Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County of New York, ss:

Matthias Beyer

of No. 74 Pike Street, aged 34 years, occupation Stable-man being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 28 day of June 1892 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

watch and chain of the value of Seven dollars

the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by from his person Jerry Drehn (now here) for the reason that on said date deponent had the said watch in the pocket of his vest and attached by a chain. Deponent fell asleep and when he woke he found that the said property had been stolen. Deponent is informed by Officer James J. Farrell of the Park Police that he saw the defendant run away from the seat in Battery Park where deponent was sitting. Said Farrell ran and caught the defendant and found said watch and chain which deponent identifies as his property in the possession of the defendant. Wherefore deponent charges the defendant with larceny from the person.
