v.
Bridget Leo.

{ Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Recorder Smyth.

Wednesday, May 6, 1885.

Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree.

Catherine Weber sworn. I live 1121 Madison Avenue, the defendant was in my employ as a servant, I remember the 23rd of April last, I had a silk wrap in my ward-robe which is in the dressing-room between the front and the back room, second floor, I bought it last year for sixty dollars, I had seen it last at eight o'clock in the morning and missed it between eleven and twelve, I put it in my ward-robe on the top of my clothes, the ward-robe was not locked, I got everything ready to go out, went down stairs and had my breakfast, I went upstairs about half past eleven and I missed my wrap; when I went in Bridget came out of my room, she had no business in my room at all, I asked her what she did in my room and she said she tried to clean the windows but it was too warm, she rushed right out, I looked all over for my wrap and could not find it, at the time I had no stranger in the house except Bridget, I watched her and I found around her waist that it was pretty stout, stouter than before I missed my wrap, I touched her and said, what have you got here? She said, my corset steels are broken and they are sticking out. I watched her and by and by we went to lunch and soon after we sat down she ran to the cellar, I went over on the sly and just saw her when she pulled up her skirts and apron and she dropped my wrap, she picked it up and threw it over a big pile of wood, I picked up my wrap and said, I caught you, that is the wrap I am missing. She screamed and I said, what are you doing here, come out of here.

She said, I want to get some wood for to-morrow morning, I told her we did not want any wood; she went upstairs and hollered and screamed, she took a basket and tried to throw that against me, I went away, she staid in the kitchen and afterwards she went up in the room and locked herself up till the policeman came. She said she did not take the wrap and did not know anything about it, I have four daughters and they were in the house; she had no authority to take that wrap from my ward-robe.

Cross Examined. The defendant was in my employ about three weeks, I intended to send her away, she never complained to me about my son attempting to insult her and that she could not remain there, she did general housework but she had nothing to do in that room and had no right to go in there, I followed her down stairs into the cellar, there was a wood pile in the cellar, I saw her take the wrap from her skirt and apron and throw it behind the wood pile. She denied that she had the wrap there.

David Kegney sworn. I am a police officer attached to the 23rd precinct, I remember the 23rd of April last when I arrested Bridget Leo on the complaint of Mrs. Weber at her residence 1121 Madison Avenue, charged with stealing a wrap, I was called in by a messenger boy at the corner of 84th Street and Madison Avenue and I went with him to the house of Mrs. Weber, I asked her where the servant was and she told me the top floor; when I went up I found the door locked, I rapped two or three times and finally the defendant came to the door, she was under the influence of liquor, she did not take the wrap at all.

Bridget Leo sworn and examined in her own behalf.

I am in the Tombs since I was arrested from Mrs. Weber's place; on the 16th of April I went to live with Mrs. Weber and engaged with her for a month for fourteen dollars and I was content in it until the Wednesday night following when her son came into my room and woke me up, I got up and put on my clothes, he got hold of me and I screamed, he said he would choke me if I screamed but if I kept still he would go out of the room, I put on my clothes and sat in the room till five o'clock in the morning and then I came down stairs and I did not want to go out of the house for fear they would say why did she go. Mrs. Weber came down and I told her I would not stay in her house, that I would go that afternoon; she said, I would not leave her without a girl, I said if you give me a thousand dollars I would not stay another night in your house. When I came down stairs Miss Weber said to me, there is two silver knives I cannot find, I said I don't know anything about them, she found them after that. Mrs. Weber said to me, you look very bulky and I took off my apron and in the presence of the daughter and showed her where my corset was broken; she sent me down with a clothes basket to the cellar and came down after me and said, I got you now, you stole my wrap; she had it in her hand and I never laid my hand on it till I seen it in her hands, I had not it when I went to the cellar; I am twenty-one years old and the young man was bigger than me. Before I went to this house I lived at 551 West 53rd Street, I never was arrested before and never was in a court room in my life, I was not drunk that day, I had amonia on my head, .

02 11

page. The above was examined in per. and report

Micheal Leo sworn. The defendant is my sister I have been in the country two years and she has been here three years and six months, she was never arrested for any crime, she was in one place all the time nearly two years, she lived with Mrs. Bulger 642 Lexington Avenue and she went to Mrs. Green, she told me she got up in the morning after the night the young fellow wanted to go into her room.

Catherine Weber recalled. My son is twenty years of age, the defendant never told me anything in regard to his going into her room the night before.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.
