----- x
Indictment filed Feb. 3, 1893.

Indicted for burglary in the third degree.

New York, Feb. 13, 1893.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People, Asst. Dist. Atty. Vernon M. Davis;

For the Defendant, H. J. Chanler, Esq.

HENRY GOLDBERG, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 1855 Third Avenue in this city.

I keep a tailor store at that number. I kept that store there on the 29th. day of last January. My store is on the ground floor and I live upstairs. I closed my store on the 29th. of January at one o'clock in the afternoon. There were two bolts and one lock on the front door. The entire place was securely fastened. All the windows and doors were locked. I had a large quantity of clothing in that store. I live in Lexington Avenue between 102d. and 103d. Streets. I went home and did not return to my store again until Monday morning. When I came to my store on that morning I found that the door was open and an officer was there. I examined my stock and found that four pair of old pants and two pair of new ones were missing. They were of the value of about $16. Four coats of the value of about $50 were also missing from my store. Afterwards at the Police Station I identified my goods.

CHARLES BLACK, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer of this city. On the 29th. day of January at eleven o'clock I arrested the defendant in 106th. Street between Third and Lexington Avenue. A lady spoke to me about the case. She told me that this lad had left some clothes in a candy store. I went in the candy store and I found this boy tying up some clothes in a bundle that was on the floor. I asked him where he got them. He said two men gave them to him. I asked him where those men got them and he said he did not know. I told him then he had better come to the Station House with me and explain the case there. I asked him several times who the men were who gave him these clothes, and he would not inform me. The clothes that I found in the possession of this defendant were subsequently identified by the complainant Goldberg as part of the property taken from his store. The premises referred to are in the Twelfth Ward of this city.

DEFENSE.

EDITH BEECKMAN, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I live at 180 East 108th. Street. I remember the night that my son was arrested. I saw him at ten minutes past ten in my own house. He left the house and said he was going to the corner. At about twenty minutes to eleven two men came to my house and asked for my son. I went out afterwards and found that he had been placed under arrest. The doctor says my boy has the symptoms of meningitis.

GEORGE P. BRECHMAN, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I have never been convicted of any crime. I remember the night that I was arrested. I met two men. One was an Irishman named Pat Moore, and they gave me these clothes. When I met them they asked me if I wanted to make a half a dollar, and I said yes. Then they told me to bring this bundle of clothes into the candy store and tell the lady there to mind it for them. They got a piece of paper and wrapped the clothes up and I brought them into the candy store. While I was in the candy store an officer came in and arrested me. I had nothing whatever to do with the selling of these clothes.

Cross-examination:

It was about half past ten at night when I met these two men. As a rule I stay in the house at night, but this night I simply went out to take a walk before going to bed. The men told me to wait in the candy store until they would come there. One of the men was known to me by the name of Dutch. I did not know him by any other name. The only reason why I did not tell the officer the names of these men was that I did not know their correct names.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty of burglary in the third degree.

I have satisfied in form of Examination made by me in this case. That the defendant came into possession of the property & neither knew the thief nor that it had been stolen. There can then be no connection the element of felonious in this case. I must therefore recommend the
