Police Court—Third District.

Harriet M. Nash. of No. 99 Clinton Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says that on the 19th day of July 18 80 - at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away from the possession of deponent, the following property viz.: One double case gold watch of the value of Eighty Dollars the property of Her parent.

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect; and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Michael Egan. now present. That while riding in Avenue D, in a car, said watch was pulled by the chain from her bosom. That as she caught hold of the man by the left hand, he pulled her into the street, where she fell. That depon-ent's daughter informed her, that the said Michael was the person in the car whom her deponent had told of.

City of Lowell, Mass., M. Nash of 29 Clinton Street, being sworn says, that she identifies Michael Pagnani, ^{now called} as the man whom she saw on the 19 July 1880, in a car with defendant and her mother: and is positive she is the man whom her mother had hold of, at the time the match in question was stolen, and who dragged her mother into the street from said car.

Cred. by Court for Def. St.
The prison was draped in a blue sheet, and suspenders, straw (what?)

I did not say this morning that he had on blue suspenders.

The officer told me he thought he had the man and asked me if I could identify him.

This man was brought out with three or four others - all draped in prison garb. I picked out the prisoner - as the man who stole my mother's watch.

I did not express any doubt as to the man. I said he was the man as soon as I saw him.

I saw this man jump off the car after my mother's watch was taken. He struggled with my mother. I was excited.
