pittors name look like Ch. K. I cannot say what that means. I don't know that I ever put those three letters there. I don't know whether I put those letters on or not. I may possibly. I think I signed it in the Elevated Railway carriage coming down leaving Fourteenth St. I did not know what the letter contained, and being a special messenger. I could not tell how it would go with me. Then I got back to the office and they told me it was $300. that is the reason I did it. I left the letters that were given me in a liquor store corner of Leonard St. and West Broadway. I left them with the bar man. I was in New York city about 16 or 17 months before I went into the employ of Murray Special Agency Post. I was employed by Mr. Douglas in a similar business to Mr. Harris in Broadway. I also addressed envelopes and was canvassing in the city as well. I have been married about thirteen months. After this happened I went to Philadelphia and came back to New York five or six weeks ago. I will be 33 years old next birthday. I was born in England, Colne, Lancashire. In March 1879 I applied to the Young Men's Christian Association for employment. I filled out a printed form. I wrote the name of my former employer, S. J. Watts, dry goods, Manchester, England; that I was an assistant bookkeeper; that the salary I would expect would be ninety pounds sterling. I could not refer to any one in this country as to business experience and character. I walked to Philadelphia because I had no money. I canvassed for Singers Sewing Machine in Montreal. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny with a recommendation to mercy. State prison: two years and six months.

The People. Court of General Sessions. Before John Donohue Recorder Smythe. December 8. 1880.
 Indictment for grand larceny and receiving stolen goods.
 Francis Keleher, sworn and examined, testified: I am a barber and do business at 71 James Street. I know the prisoner two or three years to my knowledge. I missed twenty seven razors and a pair of scissors. I valued them at forty dollars.
 I saw some of them that day afterwards. I saw the prisoner that day; he came into my place; he heard that I was after him. I asked him about the razors. I told him I would have him arrested on suspicion; he said he did not take them; he went away. I did not see him until I found a razor with him up in his own house; it was in the afternoon, somewhere around two o'clock. I went up to his place at 67 James St. I got the razor with him. He said he did not take it, that the other barber gave it to him; he took it out of his pocket.
 I don't know the name of the other barber; he works for me. Mr. O'Brien sent after me and gave me thirteen razors and I recovered eleven more in the Trunks from Mr. Donohue and a stick of cosmetic and he told me where two more razors were; that would make the whole number; he told me the other two were in a pawn office in Grand St.; he told me the office was a couple of doors from using them myself. They were worth from a dollar to two dollars; there is some of them I would not give for three dollars. I don't know the market value of them. I don't know what I could get for them. I never peddled any second-hand razors and I don't know their market value; they were all good razors. A good razor lasts from four to five years sometimes. I found thirteen razors in his room and one in his pocket. I don't know where they were in his room. O'Brien gave them to me; he sent after me.

Jeremiah O'Brien, sworn and examined testified. Where do you live? No 67 James street. Do you know the prisoner John Donohue?

Yes sir. How long have you known him? He is stopping with me about twelve months in my place; the prisoner has occupied a room in my house for the last year. I know Francis Cleghar, the last witness. Do you remember his coming to your house, do you remember finding some razors in your house about the 16th of November? Yes sir.

I was up stairs in my room the 16th of last month. How many razors did you find? Fourteen razors. I was told the razors were down stairs and they were stole from Cleghar. I went down stairs and

Donohue, the prisoner, called me in a private room. He asked me would I buy a razor off him? I said, "I will, let me see them." He showed me the razor, and on the handle of this razor was M. and two G.'s. I said, "I know all about them razors, you had better give them back; they belong to the barber next door. What did he say to that?" He says, "Dont 'squeal' on me." "No, if you will get and give back the razors; if you dont, I will squeal right away." I said, "So he went down stairs and I found fourteen razors in the closet of the room which he occupied; they were put in a stone jar. I took and laid them on my table and I went after Mr. Keleher and he came up to my room and I showed him the razors and the same time Donohue came back again to his own room and Mr. Keleher and I went down stairs. He identified the razors. Donohue was in his own room at this time. Mr. Keleher asked him if he had any more razors? He said, "No, that he had no razors at all belonging to me. I said, "There is the razor you were selling to me a few moments ago?" He said, "I was not selling you any razors. So Mr. Keleher spoke to him 'nice'; and he handed him one razor. I said, "that is into the shop three times over was me not the same razor you were selling to me a few minutes ago. I showed that razor to Keleher and he said it was his. Cross Examined. The prisoner paid his way on the 15th; he was in the Tubs on the 16th; he was at my place on the night of the 15th. I remember the day he found the razors, he was in my house the night before. Thomas Tierney, sworn and examined. I am an officer of the Municipal Police attached to the Fourth Precinct. I arrested the prisoner in front of 67 James St. I said to him, Did you take these razors? He told me he did not. The complainant insisted that he had taken them and on that I took him to the Station house. He said he did not have them, but on the way over to the police court he told Keleher that he would get him his razors. He did not say where he had them. I did not hear him say to the complainant that he would try and find the journeyman and see if he could not get them. John Donohue, sworn and examined, testified in his own behalf. I am a cooper and it has been my business to go round and mend tubs for five years. I have never been arrested before. I did not take the razors. On the night of the 16th Tuesday night I was standing in front of 67 James St. when Keleher's journeyman came out and went into

0336

0337

Mark Lanigan's liquor store and got a bottle of whiskey there. He came out and went into the alleyway, put the bottle to his head and took a swallow out of the bottle and went down into the front door of the barber shop and put the bottle to his head and finished it and came up as far as the store again and he stood there talking to some man that was there, I don't know the man; he was a young man; he talked a little while and went into Lanigan's and got the bottle refilled again. He came out, went in front of the door, and took a drink. He commenced to talk to some woman right there by the coal box. After a while he went into the barber shop, I don't know what he 'done' when he went into the barber shop; he came out again and went into Lanigan's and filled the bottle again; then he was getting to be quite lively; he was feeling as though he could kick everybody that came along, he was calling high names. I told him to go into the store and not be insulting people that way or he would get hurt. I put him into the store once and he came out again; he was determined that he was going to have a woman. That was about 11 1/2 on Tuesday night or 1/2 to 12; he sat on the box calling names and using vulgar language. I put him into the shop three times that was the last

I seen' him. I went over to 53 Oliver St. (I did not stay at 67 James St.) and paid my lodging and went to bed. The next morning I went over to 67 and got my hoops and hammer and went to work as far as Fourteenth St. I came down by 12 o'clock and left my hoops in Sanigan's and left the hammer behind the bar. A young man there told me Keleher was looking for me, that he had lost some razors, and was going to have me locked up. I went into the barber shop. Mr. Keleher was not in, the journeyman was there and two young men. I waited till Mr. Keleher came in; the journeyman put on his coat and walked out before that. Keleher said he would have me arrested on suspicion. I told him he might as well have the journeyman arrested as me. I went up stairs to see Mrs.

Nolan. I found a razor which I gave to Mr. Keleher. Afterwards met the journeyman and he gave me eleven razors and a stick of cosmetic; he told me there was two razors in the pawn shop with the name of John Wilson upon them and a pair of shears. In the afternoon Mr. Keleher came to the Tomb, in the afternoon and I gave him the eleven razors and the stick of cosmetic and told him I got them from the journeyman. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of receiving stolen goods knowing them to have been stolen. He was sent to the penitentiary for eighteen months.

 The People v. John ^{Dumphy} { Court of General Sessions. Before Indictment for petty larceny from the person. Judge Cowing. November 5. 1880.

Eugene Rernoud, sworn and examined, testi-fied through the interpreter. I live with a friend 143 Thompson st. since I arrived from Philadelphia.
 Did you see the prisoner at the bar on the 30th day of Oct., if so where? Yes sir, it was at the restaurant where I had something to eat. I do not know the name of the street; it was about 8 or 9 o'clock in the evening; the prisoner came into the restaurant and went out again. I had when I went into the restaurant two five dollar bills, two one dollar bills and some change; twelve dollars and some change; it was in a rubber bag. I had it in my left vest pocket; he tore the vest when he took the money. As I was about to put my money back into the pocket the prisoner got hold of it and tore it out of my hand and at the same time I received a blow at the side of my eye from the prisoner; he tore the vest by taking the money forcibly. What did the prisoner do after he took the money? He ran away very fast and I ran after him and did not lose sight of him. I screamed out in French, "thief, thief;" then a police officer came and arrested him. I followed the prisoner immediately; he was the only one running. I ran after him and he was arrested on the spot here. I am certain the prisoner is the man I did not receive the money, but I saw some money exhibited in the Police Court. Cross Examined. I was only in the restaurant once that day. I did not go into the restaurant, then go out and then come back again, the prisoner went out first and I went out afterwards. Did you and the prisoner have a scuffle or any words or did anything occur between you while you were in the restaurant? No sir, I only recognized him afterwards that he was the same man that was in the restaurant. My money was taken on the sidewalk not far from the restaurant door. How far did he get away before you captured him? About two blocks. How long was it after the prisoner left the saloon before you left it? We went out five minutes before me. I did not see the prisoner until he took my money. I did not see him after he came out of the restaurant until he grabbed my money. It was a very short distance from the door of the restaurant. No 143 Thompson St is not a restaurant, it is a private house where a friend of mine lives. I asked where the man lived and I was told that was the number.

0372

Michael Lally, sworn and examined, testified I am an officer of police attached to the 9th precinct and I arrested the prisoner on the 30th of October about 10 minutes to 12. I was on duty on West St. near Christopher on Saturday night. I saw the prisoner and the complainant tussling; the prisoner seemed to be trying to get away, he got loose from him; the complainant screamed very loud in French, I could not understand him; the prisoner ran across Christopher St. through Weehawken St. pursued by me into Tenth and into West St. again, and there I caught him; he was still running. I asked him what he was running away for? He told me he was afraid of the Frenchman. I says, "there must be something else in it." I took the Frenchman, who was there at that time, back to get an interpreter, and on the way back the prisoner said, "I did not take it, but I knew who did." Then we got back to the place the prisoner said that he knew who took the money. Had you said anything about money when he made that remark? No sir. I knew there was something wrong; the Frenchman was excited. As soon as I found out that the complainant lost money I took them both to the station house. I searched the prisoner and I found five dollars; he handed it to me; it was not in

0373

John Dunphy, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I board in West Tenth St.; my home is 95th St. and Lexington and Third ave. I lived in 95th St. nine years. I have never been arrested before. I work at the U.S. weighers; it runs from Houston St. N.R. up as far as 79th St. My foreman is Patrick Hayes. I have worked there over two years. I remember meeting the complainant in this case. I did not steal anything from him and had nothing to do with stealing money from him. As I was going to a lager beer saloon corner of West Tenth and West Sts. I met the complainant; he asked for two glasses of lager and he caught hold of me by the arm. I took him away up Christopher St. to a Frenchman ~~who~~ said to me I ought to give him to an officer; he was going around crazy; he did not have a hat; the Frenchman gave him a straw hat. Then I got up to Christopher St. he took hold of me and tore my vest and said I took his money; I never saw it; the man was never in a restaurant; he treated me and gave me a glass of beer and a cigar. I ran through Christopher to Mechanic St. and officer Lalley told me to stop at West Tenth St. The money that was taken from me when I was arrested I got for working. I only saw a two dollar bill with the complainant. I do not think I told the officer I knew who took the money. A verdict of guilty was rendered. He was sent to the State Prison for five years.
