- - - - -

The above named defendant was indicted on the 19th. of August, 1885, on the complaint of Samuel P. Grocock, for assault in the third degree, committed upon said Grocock on the 13th day of August, 1885.

City and County of New York, SS.

Theodore S. Littell, being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:- I know the above named defendant, and was present on the 13th. day of August, 1885 at the time when the above complainant alleges that he was assaulted by the defendant. The alleged assault took place in front of number 122 Warren street, this city. I occupy the lower floor of said building in my business of flour, feed and grain, The upper floors are occupied by James S. Barron and CO., as a place of storage. At the time stated I was standing on the sidewalk in front of said store. The outer part of the side-walk was lined with mattresses which had been taken out of the storage place above my store, leaving a distance of about five feet between the mattresses and the stoop of the building. Mr. Samuel P. Grocock, the complainant came along the side walk and passed the elevator, which was then in use bringing down these mattresses, from the upper part of the building. The defendant was standing on the side-walk in front of the elevator receiving the mattresses as Mr. Grocock passed the elevator. The men upon the elevator lifted the mattress from the elevator preparatory to throwing it upon the side-walk. The defendant seeing that the complainant was immediately under the mattress and was unobserved by those who had hold of the mattress, lifted his hands and pushed it as if to prevent it from falling upon the complainant, not succeeding in holding it up, it fell over and fell upon ~~the~~^{the} head of the complainant and pushed him against the line of mattresses on the outer part of the side-walk. The complainant was angry. Jefferson, the defendant released Mr. Grocock immediately by lifting the bale and thereupon Mr. Grocock assaulted Mr. Jefferson, the defendant, striking him a number of times, and Jefferson kept retreating about the length of my store - I should think about 15 feet. Mr. Jefferson the defendant, did not raise his hands. I think it is one of those things which is unavoidable with the very best of care. Had Mr. Jefferson used any bad language to Mr. Grocock, then he could have some reason. - I believe the whole matter was a pure accident. I further state that I am one of the bondsmen of the defendant, having been induced to become his bondsman through my sympathy for him, and my belief ~~is~~^{being} that it was purely accidental. Prior to this occurrence I had no acquaintance-ship whatsoever with the said defendant, he ^{being} simply a laboring man up stairs in the store-house.
